12C

Easy Money Make the most of low interest

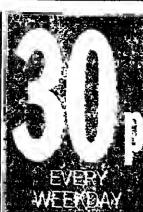

Anne Ashworth page 15

Chris Moon, marathon man Kidnapped by the Khmer Rouge

page 17

Tiger Woods The fears of his father page 42

Cynical ceasefire 'just a ploy'

Nato rejects deal as exiles top a million

BY MICHAEL EVANS, TOM WALKER IN BELGRADE AND CHARLES BREMNER

AN OFFER from Belgrade to "Te begin a unilateral ceasefire in "" Kosovo from 7pm last night was rejected out of hand by Nato government leaders, who claimed it was simply a * ploy to stop the airstrikes.

The sudden announcement - of a ceasefire came after a day in which Nato aircraft carried is out the largest number of - bombing sorties so far in the air campaign. The alliance also warned that the next attacks would be even bigger, piling the pressure on President Milosevic.

.-. The ceasefire announce-: ... ment was made in a joint state-... nent from the Federal Yugoday and Serbian govern-nents. It said the 400,000 ethic Albanian refugees in neighpouring countries would be alowed home.

A Ministry of Defence official said that 1.1 million out of atotal ethnic Albanian population of L8 million had now berefugees since the civil 👱 war in Kosovo began about a

Vuk Draskovic, the Yugoslav Deputy Prime Minister, was quoted as saying that troop levels in Kosovo would be reduced and all forces would return to their barracks before the ceasefire started. He also said Belgrade would allow some form of international involvement in enforc----ing a peace settlement but ---- there was no commitment to having foreign troops in the

> Downing Street said that Mr Draskovic, who went on Yugoslav state television to discuss the ceasefire, had "zero

The Belgrade statement also offered a "temporary agreement with Ibrahim Rugova, the moderate ethnic Albanian leader who has been under Yugoslav military "protection" since the bombing began. The temporary temporary arrangement would be the basis for a "final agreement" on Kosovo, the statement said. A Downing Street spokes-man said: "It doesn't go nearly far enough. Milosevic knows what he has to do and this falls way short of that. Until Milosevic fulfills the conditions Nato

1	TV & RADIO42,43
ı	WEATHER22
ı	CROSSWORDS22,44
J	LETTERS19
J	OBITUARIES2I
Ì	JAMES PETTIFER18
Į	ARTS32-34
l	CHESS & BRIDGE38
Ì	COURT & SOCIAL20
ľ	LAW REPORT37
1	FEATURES15-17
ł	BUSINESS 23-29

Buying The Times overseas
Austria Sch S0: Relgium B Frs 110; Canada
33:50 Conaries Pts 400; Cyprus CEI 20; Denmark Dkr 22:00; Findand Frnk 30:50; France
Rt 17:00; Germany DM 5:50; Gibraliar 40p;
Greec Dr 750; Netherlands Fi 6:30; Italy L
5:000; Luxiembourg LI 110; Madeira Esc 330;
Multa 80c; Marocco Dir 20:00; Norway Kr
5:00; Fortugal Esc 350; Spain Pts 400; Sweden Skr 25:00; Switzerland S Frs 6:00; Turniska Din 3,200; USA $3:50.
Pernoficials Postage Paid at Rahway Nj Post-

Penodicals Postage Paid at Rahway Ni Post-faster: Send address corrections to: The large c/o Mercury International 365 Blair

Service Control of the Control of th Bussed from Blace's makeshift camp on the Macedonian border to Skopje airport, confused Kosovans are frisked for guns, then pushed aboard charter flights bound for Turkey set out, Nato's action will con-

A White House spokesman also dismissed the ceasefire of-fer as unacceptable and insist-ed that the bombing would car-ry on. The spokesman said the US was not interested in "hollow gestures". A senior Nato diplomat said the ceasefire offer was " a non-starter".

There were signs from Italy and Greece that they might lend a more sympathetic ear to the Belgrade initiative. The Italian Government said it was reviewing the proposal.

Alliance officials said there was no sign of a crack in the unity which the 19 Nato states had maintained since the air offensive began on March 24. Jamie Shea, the Nato spokesman, said: "We are going to carry on as long as it takes."

Nato officials also poured scorn on Belgrade's offer to have Mr Rugova negotiate a peace accord. He was not a free agent and was living with his family in Pristina under house arrest, the alliance offi-

Even a member of the Government in Montenegro, the Yugoslav republic, reacted with scepticism to the ceasefire. Dragisa Burzan, the Dep-uty Prime Minister, said the offer was "totally unrealistic".

Emphasising that he was speaking in a personal capacity, he said: "I do not under-Continued on Page 4, col 6

Families are divided and deported

NO ONE would tell seven-year-old Ardita Berisha why she was being forced out of a country at gunpoint for the second time in a week. She kept asking where they were going as an armed policeman shoved her into an airport bus, deporting the Berishas and 1.500 other confused refugees to Turkey yesterday. Rabia, her mother, began to cry and asked a security guard how her husband was meant to find them as he was stranded somewhere in Kosovo. The guard, his face partially covered by a surgical mask, shouted at her to do as she was told.

The Macedonian Government calls this a humanitarian airlift. But United Nations chiefs threatened to withdraw its funding unless the forced expulsions were stopped and the Government ceases to split families. UN chiefs insisted that officials must register all those leaving Macedonia and the Red Cross condemned the flights because people had no idea they were going.

By last night more than 3,500 refugees had been expelled. They were given no choice about going and there was no attempt to record the names of those forced on to planes at Skopje airport.

Daniel McGrory watches as refugees are forced to

Just before riot police unloaded this bewildered human cargo driven straight from the squalor of the frontier crossing at Blace yesterday, an airport official said: "Don't tell them where they are going or they will try to make a run for it." Tired and covered in mud. Rabia Berisha clutched the youngest of her five children, Il-month-old Alma, as Mace-donian officials pushed and prodded her family towards the first of 14 chartered planes on the tarmac. No one asked to see any family documents just as well as the Serbs took them seven days ago when forcing the Berishas from their Pristina hiding place. Nobody had bothered to register their names when they were pulled out of a muddy border field yesterday morning so this family never officially existed in Macedonia despite having been stranded here for ten days. Her handicapped son Durim, five, was cradled in the arms of her fly out to uncertain future Photograph: Simon Walker nephew, Fathum, 18, who has also been separated from his father. "Will you tell him where I'm going," he pleaded with the security guard frisking him.

Told by The Times that he was to be flown to Turkey.

Fatium looked panie-stricken.

"Tell them I want to stay here, as close to Kosovo as possible, to wait for my family," he shouted. Like others who tried to protest, he was ignored. He begged to be allowed to leave his name with an official, asking for it to be passed to the Red Cross. There were no Red Cross or UN officials at the airport although they had been told this deportation was under way. One man shouted: "At least the Nazis kept a record of those they took away. Who will know if I m alive or dead. The Serbs have destroyed my records and now the Macedo-nians pretend I don't exist. A punch in the back silenced furwere being searched, a securi-ty guard said: "We are looking angrily: "Why are you concentrating on such peripheral is for guns." Isak Zigoli held up his arms so he could be frisked. He is 72. "I would sues? This is unimportant. Macedonia is the only innocent victim in this war. Next have stayed in Kosovo and died there if I had known what would happen to me," he said of his jumper to stop him talk-ing to reporters. "I don't think l will see my sons again." Behind came another elderly couple who clung to each other, whispering reassuranc-as the guard grabbed the neck

es, as they were swallowed up in the overcrowded bus. A succession of aid flights dropped into Skopje and Nato troops bustled around helping to unload tents from Switzerland, ration packs from Germany and water pipes from France. It all piled up on the tarmac with customs officials in no hurry to release it. The Israelis arrived with a field hospital and about 70 troops, who watched uncomfortably as Kosovan refugees were marched past them. After meeting UN officials, Ljubco Georgievski, the Mace-donian Prime Minister, insisted that the refugees had been told that they were being flown to Turkey.

Asked if he would continue

6At least the Nazis kept a record of those they took away. Who will know if l am alive or dead? 3 a refugee leaving for

ı	1 urkej	vesterady
	INSIDE
	Ethnic deansing	Page 2
	Hollywood myth
	Bombing raids	Page 3
	Rocket systems	Page 3
	KLA offer	Page 4
	Cultural damage	Page 5
i	Harrier pilots	Page 5
-	Serb victims	Page 6
-	German pilots	Page 6
	James Pettifer	Page 18
t	Letters
	Leading article	_Page 19

Royal wedding is not so Posh

AND MICHAEL HARVEY

PALACE officials may hope that the June wedding of Edward and Sophie will be the social event of the year, but they are in danger of being thoroughly upstaged by Posh and

The Queen's youngest son weds his beloved Sophie Rhys-Jones at St George's Chapel, Windsor, on June 19. David Beckham of Manchester United marries Victoria Adams, the artist also known as Posh Spice, on July 4, probably in Ireland. Of the two, the latter is raising media blood pressure more than the former.

It emerged yesterday that even Prince Edward's wish to have his ceremony filmed by his own television company.

vetoed by Buckingham Palace. At the same time OK! magazine has done a £1 million deal to secure exclusive access to the ceremony uniting football-er and singer. Martin Townsend, Editor of OK!, believes his million is money well spent "It is going royal wedding is of course always important, but Edward and Sophie have played it down so much that people simply aren't as interested as they are in Posh Spice and Beck-

Prince Edward, 34, has expressed a wish that his wedding should be much lowerkey than those of his brothers, with 500 guests, and a few members of the public looking on from the Windsor Castle precincts. Beckham, 24, and Adams, 23, will have an expected 500 guests, but they are showing no inhibitions about keeping it quiet. Fashion designers will be scouring every detail of the two bridal dresses, but the greater interest will be in that of Posh. Sandy Boler, editor of Brides magazine, said: "Posh and the glitz. Her dress will be more important in terms of fashion, and will be much more of the moment. In a way, she is the bride of the Millennium - a modern bride with a son marrying in a hugely romantic wedding."

Both couples will have their own coats of arms adorning their respective wedding invitations. Prince Edward's are deeply traditional. Beckham and Adams have come up with a design involving a swan, a crown and the motto: "Love, Friendship."

William Hunt, Portcullis Pursuivant at the College of Arms, struck a blow for old-fashioned tradition when he was shown the new crest: "The swan is facing the wrong way, and that is very bad as it is basically showing its bottom

Lockerbie charges

One by one, all 270 names of the Lockerbie bomb victims were read out yesterday to the two Libyans suspected of blowing up Pan Am Flight 103. On their first full day in Scottish custody Abdel Basset Ali al-Megrahi and Lamine Khalifa Fhirneh sat for two hours as Dumfries and Galloway police read out the detailed warrant outlining all the charges against them.....Page 10

Stocks soar to a record

The stock market surged to a record high bolstered by a flood of last minute PEP investments and hopes of another interest rate cut. The FTSE 100 index of leading shares closed up 85.3 at 6415.3, having earli-

HARRY PAGE - RELITERS

BALKANS WAR: THE ATROCITIES

Russian viewers finally see case for Nato

FROM ANNA BLUNDY IN Moscow

NTV, Russia's most independent television station. has shocked viewers this week with its coverage of the "ethnic cleansing" by the Serbs in Kosovo. Its recent reports from the region are the first public admission that the Serbs. so vociferously supported in Russia, may have provoked Nato's bombing campaign. Konstantin Borovoi, a Duma deputy who is in favour of the Nato strikes. ended his five-day hunger strike yesterday when radio and television stations finally allowed him to air his anti-Serb views. He refused all food from April I in protest at what he considered in be biased media coverage.

"The pro-Serb propaganda campaign has been executed in the old Soviet way," Mr Borovoi said, "Primakov is not just the Prime Minister, but the leader of a political group with the conscience of the KGB." He complained that the pro-Nato demonstration he and his followers had planned had been

Only after the groundbreaking coverage by NTV did other radio and tele-vision stations follow suit, admining that their reports were subject to Serbian military censorship. Novava Gazeta ran a commentary by Andrei Piontovsky of the Centre for Strategic Studies suggesting that blind support for the Serbs may be misguided.

Yevgeni Kiselyov, presenier of NTV's weekly news programme Itogi. acknowledged that his influennal change in stance was in large part related to domestic issues. "I understand that anti-Nato, anti-Western, anti-American hysteria could lead to a situation when we would have restored Communist Party rule," Mr Kiselyov told the Moscow Times.

Vladimir Kulistikov. NTV's chief news editor. coverage to the fact that Pavel Lobkov, Russia's answer to John Simpson of the BBC, had got into Macedonia and interviewed refugees. Mr Borovoi said he was delighted the niedia had come to their senses.

US war crimes expert says testimonies show Serbs are carrying out ethnic cleansing policy, Philip Webster writes

WAR crimes and genocide are being committed in Kosovo on a massive scale as Serbs systematically kill or force out the Albanians in Kosovo, according to a graphic account by America's special ambassador on war crimes. Across the country families are being given five minutes to pick up what they can and clear out of their homes forever. If they refuse, they are shot or burnt, David Scheffer said.

He has concluded that Serb actions in Kosovo amount to "evil" and said that Serb commanders on the ground should understand that they would be pursued for the crimes they are committing. Mr Scheffer, who reports to Madeleine Albright, the US Secretary of State, spent two days at Brace, on the Kosovo-Macedonia, border last week interviewing refugees. Without disclosing his identity, Mr Scheffer spoke to about 200 refugees during 16 hours of interviews assisted by an interpreter. In an interview with The Times, he said there was a "remarkable consistency" in the accounts and the pattern of Serb behaviour.

Serb police and paramilitaries entered towns and villages and moved neighbour-hood by neighbourhood to carry out "ethnic cleansing".

They do this by approaching each home with Kosovo Albanians in them. They do not touch those with Serbs in hey harge through the doors and give residents five minutes to clear out forever. he said. "When the Kosovans are scrambling to pick up anything they can find, food and warm clothing, the police and military 'shake them down' for cash and jewellery.

"Once they are out, the homes are torched - unless the house is a nice or comfortable one, in which case sometimes it is occupied by the military. Those who resist are killed. They are either shot in the home or left inside to burn to death when the house is torched.

Witnesses told me that there was no discrimination. Elderly ladies are killed or burnt in the same way as young men. No particular sector of society is safe. I heard this account so many times from so many people that it is clearly premeditated and planned. The same pattern seems to be emerging every-

Mr Scheffer said that the refugees were then marched onto buses or to Pristina train station. As they moved out of their towns and villages, the Serbs who have been their neighbours stand on the side of the road applauding their departure. Some refugees said that during the night-time assaults on their homes the soldiers were joined by local

Mr Scheffer said that all the refugees that he had interviewed wanted to return to Kosovo, but most of them wondered whether they could ever again live side-by-side with Serb neighbours who had helped with their eviction.

The ambassador said that another common tactic was that the forced marches were hy sniners Any. one deviating from the straight marching line would be picked off. "This is a very common tactic to discipline and intimidate the ethnic cleansing process," he said.

Another common approach of the Serbs was to force the refugees to drop all the food and

An aerial view of refugee tents at Brazde, Macedonia, where reports of massacres inside Kosovo are growing clothing they had picked up before rushing out of their homes, "It is deliberate. When they crowd on to the train platform at Pristina, they do not have any belongings. They arrive at the Macedonia bor-der destitute, hungry and

Mr Scheffer said that this deprivation of basic needs was one more war crime that could be added to the charge sheet being assembled against the Serb leadership and its men. deliberate withdrawal of medical care for the Kosovo Albanians. "The hospital in Pristina has been evacuated. I was told that paralysed Albanians had been left in the hospital and one person told me . . . that they had been shot." Finally, Mr Scheffer said.

the conditions of travelling were inhumane. There were 300 people packed into each carriage of a 21-car train. "I watched a train arrive in Brace. It was an amazing sight. As it stopped people flowed out like a tidal wave."

same way as young men? Mr Scheffer, who has just reported to Mrs Albright, concluded that ethnic cleansing. war crimes and crimes against > large scale.

> "What is happening is so systematic, so well planned in its execution, that there are clear humanity were occurring on a cide. When you look at the facts on the ground, you see clear indicators of intent," he Serbs. said. "These are massive crimes against humanity." Zoge Idrizi, a 28-year-old computer programmer, de-scribed how masked men worked their way along the Elderly ladies are killed in the street of apartment blocks where she lived in the suburb indicators of genocide occurring in Kosovo. Intent is a criti-cal element of the law of geno-

☐ Skopje: The latest refugees forced from their homes in plete ethnic cleansing of Kosovo's capital (Daniel Mc-

Paramilitary gunmen are Grory writes).

of Ulciana. homes were occupied by Alba- ground near Teslic. (AFP)

using public records to system-atically ensure entire Albanian families are evicted and immediately replaced in their homes and businesses by An OSCE monitor said: "They have Serb families Pristina brought new evidence assigned to Albanian properyesterday of how the Serbs are ties before the occupants are carefully organising the comout. This is to make sure those evicted can never return."

> James Pettifer, page 18 Letters, page 19

SUMMARY

US Cuba base for refugees del'

Washington: America is to house 20.000 ethnic Albanian refugees in the US naval base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, which the United States considers as its territory lBen Macin-tyre writes). The base, former-ly used to house Hainan and Cuban refugees, would be ready to receive Albanians driven out of Kosovo in a few days. US officials said.

But a Cuban government of. ficial strongly criticised the plan. 'The American aggressors in Yugoslavia have no right to bring these people in Cuba," said Raúl Taladrid. 'The refugee problem is a European problem."

Washington is also considering Guam as a potential site to harbour the refugees.

British appeal

Thousands of people inundated charity hotlines last night in donate to an appeal by 12 British aid agencies to help the Kosovan refugees. The appeal was launched on BBC TV by Jill Dando, the presenter, and on ITV by Juliet Stevenson, the actress. It is being coordinated by the Disasters' Emergency

Sharon warning

Jerusalem: The Israeli Foreign Minister, Ariel Sharon, warned the West that Islamic states could form a greater Albanian bloc that would spread unrest throughout Europe. He told Israel Radio: "We can certainly see here a focus of activity that would cause unrest."

Australia haven

Sydney: Australia has decided to allow 4,000 Kosovan refugees into the country on a tenporary basis, after being criticised for not pulling its weight in the Balkans crisis (Roger Maynard writes). The aboutturn came after mounting pressure from ethnic communices

Nato escape

Sarajevo: A rocket-propelled grenade missed a patrolling Nato UH60 Black Hawk helicopter over Serb-run territory in northern Bosnia. Its crew saw an object in front of them They knew exactly which after seeing a flash on the Border killing

Athens: Greek border guards shot and killed an ethnic Albanian woman who was among four people trying to cross into the country from Macedonia Police said they had ignored warnings to stop. (Reuters)

831,000 (NATO spokesmen over 400,000 (UNHCR Tuesda

250,000 (NATO Sunday)

270,000 (OSCE Tuesday)

35,700 (UNHCR Monday)

6,000 (UNHCR Monday)

7,900 (UNHCR Monday)

130,000 (Mac

US lulled by Hollywood myth of bloodless war

FROM BEN MACINTYRE IN WASHINGTON

AN AMERICAN soldier is trapped in the combat zone, battling a versatile enemy in hostile terrain: that familiar scenario, repeated in countless Hollywood films from Rnmbo to Saving Private Ryan, is inching closer to reality in Kosovo as pressure grows to use US ground troops.

A poll published yesterday in The Washington Post showed public opinion shifting dramatically in favour of ground forces going in, with 55 per cent saying they would support a policy change. Just a week ago, barely 40 per cent favoured using US infantry.

Foreign policy experts, politicians and retired soldiers, too, have joined a swelling chorus calling for ground troops, while unnamed military officials have begun popping up in numbers to claim that they had told the Administration from the outset that combat troops would be necessary.

American hero Tom Hanks, right, in Saving Private Ryan

America, confronting the reality that Serb forces will not be stopped with cruise missiles alone, has sent Anache helicopter gunships to strike President Milosevic's army — a decision that has been interpreted as a step closer to sending in troops. The Apaches, supported by 2,000 soldiers, Bradley Fighting Vehicles and mulople rocket launchers, may not technically fit the definition of ground forces, but they are specifically designed to hit troops on the ground or, to use the Pentagon's tag-line of the week, to get "up close and personal" with the enemy.

The decision to use the Apaches has raised further questions about where air combat ends and ground engagement begins. A recent cartoon showed President Clinton filling the Kosovo sky with paratroopers and helicopters, while observing: "Of course it depends what you mean by ground troops."

Yet the US remains deeply wary of sending such forces across Kosovo's borders, knowing that the first bodybag will send support for action spiralling downwards. The wave of panic that swept the Pentagon and White House during the hours that rescue troops scrambled to retrieve a single downed pilot is an illustration of sensitivity to possible military losses. Here, too. Hollywood has played its part, propagating the myth that war can be fought with minimal casualties. Rare is the movie that shows the embattled soldier-hero dying behind enemy lines; Rambo gets away; Private Ryan was, after all, saved. The same unreal approach is reflected in the polls, which show that more than 80 per cent of Americans believe the US should send a snatch team to rescue the three soldiers held by Belgrade.

The story of Scott O'Grady, the US pilot shot down over Bosnia and then rescued, was the subject of a bidding war for film rights, but the equally true story of the US soldiers beaten to death by a mob in Somalia, was not.

In its determination to show that Kosovo will not be another Vietnam. America has oversold the potential of air power, raising impossibly high expectations of success and low expectation of casualties. US officials continue to insist, although less and less empharically, that there is "no intenrion" to use ground troops.

Aerial bombardment allows President Clinton to keep control of the script, restricting bloodletting. A ground war, however, would turn this war from American family viewing into a gory epic, with no guaran-tee of that Hollywood happy ending.

FATE OF KOSOVO REFUGEES

tumbers in the Kosovo refugae crisis from go more than 1,600,000 (unofficial estimate)

Displaced from Kosovo homes in past ye Fled or expelled from Kosovo since NATObegan air attacks on March 24

Admitted to Albania in, or on the border with, Macedonia Admitted to Yugoslav rep. of Monte

Admirtled to Bosnia Admitted to Turkey Flown from Macedonia to Turke Flown to Norway

ctuary offered or prop

EU/NATO as a whole (German go Germany (Sunday) 40.000 United States (Sunday) 20,000 Turkey (Sunday) 20,000 Norway (Sunday) 6,000 Denmark (Sunday 6,000

Sweden (Sunday) 5,500 Romania (NATO Monday) 000,8 at qu Britain has offered to take "thousands" without giving a specific figure about 1,400 Sunday): 100,000 Austria (Monday)

5.000 5.000 5,000 Greece (Sunday) Portugal (Sunday) 1,500 7,000-18,000 Spain (Tuesday) stralia, for three months (Tuesday)

www.audi.co.uk

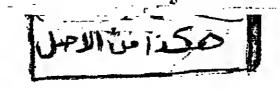

ATM 7

It's not your eyesight that needs testing. It's the car.

To appreciate the improvements we've made to the new Audi A4, you'll need to move closer. A lot closer. Call 0345 699 777 now to arrenge a test drive.

VPRIL 7 16

in itiliti Rei

- uncut States

By MICHAEL EVANS

THE American decision to deploy the Gulf War-proven Multiple Launch Rocket System (MLRS) in Albania to strike at Yugoslav military facilities will significantly increase the firepower available to Nato commanders.

One of the weapons that caused such destruction in the Gulf War. the MLRS is an "area weapon system", using powerful rockets to distribute hundreds of high-explosive bomblets within the chosen target location.

There are two versions of the MLRS, the standard one, which has two six-ood launchers firing a total of 12 rockets. each containing 644 bomblets known as "dual-purpose improved conventional muni-tions"; and a later version simed with two Army Tactical Missile Systems (ATAC-MS), each one firing 950 tennis ball-sized anti-personnel and anti-material bomblets.

General Sir Charles Guthrie, the Chief of the Defence Staff, indicated earlier this week that the Americans would be sending the ATAC-MS version because it had a range of about 100 miles, puting much of Kosovo with-in its sights.

Christopher Foss, the editor of Jane's Armour and Artilley, said that the standard MLRS had a range of only about 20 miles, which would limit its scope for strikes into

The standard version is used against "soft targets". such as troops and light vehi-cles, but the MLRS being sent targets a range of military facilities including surface-toair missiles, air defence sites, command and control networks and logistics centres. When the standard MLRS nade its debut in the Gulf War, deployed by both the US Army and British Army, it was claimed that each of the 12 individual rockets could football pitch.

twice the size.

goslav Army's inventory that can match such a powerful The ATACMS version was devastate an area the size of a rushed into service for the Gulf War but, according to The MLRS with the more Mr Foss, only 32 were fired out of a total of 105 sent to the powerful and longer-range ATACMS rockets can do similar damage but over an area The MLRS is a highly mo-bile weapon system. The crew There is nothing in the Yumanning it engages in what is called shoot-and-scoot tactics. Once the rockets have been fired, the MLRS is moved rap-the enemy can pinpoint its position and return fire. It also has excellent cross-country ability and has a road speed of up to 40mph.

Nicknamed "steel rain", the MLRS has a computerised fire control system that enables the three-man crew, or even a single soldier, to load and unload the launcher.

What happens if the allies extend the bombing to destroy supported by oil revenue? Michael Evans, Defence Editor, Yugoslavia's infrastructure which, unlike Iraq's, is not reports on the dilemma confronting Britain and the US

tions to the crew and checks the condition of the missiles prior to launch. A command post transmits the selected target data directly to the MLRS launcher's computer. When activated, the computer aims the launcher and prompts the crew to arm and fire a preselected number of rounds.

The only problem with the MLRS, Mr Foss said, was that the bomblets did not have self-destruct fuses. This meant that there was a real risk that those bomblets that failed to detonate would lie around, posing a potential bazard for civilians or for allied troops passing through at some future date if a peace implementation force was sent to

Manufactured in America

Lockheed Martin, MLRS is in service with 13 other countries, apart from the United States and Britain. They include Turkey, Greece, Bahrain, Denmark, Japan and South Korea.

A more advanced version. which is not yet in service, will be guided by the satellite-linked Global Positioning

Long haul' risks wrong outcome

THE stage in Nato's air campaign has been reached when it is legitimate to ask: how much longer can 1.1 million ethnic Albanians have Operation Allied Force continue? Will another week or ten days of intensive bombing enable the alliance to fulfil its objectives or are the political warnings of a "long hauf" going to commit Nato to a campaign lasting months? George Robertson, the Defence Secretary, was adamant yesterday that the bombing would go on until President Milosevic had agreed to allow all the ethnic Albanian refugees back to their villages to rebuild their homes under the protection of an international force.

On that basis, even if the first objective is met, which is to force Mr Milosevic to stop the "ethnic deansing" in Kosovo and to withdraw all his forces, the bombing will carry on regardless. This determination to see it through to the bitter end is clearly intended to send a message to Mr Milosevic that when he comes up with a new "peace" deal, like vesterday's ceasefire offer, it will make no difference to Operation Allied Force unless he agrees to reverse all the damage he has done to the ethnic Albanians in Kosovo.

The sentiments are understandable, but since the Ministry of Defence announced yesterday that now been forced out of their homes in the 12 months since the conflic began - a large proportion of them driven out of Kosovo itself - it is becoming increasingly clear that this objective is going to be the most difficult to meet, perhaps beyond

If Mr Milosevic's nerve holds up for another few weeks, Nato has to face up to the reality that its bombers will destroy what was already a weak Yugoslav economy, that they will damage the country's infrastructure, possibly beyond repair unlike Iraq, Yugoslavia is not blessed with oil revenues - and that they will help to create a country in Europe which will be a seething cauldron of hatred towards the West for decades.

This is not a happy prospect for the beginning of the new millenn-ium, nor is it a happy prospect for the alliance which had hoped to be seen as the world's guarantor of peace and stability, the godfather of crisis management, a force for

Instead. Nato is finishing off the war against a leader who has re-

Achieving the right balance in the level of force to be used against Mr Miloscvic will be a difficult choice. American officials, before the US-led six-week coalition air campaign in the 1991 Gulf War, talked of bombing Iraq back to the Middle Ages. It was an imprudent enough to meet those daily repeated objectives. For bombing on the

the country once the crisis is over.

20th century with an awesome air vived all the horrific images of the current scale, assuming the weathworst excesses of the Nazis in the Second World War. er remains clear, will cause unbelievable damage in every corner of Yugoslavia if it has to continue for weeks on end. Mr Robertson said yesterday that the airstrikes were "proportionare". While the "ethnic cleansing", rapes and murders continue in Kosovo, there are few, except obviously Mr Milosevic in his secure bunker remark, wisely ignored by the politi-cal leaders who realised that a totalin Belgrade and the airstrike opponents in Moscow, who would disy destroyed Iraq would create a langerous vacuum in the region. Similarly, the total elimination of Yugoslavia's infrastructure, with the destruction of every strategic bridge, oil refinery, power station, rail link and main road, would undermine whatever stability is left in This is why Nato must be praying that ten more days will be

Yugoslavia. In the meantime, the principal has been done.

However, if it is to be a long-haul bombing campaign - months, not weeks — waged in isolation, with-out the prospect of a land force be-ing sent in to finish off the job in Ko-sovo, the wholesale destruction could begin to look disproportionate, even though, building for building, the Yugoslav military and paramilitary forces have caused more damage to properties in Kosovo, laying waste whole villages, than

Nato has throughout the whole of protagonists on Nato's side - President Clinton and his stalwart Defence Secretary, William Cohen, in Washington, Tony Blair, Robin Cook, the Foreign Secretary, and Mr Robertson in London - declare with increasing intensity that the bombing will go on until the job

Even if Mr Milosevic fails to back down. Nato hopes that its attacks on Yugoslav forces in Kosovo over the next ten days will reduce their capabilities and their morale to such an extent that Kosovo will become what is being called a "permissive environment", in other words an environment in which Nato troops could be inserted with minimum resistance to begin the process of returning people to their shattered villages. What could be interpreted as preliminary moves for a ground operation are under way, after the Pentagon's announcement on Monday icopters and 13 Multiple Launch Rocket Systems to Albania, to be part of a bolstered Operation Allied

The Apaches and rocket launchers will also come with a "force protection" package consisting of 14 Bradley armoured fighting vehicles and a platoon of about ten Abrams MIAI/MIA2 main battle tanks.

So, America's heavy armour is on the way. Although its mission will be to operate from the Albanian side of the border, it will provide the beginnings of vital new assets for the alliance in the Balkans region for possible ground action at a later stage The Dutch also announced vesterday that they were sending artillery to back up its units in the Former Yugoslav Republic of Mace-

But if Nato is serious about its intention to see all the 1.1 million displaced Albanians return to their own homes in Kosovo, it will need a lot more heavy armour in place to provide the right level of protection, even in a so-called permissive

BALKANS WAR: REFUGEE CRISIS

Rebels offer to be Nato's ground force

THE Kosovo Liberation Army yesterday launched a desper-ate appeal for military aid to defend up to half a million ethnic Albanians in villages the guerrillas soll hold against the Serb onslaught and vowed to become "Nato's ground troops" in the Balkan campaign.

In an interview with The Times somewhere in northern Albania, Xheladin Gashi, a member of the KLA's general staff and a regional command-er, said that his forces needed every kind of weapon.

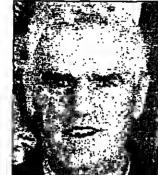

There are hundreds of thousands of civilians hiding in the mountains and in villages which we control. But they are in pockets and they could soon be overrun. We need weapons to defend them or the Serbs will overrun them," he said.

Listing a group of villages mostly in the west of Kosovo close to the border with Montenegro and Albania, he insisted that time was running out for his fighters who might soon be forced to retreat and leave the civilian population to the mercy of Serbs.

"We can protect our people ourselves. We now have more volunteers from all over KosSam Kiley hears an urgent plea by guerrilla leader for anti-tank guns

ovo. Albania, western Europe and America, than we have weapons. We really need to have ano-tank guns. At the moment our men are trying to light tanks with rifles," Mr

Gashi: confronting Serb tanks armed with rifles

Army officer who has been high on the wanted list of the Serb secret police, said. "If they have to retreat, they can carry on a guerrilla war, but the civilians will be slaugh-

Nato members have been struggling with how to defend Kosovo's diminishing population of Albanians against Serb attacks without committing large numbers of ground troops to what would be a bloody campaign. They have been equally reluctant to arm or train the KLA for fear that this would imply a tacit recog-nioon of the guerrilla move-ment's demands for independence from Yugoslavia.

There has been some acceptance that few Kosovo Albanians would ever return home to a country with any kind of a formal tie to Belgrade. But there remains the problem that the KLA has been divided and, since the Serbian attacks, its command structure has been almost shattered.

If the KLA were given weapons, the guerrillas would need close supervision to prevent the guns being turned on Kosovo's Serb minority.

Hugging a child, an Albanian weeps on a refugee bus at Petrovec Airport, Macedonia. The refugees were herded onto a flight to Turkey despite leaving relatives behind

Turkey greets 1,200 exiles with hot meal

FROM REUTERS IN KIRKLARELL TURKEY

ugees settled yesterday in pre-fabricated huts in western Turkey after being airlifted out of neighbouring Macedonia.
Officials said 1,200 people had been admitted to the camp in screne Balkan countryside near Kirklareli, close to Turkey's border with Bulgaria. Two more busloads of refugees stood outside the camp waiting to be processed.

But inside the barbed-wire perimeter children played and women hung out washing among the huts that were once home to a previous influx of refugees from Bosnia.

"Everybody here has been separated from their families. Macedonian police let only women and children on the planes," said Leke Zogaj, t8. who said he had spent three days without food and water in the no-man's-land between Kosovo and Macedonia. "I was only allowed to come because I was ill."

The first of the Kosovo Albanians to be airlifted out of Macedonia arrived late on Monday in Torkey, reeking and unwashed, and were transferred on buses to the nearby camp. One elderly woman carried off the plane died in a local hospital.

all refugees received a hot

MORE than 1.000 Kosovo ref- meal as soon as they arrived at the camp. Many more of the thousands stranded in the fields on the edges of Macedorua are expected to arrive in Turkey in the coming days.

"The army is taking care of their food needs and is in the process of putting up tents nearby," the Governor, Kemal Onal, said. Four lorries stacked with mattresses and vegetables drew up outside

Turkey has pledged to accommodate up to 20,000 of those who have fled Kosovo for neighbouring Balkan countries. Turks feel deep his torical and religious ties with the ethnic Albanian majority in Kosovo and the province's small Turkish minority result ing from 500 years of Ottoman rule of the Balkans.

Bulent Ecevit, the Turkish Prime Minister, said Nato would ensure that the refugees eventually returned. "We don't want to see a Kosovo cleansed of Kosovans."

Turkey's Red Crescent sent 13 lorries loaded with 64 tonnes of food, medicine and lents from Ankara yesterday bound for Albania. Another eight trucks were to be sent from Istanbul. It has contributed aircraft to the Nato ground troops if called upon.

There must be a straightforward explanation.

There's no mystery to ISAs. Individual Savings Accounts are replacing TESSAs and PEPs as the new tax free way to save. For straightforward advice about our full range of ISAs, in plain English, call us free on the number below, or pop into any branch. (Lines are open Monday to Friday, 8am to 9pm and Saturday, 8am to 4pm.)

ABBEY NATIONAL PLC, WHICH IS REGULATED BY THE PERSONAL INVESTMENT AUTHORITY, ONLY SELLS ITS OWN LIFE ASSURANCE, PENSIONS AND COLLECTIVE INVESTMENT SCHEME PRODUCTS.

ISAs in Plain English

0800 174 635

* ABBEY NATIONAL Because life's complicated enough.

The value of lax benefits depends on your own personal linancial circumstances and may be affected by future changes in legislation. ISA products are provided by Abbey National PEP and ISA Managers Limited, which is regulated by IMRO. To help us to improve our service, we may record or monitor phone calls. Abbey National, the timbrella Couple symbol and Because life's complicated enough are trademarks of Abbey National plc, Abbey National plc, Registered Office: Athey House, Baker Street, London NW1 6XL, United Kingdom, Telephone 0870 607 6000.

UN issues emergency identity documents records fell into the war crime

THE plight of Kosovo refu-gees who have been stripped of their papers is being eased by the issuing of temporary documents that certify their identides, the United Nations relief operation said yesterday.

Officials from the UN High Commissioner for Refugees are supplying provisional papers on the spot to all deportees robbed of their documents by Serbian forces before being allowed to cross the fronder. "Taking away identity papers and ripping off car licence plates is as much a waste of time as barbaric. You cannot deprive people of their identity by just taking away spokesman in Geneva, "The simple statement of identity is being treated with the same weight as the actual papers."

The biggest problem con-cerned a small number of unaccompanied children who were too young to know their names, said the UN. Officials were seeking friends and relatives to trace their identices.

Measures are being taken to stop Serbs from stripping refugees of their past, writes Charles Bremner in Brussels

Nato and allied govern-ments have accused the Serbians of waging an "Orwelli-an" campaign to deprive refuhad no bearing on the selec-tion of refugees being evacuatgees of their culture and past by removing all documents and blowing up municipal ared from the region to other chives in Kosovo to destroy ticountries, said the UN. tle deeds, land registry papers and marriage records. Nato reported yesterday being forced to sign away their property rights in exchange for a train ticket to oblivion". The practice was now well documented and would add to eviday had not been properly regdence being gathered for the prosecution of Serbian officials for war crimes, said Jamie Shea, the Nato spokesman. Stripping people of their category and those responsible would eventually be punished, said Mr Shea. The possession of papers

The international relief operation was now insisting that all evacuation flights left with displaced Kosovans could be traced. The UNHCR said it was concerned that the majority of the 1.360 Kosovans who were flown to Turkey on Monistered before they left. "A special UNHCR team is en route to Skopje to handle future refugee registration." the organisation said yesterday.

Ceasefire 'is just a ploy'

Contined from Page 1 stand this proposal. Nato would never consider such an offer and Belgrade must have known this."

It was the second offer from Belgrade, following the abort-ed peace mission of Yevgeni Primakov, the Russian Prime Minister. The first offer, of a partial withdrawal of Yugoslav troops from Kosovo, was also dismissed by Nato.

The move by Mr Milosevic last night was seen as the latest evidence that the bombing campaign was beginning to have a significant impact on the Yugoslav leadership. The timing of the announcement was also being linked in Nato capitals to the fact that Mr Milosevic was now approaching the completion of his ethnic cleansing in Kosovo.

Paddy Ashdown, the Liberal Democrat leader, said Mr Mi-losevic knew that Nato could not stop its bombing until all his troops had left Kosovo, refugees were allowed home and there was an international force under Nato command to guarantee the peace.

Milan Komnenic, the Yugoslav Information Minister. told French television that he was not surprised by the rejec-tion of what he called a goodwill gesture. The determined mood of the alliance to ignore the offer was given added emphasis after a day in which Nato bombers were thought to have achieved successes against Yugoslav troops and armour in Kosovo.

There was also one fatal bombing raid which ended in the deaths of 12 civilians and a wounded 28 more in the mining town Aleksinac. Nato admitted that it may have dropped a bomb in error on a block of flar :.

trucks to deliver the aid. YOUR HELP IS REEDED.

Please support this appeal NOW by using the form below or making a credit card donation by telephoning the CAF credit card hottine on: 01732 520111 (9am-4.30pm Mon-Fri only)

I enclose a cheque/postal order made payable to: RefAid-Kosovo Appeal £25 🗌 £50 🗍 £75 🗍 £100 🗍 Other 🗋 £

Or please debit my Visa/Amex/Diner/American Express/Mastercard/Delta/Switch/CharityCard

Start date (Am

Please post this coupon with your gift to: UK for URHCR... 21st floor, Milibank Tower, 21-24 Milibank, LONDON SWIP 408

PERFATO is registered as UK FOR IGNACE, supporting the work of UNACE Registered Charity No. 1641895

BALKANS WAR: NATO TARGETS

Air raids scar city of culture on the Danube

FROM ROGER BOYES IN BONN

NOVI SAD, once known as the Athens of Serbia, has become one of Nato's major targets in its air war against President Milosevic. Yet. as I recall it, there was little of military significance in or around this rambling city, bursting with pubs and full of Hungarians, Slovaks and Romanians drinking coffee in the Viennese rather than Belgrade manner. It was the early 1990s and I was researching a profile of Monica Seles, the tennis player a Novi Sader of Hungarian origin, and it was plain that the Danube city's military tradition had ended in 1849. Then, the garrison at Petrovaradin, the fortress high above the grey Danube, was under Austrian control but went over to Hungarian rebels under Kossuth. From the fortress they bombarded Croat troops. Two thirds of the city's buildings were destroyed. Some months later, in 1850, a German traveller remarked on "the magnitude of the disaster which has befallen the most admired and well-to-do town".

Now the city is under bornbardment again. On Monday night it was the oil refinery; a few days earlier it was the bridge across the Danube, River traffic is blocked. Nato officials say the bombing of the bridge demonstrated the pinpoint accuracy of Allied weaponry since nearby housing blocks were untouched.

Yet phone calls to friends in the city paint a different picture, neither as grim as Serbian television propaganda portrays it nor exactly a Goya study of misery. But a sense of resentment pervades the city because, despite trying to keep its distance from Belgrade and from Mr Milosevic, it had been punished so thoroughly. Telephone links are now erratic, electricity flickers on and off for an hour or two.

Novi Sad, which means New Orchard, was the capital of the semi-autonomous region of Vojvodina. Mr Milosevic revoked that autonomy as surely as he ended the rights of the Kosovo Albanians. There was less at stake here for the dictator than in Kosovo, but Novi Sad was seen. nonetheless, as the cradle of the cultural and political rebirth of the third nation. It was from Novi Sad that the Serbs petitioned for their national time against Serbia yesterday, hitting a variety of mobile targets in Kosovo in a daylight blitz hours after scoring "good hits" on a missile store with laser-guided bombs in a separate night raid near Pristina. The officer commanding No l Fighter Squadron gave a thumbs-up sign from his cockpit to reporters watching by the runway as he taxied back to the hangars at the Gioia del Colle base in southern Italy after the operation. The wings of his fighter-bomber were carrying only two of the four distinctive green and white cluster-bomb canisters that were slung beneath them when he took off at the head of ten Har-"A few of the pilots that I tiers nearly two hours earlier. have spoken to were confident that they hit the targets," said Group Captain Ian Travers Smith, an RAF spokesman. They think they have taken out mobile or moving targets. The weapons they were using were RBL755 cluster-bomb units designed for anti-armour and anti-vehicle type targets primarily. There were a variety of targets hit in Each cluster-bomb canister contains 147 bomblets the size of a beer can that are released when the bombs are dropped. Typically they form a sausage-like pattern that the pilots try to make overlap to cover a large rectangular area with what can be a "devastating" effect on tanks or other armoured vehicles such as those attacking villages in Kosovo, the spokesman said.

Cluster-bombing

Aircrews elated mission, writes John Phillips

in Gioia del Colle

The RAF did not immediately say how many bombs were dropped, but reporters counted 20 canisters on five aircraft that took off, but counted only four when they In the early hours of yesterday, the flyers returned from a separate mission during which they dropped laser-guided I,000lb Paveway II bombs not far from Pristina in a joint operation with RAF Tornados from Bruggen, Germany. The Harriers scored "good hits" against a building believed to contain stores of surface-to-air missiles, Wing Commander Graham Wright, the detachment commander

The attacks ended a frustrating eight-day period during which the Harriers had been unable to drop bombs, first because of low cloud and then because no mobile targets could be found. "People were over the moon because we had done something productive," Wing Commander Wright said. "It is a huge rush when you see that these things work. There was a release of tension. It is like when a goal is scored in football and you think 'Yes'. There was some good banter going

The previous build-up of frustration was underlined by a poster stuck up on the operations hut used by RAF ground staff working on the Harriers. It was a cover of Private Eye magazine lampooning "Win-stony Blair". "Never have so few bombs been dropped on so many," it quoted him saying. 'We will not fight them on the beaches, we will not fight them on the hills, we will not fight them oo the streets.

They will never surrender." After the raids the mood was different. "The pilots are professionals who got the results that they were seeking," Group Captain Travers Smith said. "Today they believe they

Mr Milosevic came to power in 1988 his first move was to engineer, with the help of mass nationalist rallies that were later staged in Kosovo. the ouster of the local Voivodina leadership. The non-Serbs have never learn! to love Mr

Novi Sad was always more than a Serbian city. In modern Yugoslavia five languages had official status in the city - Serbian, Hungarian, Slovak, Romanian and Ruthenian. When Milosevic or his attempt to turn the last corner of Balkan Central Europe into the first building-block of his plan for a greater Serbia.

The splintering of rump Yu-goslavia, and with it the end of the dream of greater Serbia, is the necessary ingredient for Mr Milosevic's political demise. Yet the destruction of "military" targets in this proud, tree-lined city is, as could have been predicted, pushing Vojvodina closer to

When I called friends on Easter Monday, the air-raid sirens had just sounded but they knew there was no point in rushing to the cellars since the destruction of radar sys-tems had given them insufficient notice. To them, the ending of an old poem about Novi Sad musi read less true: "The glorious town, it lies by hill and valley. The bridge divides the Danube, boats float down." And now? No bridge, no

BALKANS WAR: THE AIR CAMPAIGN

'Surgical strike' kills 12 civilians

A SIMPLE MAN, a good labourer, husband and father. Dragan Miladinovic had earned little, but he had won the respect of all who knew

On Monday night the 67-year-old was killed by Nato, with his wife and daughter, as his neighbourhood was flattened by what Brussels calls precision bombing. "He was mincemeat, there was nothing much left of him." said Dragan's closest friend. Vlada Smjilkovic, yesterday, as he stared in disbelief at the pile of rubble next to his own partially collapsed house."We built them together," he added in a monotone, still anaesthe-rised by shock. Apart from the Miladinovics, nine others died and 28 were injured in the southern Serbian town of Aleksinac on Monday night, as Nato jets Tom Walker in Aleksinac sees Nato's innocent bomb victims thundered overhead, dropping a line of bombs that destroyed two areas of homes and an ice-cream factory. A hospital and an old people's home were badly damaged, and there was hardly a pane of glass left intact in the town centre. Nato did land one or two bombs in and around a dilapidated barracks at the town's edge, although yesterday it appeared to have been largely empty.

Aleksinac is a simple place where the now disused coalmine never provided enough jobs and the few factories worked only at full capacity in Tito's time. Like most Serbs. its 40,000 inhabitants have always kept one foot in their peasant farming past, surviv-ing off the land for much of the past decade. A struggle with ethnic Albanians did not mean much until Monday night, when Nato planners decided to include Aleksinac in the campaign to fracture Slobodan Milosevic's military infrastructure. After the slaughter of the innocents - most of them elderly - that followed,

Aleksinac is bemused about its place in the modern world. "They're bombing us from the air because they're cowards. Why can't they come and fight on the ground?" complained the young soldier taking us round the ruins yesterday. Around him people carried on sweeping up shards of glass, stopping only to look at the foreigners in their midst. "If I could get that Sky Television reporter. I'd hang him," ventured one bystander. The first bomb had completely destroyed eight houses in Dragkceta Milovanovica Street, one of Aleksinac's poorest areas. When we arrived, two bodies were being lifted from the rubble, covered in blankets, and a third was being driven away in a battered hearse. A worker de-scribed how the elderly womto their cellars again. an was plucked from the broken concrete and bricks in a sitting position, mouth agape. in the bomb crater at the centre of the rubble, a leg with a woollen sock on its foot protruded from beneath a joist. A bloodied torso lay a few feet away. Looking up and around in a wide are beneath the rising sun, every building was peeling masonry, roof tiles and glass. A few workers made token attempts to find more survivors, but an airraid siren sent many hurrying

Kosovka Simonovic. 69-year-old woman living on the less destroyed side of Dragkeeta Milovanovica, said that she had been making coffee at about 9.30 on Friday evening when she heard the planes. "I went to get my uncle and the ground was already shaking. stood in a doorway and watched the house fall apart." she said in wide-eyed terror. 'As a 13-year-old I was in the bombing in the Second World War," she added, tears muddying her dust-covered face. Everyone blames Clinton, The Nazis were bener than him - at least we knew who the enemy was. By taking my house away, they've taken my life away too." Her daughter Mitrovka. 48. said: "We are poor people, and what little we had has gone." Among the smashed relics of their lives on the sitting room floor, a faded portrait of Tito looked towards the open sky. where once there stood a roof. Zorica Łukovic, 48, lived on the wrong side of the street. and her father, Jovan, and mother, Sofija, are both dead. A squat woman wearing black, she could barely speak. What had they done against Nato?" she whispered.

Emerging from an old peode's home. Vladimir Jeromin asked where the Russians were in Serbia's hour of need. What are our brothers doing. they should be fighting for us," he said. lifting his trouser leg to show the shrapnel wounds he received from German bombing of Belgrade in 1941 the 58th anniversary of which fell yesterday. The Miladinovics lived a few hundred yards away, where the second bomb fell. The scene was the same - rubble, incinerated cars, split trees and collapsed telegraph poles. A doll lay amid the family's destroyed house: school books were scattered all about. A passer-by had picked up a hand-knitted tablecloth and was trying to mend its broken threads, her tears falling on to the pavement. A woman with immaculate English, Lidia Petrovic, begged us to tell the world."I lived in London once," she said. "Do people there understand?" A cyclist stopped beside us as we prepared to leave. The shock had subsided and anger was setting in.

"I fought on the front in the Second World War and I'm ready to take a rifle in my hands again." he spat, "I'm 71 now, but tell Clinton that Petronia Milanovic is ready to beat him, the bastard."

The destruction of part of the central residential area of Aleksinac after the bombs struck early yesterday

German pilots in medal dilemma

FROM ROGER BOYES IN BONN

GERMANS, in combat for the first time since the Second World War, face a pressing problem: how to honour the brave in a land without war heroes. Iron Crosses have been abolished - though German Tornados have a vaguely similar cross painted on their fuselages - and there is no medal to pin on the chests of returning pilots.

"For soldiers from France, England, Russia or America it is taken for granted that medals should be attached to uniforms." lamented Die Welt newspaper. Germany, by contrast, is wary of reviving old military traditions.

In 1980 a Good Service medal was introduced "for exem-plary conduct", and around 6,000 soldiers have won this award. In 1996 a "peacekeepng" medal was established.
Both medals have been designed to look like harmless prefect's badges. But so far there is nothing to reward combat valour because Germans have not been involved in armed conflict since 1945.

keviving me Iron Cross would be controversial, especially for a Social Democrat-controlled Defence Ministry. The Iron Cross, established by King Frederick William III of Prussia in 1813, had three classes - Iron Cross (second class), Iron Cross (first class) and the Grand Cross. Hitler, who won an Iron Cross (first class) in the First World War, established the Knights Cross. which was positioned between the Iron Cross and the Grand Cross. During the Second World won only by Hermann Goering the head of the Luftwaffe. Yet Germans agree that the Tornado pilots have to be rec-ognised for their daily missions over Serbian territory. The Government is reluctant to discuss openly the success rate of its Tornados but defence sources say they have been hitting their targets. mainly radar systems. There are always two sides to a war," said one German Army officer. "If we start singing the praises of our pilots, then paci-

Iron Cross, now defunct

fists will complain and the backlash will be stronger it someone gets shot down While American pilots paint their 'kills' on the sides of their FI5s, the German attitude is different: four psychiatrists have been assigned to the Tornado unit in Piacenza to help flight crews cope wi their post-bombing trauma.

Clearly the Germans would prefer their combat troops to be regarded as victims of 1 broader war, in need of county

450MHz Intel® Pentium® III Precessor 64Mb (Fast 100MHz) SDRAM, 4.3Gb Hard Disk, 40x Multimedia, 8Mb AGP Graphics, 56k Modem, 15" Colour Monitor, Windows 98 plus FREE Pentium " III Enhanced Software Triple Pack* Model: MSNET 450CD

FOR YOUR NEAREST STORE CALL 0990 464 464

rsurance (CPI) is optional and will protect your or led in the monthly repayments unless otherwise stated TYPICAL EXAMPLE: (Word CPI) Cash Price E699. 48 monthly payments of E20 66 – total amount payable £991.68, Minimum purchase E350. Subject to state e from Dept MK/PCHI, Markands Avenue, Hernel Hempstead HP2 71G. "Ask in store for details. APR 19.9%

THE COMPUTER SUPERSTORE

مكذا من الاصل

APRIL 7

Nothing can bring the world together better than music. (Except, maybe, a good global supply chain.)

Join us. Together we can change the world.

PRICEWATERHOUSE COPERS &

When it comes to supply chain management, there's one universal truth: every customer is unique. What may be right for one, may not be for another. It's a fact not lost on the specialists at PricewaterhouseCoopers. Which is why we're working on some of the toughest supply chain problems all around the world. Reinventing strategy, optimising processes and applying new technologies intelligently. All to help companies improve their ability to operate globally and serve customers locally. You see, with 150,000 people working in 150 different countries, we can make the world seem like a pretty small place.

www.pwcglobal.com/uk

Parish answers prayers with £½m collection

A PARSON who appealed to his parish for funds to restore the Victorian church hall found the next morning that his plea had produced nearly half a million pounds. Canon Patrick Whitworth.

Rector of All Saints, Weston, near Bath, prayed for divine intervention when he launched the appeal to restore the hall, a former village school built in the middle of the last century. But even he was surprised to find pledges totalling £438,000 in the collection box placed at the front of the church during morning worship.

Officials at the headquarters of the Church of England in Church House, Westmin-ster, yesterday described it as another example of the commitment and confidence of the Church today".

All Saints, a thriving evangelical parish, is one of the largest and most generous in Bath and Wells, paying about £80.000 in annual "quota" to the diocese. It has a congregation of between 400 and 500 every Sunday, and, besides a rector and curate with sripends paid from diocesan funds, the church employs a youth worker and administrafor from its own funds.

The hall, a Grade II listed building is to be renovated to create a "mission interface centre", where the church will run

Parishioners raised funds for a community centre overnight,

reports Ruth Gledhill

Alpha courses, the introduc-tion to Christianity designed by the country's richest and ossibly most successful parish church. Holy Trinity Brompton in Knightsbridge. It will also serve as a centre for youth groups, wedding recep-nors, playgroups and other community activities.

Canon Whitworth, who spent five years as a curate at Holy Trinity Brompton, before moving to Weston in 1995, said: "I am stunned and thrilled by the amazing generosity shown by everyone.

"Now we have had all this money pledged to us we will probably be approaching trusts outside the church to raise the difference. It is a fantastic project that will benefit not only local churchgoers but also the local community and I am very excited by it." Villagers had long dreamed of turning the old school into a conference centre but were put off by the £690,000 estimate for the work.

PRICE - WE CAN'T BE BEATEN

But Canon Whitworth was undeterred and after obtaining planning permission he set about raising the cash, sending details of the plans to nearly 300 church members. parishioners and villagers.

The diocesan development fund contributed £10,000 and a further £10,000 came in from other charitable sources.

But it was after the collection box was placed at the front of the church during morning worship that the cash flowed in. Canon Whitworth spent a week sifting through the slips from 160 addresses and announced the results at the service on Sunday. Most had pledged cash in signed covenants to be spread over four years, while the 25 members of the church council raised £130,000 between them.

With about £458,000 raised, including cash handed in be-fore the church's "Gift Day" — a concept borrowed from Holy Trinity Brompton — villagers still need E220,000.

The Rev John Andrews, spokesman for the Bath and Wells diocese, said: "This is one of the larger churches in the diocese. The people are not rich but they are very generous. This is sacrificial giving."

One of the smaller specimens of the speedy Sun Splitter prawns found in Sydney Harbour, shown here lifesize. It can grow to twice this size

Jurassic prawn's a real cracker

Rescuers were last night

searching for a 12-year-old girl who was blown oot to sea on an inflatable dinghy off the Lincolnshire coast near Skegness. As darkness fell, hopes of finding her alive were fading. Coastguards said she had jumped out of her toy boat when strong winds gusted her away from the beach at Huttoft. The two friends she was with made it back to shore. The parents of the girl, who has not been named, were on the beach, but her father and another man were unable to reach her. A search by two inshore lifeboats, an offshore vessel and an RAF helicopter was suspended at nightfall.

Assault charge

The 18-year-old daughter of

Paul Whitehouse, the Chief

Constable of Sussex, has been charged with assaulting two of his constables. Frances Whitehouse, from Hove,

East Sussex, was arrested as police were investigating a fight between two men in nun who was born Marie Docherty, appeared at Aher-deen Sheriff Court to face charges of cruelty against 23 girls at Nazareth House children's homes in Aberdeen and Midlothian between 1962 and 1980. She denies the alle-

Official cleared

An official at the Radio Authority was cleared of allegations that she accepted a free flight from an Asian commu-uity station. Janet Lee, deputy head of programming and advertising, was suspended after claims were made to police.

Red Nose record Red Nose Day 1999 has smashed previous records and made £27.4 million so far. Comic Relief said the charity extravaganza had

Nun accused Sister Alphonso, a 57-year-old Brighton.

FROM ROGER MAYNARD IN SYDNEY

FOR Australians, throwing a prawn on the barbecue will never be quite the same. A giant crustacean previously, unknown to science, is making its debut on the Australian menu.
It has emerged from Sydney Harbour and dates back to the Jurassic era. Marine biologists have been impressed by the power of this ancient variety of Mantis prawn. It is one of the fastest predators on Earth, able to strike its prey with a claw in 5 to 8 milliseconds, inflicting a deep wound. Its speed has earned it the nickname Sun Splitter. While new to biology, the species, which looks like a cross between a lobster, a prawn and a praying mantis, has been increasingly appearing on local fish stalls. Its size alone will impress the neighbours at the next backyard barbecue. It grows to be-tween 20 and 40 centimetres.

The identification of the giant prawn, which has a 200-million-year ancestry, is part of a two-year research project into crustacea in the coastal waters of New South Wales. Marine biologists believe it is one of the most complex invertebrates found.

While the Mantis prawn is a wellknown family of crustacea, this variety has kept out of view. Scientists now plan to use the prawn in neurobiology studies. They are impressed by its advanced eyesight — it is believed to have the most complicated vision of any invertebrate — and its agility. Shane Ahyong, research fellow at the est animal movements." The creature has been named Erogosquilla Grahami after one of Mr Ahyong's collaborators, and Mr Ahyong is in no doubt about the significance of the discovery: "It would be the equivalent of finding a new species

Australian Museum in Sydney, said:

The speed of strike is one of the fast-of kangaroo. "One of the lessons from this is that we know far less about marine farma than we should," he said. There is no mistaking the monster prawn in the local fish market. It is more than twice the size of the normal variety. But even if it proves increasingly popular with scalood lovers, there is no immediate danger of supplies running out. Erogosquilla grahami is abundant in Sydney Harbour. No ooe has harvested the species com-mercially.

Mr Ahyong said that the abundance is a good sign: "It means there is a huge diversity of life in some areas de huge diversity diversity diversity of life in some areas de huge diversity diversit spite other areas that have been polluted quite horribly."

DDIONS ON-LINE: www.dbions.co.uk

Look out for the special weather savings on schooled products throughout this edvantisement. Simply take this edvant to very Dissess store to claim your discount. One visible price visits per product conversely seen an analysis of custing trade in offer. Not for use with other offers Branch use only Dissount using Code 4 (Head Office other) HURRY Trace reacting price void only use it rection. Use April 1999

DUXONS DIRECT 08000 58 28 88

حكدا من الاصل

Lifers spend too NEWS IN BRIEF Girl blown long in prison out to sea on dinghy

By STEWART TENDLER, CRIME CORRESPONDENT

SIXTY per cent of prisoners serving life sentences are spending longer in jail than judges recommended because of inefficiency among prison and probation staff, according to a report from Home Office watchdogs.

One man jailed for the murder of his wife should have been released after eight years but has served a total of 24 years because risk assessments, pre-release training and preparatory work have been constantly delayed.

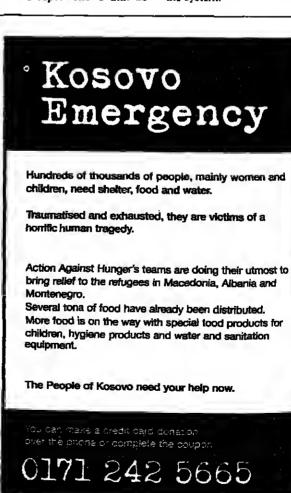

Sir David Ramsbotham, the Chief Inspector of Prisons, and Sir Graham Smith, the Chief Inspector of Probation. said yesterday that jails were often unprepared for release of life prisoners, resulting in a huge waste of time, and that reconviction rates for those released during a life sentence were much lower than for other offenders. The report shows that belore capital punishment was scrapped in 1966 the average sentence for a "lifer" was eight years. In 1997 it was 14 years for murderers and 13 years for other criminals, and 296 prisoners had served more than 20

Between 1987 and 1997 the number of life prisoners rose from 2,399 to 3,721 and is set to double by 2007. Sir David said that the increase was caused by legal changes allowing life sentences for offences such as

The Prison Service scheme rape and drug dealing. for handling "lifers" and their release was set up when there was a much smaller number in prison. Sir David said that keeping them in prison longer than necessary was a waste of money and could cause discipline problems within jails.

The Home Office has announced that a steering group will oversee improvements to the system.

made £7 million more than the sum raised by the last Red Nose Day in 1997 at this stage. Constable jailed A police constable was jailed for six weeks by magistrates in Liverpool for drink-driving and failing to stop after knocking down a student in	Yes I want to help the people of Kosovo I enclose (payable to Action Against Hunger LIK) for [250 his car. Chris Adeniran, 30, who pleaded guilty. is likely to lose his job. Parrot overdose	Signature Name	Please tick if you would file a receipt Patrice Kinloch, 26, received £330 in an out-of-court settlement at Glasgow Sheriff Court after her pet cockatiel. Jinky, died when a vet injected it with 1.000 times the dose of a drug normally used for cattle to cure the hird's mites.	Please send coupon to Action Against Hunger LIK, 1 Catton Street, London WC1R 4AB	ACTION * HUNGER Registered charity no. 104790
l War	the Craid Chice was celling rati	her than is home

The pay's the thing for business Bard

Executives will study Shakespeare plays to learn how to tread on the board, reports Alan Hamilton

ONCE more into the boardroom, dear friends, once more, or close the wall up with our English dread of the Bard. A management college is turning to Shakespeare for lessons on how to survive in business. Do you want the art of leadership? Henry V is your man.

Want to know how to avoid being stabbed in the back? Learn from Julius Caesar. Got some dirty work to do and haven't the stomach for it? Have a word with Lady Macbeth. Cranfield University School of Management in Bedfordshire has teamed with the Globe Theatre in Southwark on London's South Bank to offer courses on what Shakespeare can teach today's corporate executive. The idea is the inspiration of Richard Olivier, director son of the man who set a benchmark in Bardic interpretation.

The people who run today's multinational corporations face the same dilemmas and responsibilities as the kings and dukes of 1600," he said yesterday, "Shakespeare is about power and responsibility. He is not a kitchen-sink drama-

It is hoped that business careerists will pay £1,000 a seat for a two-day course at the Globe, in which they will not only study the moral questions posed by the Bard but also learn basic techniques of acting — increasingly regarded as an essential adjunct to power in the boardroom where role-playing can be a crucial

The clear favourite among plays for power-players is Henry V, an examination of leadership. Nicholas Janni, a visit-helping to run the courses, listed the dilemmas facing the English king before Agin-court: "What right does he have to this leadership? How does he deal with trailors, and why did he not see the treachery coming? How does he rally his troops and get them to fol-

'Then, as he endures the long dark night of the soul, how much should he role-play and how much should he be himself? Then, with the battle won, how do you turn victory into a garden, and how do you nurture yourself in success?

Gentlemen in England now abed will clearly think themselves accurs'd if they miss the course, to be held in June, But there will be others. Shakespeare's potential for management training is endless, according to Olivier.

Julis Caesar is an obvious one, and not just about backstabbing. According to the course organisers, it is about the positive and negative potential of organisational politics, it is about learning to cope with the fallout of betrayal, and it is about the morals of an illegal action and when it is iustified. Well, the evil that men do lives after them.

The Merchant of Venice might have lessons for credit card issuers who demand a high annual rates, but it is also a candidate on the Cranfield list for teaching not only issues of justice and mercy but also the difference between male and female perceptions of those ideals. Don't strain yourself, Portia,

Olivier himself is much taken by the didactic potential of

HOW TO GET AHEAD WITH THE RIGHT PLOT

Desired quality: leading an unwilling workforce into a life-or-death sales battle with a met, when other board members are plotting against you. Study: Henry V lity: avoiding becoming obsess its own sake to the extent that your wife encourages you to

Desired quality: knowing what you are supposed to be doing in a business environment that never seems to stand still, with

Desired quality: not letting personal distractions get in the way of business decisions. Study: Measure For Measure

The Winters Tale, although given its stage direction of "Bohemia, a desert country near the sea" it should perhaps not be taken entirely at face value. But it is a work about the everchanging world, and how, when we are fired for being too old, or too fuddy-duddy, or unable to operate the new computer system, we must accept our fate and move on with good grace: "Bequeath to death your numbness; for

And, says Olivier, there are lessons in Measure For Measure on how human and sexual desires intrude on the path to chief executive officer's chair: "Hence shall we see if power change purpose, what our seemers be." And then there is Macbeth.

which according to Olivier is not so much about getting someone to do your dirty role of becoming obsessed with power for its own sake. And therein lies the difference with Hamlet. Olivier said: "What kind of a context does one create in which to take action? Hamlet cannot get clear what his context is, and that is a big question for corporate managers; their parameters are becoming ever less clear." Finally, there is the ultimate challenge of King Lear, which might at some future date figure on the Cranfield syllabus.

Lear, says Olivier, is a man who wants to half give up his power, yet does not entirely want to lose control. And there, in Shakespeare's greatest creation, is the nugget of advice for all business people to heed before their old white heads render them beyond improvement courses: "Keep thy foot out of brothels, thy hand out of plackets, thy pen from lenders' books, and defy the foul fiend."

A model for today's keen business leader. Henry V, as played by Kenneth Branagh pilots risked disaster

By ARTHUR LEATHLEY

THE captain of a jet carrying 220 passengers that scraped the ground while attempting to land in a storm apparently relished the challenge and took unnecessary risks, an accident report said yesterday.

The captain of the Airtours International Boeing 757 tried three times to land before heading for another airport with low reserves of fuel. The co-pilot, 34, failed to challenge his "flawed decisions" on the flight from Birmingham to the Dominican Republic last year, the report said. The captain is alleged by passengers to have joked as he struggled to bring the aircraft down.

After the first attempted landing the aircraft circled the airport at Puerto Plata. A second attempt was also abandoned but the captain and co-pilot tried again, relying on their vision rather than using standard instruments in the cockpit. When the aircraft swung round for the third attempt, the captain's spectacles were dislodged. The pilots failed to stabilise the aircraft at the minimum permitted altitude of 400 ft, but continued their attempt, contravening protocol. The plane veered off the runway, scraping on to scrubland. The report by the Domini-can Republic Authorities, published by the British Air Accidents Investigation Branch, said that Airtours had demot-ed the captain, 53. He and the co-pilot have since undergone further training.

Accident | Helicopter crash man panicked in fog

By Helen Johnstone

THE helicopter in which a couple crashed into the sea on Easter Monday had flown low over a holiday camp minutes before the accident, it was claimed vesterday.

Paul Burgess, a millionaire businessman, and his wife, Lisa, 27, who is two months pregnant, were recovering at home in Wooburn Green, Buckinghamshire, after spending 90 minutes in icy water off the south coast.

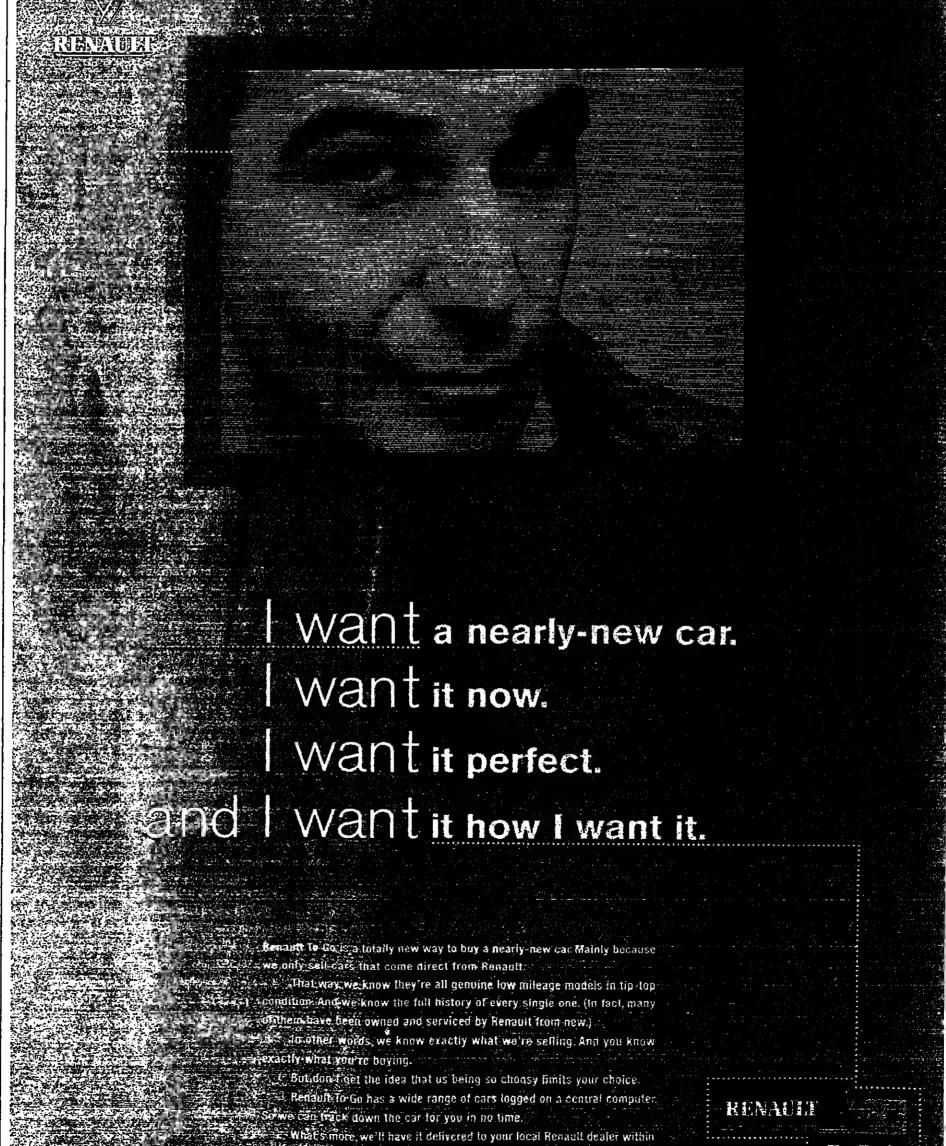

An official at the Devonbased air traffic control centre that monitored the flight claimed that Mr Burgess. 37, may have panicked after he flew into dense fog and becarned disorientated as his two-seater Bell Jet Ranger lost height off Charmouth, Dorset.

The official, who cannot be identified. said that Mr Burgess got into difficulties soon after taking off. "He was shouting and did not seem to take in the advice he was being given by controllers."

had flown 100ft over a holiday camp at Budleigh Salterton in Devon.

headed towards Dorset, where it was lost on radar. The official added: "He must have gone below a certain height We think he was trying to find a pocket in the cloud and fog but was getting more disorientated and panicky."

The Air Accidents Investiga tion Branch confirmed that it was investigating the incident.

working days, fully serviced, immaculately prepared and backed by a

Todindyour nearest Renault To Go dealer, call 0800 319 419 or visit www.renauthcoluk You won't find us wanting.

servicing and at least 12 months' warranty into the bargain.

PAND CONDITIONS APPLY, SEE YOUR PARTICIPATING DEALSH FOR MILL CETAILS

Sweet salesman ''had sticky fingers'

A SALESMAN stole more than a million sweets from his employers, a court was told yesterday.

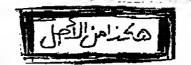

Sidney Hamilton should have had more than two million penny sweets in his lockup when managers made a spot check but they found almost half were missing. Exeter Crown Court was told that the 37-year-old sales representative supplemented his commission by selling them and pocketing the money. Hamilton, of Kingsteignton, south Devon, denies dealing 411,000 worth of sweets from Wisepenny Ltd over ten months in 1997. Geoffrey Mercer, for the prosecution, said that Mr Hamilton ordered sweets each week by telephone and they were delivered to his lock-up premises in Newton Abbot. "In October 1997, the regional sales manager carried out a stock check and found the value of stock to be about £11,500. He should have had nearly £23.000." He said that Mr Hamilton must have sold the sweets and kept the mooey.

The trial continues

Suspects hear grim toll of bomb victims

FROM STEPHEN FARRELL AT CAMP ZEIST

ONE by one, all 270 names of the Lockerbie bomh victims were read out yesterday to the twn Libyans suspected of blowing up Pan Am Flight 103.

On their first full day in Scoriish custody Abdel Basset Ali al-Megrahi. 46, and Lamine Khalifa Fhimeh, 42, sat for two hours as Dumfries and Galloway police, pausing for translation, read nut the deiailed warrani outlining the charges against them.

They were then fingerprinted, photographed and provided DNA samples before appearing separately before Gra-ham Cox. QC. Sheriff Principal of Strathelyde South, Dumfries and Galloway.

The five-minute hearing took place at Camp Zeist, the 100-acre former US Air Force base in The Netherlands where the pair will be tried under Sconish law. Hanging on the wall was a royal coat of arms, made of polystyrene, which had been brought from

The men made no pleas and were committed for further examination until a hearing next week when committal proceedings begin on charges of murder, conspiracy to murder and contravention of the Aviation Security Act 1982.

TRIAL

Each was accompanied by a Scottish advocate, solicitor and Libyan representative, and spoke in Arabic only to confirm their names. The hearing took place within the police station where they were taken afier being delivered to The Netherlands from Libya by the UN on Monday night.

Neither man wore handcuffs and the sheriff and the advocates were not wearing wigs, in keeping with usual procedure at committal hearings in chambers.

Mr al-Megrahi and Mr Fhimeh are now in a temporary prison block on the site.

more than 100 Scottish police and prison officers. The twostorey building is divided into two. On one side is the police station and on the other is the prison, with coils of razor wire along the walls and roof, metgrilles over the windows. and floodlights and closed-circuit television cameras overlooking the exercise yard.

Technically the trial must begin within 110 days of next week's comminal. The defence is expected to ask for an adjournment to prepare their case. In the meantime, work will begin on building the prison where the men will be held during the trial and the courthouse, which will be housed within a former elementary school used by 32nd Squadron US Air Force during the Cold

Court officials said that the suspects were being treated exactly like any other Scottish prisoners and that the court procedures were being conducted as they would at any other court in Scotland. "The only thing that is unique is where it is taking place," one judicial source said.

An armed Scottish policeman checks a vehicle entering HM Prison Zeist vesterday

Scots guards go Dutch until trial begins

By STEPHEN FARRELL

THE HM Prison sign is up and Celtic's results are on Ceefax, but the guard dogs and the breakfast sausages are still Durch in this parch of The Netherlands that has become a temporary sliver of Scotland.

Few of the 200 Scottish police, prison officers and support staff guarding the two prisoners in Zeist will ever see the suspected Libyan intelligence agents whose trial is the reason for everyone being on this 100-acre site near Utrecht. The pair are kept deep within the former air force camp on the wooded site.

The men entrusted with the task of arranging the guard on them until the trial, expected next year, are Detective Chief Superintendent Tom McCulloch of Dumfries and Galloway Constabulary: Jim Ballantyne, the newly appointed governor of HM Prison Zeisi, and his deputy. Eddie Gordon. With them are police from all eight Scottish forces, who are assigned for 12-week stints. spending alternate weeks in The Neiherlands and at home with their families.

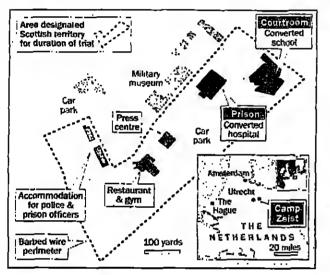

Prison offices will serve similar rotations, but fortnightly. All will live on the base, surrounded by a barbed-wire perimeter fence and patrolled by guards with sub-machineguns and bulletproof jackets. Canine security is provided by Dutch alsatians to avoid quarantine difficulties. Although there is no bar, drink will be available when the camp is fully up and running.

The Dutch caterers in the canteen ensure there is little distinctive Sconish flavour to mealtimes, with a typical breakfast consisting of eggs, Dutch sausage, bread, cold meats and tiny packets of Rice Krispies and cornflakes. The canteen does, however, have cable television which broadcasts BBCI and other English and foreign language channels. Football fans are already querying whether Manchesier United, Celric and Rangers fixtures will be screened and orb. ers are setting up a sports and social club to play Dutch teams,

Conditions for Mr al-Megrahi and Mr Fhimeh are similar to those of Category A remand prisoners in Sconish jails, although their cells are about twice as large. They have a window but no television, and the bath and shower are outside the cell The Libyans will wear their own clothes and will be allowed a few possessions such as books and newspapers, but probably not radios. They will be permitted visits by anyone

Libya's rehabilitation starts on the beaches

BY MICHAEL BINYON DIPLOMATIC EDITOR

LIBYA is poised for a swift return to the international community. Tourists are looking forward to a return to some of the finest beaches on the Mediterranean, while British businessmen are preparing to sign huge oil and airline contracts.

The suspension of Uoited Nations sanctions has opened the door to tourism in a country ready to welcome back Europeans. Libyan Arab Airlines announced yesterday that it was considering a resumption of international flights, and will publish a new schedule today. An application for a new licence to land in Britain is expected soon.

Libya, which is three times the size of France but has a population of barely five million. boasts some of the finest Roman ruins in North Afrlca and sweeping beaches that have seen hardly a tourist for the past decade. Leptis Magna, with its paved streets, colossal cornices and a monumental arch, was once a city to rival Rome, and the birthplace of the Roman emperor Septimius Severus. Libya hopes it will swiftly draw Europeans back in their thousands. Other well-known sites include Cyrenaica, an ancient Greek colony with beautiful gardens.

Some of the first to visit will be veterans of the Second World War and the families of Allied soldiers buried in Libya. Previous attempts to organise reunions and pilgrimages were hampered by poor political relations and the lack of air links. A resumption of flights will also boost trade. Britain is well placed to clinch big export orders for new oil industry equipment. In recent months, Libya has also been holding talks with British Aerospace on what is believed to be a large order. Diplomatic relations will take come from the Embassy Since relations were broken, Libya's interests have been handled by looger. The Government has made clear that Libya can set np a consulate in Scotland if the trial of the two Lockerbie suspects results in their coovictioo and imprisonment in Glasgow. But the reopeoing of embassies depends oo progress on the issue of the killing of WPC Yvonne

Fletcher in 1984 by a shot said to have been fired from the Libyan Embassy. Libya has oever admitted responsibility, and the police are investigating claims in a televisioo documentary that the shot may not have

Saudi Arabia and Britain's in Tripoli have been handled by ttaly. Yesterday Lamberto Dini, Italy's Foreign Minister, arrived in Tripoli to signal a European welcome for Libya's return to the international community. European Union foreign mioisters are expected shortly to invite Libya to rejoin the Europe-Arab dialogue and to take part in investment and development meetings. America has oo plans to lift its trade embargo, imposed before the Lockerbie bombing io response to what it said was support for terrorism.

Return to Libya, page 24

FREEPHONE FOR MORE INFORMATION 0800 731

think big about your PC...think T TINY COMPUTERS LIMITED, REDHILL BUSINESS PARK, BONEHURST ROAD, SALFORDS, REDHILL, SURREY RH1 5YB. FAX 01293 822 514. www.tiny.com

NOTHING TO PAY FOR 12 MONTHS – NOT EVEN A DEPOSIT

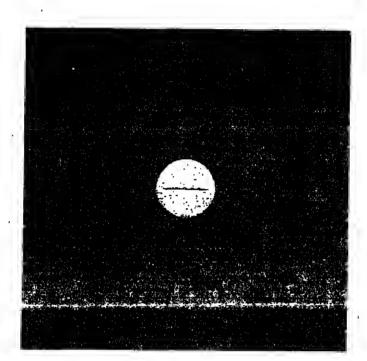

All trademarks acknowledged. All prices and manufacturers specifications are subject to change without notice. Please check availability before ordering. Goods are offered for sale subject to standard conditions of صكدان الاصل

AV 200 ROOM

The new Lupo. From as little as £7,895 for the 1.0 E.

independence by stealth, reports Jason Allardyce

THE CAMPAIGN to win control of Scotland's first partiament in 300 years began yesterday with Labour accusing nationalists of hiding their plans for independence.

Donald Dewar, the Scottish Labour leader, opened his party's election campaign by accusing the Scottish National Party of an "exercise in dishonesty" over its plans for a refer-endum on independence. His comments, which infuriated the SNP leadership, were prompted by the nationalists' decision to put their commit-ment to independence and a referendum within four years at the bottom of a ten-point pledge card. Other low-key issues, including abolishing Private Finance Initiatives and commitments to land reform. featured more prominently.

Addressing a rally in Edinburgh's Parliament Square, Mr Dewar said: "This must be the first time in political history that a separatist party has tried deliberately to conceal its sole purpose for existing.

"I say to the SNP that you can tear up your ten points but what you must do above all is start telling Scotland the truth. If they win on May 6 I believe they will start filing for an expensive and messy divorce from Britain."

Mr Dewar said that the SNP had already made clear that it they would begin negotiations on independence the day after they won the elec-

But Alex Salmond, the SNP leader, denied that the party was trying to hide its commitment to independence, which he said still remained at the

Scottish Office site with general Information on Scottish parliament, including its make-up, powers, voting system and building design www.scotland.org.uk general directory with information on Scottish politics and parties www.scotland.gov.nk general Scotlish Office directory

Donald Dewar boards Labour's Holyrood "battle bus" in Edinburgh yesterday. He said that independence would cost jobs and necessitate tax increases a second-place finish would better suit the party's long-term goals by allowing them

heart of its campaign strategy. If we do win an overall major ity, then of course we would ask Westminster for negotiations," he said.

The decision on independence is a decision made in a referendum. It has to be made in a straight question — it has to be a straight yes or no."

Mr Dewar said that Scots faced a stark choice at the polls between social justice and a divorce from the rest of Britain that would raise taxes and cost an attempt at a disordered retreat and an admission that the one reason for their existence is the reason on which they cannot be elected They are now a party that will say anything to win." he said. Mr Dewar also praised the work of Tony Blair and the late Labour leader John Smith, which he said had played a vital role in achieving a Souttish Parliament. Earlier, the SNP launched its campaign saying that its pledge to forgo the penny tax cut and invest in public services would be the defining issue of the contest, Mr Salmond

"What we are seeing now is Plaid Cymru on a high PLAID CYMRU kicked off the campaign for the Welsh assembly elections yesterday. promising "a oew beginning for Wales" and claiming its current support is the highest in the party's 75 years. Dafydd Wigley, MP, the party president.

said: "The contest between investment in public services and a penny tax bribe is one that the SNP will win decisive-would judge the issue on their own experience in hospitals, housing schemes and classrooms, and accused Labour of being run by "remote control"

He rejected suggestions that from London.

Mr Salmond said that Scots

said coofidence was high that Labour would be denied an overall majority of the 60 seats in the vote in 30 days. Recent opin-ioo polls have put support for Plaid Cymru at 29 per cent compared with 10 per cent at the general election.

Speaking as his candidates gathered at Cardiff Bay, site of the assembly. Mr Wigley said: "We have made up tremendous ground since the general election and have to mount effective opposition to a fledgeling Labour executive. The SNP is trying to win this campaign and win it for Scotland and we have put forward policies that we believe the people of Scotland will rally to in the next four weeks."

Salmond dismissed

opinion polls suggesting his party was lagging badly behind Labour, saying Time will tell in the next four weeks whether I'm right or Gordon Brown is right."

Mr Dewar, who is tomor-row expected to announce the creation of 300 jobs in Glasgow through American investment, later told activists in Bathgate to go all-out to defeat the SNP and independence.

fully established oorselves as the only credible alternative to Labour in Wales. Peonle.

particularly in the industrial Valleys, have seeo what one-party government can do, and I think they are determined to see that While Laboor acknowledges that the nationalists are its greatest threat, the party intends to concentrate its campaign on show ing voters how the Government has already delivered on key issues such as the minimum wage and boosting child benefits. Labour's assembly manifesto is expected to be published oext week. The Liberal Democrats will unveil their proposals today; the Conserva-tives launch their campaign tomorrow.

doesn't happen in the assembly."

you don't believe in it don't vote for it," he said played down speculation about their role as potential power brokers in the Scottish parliament when they launched their campaign with a pledge to double spending on school books and equipment (Gillian Harris writes).

The Liberal Democrats

Jim Wallace, the party's Scottish leader, who is expected to form a coalition government with the largest single party at Holyrood, said that his party would enter coalition talks once the votes were counted. But he repeated his promise that the Lib Dems would not form a coalition with any party advocating a referendum on independence during the first term in office, effectively ruling out partnership with the SNP. The Liberal Democrats. who have declared their willingness to use the so-called tartan tax to fund increased spending on education, plan to invest an extra £60 million on education in the first year of government, equivalent to £80 per pupil.

poster, unveiled yesterday, uses a photograph of Westminster and the slogan: "Scottish Labour Policy. Here. Here." The Tories claimed that Labour's policies for the Scottish parliament were dictated by the London party. Raymond Robertson, the chairman of the Scottish Conservatives, said that Labour had talked "endlessly" about devolution for 18 years. He claimed that it was "the supreme irony" that Mr Blair now refused to devolve "so much as a scrap of real power to the Scottish Labour Party".

Building block falls

The Government is expected to pay more than £400.000 for three former council houses that stand in the way of the new Scottish parliament building in Edinburgh. The price has been agreed after almost a year of negotiations with Edinburgh City Council and two private owners who bought the properties under the right-to-buy legislation.
One estate agent described the 1950's terraced homes as "unprepossessing and architecturally unfashionable" and worth little more than £50,000. The Scottish Office has refused to confirm the purchase price but said that a deal had been struck and the properties would now be demolished. The council's property services committee is expected to agree to sell one property to the Scotlish Office for £117.000. It is understood that the private owners will be offered about £150,000 each.

Scargill misses launch

Arthor Scargili yesterday cancelled his speech to launch the Socialist Labour Party's manifesto for the Scottish Parliament election campaign. Mr Scargill, a founder member, rang party colleagues an hour before he was due to speak in Glasgow to say that he could not attend because he was negotiating a pay rise for National Uoion Mineworkers' members employed by RJB Mioing. The SLP has pledged to abolish unemployment and double the minimum wage if elected to Holyrood. The party, which expects to win two or three seats, plans to wind down the nuclear industry and develop wave, wind and solar power, as well as lobby Westminster to abolish VAT and raise corporation tax.

Quote of the day

Donald Dewar, the Scottish Secretary, on the Scottish National Party's ten-point election pledge, which puts independence last:

This must be the first time in political history that a separatist party has tried deliberately to conceal its sole purpose for existing from the electorate?

AGENDA

The Chancellor Gordon Brown officially launches the Scottish Labour election campaign with Scottish party leader Donald Dewar in the party's new media centre in The Liberal Democrat manifesto is launched in Edinburgh and the SNP leader Alex Salmond will be campaigning on the nationalist battlebus across

Into :

the west of Scotland.

Haven't voted yet? Bet your money you will.

Of course you should vote.

It's your savings or mortgage that'll be affected.

Don't leave it to chance.

You've got a lot to gain if Bradford & Bingley stays a building society.

So vote by post or at your branch by 20th April.

After all, it's your money that's riding on it.

Bradford & Bingley Building Society is regulated by the Personal Investment Authority for investment business

Bradford & Bingley

You'll be better off if we stay a building society.

THE DAILY MAIL IDEAL HOME SHOW. THE LAST CHANCE FOR INSPIRATION ENDS THIS SUNDAY.

SPECIAL SHOW OFFERS BAGS OF SHOPPING AND CHOICE

> THE UK'S LARGEST COLLECTION OF INTERNATIONAL FURNITURE COMPANIES UNDER ONE ROOF

650 EXHIBITORS

THOUSANDS OF LEADING BRANDS

SAMPLING AND

DEMONSTRATIONS

INSPIRATION AND IDEAS

NOT VALID AT WEEKENDS.

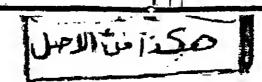

WHEN YOU BRING THIS COUPON TO THE BOX OFFICE

EARLS COURT . LONDON . ENDS 11TH APRIL OPEN FROM 10AM TO 8PM . 10PM THURSDAY 6PM SUNDAY . TICKETS AVAILABLE ON THE DOOR ON NOW UNTIL SUNDAY 11TH AT EARLS COURT

BASED ON FULL ADULT TICKET PRICE ONLY, NOT VALID IN CONJUNCTION WITH ANY OTHER OFFER us legislate ned home;

Then Office b

aund

When the telephone is a pain in the neck

MEDICAL CORRESPONDENT

OFFICE workers who spend hours hunched over the telehours hunched over the action phone and tapping at a computer are putting themselves at risk of more than a pain in the neck. A condition christened whome neck, can cause probthe olution for the inch A condition christened phone neck a can cause problems in the spine, arms and hands, researchers have found.

The musculoskeletal condition is caused by gripping the telephone between the head and shoulders, leaving both hands free to use a keyboard and take notes. A study published today by the health sciences department at Surrey University says that this posture increases the risk of nerve compression in the neck and shoulder, with consequent problems in the spine, arms and hands.

Another potentially dangerous posture involves leaning forward, away from the back of the chair, while taking a call. The study says this puts greater pressure on the spine and can cause cumulative back problems. The two-month

HOW TO RELIEVE THE STRAIN

Headsets remain the most effective of hands-free telephone operations, with more than six million in use world-wide. BT offers three types of headset, priced from £59.99 to £129.99. For £187.94 BT sells an adaptor that converts any modular telephone into a headset and handset working while its £50 Holdaphone allows the normal handset to be attached to a flexible arm.

Another option is the phone rest, a cradle-style attachment that sits on the shoulder and allows the caller to use both hands without contorting the spine. Ericsson and Nortel Networks are among telecoms suppliers researching this simple pain-relieving method.

and take time to manifest."

avoided by using headsets.

Tracy Bury, head of re-search and development at the society, said neck and back pain caused 1.2 million lost working days a year. "The resulting cost to industry and the NHS is massive but it could be cut dramatically with study was conducted on 26 staff aged 18 to 57 at offices in London handling legal, financial, secretarial and computer work. It found that 65 per cent had headaches someomes or frequently when using a telephone handset for more than two hours a day, 50 per cent had neckache and 31 per cent complained of lower-back pain, Elizabeth Simpson, the report's author, said: "Unlike manual worker safety, the is-sue of occupational injury among office staff is still not the Royal College of Physicians, found that using a phone while driving could bring on a condition he called mobile users' shoulder droop. One of his patients lost the use of his right arm for a month after spending two hours on his mobile phone. A nerve in the neck was damaged by being compressed by the handset.

Doctors at a Paris hospital of these common problems."

Anthony Hopkins, a neurologist and director of research at treated a 36-year-old woman ployers. This is partly because with severe neck pain and ring-ing in the ear. They found that the injuries caused by bad telephone habits cannot be seen blood had become trapped in her neck artery while she The Chartered Society of made a half-hour call on a cord-Physiotherapy said that the condition, which its members less phone that she wedged under her chin while ironing. called telephonitis, could be Anyone who combines telephoning with other tasks, including driving, increases neck and shoulder tension by 41 per cent, according to research by the Institute for Treatment and Prevention of Repetitive Modon Injuries at Santa Clara Valley Medical Centre in California.

Hours spent using a telephone while also typing risks causing painful nerve damage

Vegetarians should watch what they drink

BY HELEN RUMBELOW

ONLY half of all wines are suitable for vegetarians but this is rarely stated on the boitle, a report by the Consumers'

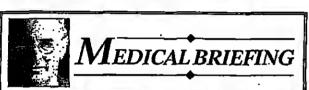

Association says today.

Dried ox blood was traditionally used to clarify wines. Now producers are likely to use geladne, from beef, or isinglass, from fish, to remove the residue. For vegan wine, manufacturers have to avoid other clarifying agents such as egg white. Instead they use clay or leave the wine unfiltered.

Widespread confusion over labelling among producers and drinkers, means that organic wines and those suitable for vegetarians and vegans often fail to make this clear.

France is the biggest pro ducer of organic wines but that is because they are largely small family-run concerns that have always made wine in a traditional way, without pesticides. It often takes someone else to come along and norice that they are organic. Susy Atkins, Editor of Which? Wine Guide and author of the report in Health Which? said

Nerve centres damaged by a twisted spine

TWISTING the neck in order to hold a telephone without hands puts pressure on the spine, contoris it and will expose any nerve root vulnerability caused by disc problems.

The point at risk from a badly clasped telephone is that at which the neck and shoulder meet the "sait cellar" dips above the collar bone. Here, nerves emerge from the neck vertebrae to form the brachial plexus, which supplies nerves to the arm, neck and upper

Nerve roots can be impaired by pressure, which is commony the result of an injury to the intervertebral discs. Nerve root damage can result in pain, loss of sensation or loss of muscle power in the area supplied by the nerve roots. Another possible explanaoon for nerve damage follow-ing a telephone oeck injury is that it may be caused by prolonged pressure on a nerve that is pressed between the plastic of the handset and the bone and hard tissue of the neck. This type of injury is more commonly observed when someone has been sleeping deeply and a comparative-

A BATHFUL of hot water will generate enough electricity to run a television for about two hours, a professor at Cardiff

University has proved.

Michael Rowe said: "Instead of letting waste water run down the plughole, you can take the heat out of it and Professor Rowe, who used a 19th-century invention, the thermocouple, to turn the heat into power, believes there is a create electricity."

ly superficial nerve has been caught between a bony part of the body - such as a shoulder, elbow or knee - and a chair or bedhead. A drunken person who falls asleep with their arm over the back of a chair. can damage the radial nerve in the upper arm.

Neck problems related to telephone use have been described before, but discomfort in the lower back brought on by leaning forward while using a telephone is a new observation by the Surrey researchers. This pain is similar to that induced in men who have lumbar disc troubles when they stoop forward to peer at themselves in a shaving mirror. Pain may be eased if the chair and telephone are placed so it is not necessary to lean for-ward. The ideal solution would be to correct faulty posture by learning the Alexander technique or Pilates exercises.

Once the damage is done, however, padents may have to wear a neck support. Persistent pressure on a nerve root or compression of the cord could also necessitate surgery.

DR THOMAS STUTTAFORD

big future in generating elec-device: two wires of different metals joined at their ends to form a loop. When one junction is hot and the other cold.

electricity flows around the loop. In a central heating system, for example, a thermocouple placed between hat and cold water pipes will gen-erate enough electricity to drive the pump.

A thermocouple is a simple tricity from waste heat.

Before you buy a Pentium" ill processor, check it ticks all our boxes.

At Gateway only the best deals ga Into aur boxes, but you'd better move fast because this one's closing on April 10th. The multimedia G7-450B comes with Intel® Pentium® III processor, freephane technical support and 3 years on-site service so that if we can't solve a problem over the phane we'll send an engineer to fix it. But this doesn't mean you pay mare because each Gateway computer is custom built to ensure you get the latest technology, at the latest prices, in a PC that's right for you. And to keep things hassle free we'll even deliver it right to your door. So if you want a great PC and peace pentium•/// of mind, have it your way, call Gateway.

YOUR GT-490E WAITDMEDIR PY THE KAGE. FULLY FEATURED MULTIMEDIA PC WITH MODEM

Intel® Pentium® III Processor, 450MHz

64MB SDRAM

Epson[®] Stylus[™] 440 Colour Printer

17° EV700 Monitor

Microsoft® Windows® 98, MS® IntelliMouse™

MS Works Suite 99

0800 97 37 37

Over 50 and renewing your Otor insurance? Try Saga for high cover, low cost motor insurance Scientist plugs his

TV into the bath

FREE 0800 484 184 quoting reference TM3930 Our lines are open 8.30am to 7pm weekdays, and 9am to 1pm Saturdays.

Saga products and services and may pass on your

PASHMINA & CASHMERE

STOCK CLEARANCE SALE We have an extensive range of Pashmina Shawls Mens & Ladies Cashmere Knitwear accessories all made from the finest quality Pashmina & Cashmere.

FROM £39.-Chelsez Town Hall Kings Road, London, SW3 5EE Friday 9th April 11am to 6pm

Saturday 10th April 10am to 5pm

Fave it your way direct from

Gateway Stores: Croydon The Whitgift Centre Kingston The Bentall Centre Covent Garden 10 Bedford Street Manchester The Trafford Centre Leeds 95 The Headrow Kent The Bluewater Centre Sales Phone Lines Open Monday to Friday 8am-10pm. Saturday 9am-6pm

@1999 Gateway 2000 Europe. All rights reserved. Gateway, Your:) Ware and the Gateway stylised logo are trademarks of Cateway 2000 inc. The Intel Inside Logo and Pentium are registered trademarks of the Intel Corporation. All other brands and product names are trademarks or registered trademarks of their respective campanies. All sales subject to Gateway 2000 Europe's standard terms and conditions (available an request) and limited warranty. All prices and configurations are subject to change without notice or obligation. All prices are quoted in Sterling. Available with all PCs with a modern, Terms and conditions apply. gateway.net technical support calls are charged at £1 a minute at all times. Offer applies to Windows 95 and 98 systems only.  Terms and conditions apply, please cell for details. BUY NOW, PAY APRE, 2000 — available on all our PCs. Typical example: Total cosh price including VAT and delivery £1219.65. Loan value £1219.65. Repayments: one repayment in April 2000 of £1219.65. Total amount provide £1219.65.

Benan

Nannies 'must agree not to hit'

By Alexandra Frean SOCIAL AFFAIRS CORRESPONDENT

PARENTS should employ people to look after their children only if they agree not to smack them, the Government advised yesterday.

In a 20-page booklet, Need A Nanny?. it says it is important for parents to discuss "posiove discipline strategies" with prospective nannies. "A trained childcare worker would never use physical punishment as a form of discipline," it adds.

Campaigners for anti-smacking laws said yesterday that if professional childcarers, acting in place of parents, were not allowed to smack, then parents should also be banned from doing so. Alan Coombe, from the Barnado's charity, said: "Physical vio-lence against children is never acceptable, whether administered by a nanny or a parent. Margaret Hodge, junior Educa-tion and Employment Minister, who oversees policy on childcare, said that the Government was not trying to preach to parents about what to do in their own home, but most parents would not find it acceptable for their nanny to smack their children. "People who do a childcare course will be trained to use strategies other than smacking," she said.

The Department of Health has promised to curb the right of parents to hit their children with an implement, such as a cane, but has stopped short of outlawing smacking. After a ruling in the European Court last au-tumn that British law on corporal punishment failed to protect children's rights, it is drawing up a con-sultation document on what kind of smacking should be allowed.

Yesterday's guidelines on hiring nannies come two months after Louise Sullivan, the Australian nanny, was convicted at the Old Bailey of killing a six-month old baby in her care by shaking her. The booklet informs parents that they will soon be able to use the new Criminal Records Bureau to vel potential employees. The bureau, which should become operational early next year, will list people deemed to be unsuitable to work with children.

Need a Nanny?, which will be distributed free in doctors' surgeries, libraries and supermarkets, advises parents to check any unexplained gaps in an applicant's work experience and to check all references with previous employers and teachers over the telephone or in person. Employers are also advised to choose namines with qualifications from recognised childcare organisations. Officials are also drawing up a code of conduct for nanny agencies, and those that sign up to it will get a government seal of approval.

Need a Nanny? can be obtained free of charge by telephoning 0845 6022260 or e-mailing dfee@prologis-tics.co.uk Ref: NANGP. It will shortly be available on the Internet at ww.djee.gov.uk/ nanny/ index.htm

WORLD IN BRIEF

Churches closed in protest at violence

Nazareth: Churches were closed for 48 hours yesterday in an unprecedented protest against attacks oo Christians by Muslims (Christopher Walker writes). The violence in the town, which is home to 42,000 Muslims and 18,000 Christians, is the most serious in the Holy Land for many years and could wreck plans to make it a centre of millennium celebrations. Riot police patrolled the streets and vigilantes guarded churches as Christian leaders, who ordered the closures, called on the Israeli Government to take steps to halt the violence, which began over rival plans for land close to the Basilica of the Annunciation.

Iraqis executed

Rashdad: Four Iragis, including three dergymen, have been hanged for the murder of the country's Shia Musiki leader and two of his sons, an official statement said yesterday. The men were shown on state television last month con-fessing to shooting Grand Ayatollah Mohammed Sadiq al-Sader and his sons in February, but exiled opposition groups said one of them had been in jail since 1991. (AP)

Call for guerrilla war

Jakarta: Xanana Gusmao, the East Timorese independence leader, has called for a resumption of the guerrilla war against Indonesian forces in the occupied territory (Patricia Nunan writes). Gusmao's lawyer said that he would withdraw the call to arms if a UN contingent was deployed to stop attacks by pro-Indonesian militias that have killed scores of civilians in recent months.

Forgers' $1m a week

Cali: A gang of Colombian forgers who are said to have made more than $1 million (£620,000) a week by bleaching 10 Bolivares notes, worth 10p, and reprinting them as near-perfect US$10 bills have been arrested by police after a tip-off (Gabriella Gamini writes). Much of the money was used to launder drug profits. The US Treasury Department said that the fakes had been entering America for three years.

Magician buried alive

New York: David Blaine, a 25-year-old magician, was buried alive in a see through coffin where he has vowed to remain for a week as a test of his will. He has prepared for the stant by learning to put himself into a trance-like state and spending four days a week in a coffin in his living room. Blaine will have no food and three to foor table-spoons of water a day. Fresh air will be pumped in. (AP)

Velázquez grave found

Madrid: Historians say they have located the remains of the painter Velazquez under a Madrid street. If confirmed the bones will be moved to a more suitable site to mark the 400th anniversary of his birth this year. His crypt was originally under a church that was demolished when Napoleonic forces invaded Spain. Previous attempts to find the site, in 1845 and 1960, failed because of faulty maps. (AP)

Tycoon faces arrest

Moscow: A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Boris Berezovsky, the tycoon who helped to finance President Yeltsin's re-election in 1996, on charges of money laundering and illegal cotrepreneurship. Mr Berezovsky is accused with Nikolai Głushkov, Aeroflot's former deputy director, of si-phoning off billions of dollars from the airline's profits. Mr Berezovsky, who is in France, denied he would seek asylum.

Crime boss pleads guilty

New York: John Gotti Jr, head of America's largest crime family, entered a surprise guilty plea on the eve of his trial on racketeering charges (James Bone writes). Gotti Jr faces a maximum sentence of seven years. Prosecutors said his guilty plea meant the death knell for the Gottis' 15-year rule over the once-feared New York crime family. Gotti's father, the former head of the clan, is serving a life sentence.

Teachers call for bar on unruly pupils

BY A CORRESPONDENT

A TEACHER lold yesterday how a four-year-old boy was excluded in his first week at school after biong 16 children and four teachers.

Dave Battye said he was called in to a South Yorkshire school as a teachers' union representative just two days after the boy's arrival.

He told delegates at the National Association of Schoolmasters and Union of Women Teachers' conference in Eastbourne that the boy was unteachable, and joined calls for disruptive children to be kept out of mainstream schools.

The union criticised the spread of special units within schools designed to deal with disruptive pupils. The Governmeni is planning more of the units as part of its strategy to reduce the soaring level of school exclusions.

Mr Battye, a member of the union executive, told the con-ference that teachers should not be expected to teach children who did not want to

"This is not an educational problem. We deal with educational problems. This little boy at four going round biting members of the public at random was not an educational problem. His mouth watered when he saw dinner ladies."

The boy bit seven pupils and two members of staff on his first day. He bit nine pupils, the head teacher and the deputy head on his second day, before being excluded. Mr Battye rejected the view of educationists who blamed bad behaviour on difficulties children had in coping with their school work. Delegates backed a motion condemning the "chaoric agenda of pupils who respond nei-ther to authority nor to ambi-oon". They said units for disruptive children, "sin bins", should not be used as an alternative to permanent exclusion. Delegates also criticised plans to set targets for cutting the number of exclusions.

Jim Prior, a delegate from North Lanarkshire, called for legislation to make parents more responsible for chil-dren's behaviour. "The time for namby-pamby education theories is over," he said.

☐ England's three main classroom unions should hold a joint ballot to convince ministers of the strength of opposition to plans for performance-related pay, Doug McAvoy, general secretary of the Na-tional Union of Teachers, said vesterday.

In his closing address to the NUT's conference in Brighton, he said that the Government's decision to make the new teacher appraisals voluntary in their first year was not sufficient to head off the union's campaign of industrial action.

Leading article, page 19

The Grade II listed station at Mytholmroyd, the village where Huges was born, which could be converted as a tribute

Railtrack delays Hughes project

By PAUL WILKINSON, NORTH EAST CORRESPONDENT

Yorkshire accent

A NEAR-DERELICT railway building has been suggested as a heritage centre dedicated to the life and works of Ted Hughes, the late Poet Laure-

However, Railtrack, which owns the Victorian Grade II listed building in the Pennine village of Mytholmroyd in West Yorkshire, where Hughes was born, has been accused of draggiog its feet over the plan. It says it is looking at

The idea was put forward

by Royd Regeneration, a local development group, which wants to convert the building to establish a library of Hughes's work and an archive of material related to him, together with study rooms, an exhibitioo hall and a lecture theatre,

Although he lived in America and the West Country, Hughes never lost his Yorkshire burr, and now locals want to pay tribute to their most famous son. The centre has the support of Hughes's widow, Carol, and his publishers, Faber and Faber.

Sean Green, the project leader with Royd Regeneration, said that once the famiapproval had been secured, others fell in behind. The Poetry Society, Yorkshire and Humberside Arts and Calderdale Council are all involved now. Railtrack's three-storey stone building has been unoccupied for 15 years. Officially described as a stair tower, it is set into an embankment on the line between Leeds and

Manchester. It links the platform built high oo a viaduct over a tributary of the River Calder, which is also Grade II listed, with the valley floor. A modern flight of steps allows travellers access to the unmanned station. Mr Green said: "Bearing in mind the enthusiasm and excitement this project has generated, we would appreciate it if Railtrack would be more communicative and co-operative with us."

A spokeswoman for Railtrack said yesterday: "We inherited a great deal of property from British Rail when it was privatised, and we have consider how best to maximise our assets.

This building was not at the top of our priority list as the station has been unmanned for some time. We are getting round to looking at it and there are a number of interested parties. We will have to consider them on a commercial basis."

dangerously reliable!

There are business computers and there are home computers. And then thera's Dan, a rare breed of machines with a technology that makes computing more ratiable than it's ever been before. For a start, they are designed and custom-built for your needs - and yours only. They are fitted with tha latest intel® Pantium® III processor and are fully millennium compatible. What's more, they ara also unbaatable in terms of service, customer satisfaction, raliability, tachnical support and more. That's why Dan tops the polis time and again in leading publications auch as PC Magazina, PC Pro. PC World,

PC Direct, Whal PC? and PC Plus. So, if you're looking for hassle free, reliabla computing that is made for you, talk to Dan. Telephone 0800 389 7250 or fax 0181 830 1122 and quote code T7/4 for e free brochura (lines open 9am-6pm Monday to Friday). www.den.co.uk

CONFIGURE AND BUY A DAN PC ON THE WEB

dantum 3450D

64M8 PC100 Me 15" Monitor, 8M$ Video Card 6.4G2 Hard Orive, 32x Speed CD-ROM, S

PLUS Microsoft Works Suite 99 OEM: includes Money 99, Encarta World Atlas. AutoRoute Express & others

£999+VAT (ex.delivery)
$1197 Inc. VAT & delivery

BUY NOW PAY 2000

Thinking outside the box

Weight of the law bans diet advert

BY CHRISTINE MIDDAP

THE full weight of the law turned against the Yummy Yum Yum Diet yesterday. The Office of Fair Trading won a High Court injunction to stop slimming advertisements that had claimed that certain foods could burn fat or cleanse the body of impurities.

John Bridgeman, the Director-General of Fair Trading. said: "Advertisements that offer false hope and prey on the vulnerabilities of people are particularly offensive."

The injunction against Top 20 Ltd of Regent Street, London, stops the company making certain claims in its advertisements for the Yummy Yum Yum Diet. It had claimed that the diet would allow users to lose specified amounts of weight in specified times and that it was effective in cleaning the body of impurities. It also promised increased energy and reduced risk of serious illness and said that certain foods burn fat from the body.

The diet was advertised through unsolicited faxes that invited recipients to dial a premium-rate fax number to receive a diet sheet two to four pages long. The cost was £1 per minute and it took four to nine minutes to receive.

This is not the first time that I have been forced to go to court to stop misleading slimming ads," Mr Bridgeman said. "I warn anyone who continues to produce such advertisements and ignores rulings from the Advertising Standards Authority they should expect to hear from my office."

Frankfurther.

London Stansted to Frankfurt to the world, with Lufthansa.

Athens Barcelona Belgrade Bologna Bucharest Budapest Cairo Catanía Florence Geneva Innsbruck Istanbul Izmír Kíev Lisbon Lyon Madrid Marseilles Milan Minsk Moscow Naples Rome Salzburg Sarajevo Sofia Tel Aviv Thessaloniki Toulouse Turin Venice Vienna Warsaw Zagreb Zurich

If there was a fifth corner of the earth, the chances are that Lufthansa would fly there three times daily. From 28th March, you can fly from London Stansted to Frankfurt or Munich to one of 323 destinations across the globe. And counting. You'll even earn mileage on the Miles and More frequent flyer programme. For more information, call 0345 737 747, visit us online at http://www.lufthansa.co.uk or contact your local travel agent

Lufthansa

حكدا من الاصل

Beware the big banks

APRIL 71

at plans for b

Shig Med Shig Med Sheen said yea shig months shigh months shigh months shigh months shigh months ruled opposit

2 War

the Boule

and that he was da bis

. to bleade

1 TO 25 TO 11

· · · · afterat

HOR THIS

- rument

i aliv

·- · · · ×c0 pp

· · · · · ar of-13 %

... - 1372

2. ・か 極関

್ಷ. ಬಿಡಿಕ

. jeiz

, γα

100

Personal Finance Editor Anne Ashworth reports on how to make the best of your savings; why the lottery is a waste of money; how credit agencies view your have not this low since when Twiggy first sidled down the catwalk in Mary Quant designs. This is the son of detail that leads the more exproven building society chief executive to do an impersonation of a young Mick Jagger. But ask the same man about the rates available on his organisation's savings accounts and he will suddenly lose the swagger and all sense of history.

Easy Money, however, notes that the decline in morigage rates which began late last year has resulted in an even swifter fall in returns on savings. Rates on bank and building society savings accounts, in which millions of us have between £1 and £100,000 invested, were last at their curlevel in 1874. For the Quant mini, subsotute Charles Worth crinoline: for Harold Wilson, Beniamin Disraeli: for Jagger, Johann Strauss.

The happy Sixties saver earned an average of 5.78 per cent on his savings. But the average rate payable today on a basic instant access account is 1.57 per cent, below the rate of inflation of 2.4 per cent. This means that your stash of cash could be losing value as it is not keeping pace with increas-es in the cost of living. The knowledge that you have even a little money in an account is usually the source of considerable reassurance. Bul returns such as these would make even the preternaturally thrifty feel disaffected. Once lax is taken into account, the picture becomes even gloomier. Tax at the rate of 20 per cent is automatically deducted from savings interest before it is added to your account - the rate of 1.57 per cent becomes 1.26 per cent for most taxpayers. For the two million people on the higher rate of tax, this is further reduced to 0.94 per cent. Some accounts from high street banks pay much less than the average, offering savers as little as 0.50 per cent before tax. Your £5,000, amassed from much self-denial, would spending habits earn only £25 in a year. Rates on smaller balances can be more exiguous still. Place £100 in Abbey National's Instant Saver and you will earn just 0.2 per cent interest.

It would be easy to conclude that savers will soon be paying banks for the privilege of de-positing money, but the decline in returns may be slowing. There is speculation that the Bank of England's Monetary Policy Committee may cut the bank base rate tomorrow by a further 0.25 per cent to 5.25 per cent.

Britain's II million homebuyers will not necessarily re-ceive the full benefit of any decrease as there is a new desire to safeguard the interests of the nation's 19 million savers. They include the elderly, who need extra income to supplement pensions; and the young. who want to buy homes and need to see their money grow. If you are a saver who falls into the homebuyer calegory then you may feel that meagre rates for savings are a reasonable price to pay for cheaper mortgages. Shame on you for such defeatist talk. You can swap your lean, mean rate for a big-andbeefy 5 to 6 per cent even if you have only El. The secret is to stop queueing in branches and start organising your savings by post or over the phone.

The 5-per-cent-plus average instant access rate of 1966 reflects the very different savings scene of that era. People accessed their accounts over the counter in high street branches and schemes varied little from one bank to another.

The 1.5 per cent instantaccess account of 1999 reliects the waif-like rates payable on thousands of branchbased accounts. Insiders explain that these rates are set at the lowest possible level to deter the public from visiting branches that are expensive to run. Most institutions reserve their plumpest rates for customers who use the phone or

Those content with "nonooce" accounts, where it takes just a few days to withdraw money, do far better than those who insist on access to their cash over the

The Open University

What can the Open

University do for you?

We can offer you a place at one of the best universities in Britain. We'll provide you with a choice of 150 first class courses developed especially to enable you to study in your own time, backed by the Open

Sciences, English Law, Arts, Science, Mathematics, Education and Health

Whether you want to study to improve your career prospects or for your own personal interest, there's almost certainly a course for you.

If you haven't studied for a while, we'll help you get started. No previous qualifications are required, you just need a lively intelligence and a willingness to learn. It's real value for money and you can pay by University's own unique study method - OU supported open learning. We'll give you the support of a personal tutor, and the chance to meet your fellow students. You can take one-off courses, diplomas, a degree or a postgraduate degree. Subjects available include Computing, Business Management, Technology, Modern Languages, Social

Not since a Charles Worth evening dress was de rigueur bave our savings accounts delivered such paltry dividends counter and within minutes. Postal accounts come with a supply of prepaid envelopes and forms for withdrawals and new investments. If your savings have suffered dramatic weight loss, fol-

No member of the big bank fraternity is your friend. The munificence promised in advertising never quite translates into reality. Check the rates on your savings with the help of Moneyfacts, a monthly guide to savings and loans. For rates on accounts opened some years ago, ask at the institution concerned, and prepare to be shocked. Some building societies and the banking arms of insurance companies and supermarkets now provide the best deals. Egg, the banking arm of the Prudential, offers 6 per cent on £1 or more. This includes a 0.5 per cent bonus paid until the end of 1999. Egg guarantees that its rate will not be lower than the Bank of England base rate until January 1, 2001. The account can be operated by phone or post. Virgin Direct, the financial services arm of the Branson conglomerate, offers 5.75 per cent, again on El. The Yorkshire Building Society Postal Saver account pays 5.50 per cent on balances of more than

■ Today's savings "best buys" may be downsized tomorrow. Beware the deception practised by some banks, where a new account with a similar name to another in the existing range is periodically launched. The rate on the old account is then quietly de-

Under the Banking Code of Practice, informacion about changes to branch-based accounts must be available within three days by telephone or on the Internet. Holders of non-branch-based accounts get a letter within 30 days.

Everyone says they are saving for a rainy day, but some have set aside enough money to cover a monsoon season. At the same ome they owe money on credil and store cards, overdrafts and personal loans.

The rates of interest payable on such debts, averaging 20 per cent or so, are far higher than those paid on even the most generous accounts. Without the burden of such borrowings, any period of unemployment would be more bearable. While keeping aside an emergency fund, use some of your savings to repay your "flexible friends". Those oppressed by their mortgage could also repay a slice of this debt. A £70,000 repayment loan at 6.95 per cent with the Halifax costs £480.94 a month. The total estimated interest repayments over 25 years would be £74,282. Repay £5,000 of the mortgage and you will reduce the term of the mortgage to 22 years and 2 months and save a total of £16,351.96.

money.co.uk: Egg: 0845-600 0292: Moneyfacte: for a free copy, telephone 01603 476747: Virgin Direct: 0845-610 1020; Yorkshire Building Society: 0845-600 6061. The Banking Code of Practice: www.bank-laying the National Lottery defies reason. Cynics call the lottery a tax on fools, and it's easy to see why. The odds of winning the jackpot are 13.983.816 to one against. Vet 70 per cent of the British population regularly buys a lottery ticket.

NASTY HABITS

The lure of the scratchcard is even more insidious. The odds of winning big money are more than six million to one against, but that does not seem to matier when you are standing in your newsagent's and contemplating the fact that for just £1 extra, you could be walking home with half a pint of milk, a newspaper and £50,000.

The lonery's appeal lies in the sheer quantity of money up for grabs. The biggest prize so far was shared by Paul Madison and Mark Gardiner, who spent one Saturday evening in June 1995 celebrating being £22.5 million nicher. Since its launch in November 1994, the National Lot-tery has created 763 British millionaires.

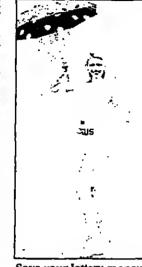

The desire to become the next one leads millions of people to throw as much as £300 a year in Camelot's direction. The average player spends at least £3.33 a week on lottery tickets. If each player also buys at least three instants, the weekly total could be £6.33.

If you stop playing the lottery, you could save £329.16 every year. By itself this does not look significant, but it can make a big difference to your savings and investment portfolio.

The average monthly contribución to a unit trust is £50. Based on performance over the past ien years, and assuming a £50 payment every month over that penod, the average UK fund would have grown to about £12,957. This is based on the average performance of UK equity growth, UK growth and UK income funds. If you had invested your £50 in the top-performing fund, Jupiter Income, your investment would now be worth £20,908. If you add to your monthly contribution of just over £25 you would have spent on the lottery, you are even better-off. The average UK fund would have grown to about £20,000 and the Jupiter fund to about £32,000.

Investing your lottery money in your pension fund is also worth consideration. According to Virgin Direct, a basic-rate taxpay-er who contributes £75 a month to a pension fund from the age of 30 can expect a final fund of about £130,000 by the time he or she reaches 60. If he adds his lonery cash to his pension fund, the final fund will be worth almost £50,000 more: £178,000.

Save your lottery money

Besides the financial benefits, there are many other reasons to give up buying lonery tickets. No more will you live in fear of forgetting lo buy your ticket, only lu discover that your numbers have come up.

No longer will you have to endure the cloying smiles of the B-list celebrities hired to present the National Lottery Live on TV on Saturday nights. No longer will you contribute voluntarily to the Government's coffers. If you can't resist a ber, choose rationality and stick to horses.

Paula Hawkins

NEXT WEEK How to remortgage

JOIN THE WORLD'S Nº1 INTRODUCING THE NICER ISA FROM THE WORLD'S Nº1 -

IF YOU thought your financial arrangements were a secret, think again. A vast computer knows more about your spending habits than you

Credit history files on millions of borrowers are stored by the credit reference agencies Experian and Equifax. Some may be held by both. And these play a key part in debanks, building societies and other lenders on whether lo ш give you a mortgage, loan or credit card.

Bul not all inourries come from lenders. Your file, which is divided into categories, includes electoralroll data precious to any organisation that wants to confirm your address and how long you have lived there.

Listed in the "court information" category are details of county court judgments and any administration orders (for unpaid parking fines, credit card debts, etc) held against you. This information will not tainted for six years. And although you may be virtuous about finances, you may be affected if other family members at the same address are spendthrifts. If so, you can apply for a "notice of dissociation". Another problem is known as "footprints". Every time your files are searched the organisacon's name and the type of inquiry are recorded. Although the lender's decision is not 111 logged, a string of searches by different lenders may count against you.

Lenders will not reveal how their credit-scor ing systems work, on the ground that we could concoct fraudulent credit applications more easily if we knew. But if you have ever been refused a loan, they must tell you the, main reason for their refusal. You can also apply for your credit file, which costs £2. Write to: Equifax Plc. Dept IE, PO Box 3001, Glasgow G81 2DT; and Experian, Consumer Help Service, PO Box 8000.

THE NICER ISA FROM FIBELITY

 28 funds to choose from covering international markets such as America and Japan - not previously available for full investment within a PEP.

 2 low-cost 6 overnment CAT standard funds plus a MoneyBuilder Cash ISA Fund.

· No signature or paper-based application required—unlike most other providers you can invest with us NOW over the phone or online.

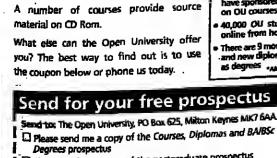

ISAs are here and so stans a new era of tax-free savings. Who better to help you take advantage than Fidelity - the world's largest independent fund manager. Our ISAs offer more choice, more flexibility and great 15A HOTLINE PAM TO 6PM. 7 DAYS value for money. They are backed 0800 41 41 33 up by unnvalled worldwide www.fidelity.co.uk resources: they are also simple to understand. And unlike some other companies, you can invest in our ISAs right now - hecause the sooner you get your money working, the better potential for tax-free returns. So call now, visit our website or speak to your IFA. And be sure to have an ISA day.

WHERE 15 MILLION INVESTORS PUT THEIR TRUST."

3.4 34 sandont PA has not received coverance or regulators approval of any lood not a contractive or regulators attitudent of A DNs has read on regular disciplinate of the reduced within an PA from Sport of PAP (and April 2008). The value of this covers and developes to invest as in EV 2. If the pend upon understand a community and all the paid in order. clarge mathe from the sources and assets as a 31-12-08 or hade those of 15th corp. a US company and allihous and at subsoliton. Pea performance to no creations of intense to me.

Open University course materials are of the highest quality and come in a variety of forms, including video and audio tapes as well as texts. The OU leads the world in its use of new technology for learning.

monthly instalments.

Send for your free prospectus now. Send to: The Open University, PO Box 625, Militon Keynes MK7 6AA. U99EN

Please send me a copy of the postgraduate prospectus

Trick here if you have contacted the OU in the past.

77 DU Hotline (24 hours) 0870 9000 301

Did you know?

The OU is in the top 15% of all UK universities for teaching quality

25% of all British MBAs

Over 30,000 employers have sponsored their staff

40,000 OU students at online from home

There are 9 month course and new diplomas as well as degrees Augus According come from the OU

Man's debt to spuds

Nigel

Hawkes

IT IS hard to imagine cookery without the potato. The humble tuber makes so many appearances in so many different forms that Western cuisine would be a poor thing without it. But now an American anthropologist has gone even further.

Cooking tubers, he suggests. was a key event in human evolution, enabling the huge expan-sion of the brain that led to Homo erectus. the human species which first left Africa to colonise the world.

Many explanations have been advanced to explain this dramatic change 1.8 million years ago, with meat-eating a current favourite. But Dr Richard Wrangham, of Harvard University, says that cooked tubers are an even better bet. He points out in Current Anthropology that the Australopithecines, man's ancestors, were eating meat a million years earlier without evolving big brains or larger bodies. Many omnivores alive today have a meat diet, but it has yet to produce any four-legged Einsteins.

So why tubers? They are certainly plenoful in Africa, even if the potato we eat is of South American origin, and suited to a temperate climate. Cassava. yams and sweet potatoes are staples in the Tropics. In Tanzania's savannah grasslands today, there are 40 tonnes of tuber per square kilometre, and no reason to believe things were very different two million years ago, when tuber-eating pigs and mole rats flourished.

Tubers only really show their value when cooked, however. Then the carbohydrates are made palatable and provide a lot of calories. Dr Wrangham calculates, reports Science, that a diet of 60 per cent cooked tubers and no meat boosts calorie intake by more than 40 per cent over a diet of nuts, berries and raw tubers. A 60 per cent meat diet, by contrast, offers only a 20 per cent calorie boost. An energy-rich diet would allow the teeth, jaws and gut to shrink, and the brain to SCIENCE grow — just what happened in the decisive step to man. BRIEFING

Enzyme ends the

The idea of our ancestors eating roots is also more plausible than a meat diet, he believes. Modern hunter-gatherers such as the Hadza of Tanzania may go weeks without a kill, even though they hunt with bows and arrows, tech-nology more advanced than early man.

There is only one flaw with the theory, and it is a fairly big one. There is no evidence of cooking hearths going back further than about 250,000 years, so how did the first human beings cook their tubers? He specu-lates that they discovered the taste when tu-bers were accidentally baked in a grass fire triggered by lightning. But there is little evidence of the systemace use of fire, such as would be expected if baked roots became the nouvelle cuisine of the day.

The theory nevertheless has supporters, itself districts from the Lightner.

including anthropologists from the University of Utah in Salt Lake City who argue that fires for cooking tubers might have been ephemeral, leaving few traces. Dr Wrangham admits that more evidence is needed. "There hasn't been enough satisfactory archaeology for people to get their teeth into." he says, suiting the metaphor to the subject.

Some autistics, such as the character played by Dustin Hoffman in the film Rain Man, are often highly intelligent but are regarded as socially ode

Winds of change benefit nightjars run on reds PUTTING a bright red sock into a white wash and coming up with everything a sickly pink could soon be just a nasty memory. Scientists from Novo Nordisk Biotech in Davis, California, have developed a tough enzyme that can prevent dye released from one garment attaching itself to another. They knew that peroxidases could do the job by chewing up dyes in solution. but ordinary ones cannot survive the heat, alkalinity or the hydrogen peroxide concentrations inside a washing machine. They set out to make a better peroxidase by starting with the version made by the ink-cap mushroom. and introducing random changes, both in the amino acid sequence of the enzyme, and into its gene, to create enzymes more resistant to destruction in the wash. They selected the ten most promising, and put their genes into yeast cells. Yeast has the ability to mix and match genes, so this produced thousands of mutant combinations.

Further selection and mutation produced a peroxidase 174 times more stable in bot water and 100 times more resistant to hydrogen peroxide than the original, the team reports in Nature Biotechnology. It prevented dyes from a red cloth running into a white one.

THE winds that demolished the woods of southern England in October 1987 blew in some good for the nightjar, a species that in the early 1980s looked set for extinction in Britain. The 1981 count by the British Trust for Ornithology put the total at no more than the numbers had increased to 3,400. In Biologist, the journal of the Institute of Biology, Mike Everett, of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds, attributes the turnaround to changes in forestry practice and the great storm of October 1987. Night-jars are heathland birds, but they bave

In 1981, commercially planted conifers began to be harvested for the first time on a big scale, and nightjars found the areas of clearfell greatly to their liking. The great storm was even better news, and it was followed by a second gale in January 1990. These brought down so many trees that the nightjars were able to use the glades and clear-ings provided to multiply. That this was the cause of the recovery was shown by deliberate felling at the RSPB's Minsmere reserve. which had similar effects.

The autistic mind 2,100 pairs. But by 1992, to general surprise. was almost an offence to be autistic. Children were institutionalised and, for many years, parents shoul-dered the erroneous belief that turned to clearings in forests as an alternative niche since heath has declined.

> explain why their children grew up aloof, unaffectionate and adrift in the world of social relationships. Once psychologists started peering into the minds of those with autism, however, medical thinking was transformed. Autism, which affects about

Scientists are using imaging equipment to gain an insight into how the brains of autistic children function. Anjana Ahuja reports housed in a particular area of the brain. This is reinforced by one child in 5,000, is now thought to be a mild form of the condition was the con-sequence of "refrigerator" parenting. Emotional coldness brain damage. Now that scientists can look inside the brain from mothers in particular, psychologists asserted, could to see how it functions, with the help of imaging equip-ment, the remarkable world inhabited by those with autism is being explored.

Foremost among the navigators is Dr Francesca Happé, senior cognitive psychologist at the Institute of Psychiatry in London. Dr Happe, 31, who will deliver the third lecture in the Scientists for the New Century series, sponsored by The Times and The Royal Institu-tion, prefers to think of autism as a form of "mind-blindness". It is a deficit in the ability to mind-read, which most of us employ subconsciously in everyday life. It allows us to work out why people behave in the way that they do. "For example, take a Smarties tube which contains pencils instead of Smarties," Dr Happé says. "Most children would guess the tube contained Smarties rather than pencils. An autistic child, however, would think that other children Francesca Happé would guess pencils. Because they know the tube contains pencils, they assume other children will automatically know, too." This inability to guess what other people are thinking quickly becomes apparent in children. An autistic toddler will not respond to facial expressions. In extreme cases, there will be no speech or gesture. If there is language it is functional: when autistic children say "apple", it is their way of requesting one. They do not speak of their experiences, but they might act like a human tape recorder, repeating what other people say.

o them. language is literal, so they are un-able to tell lies, understand jokes, cartoons or figures of speech. The child remains anchored in the physical world, preferring to play with real objects. Most fascinating. perhaps, are children at the so-called high-functioning end of the spectrum — they exhibit mild forms of autism such as Asperger's syndrome. It is these individuals, who are often highly intelligent but are regarded as socially odd, that Dr Happé chose to concentrate on for her post-doctoral research at the Medical Research Council Cognitive Development Unit, University College London.

She says: "High-functioning autistics are the kind of people, often men, who memorise the Latin names of every type of carrot and are captivated by train timetables, but are left cold by gossip or EastEnders. They want friends, but everything they do is socially wrong. The fact that they are ty, suggests that the capacity to empathise with others is the finding that some patients with brain injuries in the right hemisphere display the symptoms of autism. However, we know that high-functioning autistic children often acquire a glimmer of awareness of what other people are thinking," says Dr Happe. "We found out by accident because parents would tell us that their child had managed to keep a secret or tell a small lie. To do these things, you need to be able to put yourself in someone else's shoes. It led to the idea that people could make their way up the spectrum into the world of mind-reading." Did this mean that autistic people could suddenly acquire a natural ability to read minds? Indeed, when presented with scenarios such as the Smarties problem. a few individuals, particularly those competent at language, could perform well. However, not all their social problems disappeared. Dr Hap-pé discovered that even though high-functioning autistics could pass the Smarties test, they would fall down at more sophisticated scenarios. "One story involved a conversation between someone who wanted to buy a kitten and a cat-lover selling them," she says. "When the buyer hesitated, the seller said 'If no one buys them, I'll drown them'. The participants generally knew the seller wouldn't drown the kittens, but didn't know why. They couldn't see that it was a ruse to get a sale." Her research has had practical, as well as academic, impact. Similar tests are used to assess autism in children and she has written a handbook on the subject.

By scanning the brains of autistics and non-autistics while they studied stories, she discovered that the groups process the information using slightly different parts of the brain. So even though they appear to read social signals, they read suddenly being switched on, it is as if the people with autism are using all their intelligence to work out what is going on. That's why autistics don't watch EastEnders — while we find it easy to understand the social intrigue, it's hard work for them." Her next task is to scan the brains of normal and reading as they grow up.

Dr Happe thinks that as we come to know more about the disorder, people with autism will be appreciated for what they can, rather than what they cannot, do. They are good at looking at details. They often have exceptional their brains deal with mind-memories, and are predictable and logical, which makes them adept at interacting with computers. In fact, the coming century is going to be a good time for people with autism."

Why do some people find cartoons and soap operas as challenging as mental arithmetic? On Wednesday April 28, in How the Brain reads the Mind, Dr Francesca Happé from the Institute of Psychiatry will discuss how autism has come to be regarded as a form of "mind-blindness." She will also show how our brains allow us to guess what others are thinking.

The lecture will be chaired by Professor Susan Greenfield, Director of The Royal Institution. Members of the audience will also be able to ask questions.

The lecture will be held at 7,30pm at The Royal Institution of Great Britain, 21 Albemarle Street, London W1X 4BS.

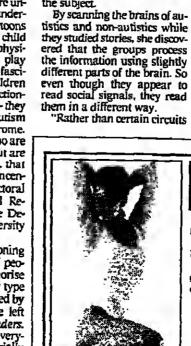

Sponsored by ONOVARTIS

(concs) for the Scientists for the New Century on April 28:
NAME
ADDRESS	_
POSTCODE DAY PHONE
l enclose my cheque made payable to Royal Institution	•
Value E Cheque N°
(Please write your name, address and card number on the back of the cheque Or, please debit my Visa/Mastercard	•
	г
	L
Expiry date:
PRINT NAME.

Please post coupon and remittance to:

SIGNATURE

The Royal Institution, 2! Albemarle Street, London WIX 4BS. Tet: 0171-670 2985 (24 hrs). Fax: 0171-670 2920 Please note that tickets will be posted until April 21 only. Tickets booked after this date will be held for collection on the night at the venue. If you do not receive your tickets please call 0171-670 2985 to confirm your booking.

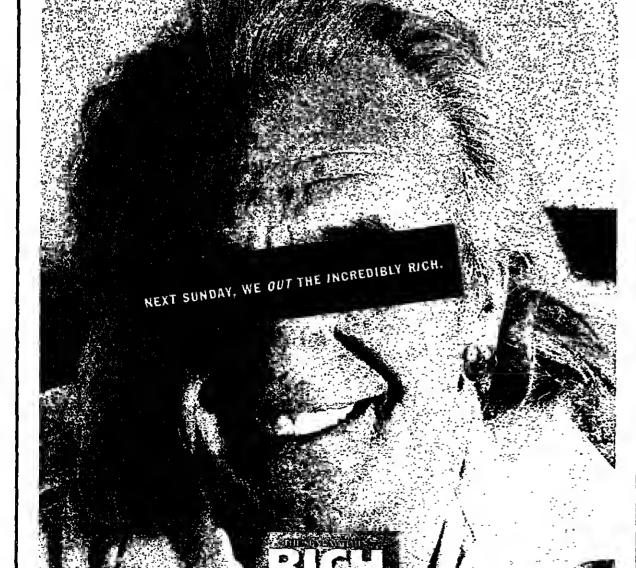

(FOR MEN AND WOMEN)

Our laser treatment removes unwanted body and facial hair gently, quickly and effectively. Problem areas treated include face, under-arms, bikini line, legs, body, mate chest and back. For a confidential consultation, with a senior nurse, without charge, please call the freephone number below to get instantly

TELEPHONE: 0800 917 9000

THE HARLEY MEDICAL GROUP 6 Harley Street, London WIN IAA CLINICS THROUGHOUT THE UK . ESTABLISHED 1987

THE SUNDAY TIMES

THE SUNDAY TIMES is THE SUNDAY PAPERS

صكدا من الاصل

Major booty at the Manhattan baby shower

the corner," orders Betsy, our hostess, leading us through to her crowded Madison Avenue sitting room and pointing to a Himalayan-like pile of boxes where the contempo-rary icons of serious consumerism are well represented. I spot the distinctive turquoise of Tiffany's, several grey boxes from Saks, a couple of black and silver Barneys bags and the blue and purple logo of Fifth Avenue's smartest department store, Bergdorf Wow, that's some major booty going on," observes a rangy, blonde editor in a black Ralph Lauren pantsuit, who pours me a glass of cranberry juice. I place my own offering at the bottom of the teetering mountain, for what is becoming a regular feature of my Sunday afternoons: The Manhattan Baby Shower.

In London, my pregnant friends were far too supersti-tious to want presents before the baby was born. With typical British gloom, they felt that asking for Bunnykins mugs or a set of Beatrix Potter would be tempting fate. But Americans embrace the future differently. And among Manhattan's professional women the baby shower, once mocked as a relic of the homemaker Fifties, is now back as a serious social event.

Today's crowd consists mainly of thirtysomething writers, executives and shrinks, and even though it's Sunday we are all dressed alike - in the black-suited uniform of the working woman. This is like a really great book launch, except there are no men," says Dani, this afternoon's guest of honour, who is a writer and university teacher. As is the convention. her baby is due in a month's time. Her husband has gone drinking with his father and will make his appearance, to thank us for showering his wife with gifts, at precisely

Nodding to the working week, the contemporary shower is hosted by a friend - on Sundays between 3pm and 5pm prompt — and follows a strict pattern.

For the first half-hour guests are expected to mingle. sipping tea and nibbling cookies. This afternoon's fare, pre-pared by the host's husband (the only man allowed on the premises and still labouring in the kitchen) is a delicious assortment of female finger food. Amid jugs of exploding red tulips there are platters of cucumber slices layered with Gruyère and tomato, endive boats loaded with Roquefort.

cate slivers of lemon and pop-

"Attention girls, it's time for the gift-opening," calls Betsy, clapping her hands over the gossipy hubbub as we lay down our plates and take up our places in an obedient circle around the guest of honour. As is customary, one guest is appointed to select the order of gifts while another, armed with pen and paper, keeps track of who gave what A formal thank-you note is expected.

First up is a black and yellow box tied with a big yellow ribbon. Dani undoes the parcel. sifting through the layers of tissue paper until she pulls out a tiny black jacket and matching black trousers. She holds it up and the entire room of women, tough TV pro-ducers, ad executives and investigative reporters, burst out in unison: "Aaahhh!"

"It's beautiful," exclaims Dani, placing the suit back in the box and handing it round for each of us to inspect. The next gift is a Harrods teddy bear from London which she holds aloft. "Azahhh!" we all chorus again — each gift must be accorded the same level of attention so as not to offend the giver. For the next hour, we sit alternately cooing and ashing as gift after gift is unwrapped and held up for our approval. Musical mobiles, a baby gym, cuddly toys, a silver rattle. two miniature denim jackets, baby cosmetics and dozens of brightly coloured onesies are piled on lop of each other.

But behind the Manhattan baby shower there can be serious social tension because it straddles that masource of female angst - single-hood. Much more than weddings, the baby shower here marks the graduation of a woman from the collegiate sorority of girlfriends into the world of motherhood. And it is sometimes tinged with the wistfulness of a farewell party. For the unspoken realisation is that the intensity of children exists in most sociechildless friendships will probably be lost for ever.

It is particularly tricky for those who do not breed - a very substantial tribe of Manhattan females. I know, from having waited relatively late before having my own baby shower, just how irritating The infant new mothers can be. And how biolois deified gy conspires to shrink their conversational horizons as their cerebrai lens zooms parents are right in to the sentative of the next generation. priests In an environment like Manhattan, where childlessness is common and the high close-up of their

where even those who do breed lend to do so very frugally, the baby shower marks the induction of the guest of honour into a new cult - the deification of the infant. I'm sure this exaggerated respect and solicitousness of small nes where small families have become the norm.

It is probably a function of rarity, in the same way that the elderly are venerated in the Third World where so few survive into old age. But Manhattan is the high temple of kiddie tyranny and the high priests and priestesses are the baby-boomers, the first generation to be brought up within the twin comforting arms of disposable income and consumer choice. It's no coincidence that juvenile designer labels have mushroomed recently, that suddenly it seems that even expensive restaurants have high tables here. that there are dozens of competing models of People Movers or Family Wagons, some of them now equipped with built-in TVs and videos for the Feature-length cartoons are attracting unprecedented budgets and revenues as A Bug's Life competes with Ant: competes with Tov Story, All in all it's a great time to be having a kid in New York. It's

He points a rocket at my chest, finger on the trigger

In the second extract from his book, Chris was kidnapped by the jungles of Cambodia take the Land Rover round the edge of a large tree root. With metal detectors, first-aid kit, demolition equipment and six deminers on board, it's a full load. Mr Houn, the interpreter, is sitting next to me in the passenger seat. The truck following us is being driven by We walk to the edge of the Sok. There are about 20 wornen and children in the rear. I glance at my watch. It is nearly 1.10pm and we are approaching a large clearing. "Stop! Khmer Rouge!" shouts Mr Houn. For a moment I wonder if he is joking, but I have never heard him shout before. "Where?" "In front," Mr Houn points. He's not wrong. I feel sweat prickle on my face and the backs of my hands tingle.

There are at least 20 of them along the tree line. I can hear my heart beating faster. There is no way we can drive through. There are too many of them and they are too heavily armed. If we try to reverse and they start firing.

there will be a massacre. They are running towards us, waving their weapons. I hope to God nobody starts shooting. Now I can see soldiers behind, too. We are surrounded. What should I do? There isn't much choice. I must try to convince them that we are friendly and neutral. The worst thing would be to behave like a victim. I have to find the commander. Two soldiers jog past me towards the truck, waving AK47s. They are shouting and gesticulating. In front of me, a Khmer Rouge soldier is moving forward. He is wearing the same uniform as the others but is carrying a pistol. This must be the commander. I walk towards him slowly.

As I get closer, he looks perplexed I smile, put my hands together and bow. I hold out my hand and say hello in my politest Khmer. "Soo-a s'day."

"Soo-a s'day." He shakes my hand and smiles the smile of a man who has been waitng for days to ambush someoody and has finally succeeded. He heads straight to the Land Rover with two soldiers and begins to search it. Thank God we have no weapons.

A soldier is running towards me, carrying a gun with a rifle-propelled grenade. He stops three feet away and points the rocket at my chest. His finger is on the trigger. He has wide, glazed eyes and as he shours, his nostrils flare like the snout of a pig. Still, I Moon tells how he Khmer Rouge in the Pig Face responds by bringing the rocket very close to my face. Time to take a step back. I bow humbly but keep my eyes on him. He motions with his rifle. I can see Mr Houn by the Land Rover, his face is a mask and he speaks quietly. "We must go over there or Khmer Rouge will kill us."

clearing, where we are made to stand in a semicircle. The soldiers start to shout. "What are they saying. Mr Houn?"
"We must walk backwards to bushes and stand still." We tiptoe backwards. .

"Chop! Chop!" The soldiers shout at us to stop. Mr Houn looks worried. "They say we must take off clothes." Slowly I belt around my waist and place it and my Leatherman pouch on the ground. I know they will try to steal my watch, so I hide it in my fist. I turn to Mr Houn: he looks undo the leather around worried. Fifteen years ago, mem-bers of his family the were executed in clearing front of him. I turn away from Pig Face and start to undress. I slip my watch inside my boiler suit and down my boxer shorts.

There is silence, then one of the Khmer Rouge shouts and the soldiers berd us back into a horseshoe of dense thorn bush. There is no escape. There never has been.

Houn is tense. Finally he says: 'They say you can put clothes on.

I retrieve my watch, get dressed again, return to the Land Rover and slide into the driving seat. I hear the heavy splutter of the truck to my rear. Sok is driving with a soldier next to him. I understand the command. "We go." As we move off, the soldiers start to walk away while the village people stand looking shocked. At least they are safe. I drive slowly. There is a flash and thunder. Raindrops fall like giant tears and mynos-

" une 1993: I jerk the steer- must try to be sociable. I bold trils fill with the smell of soil screen is steaming up. I must keep trying, "Please tell him my name is Chris and I am British. What is his name? Silence. Hour pauses, then says, "Mr Red."

"I have never seen rain this heavy." Houn's expression tells me that conversation is a risk he would prefer not to take. But we have to try. I watch Mr Red. He looks at me before speaking. "It rains more in the forest and it's cooler." Houn looks surprised.

There are many people who will worry about us. Can I tell them that we are OK?" After translation, the response is uncompromising. "Sorry, not possible. My boss not allow."

Up ahead there is a clearing.
Huts with sides and roofs of brown thatch are dotted Automatic among small fields. I park by a pagoda. weapon On my right, three soldiers are squatting in the shade. fire echoes They wave me for-ward and start walking. I march a pace behind the one in front Behind me, Houn stares through the windscreen.
There are about 20 huts and a building that looks like a washroom. One side of it is open, and there is a table and two chairs. A soldier motions me to the chair nearest the wall. the others walk away.

I have heard stories. They hang people by their hands and beat them with rods, rope or bamboo. They tie them in the hot sun. In the wet season there is water torture. Scorpions are held with pliers and played slowly over the body to make the victim beg to be smashed in the head with a hoe, or shot. It is 4.40pm. The commander smiles, shakes hands and before sitting down, says awkwardly: "I would like to help you." He speaks slowly as he consults a Thai/English phrase book. What country are you from?"

"United Kingdom." "Why you come Cambo-dia?" I tell him. "To help the THURST !

'This is the moment I've been waiting for. I'm going to run again' people by clearing mines." have no margin for error. "Why you come my area?" I try not to sound angry. "Soldiers make us." He laughs. He knows we were kidnapped. After nearly half an bour, two soldiers bring in Houn. The commander gestures to the chair next to me, and Houn sits. "Before they not trust me. Now he say they will use me as interpreter.

The people call him Mr. Clever because he went to primary school. He will try to

Suddenly I strain my ears and scan the horizon. I can hear a helicopter. Soldiers start running everywhere. I must reassure Mr Clever. I say "Dtay panyaha. No prob-lem. UNTAC belicopter."

Without warning, the deaf-ening sound of automatic weapons crupts around the clearing and shatters my hopes. It was going so well.

r Clever and I exchange glances, then he looks at the ground. The commander did not give the order to fire. All my fears are justified. The lowest common denominator rules in this place of darkness. The helicopter heads away. Mr Clever looks at me through narrowed eyes. Houn speaks with the resignation of the condemned man. "Now helicopter come, he cannot guarantee our security."

Then, behind Mr Clever, I see a little man running across the clearing. He is clutching a piece of paper, which Mr Clever takes, reads - and then smiles. Mr Houn explains: "It tell him we are neutral, what you tell him already." The heli-copter was only dropping leaflets. But now, will Mr Clever let us go.....? As we approach the town, people run over to us, waving and saying hello. Men come up and shake our hands. Children start to follow us and women hold up their little ones to wave.

Houn says: 'They think Khmer Rouge kill us. They happy we alive and thank us for clearing the mines." Just for a moment, we are all happy. I nod my head and turn away. I don't want him to see that I am crying.

 Extracted from One Step Beyond by Chris Moon, published by Macmillan, £16.99. Times readers can buy it for £14.99 by calling The Times Bookshop, 0990-134 459.

or the second companies of the property of the second second of the seco

"POSSIBLY THE BEST VALUE IN THE WORLD"

The best system anywhere? Probably... Free Lifetime Internet access, absolutely.

The blisteringly fast Intel® Pentium® III Processor, The fantastic NEW VOODOO III 3000, A Large 17" Monitor And Quantex..... an unbeatable combination.

M45E: £999+VAT £1,173.83 INC vat

System Specifications

- Intel® Pentium® III Processor 450MHz
- Intel SE440ZX AGPset
- 4th Generation DVD
- 128Mbyte Ultra Fast Memory
- 17" Digital Colour Monitor ■ NEW VOODOO III 3000 16Mb Graphics Card
- Soundbloster AudioPCI Sound Cord ■ Non-Integrated Graphics ar Sound
- FREE Lifetime Internet Access ■ Mains Powered Speakers
- Microsoft Windaws 98, Corel Office Suite 8 ■ 10.2 Gbyte Ultra ATA Hord Disk Drive
- USR Y.90 Modem

Express Delivery

- Year 2000 And 9999 Compliant
- Lifetime Technical Support 24 Hours Per Day... EVERYDAY!

M50E: As above but with a 500MHz processor £1,199+VAT System shown contains upgraded speakers & morator

Call for special options:-Special Bonus Pock, Monitors, Worranties

ond Super Fost BT Highway Conversions,

Fastest 3D Graphics In The World

A Recent Review In Personal Computer World (May '99 Issue) Proclaimed The VOODOO 3 3000 - The Fostest 3D Graphics Card In The Universe.

0% Finance option

POWERED BY INTEL...

...DELIVERED BY QUANTEX

VOODOOIII

GRAPHICS

GOOD CHOICE" supply superb systems our technical support just came out TOP in a recent BBC survey.

Why must you choose Quantex? If you don't you will most certainly miss out. The NEW Voodoo III 3000 is at least twice as fast as a high end graphics card with two Voodoo II accelerators combined. This is truly a remarkable system at an unbelievable price. It's what you have come to expect from Quantex. Not only do we

www.gtx.co.uk

www.qtx.co.uk www.highway.bt.com To Order: 01438 224444 Fax: 01438 224224

9 PAT (context. Such gave Heaver, 2. George's Very Severage, Herdenbilder SSI TAS. All lights Newton. Sales House, and the sum of June, Saltsman June, Salts

Macedonia deserves Short shrift

The West has another Balkan mess to fix, says James Pettifer

ter. But she has a wonderful ability to disregard convention-al wisdom, hit nails on the head and reflect basic British decency and common sense. On Monday, in the chaos of the Brazde refugee camp. she touched a raw nerve. Her response to the humanitarian crisis was more than an alarm call to the West. It raised deep issues about the Former Yugoslav Reputilic of Macedonia, currently home to Nato's nascent ground force, and highlighted the need for a tough Western policy not just to-wards Serbia but also in our dealings with the Skopje

Macedonia has been oppressing minorines for most of its life. Ever since it became independent from Belgrade in 1991. Macedonia has been rampantly ann-Albanian and discriminated against the massive minority populations of Muslims, pro-Bulgarian Slav-speakers, ethnic Turks and

Bui the Wesi has fêted Skopje's ruler. President Gligorov, as a moderate, its support for his attempts to achieve "stability" have acted as a quiet way of helping Serbia. In an unstable region, the apparent civic peace in Macedonia has looked to be a rare Balkans success story.

But there has been a high price to pay in civil liberties and human rights. Massive economic support has been provided by the IMF, but there has been no payback in oppressed minority democratisation of the Titoist political system. Although the situation had groups has improved by last autumn, the 1994 Macedonian election was one of the most corrupt foreign observers had ever seen. Real political power, in any case, rests with the pro-Serb, Communist-dominated Ministry of the Interior. The original state and its borders were a child of Stalinto the Macedonian Question that bedevilled the late Ottoman Europe. Under Tito, the socialist republic of Macedonia was a garden suburb of Serbia, used for cheap holidays, wine and food, the bottom of the Yugoslav heap in every way. A pro-Belgrade Skopje elite was built up, a motley collection of hardline Communists who were really Serbs thinly disguised as "Macedonians". They justified their hegemony through a manufactured history which was closer to mythology. But as long as all was peace and

Beneath the surface, however, there is a very dark side to Macedonia. A side stained by Serb influence, and tainted by criminal money. The elite made millions by breaking United Nations sanctions against Serbia. In 1994 I remember sitting at the border checkpoint at night — the same place where the refugees are now suffering - watching convoys of fuel waved through speeding towards quiet, it didn't seem to matter

War criminals such as Arkan have substantial property business interests in Skopje

I lare Shori may not be and the town's casinos are a everyone's idea of a haven for Bosnian Serb, Monnatural Cabinet ministenegrin money-launderers and their cigarette smuggling money. Zoran Janakovic, the Yugoslav Ambassador and a close crony of President Milo-sevic, wields huge influence in Skopje. His writ runs in places that Western diplomacy cannot reach. It is the dark side of Macedonia that we have witnessed this week, in its con-temptuous treatment of the refugees. But despite the prot-estations, there is no good reason why most Kosovan refugees cannot stay in Macedonia. The west, where most Albanians live, is fertile and not overpopulated. Massive short-term help is needed, but that is all. The last thing that most refugees want is to be torn from a potentially sup-portive rural Islamic environment and relocated in some bleak hostel in Stockholm or Dagenham. The fuss about the ride of refugees is almost entirely political; if they re-main for any length of time in Macedonia, they will not destatrilise the state, only the privi-leged bosses with their old nomenklatura connections. But the West must tackle this issue, and quickly. It is time foreign ministers saw the Skopje government system for what it really is — a relic of communism that needs rapid democratisation. If they do not, and widespread disor-Skopje der breaks out, the communist dino-saurs will bring down the roof on always the state itself. As the entire state is essentially financed by the IMF, the power exists to force through change. The Government has made

tures to improve ethnic relations, such as the release of all political prisoners from jail. but much more needs to be done. Higher education in the Albanian language needs full legitimisation and public spending must be fairly direct-some genuinely helpful ges-

he Macedonian and Greek Governments must be put under more pressure to resolve the name of the state, a long-running sore that prevents normal ties between Skopje and its natural economic partners in Salonika and prosperous, EU-orientated northern Greece. Turkey must be stopped from playing cheap politics with Skopje over national issues to irritate Athens. But events are moving very fast, and some of these and other human rights reforms may be too late to prevent chaos and fragmentation. Nato should prepare plans for a de facto protectorate, as all previous history of the Macedonian Question shows that a crisis in Macedonia has been the catalyst for a much wider Balkan war. It is an unpleasant reality that should be faced if the darkness is not to spread over the whole southern Bal-

The author's book, The New Macedonian Question, will be published by Macmillan comment@the-times.co.uk

Patriots for peace

oltaire would have found life difficult in today's La-bour Party. Where is the space for principled dis-sent? Scotland's election campaign opened yesterday, and even before it began it had been marred by unattractive intolerance, and not from the Nationalists. Alex Salmond's entirely principled opposi-tion to Nato's bombing of Serbia. which he claims has strengthened President Milosevic and worsened the plight of the Kosovan Albanians, drew a cheap, sneering response from Robin Cook. The SNP leader's criticisms of the offensive against Serbla, or at least the present airstrikes, have made him "the toast of Belgrade", says the Foreign Secretary, and "simply unfit to lead" in Scotland because he was "standing shoulder to shoulder. was "standing shoulder to shoulder with Milosevic".

A glance at the history books would show Mr Cook that, far from making them untit to lead, opposing wars has afforded British politicians a fast track into office. When the Tory press misrepre-

MacDonald's principled stand against the Great War as pro-German, it was rightly condemned in Labour circles as an unwarranted slur on his patriotism. Now that new Labour tries the same trick, we are told it is within the bounds of legitimate political discourse.

But the career of MacDonald should cause Mr Cook to reflect. Denounced as a traitor and pacifist in 1914 when he was neither. MacDonald became, for a time, the most unpopular man in Britain. He lost his West Leicester seat in the December 1918 election by 14,000 votes. Yet only six years later he was Prime Minister, borne to power by an electorate that by 1924 largely agreed with his assertion that the war had "put back the clock of civilisation a century in four years".

The Prime Minister during that war had been David Lloyd George. also no pacifist, who had virulently opposed the Boer War only 14 years before. Like Mr Salmond today, he believed Britain was committing an "unpardonable folly" fighting an aggressive war of "dubious legality". Both men said that while British servicemen deserved support, the politicians who deployed them deserved only criticism.

For his stand, Lloyd George was burnt in effigy in Criccieth, bludgeoned at Bangor, and escaped from a riot in Birmingham, in which two Labour is wrong to denounce critics of this conflict. Dissent is honourable, argues Andrew Roberts wars nas given politicians

Opposing

a fast track to power

people died, only by dressing up as a policeman. "The man who tries to make the flag an object of a single party is a greater traitor to that flag than any man who fires at it," said Lloyd George, in words that Mr. Salmond could reiterate with profit against Mr Cook. As the sheen of imperialism faded with the knowledge of the methods by which the Boer War was finally won, Lloyd George's career was boosted.

Britain has a long and honourable tradition of brave politicians opposing wars they consider wrongful, and their stands have rarely harmed them in the long run. William Pitt the Elder denounced the American War of Independence and the Prime Minister, Lord North, offered to resign proved right. Lord Salisbury opposed the Crimean War, and it only enhanced his reputation for independent thought and action. Charles James Fox even opposed the Napoleonic Wars in 1803, but it did not prevent him from becoming Foreign Secretary three years later. For Mr Salmond to join this distinguished roll call of objectors augurs well for his future. Unlike the Second World War or the Falklands conflict, where the issues were clear-cut and the objectors few and generally extremist,

Nato's first aggressive war in half a century has raised understandable doubts in the minds of many Britons who would normally support the organisation. Despite the engagement of British servicemen abroad, it is not unpatriotic, as Mr Cook would have us believe, to question the nature of this war, and in particular his own department's blithe disregard for the all-important Law of Unintended Consequences. For all that we are told by Nato's Jamie Shea that the "surgical operations" have been a success, it is impossible not to notice that the natient has inconveniently died. Perhaps the supporters of Nato. people who cheered its bloodless victory over the Warsaw Pact and admired its half-century of Western solidarity, were always being oversanguine. They were hoping that for once in history a genuinely defen-sive alliance would not succumb to the fatal temptation of enlargement and self-aggrandisement. Here, they believed, was an organisation that was not so arrogant as to rewrite its uniquely successful foun-ding charter. Instead, predictably enough, it ripped up the pledge not to expand itself 300 miles eastwards, given verbally to Mikhail Gorbachev at the time Russia allowed the fall of the Berlin Wall.

Instead of acting cautiously and modestly, in accord with its development since April 1949, Nato has hegemonically. sian nationalism at pre-cisely the time that it can do most danger. It has acted in the same way that every overmighty political entity has done since Nineveh and Tyre with, one day doubtless, the same doomed result. Despite their enormous individual contributions to the creation and administration of not quite so collectively jingoistic as the rest of the United Kingdom. It was no accident, as Roy Jenkins stated in his biography of Gladstone, that the constituency of Midlothian was chosen for the Liberal leader to deliver his philippics against Disraeli's "Forward" policies, which had led to much bloodshed in Zululand and Afghanistan. "It was a story that was to repeat itself in minor key," adds Jenkins, "just over a hundred years later when Scotland was noticeably cool on the Falklands war." It was cooler still over the Gulf War.

the British Empire, the Scottish are

If Mr Salmond is accurately articulating what the opinions of his people might be in a few years' time about this latest adventure, sharing an opinion of the war that stretches across the political kaleidoscope from Tony Benn's Radicals to Alan Clark's High Tories, then Mr Cook's smears will prove as myopic as they are historically illiterate. For nowhere in Labour's 1997 manifesto was a mandate requested so to alter the nature of Nato as to unleash a war on a state which posed no threat to any Nato member. There might have been a case to make for an all-out ground war liberation of Kosovo, or for arming the Kosovan Liberation Army to fight the West's battle as the Mujahidin did in Afghanistan in the 1980s, or even for telling the Kosovan Albanians to try to make the best of their oppression as it was beyond Nato's remit to interfere in the internal affairs of sovereign states. Yet there is no case to be made for the present embarrassed, lukewarm and hugely counter-pro-ductive policy, and Mr Salmond is not "standing shoulder to shoulder" with Mr Milosevic for saying so.

he historian A.J.P. Taylor used to say that the two World Wars were essential-ly fought between the British House of Commons and the continued unabated throughout the two wars in Britain; indeed both Herbert Asquith and Neville Chamberlain, who led the nation into the conflicts, were removed by the political process during them. The fact that free, informed debate carries on during the wars which Britain fights enormously strengthens her sense of moral superiority. This can be a tangible wartime asset. As Richard Overy's seminal book on the Second World War, Why the Allies Won, puts it: "Whatever the rights and wrongs of the Allied cause, the belief that they fought on the side of righteousness equipped them with a powerful moral armament", which translated itself into better morale. No greater manifestation of a country's commitment to the great liberal values can be imagined than openly disputing the merits of a war while it is still being fought. As John Simpson reports from Belgrade, it is not happening there, any more than t does in any authoritarian regime. By resorting to gross misrepresentation and name-calling, the Government risks stopping such valuable criticism happening here too.

The author's biography of Lord Salisbury will be published in September.

comment@the-rimes.co.uk

Duke's snub

AN OFFER by the Duke of Edinburgh to participate in nea month's opening of the Welsh assembly has been spurned. The discourtesy is adding to royal anxiety about the sidelining of the Oueen and her family from the ceremonies heralding the inauguration of the Celtic parliaments.

The Duke suggested that he might read a lesson during the service at Llandass Cathedral in Cardiff, which is being held before the opening to mark the event. The Duke and the Prince of Wales will be accompanying the Queen to the ecumenical service which has been organised by Cytun, a body repre-senting churches in Wales.

But I hear the organisers have declined the ducal overture, explaining that they "would prefer some-one who is Welsh to give the reading". With an emphasis on promoting an image of Cool Cymru during the opening functions, the chances are the lectern will now be taken by the likes of Tom Jones or Shirley Bassey.

DEJAN NIKOLIC, the organiser of the Belgrade Marathon, has reassured me that the race will go ohead this month as plonned, olthough numbers will be down Runners will bolt past the smoking ruins of the Interior Ministries, police ocademy and American soprano appearing at the Coliseum for three months, is homesick. As Margarita in the ENO's production of Mephistopheles, in Act III she is supposed to sing: "I see it clearly, the alley leading straight to Martha's garden." But last week, Patterson (above) experienced a morpose that (above) experienced a moment that Freud would have appreciated and sang instead: "The alley leading straight to Martha's Vineyard." AFTER German dancers imported their own soil for a show of Sadler's Wells, a Taiwanese group has gone one better: Cloud Gate Dance Theatre has brought in three tonnes of rice for its debut at the Islington theatre next week.

■ WHILE the BBC urges its staff to be sensitive about using the word British, James Boyle has made a rare apology for an example of crass anti-Semitism on Radio 4.

The Controller has expressed his regrets to the Board of Deputies of British Jews over a reference to pig's organs in The Ghost at No 10. Mr Boyle acknowledged it was "offensive to Jews, made fun of their religious beliefs and pandered to stereotypes of Jewish people".

'EDWARD , SOMEBODY WANTS TICKETS FOR THE FIRST NIGHT!

CHAIR PORT

UNISON, the union for town hall workers, is considering applying Best Value criteria, new Labour's excuse for sacking roadsweepers and the like, to its El million contribution to the party in the hope of halving the donation.

TORIES in Richmond Park. Jeremy Hanley's former seat on the Thames, are eyeing up Chris Patten as their candidate. Hanley, the erstwhile chairman, lost the last election, and has let it be known that he does not intend to challenge the Liberal Democrat incumbent's near-3,000 majority. "Chris already has a house here and could easily beat the Libs." gushes one Tory. Bul Lavender, his wife, could be an obstacle: "She would need a lot of persuading after his humiliation at Bath."

A Tate gallery spokesman has opologised that Chris Burden's sculpture. When Robots Rule: The Two Minute Airplane Factory, has suffered a mechanical breakdown-

EDWARD WELSH

'Millions of hopeful couples are keenly pursuing love's young dream of a big house on Easy Street with sponsors winding round the door' the entire staff of Hello! doomed to disappointmajor pith and moment are Times, say, declaring you had just heard the first millennial

p until very recently. Wee Willie Winkie, as you may have heard, ran through the town, upstairs and downstairs, in his nightgown. He did this every evening. to ensure that all the children were in bed. But he does not do that, now. Now, every evening, he runs only upstairs, to his own bed, and he stays there. He does not run downstairs at all. Mrs Winkie, having run upstairs a minute earlier, will not let him. She will not let him wear his night-gown, either. That is because the Winkies no longer give a tuppenny damn about anybody else's children. They are obsessed only with conceiving one of their own. For this is, quite literally, a seminal moment in the Winkies' lives, and if it is the right seminal moment, then, in nine months' time, the Winkies will be in clover: if, that's to say. an extremely wee Willie Winkie pops squawking out of Mrs Winkie at the last bong of midnight 1999, and thus becomes the first millennial baby. the world will beat a path to their

Laying, as it beats, a ttrandnew path, hanging a brand-new door, and building a brand-new house behind it, full of brandnew furniture. The world will then put a brand-new car in the brand-new Winkie garage, and a brand-new satellite dish on the Winkie roof, severally to include a lifetime supply of free petrol and a lifetime supply of free television channels. Very soon thereafter, lifetimes of free rusks. free toys, free clothes, free holidays, free banjo lessons, free health insurance, free dry-cleaning, free MCC membership, free houseplants, all manner of free gee-gaws and services, will wend their eager way to Chez Winkie, to say nothing of Max Clifford.

magazine, and, naturally, Mr and Mrs Tony Blair, doubtless bearing a lifetime supply of free initiatives. But it is, of course, a lottery, and you may therefore be sure that the Winkies are far from alone in hopefully taking a nightly punt According to informed sources down at The Gynaecologist and

Duck, this first week of April is critical, which is why the nation's nocturnal streets are eerily deserted and their houses atypically dark, if not exactly silent: from Land's End to John o'Groat's, millions of hopeful couples are keenly pursuing love's young dream of a big house on Easy Street with sponsors winding round the door. That millions-minus-one are ment does not stay them for a moment though who can say it mightn't be the clincher if it did, this is horseshoe-nail country, a moment is a long time on the cusp of a millennium. a moment too early or too late and millions-minus-one will be looking at parental lifetimes of unfree everything, never mind missing the neighbourhood fireworks party through being either pregnantly immobile or sitting in a unsubsidised new liability howling for the nipple. But I am not here, even if I seem to be meandering that way, to ponder the morality or catastrophe of the current procreational shenanigans: I am here, as I generally am when things of maternity bed with an armful of afoot, to ponder what might be in is for me. For while I break no confidences in saying that Mrs Coren and I are not ourselves going for the title - physiological realities must be faced. hanging nursery wallpaper is definitely out, with my back - that is not to say we are hors de combat in the matter of millennial freebies. In a culture as egregiously opportunist as ours, there must be umpteen other profitable strokes for enterprising greedies to pull at the stroke of 2000.

haven't yet hit upon the ideal, mind, and wouldn't tell you if I had, but let me be merous enough to toss you a few suggestions which, for those readers similarly disinclined to spend next January changing nappies yet keen to make a fast bob or two, would probably do in a pinch. A midnight fax to The cuckoo might well secure a lifetime of free hearing aids, a cannily flattened tyre would allow you to make the first AA breakdown call of the millennium, surely bringing you free lifetime bracket-clock insurance. a chance to win a stylish timeshare on the Welsh Riviera, and a scale model of Lord Montagu, and becoming the first person in Y2K to join the Conservative Party would almost certainly mean a lifetime of free lawnmowing and shoeshines from William and Ffion.

Then again, why not kill two millennial birds with one stone? Start celebrating on December 1 and, one nano-second after December 31, turn up al your nearest all-night chemist with 2000's first hangover. You could be looking at a lifetime of free Alka-Seltzer.

THE FINAL TEST

Monetary union should not be the gateway to political union

At a time when Europe's capacity for unity and international leadership has been so tragically questioned in the Balkans, it may seem troubling to discuss the issue of whether the single currency will create a political federation in Europe. Yet the human catastrophe in the former Yugoslavia should act as a reminder of the dangers of imposing artificial political templates on the he patchwork of national identities and ical reality in Europe. When ical reality in Europe. When Tony Blair announced his Government's decision to try to persuade the British public to join monetary union. The Times suggested five tests that during the project should meet before ihord. his Government could consider held by calling a referendum. The fifth and most

The stands of these related to the political which implications of monetary union.

Despite Mr Blair's breezy assurance that the there is no overriding constitutional objection" to monetary union, this fear of a march towards political unification remains the most important reason for Toler popular hesitation about the single currenin cy in Britain. The Prime Minister insists "phay, that fears about a drive towards deeper political integration are either irrelevant or history i vastly exaggerated. But most of the political leaders in EMU countries hold the opposite view. It may be, of course, that Mr Blair is right and continental politicians and central bankers are mistaken. Before Britain even contemplates joining EMU. there needs to be strong evidence that Mr Blair's view about the nature of monetary union is going to prevail.

The first test of the political implications of EMU relates simply to the ideological dynamics of Europe. Before the Prime Minister can even hope to be believed on the political innocuousness of EMU, there will have to be an end to the rhetoric from Brussels, Berlin, Paris and Rome about the political "deepening" of Europe. At present many European leaders continue to advocate curtailing national vetoes. Mr Blair can argue that all this is mere rhetoric, but as long as the leaders of Europe continue to be driven by federalist aspirations, it will be logical to conclude that they will use EMU to drive forward this project.

This is particularly true because of the second implication of monetary union. The single currency, by its very existence, will create economic forces which could encourage deeper political integration. By eliminating currency adjustments, EMU will focus attention on the competitive implications of divergent wage levels, tax structures and social security arrangements across Europe. As a result Germany and other high tax, high wage countries may try to impose their high costs on the rest of Europe by campaigning for majority voting on taxes and for restrictions on working conditions and "social dumping".

FIVE TESTS FOR EUROPE A third source of pressure for political co-ordination may arise from the EMU stability pact and the impact of future economic crises on different European countries. In the United States, when Texas falls into recession, its citizens pay less tax to Washington and receive more social benefits, while those of booming states pay proportionately more and receive less. This creates an automatic, but strictly temporary, redistribution mechanism that tends to reduce the impact of regional booms and busts. In Europe, no such mechanisms exist. While economists will argue about the theories behind this issue, the reality will be tested as soon as a part of Europe is hit by economic crisis. Britain must see firm evidence that pressures for a bigger federal budget do not, in practice, intensify.

A fourth source of political problems arises from the institutions created by EMU. The stability pact imposes limits on public borrowing by EMU countries. If the European Central Bank involves itself in Europe's fiscal debates, as the Bundesbank did in Germany, the pressures will mount for European finance mininsters to co-ordinate their fiscal policies and speak with one voice. EMU is also creating a culture of unanimity for members of the Euro-II in their international dealings, with the G7, the IMF and the US. If such pressures for European unity keep mounting, they will present a final, decisive, argument against Britain joining EMU. Britain would suffer an irreversible erosion of its limited, but distinctive, influence on the world stage.

SERBS BEARING GIFTS

A cynical ceasefire offer that Nato has rightly dismissed

Nato's military commanders and political envy. President Milosevic is well aware of "I initiative from Serbia in advance of the Orthodox Easter weekend. They had also given warning in advance that "hollow half-measures" would not be allowed to stop the bombing. However, even the most hardened observer of Balkan politics could not have been prepared for the extraordinary performance by Vuk Draskovic, the Yugoslav Deputy Prime Minister, in televised appearances yesterday. Mr Draskovic calmly announced the predicted temporary ceasefire with all due flourish but added that the one million or more Kosovan Albanian refugees were welcome to return to their homeland.

This proclamation is unlikely to be received with rapture on the Macedonian border. Even if Kosovan Albanians were inclined to forget the events of the recent past and place their faith in the words of the Serbian authorities, they have ashes not houses to return to. This is such an utterly shameless diplomatic "offer" that Saddam Hussein must have felt a sense of serious negotiations to be reopened. He continues to show little interest in them.

If Mr Milosevic shows the slightest sign of slowing his onslaught on the Kosovans this week, it will be because he feels that he has already succeeded in meeting his objectives. The terror sown over the past two weeks may well have been enough by itself to persuade every single Kosovo Albanian to bead towards the border. The only realistic prospect of their ever heading home will come if Nato's bombing alters the balance of power in Belgrade.

There is one aspect of the Draskovic statement that should be taken seriously. The Serbian leadership might be inclined to conclude an "internal settlement" with those members of the Kosovan political class whom it holds captive. A deal of this form would be no more acceptable than the latest nominal "ceasefire". Mr Milosevic's main aim over the next few days will be to spread division among the Nato nations, not to reconcile Kosovo with Serbia.

CHALK AND CHEESE

Blunkett should be supported on performance-related pay

David Blunkett's proposals on teaching salaries are, according to Doug McAvoy, the general secretary of the National Union of Teachers, speaking yesterday, a "tyranny" that represents the "greatest challenge" to the NUT in a century and upon which rests "the future of the education service in England and Wales". The policies pursued by the Prime Minister, he declared, were simply "disaster, disaster, disaster" for the teaching profession. The same blueprint was stoutly defended by Estelle Morris. the Schools Minister, who told a sceptical audience at the conference of the National Association of Schoolmasters and Union of Women Teachers that she was prepared to be "flexible" and that for the first 12 months the new scheme would be "voluntary".

This rhetoric might lead an innocent observer to conclude that Tony Blair and Mr Blunkett are setting out to slash classroom salaries. The truth is that the Government plans to spend an extra El billion on pay over the next two years but mends to direct these additional resources towards the most talented teachers. An aspect, but not the only element, of this package involves whether an individual leacher's efforts translate into improving results for pupils. This is the "outrage" that led to Mr Blunkett's heckling by the NUT on Saturday and Mr McAvoy's outburst.

The NUT now plans to call for a ballot on a one-day strike as part of its campaign of industrial activity. The teaching unions believe that Mr Blunkett can be forced into diluting his ideas beyond recognition. The Secretary of State should not buckle at this blackmail. The Government has offered enough concessions on this issue already. These proposals represent the means by which teaching salaries can be increased in a fashion that will not divert resources from the central task of raising standards.

The NUT executive would, it seems, prefer equality of poverty to differential affluence. It argues that either the task of evaluating merit among teachers is impossible or that to do so would be enormously divisive. Mr McAvoy has claimed that it would be invidious to make distinctions among those who are performing the same basic functions. On this logic, the salaries bill at Manchester United and Macclesfield Town should be identical.

Teachers rightly aspire for their occupation to be recognised as a "profession". One of the most elementary features of a profession is that of individual contracts, not collective bargaining. Performance-related pay may well be rotten news for full-time union officials. It is, however, a real opportunity for ordinary teachers.

Mr McAvoy's opposition is not, however, very surprising. The most astonishing aspect of this whole saga is that David Willetts, the Shadow Education Secretary. seems to be supporting the unions. Mr Willetts has condemned strike threats but believes Mr Blunkett would be "making a serious mistake if he presses ahead with a scheme which the whole profession considers unworkable". Conservative ministers. correctly, never permitted the NUT a de facto velo on policy when they held office. The Tories should be pushing Mr Blunkett to go faster and further in the direction that he is taking. Mr Willetts will be making a serious mistake if he presses ahead with a position that the vast majority of voters. including almost all Conservative sympathisers, will consider utterly incredible.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

1 Pennington Street, London El 9XN Telephone 0171-782 5000

KLA resistance to Serb 'brutality'

From Professor Geoffrey Lee Williams

Sir, Can I suggest, if Nato is unable to deploy ground forces to Kosovo in support of its air operations, that there is an alternative strategy which is worth contemplating. This is to give fully-fledged support to the Kosovo Liberation Army (KLA), whose insurgency now stands to benefit from the diminution of Serb strength on the ground arising from Nato's air attacks. The congenital weakness of the KLA could now be reversed by enabling it to exploit four features of the strategic situation which are likely to develop as spring passes into

1. The existence of a greatly weak-ened adversary on the ground in

2. The existence of a unifying cause arising from the brutalisation of the ethnic Albanian population by the Serbs which could encourage fierce resistance to oppression and expulsion.

 Favourable geographical features which can be exploited in guerrilla warfare.

4. The existence of outside support from the world's best armed military

Clearly, the KLA's strategic aims would be full independence for Kosovo but with entrenched rights for the Serb population, guaranteed by the presence of a Nato peace-enforced contingent, similar to those now deployed in Bosnia under the rubric of an international peace agreement.

Yours sincerely, GEOFFREY LEE WILLIAMS, The Institute of Economic and Political Studies. Instep Cambridge, Warkworth House, Warkworth Terrace, Cambridge CBI 1EE.

From Rabbi Dr Sidney Brichto

Sir, The Rabbis said, "He who saves a life saves a world". Members of the Jewish community like myself must be thrilled by the courage and compassion shown by Clare Short as she led Kosovan refugees into the Macedonian relief camp (report. April 6). Sent by her Government only to observe, as an individual she felt com-

Had we had politicians of her like in the 1940s, how many millions of Jews, Gypsies and others might have been saved through this example?

Sir Alfred Sherman deplores Nato going beyond its remit as a defensive alliance (letter, April 6). Clare Short may be ushering us into a new political age which reflects the public view that governments can no longer act purely out of self-interest.

People now seem ready for soldiers to die to save the lives of the persecuted out of a sense of a common humanity.

No wonder Saddam Hussein is the only Arab leader supporting a government which is victimising his own co-religionists (report, April ti). He knows that the determination of Nato to prevent oppression without regard to national boundaries spells an end for all dictators who, through their awesome brutality, terrorise their citizens and neighbouring states into submission.

Faithfully SIDNEY BRICHTO (Senior Vice-President, Union of Liberal & Progressive Synagogues). The Montagu Centre, 21 Maple Street, WIP 6DS. bevtaylor@aol.com Anril 6.

From Mr Larry Rushion

Sir, Clare Short, a British minister, is presumably a guest in Macedonia (today's front page). Therefore she should not be publicly urging its government officials to disobey instructions

This is particularly offensive when they are struggling to cope with a refugee problem greatly aggravated by British government actions.

Yours sincerely LARRY RUSHTON, 10 Smith Close. Piddington, Northampton NN7 2DW. April 6.

From Professor Emeritus Philip S. James

Sir, fs it not folly for a pot to call a kettle black? Is it not a war crime for us and our bomb-happy Allies to endanger the lives of our gallant servicemen by raining down death and destruction upon open cities?

One can only reflect that an untutored generation can hardly be expected to recall the twin lessons of the 19th century that a nation's internal affairs are its own and that punitive expeditions have usually done more harm than good.

Permit me, Sir. to prophesy that, faced as we now appear to be with a consensus of informed opinion against this ominously dangerous piece of folly. Mr Blair would do well to execute one of his customary political retreats.

Yours faithfully PHILIP S. JAMES, Chestnut View, Mill Lane, Whitfield, Brackley, Northamptonshire NN13 5TQ.

April 2

Child's right to British nationality It is doubtful if the number of per-

From Sir Dick Pantlin

Sir, Mr James Wilde (letter, March 27) describes the Foreign Secretary's move to restore full British citizenship to the islanders of Tristan da Cunha as "a just, if belated, restoration of their nightful status".

It is to be hoped that the Foreign Secretary will correct a further unjustifiable omission by ensuring that second-generation children of British citizens born in continental EU countries do not automatically lose their right to pass on British nationality, no doubt in the belief that they will have "gone native".

It is of great importance to Britain that more and more families decide to set up homes and create businesses in continental Europe. Their children and grandchildren will learn foreign languages and be used to working in a foreign culture, thus becoming ideal candidates later to work in the UK or abroad for British interests. These restrictions do not apply to those "in Crown service, yet families in busi-ness and other professions are treated differently, which is absurd.

This matter could be solved by but a tiny alteration to the same Act ("birth in these States being equivalent to birth in the UK"), could not take more than a few minutes of parliamentary time, cannot possibly meet with poli-tical opposition, is within the spirit of EU legislation which encourages mobility of labour, and would avoid condemning a child - who might well wish in due course to return to Britain - to a future linked to the actions of his or her parents and grandparents.

sons involved in the next few years would equal the present population of the Pitcairn Islands, but an important step will have been taken to encourage the greater involvement of British families in continental Europe. This will be necessary whatever may be the precise future nature of Britain's links with that area.

Yours sincerely: DICK PANTLIN 11 Avenue de Mercure, Brussels B.1180.

From Mr Piers Litherland

Sir. I know of no ancestor of mine born outside Britain. And yet, under the terms of current British naconality legislation, I am unable 10 pass on my inherited British nationality to my children because I happened to be born outside Britain in the then British territory of Rhodesia.

I am only British "by descent". In this respect. I am less British than any child born in Britain - even a child born to a refugee, illegal immigrant or tourist with no previous connection of any sort with this country.

In the one case an accident of birth conveys full Briosh citizenship, in my own it denies it. Can this be right?

Sir, If disclosing the locations of speed cameras encourages lawbreaking, why then are there usually large notices warning drivers of these

The legality or otherwise of the disclosure of speed traps by those unauthorised to do so is more debatable.

Sir, It is perhaps a matter of personal perception, but I would have thought that drivers are not "trapped" into exceeding speed limits; instead, they volunteer themselves for prosecution.

remain yours etc PIERS LITHERLAND, Flat 3. 10a/b Stanley Beach Road, Stanley, Hong Kong.

From Mr E. W. Lighton devices?

Yours faithfully, E. W. LIGHTON,

Crewe CWI 3SW.

Yours faithfully,

MALCOLM PENNY.

11 Ryebank Avenue.

a1311755@infotrade.co.uk

From Mr Malcolm Penny

Speed traps

From Mr T. Keith Toylor

Sir. Mr R. J. Butler (letter, March 31) criticises the publication of details of speed-control measures. Surely the use of cameras and the like is to reduce traffic speeds to the legal level and not primarily to entrap motorists.

T. KEITH TAYLOR, Acers, II Green Oak Road, Watton, Norfolk 1P25 6BE.

From Mr.A. G. E. White

Sir, Recently browsing the microfiche of The Times for August 1914 for Open University work, 1 was surprised to note, in passing, two editorial features advising motorists of the positioning of speed traps. I did not see any adverse comment from the police.

Have we become too subservient?

Yours humbly, ARCHIE WHITE, 11 Tynedale Court, Kirk Sandall, Doncaster DN3 IRN.

57 Boyn Hill Road, Maidenhead Berkshire SL6 4HR.

Irked by inaction

From Mr Chris Ogilvie-Taylor

Sir, Any sympathy that I had for our manufacturing industry in decline has fast evaporated following my recent experience of trying to place business on behalf of a large retailer, with a UK manufacturer of printed fabrics, rather than the usual Far East source of supply. My brief was for fabric finished as a fashion accessory, which required a certain amount of handworking. Everyone I spoke to could print the fabric but didn't want to do the finishing: so they suggested a competitor! Not one company out of the 12 that I called had the gumption to ask for more details, take my name, or say they'd look into it and get back to me. I got the impression that it all sounded too much trouble to them, and as it didn't fit exactly with what they'd been doing for the last 20 years, they'd be best to let it pass.

With such a large order at stake, we've returned to sourcing from outside the UK but this experience leaves me bemused and exasperated. I'm quite sure that those dozen companies badly need new business but they wouldn't adapt themselves to my

The only way for our manufacturing industry to survive is to ask customers what they want and respond to those needs and opportunities, not just distribute what they've already got-

Yours faithfully. CHRIS OGILVIE-TAYLOR (Managing Director).

Marsden Grant International Ltd. 58 Queen Anne Street, WIM 9LA.

Arm-twisting software

From Mrs Kate Perera

Sir, I have been accustomed for many years now to using word-processing software for the production of reports, letters and other pieces of writing. Each time I update my software, while fascinated by the new possibilities offered in terms of layout and appearance, I become further irritated by other people's attempts to dictate my writing style, spelling and grammar.

I am no longer allowed to produce any sentence over three lines long, no matter how clear its subject, construction and punctuation; my grammar is unnecessarily questioned; 1 am obliged to use bullet-points when none is required; and I suffer from software which asks if I want its help when it notices that I am writing a letter.

Obviously I can, and do, switch off these minor nuisances. What concerns me, however, is that their default setting is "on", ie, they start from a basic assumption of ignorance and incapability. When at the same time newspapers produce whole supplements lamenting the decline of educational standards, I cannot help wondering whether my computer software is symptomatic, and whether we are simply not asking young people to think or do enough for themselves.

I do not believe that the correct solution is to provide automatic correction without first stimulating the individual to both make and learn from his or her own mistakes.

Yours faithfully. KATE PERERA. 25 Ashlyns Road, Berkhamsted HP4 3BN. April 3.

The landfill tax

From the Director, Business and Environment, The Paper Federation of Great Britain, and others.

Sir, We welcome the Chancellor's recognition in the Budget of the importance of the landfill tax in encouraging more recycling. The increased tax will be a valuable instrument supporting the recovery and recycling of waste by ensuring that the costs of landfill more accurately reflect its environmental costs.

However, we believe that the Treasury must go further and increase the overall proportion of the tax earmarked for investment in the recovery and recycling infrastructure. Without such investment the substantial increases in recycling which the Government and the public desire will not be achieved. Yours faithfully

BRYAN BATEMAN, Director, Business and Environment, The Paper Federation of Great Britain, RAY GEORGESON, Executive Director, Waste Watch. KEN MANTON, Chairman, Waste and Environment Committee, Local Government Association.

The Paper Federation of Great Britain, Papermakers House, • Rivenhall Road, Swindon SN5 7BD. April 6.

Business letters, page 27

Letters should carry a daytime telephone number. They may be faxed to 0171-782 5046. e-mail to: letters@the-times.cg.uk

Business plan for single currency

From Mr Giles Radice, MP for Durham North (Conservative), and Mr Bill Rammell. MP for Horlow

Sir, MORI, Gallup, NOP, Eurofile, City Research and others have consistently shown that British business is behind the single currency. The poll published yesterday by Business for Sterling (report, March 31) has, in our view, been designed around leading questions and false logic.

With 86 per cent of those surveyed having heard "little" or "nearly nothing" about the implications of the single currency, it is no surprise that the base of British euroscepticism is rooted in confusion and misinformation. This problem is most marked among smaller businesses, which are the least informed and the most eurosceptic. Perhaps Business for Sterling should focus more on why these two factors are so frequently related.

interestingly, it remains silent about its finding that 56 per cent of businesses say Britain will end up losing out while other countries in the eurozone benefit. Similarly, it hasn't mentioned the 51 per cent of busi-nesses who agree that our future is in Europe and that we have to go in wholeheartedly.

Businesses across Britain need to plan for the single currency as a reality. Whilst Business for Sterling might want to put its head in the ground, real businesses need to be informed and prepared for the single currency. This is the real issue for business.

Yours sincerely, GILES RADICE. Chairman, European Movement, BILL RAMMELL, Chairman, Labour Movement for Europe, House of Commons. April I.

Free for all

From Sir Hugh Leggott

Sir, The Director of the National Portrait Gallery, Mr Charles Saumarez Smith (letter, April 2), points out the failure of compulsory admission charges to the national museums and galleries imposed by the Heath Government and the disastrous drop in visitor numbers to this institution

In 1970, when the Wilson Government was in power, the Treasury decreed that entrance charges should be levied to visit the Annigoni portrait of the Queen at the National Portrait

However, the Treasury was out-flanked by Jennie Lee (then Minister for the Arts), who told it that the donor (myself) would offer to hang the portrait in "Harrods stores" if the then owners would agree.

I asked Miss Lee the Treasury's reply. It was simply, "Yes, Minister". Yours faithfully.

HUGH LEGGATT 21 Rue du Lac. CH-1800 Vevey. Switzerland. April 6.

Bishop's move?

From the Right Reverend Henry Richmond

Sir, On Saturday (March 27) my wife received junk mail, inviting her to buy a book which would bestow longevity by putting her in touch with her former incarnations. Her reply was to ask to be removed from their mailing

I then read an article in The Times Weekend, informing me that the name Joshua, the Hebrew name for Jesus, was "a negative name. Intelligent but introverted, and does not cope well with stress. Will experience relationship problems in late teens that could lead to drug and alcohol ahuse'

Should I ask to be removed from my newsageni's Times paper-round? Yours faithfully THENRY RICHMOND. 39 Hodges Court. Marlborough Road, Oxford OXI 4NZ.

Clarification sought

From Mr Peter Wade

March 28.

·Sir, To assist Mr Anthony P. Moran's search for an expression to describe Service personnel wearing fluorescent waistcoats over camouflage uniforms (letter, April 6), I feel that the word "stealth" should be in there some-

Yours faithfully, PETER WADE, 12 Bell Close, Colchester, Essex CO2 8EP.

Rites of spring

From Mr Antony Walker

Sir. You do not report daily that the Sun rose in the East, so why report annually that the National Union of Teachers is opposed to reform of the education system (April 3)?

Yours faithfully, ANTONY G. T. WALKER, Spiti Hippocampus, PO Box 70. Pissouri 4607, Cyprus.

COURT CIRCULAR

WINDSOR CASTLE April 6: The Hon Mary Morrison has succeeded Mrs Christian Adams as Lady in Waiting to The Queen.

WINDSOR CASTLE April 6: The Duke of Edinburgh, Trustee, this evening chaired a Meeting of The Prince Philip Trust Fund for The Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead, at Windsor Castle.

ST JAMES'S CASTLE April 6: The Prince of Wales this morning visited Sutherland where he was received by Her Majesty's Lord-Lieuten-ant of Sutherland (Major-General David Houston).

His Royal Highness this morning visited Hunters of Brora Ltd, Brora, Sutherland. His Royal Highness later visited Seaforth House Residential and Day Care Centre, Golspie. Sutherland. The Prince of Wales this

Today's royal

The Duke of York will launch the Royal News Magazine on the Birthdays today

Mr Dennis Amiss, cricketer. 56: Viscount Brentford, 66: Miss Fredda Brilliant, sculptor, 91: Mr lean Colonna, fashion designer 44: Mr Francis Ford Coppola, film Cox, former Editor and Chiel Executive, ITN, 89; Mr Luca Cumani. racehorse trainer, 50; Professor Sir Graeme Davies, Principal and Vice-Chancellor, Glasgow University, 62: Professor D.R. Denman, land economist, 88; Mr Peter Fluck, satirist and puppeteer, 58; Sir David Frost, proadcaster, 60; Mr F.L. Garner, former chairman, Pearl Assurance, 79; Mr James Garner, actor. 71: Sir Terence Harrison, former chief execu-Kaye, actor, 58; Mr Marryn Lewis, broadcaster, 54; Mr Cliff Morgan, former head of outside broadcasting, BBC Television, 69: Mrs Jane Priestman, former director, architecture and design, British Rail, 69; Mr Ian Richardson, actor, 65; Mr Andrew Sachs, actor, 69; Herr sitar player, 79; Group Captain Mary Shaw, former director and matron-in-chief, PMRAFNS, 66; Miss Alison Shrubsole, former Principal, Homerton College, 74; Mr David J. Williams, former Chief Constable, Surrey. 58; Mr ary secretary, Barbarian Football afternoon visited Inverness where he was received by Her Majesty's Lord-Lieutenant of Inverness (The Rt Hon

The Lord Gray of Contin). His Royal Highness later visited the Renal and Oncology Unit, Raigmore Hospital. Inverness, and as Patron. Macmillan Cancer Relief, His Royal Highness subsequently unveiled a bench outside the hospital.

The Prince of Wales later visited Nairn where he was received by Her Majesty's Lord-Lieutenant of Nairn (The Earl of Leven and

His Royal Highness finally visited Cantraybridge Ru-ral Skills College, Cawdor, BUCKINGHAM PALACE April 6: The Princess Royal, Honorary Air Commodore, this afternoon visited Royal Air Force Lyneham, Chip-penham, Wiltshire.

Premium Bonds

£100,000:

£25,000:

The following Premium Bonds prizewinners were announced yesterday:

13HF 699919, winner has a holding of £15,050 and comes from Lanca-shire; 83AB 648702, £6,150, Dorset;

24FF 126181, £11,135, South Yorkshire; 46QL 383284, EI5,000, Kent; 54JN 671763, £5,200, Surrey; 76TZ 014718, £9,485, Enfield.

57MW 031345, £20,000, Oxford-

57/W 03/545, 220,000, Oxford-shire; IIJS 188486, E20,000, Somer-set; 62RK 705036, E14,500, Lanca-shire; 88EW 262985, E20,000, East Sussex: 52HB 094775, £8,160. East Lothian; 1FT 605651, E6,022, Chesh-

Loman; 1FT 605051, E0,122, Chest-lre; 68ES 702151, E1,004, Lanca-shire; 75FZ 135432, E20,000, Lin-colnshire; 65AS 618916, E4,000, Hampshire; 88EF 756317, £18,900, Hillingdon; 66LN 642644, £12,000, Essex; 33DW 667507, £17,750, Staf-footlshire

84AF 954820, £8,200, Merseyside;

7BB 025300, £1,055, Cumbria: 48PF 698288, £375, Kent; 15MF 805649.

E12,000, Essex: 5EL 448486, E85. Oxfordshire: 2NP 452792, E40, West Yorkshire: 96DP 756445, E5,000, Bristol: 89MZ 374085, E5,000, Overseas: 93EZ 678326,

EMUO, Overseas; 93E2 6/8326, EL,000, Dorset; 30PB 087314, ESO, Glasgow; 86MT 833064, £l8,500, Cambridgeshire: 24VW 02153, 88,330, Essen: 47VP 958617, £6,555, Westminster; 58DN 067569, E20,000, South Yorkshire; 6IGZ

654189, £2,260, Hampshire; 60GB 103418, £3,000, Kent; 52WF 053053, £1,750, Shropshire; 94JL 394352.

E20,000, Hammersmith and Ful-ham; 34ES 013356, E8,050, West

Sussest, 17AF 119787, E20,000, Merton; 75HN 923178, £20,000, Lanca-shire; 57FS 149363, £20,000, Cam-

West Midlands; 96AW 616536,

£1,000. Hampshire.

engagements

Internet, 21 Cale Internet, 22/24 Buckingham Palace Road, London SWJ, at 11.00, director. 60: Mr Gerry Cottle circus proprietor, 54: Sir Geoffrey tive, Rolls-Royce, 66; Mr Geoffrey Heywood, former President, Institute of Actuaries, 83; Vice-Admiral Sir Arthur Hezlet, 85; Mr Gorden Gerhard Schröder, German Chan-cellor, 55: Pandit Ravi Shankar, Geoffrey Windsor-Lewis, honor-

By Dalya Alberge

Historic

instruments

will be seen and played

ARTS CORRESPONDENT

THE Royal Academy of Music. which has one of the world's finest collections of historic instruments, is planning to revolutionise the way these are displayed -- with a £14 million "living museum", which will open next year in a building beside the academy. The traditional museum approach, with instruments propped up forlornly in glass cases, will be scrapped so that the public can see and hear the finest examples being played, while observing and they make new ones. Curtis Price, Principal of the academy, one of the world's premier conserva-toires, said: "This will be a new concept in museums. It will be the only place in the world where members of the public can come in off the street and see great Strad instruments on display and hear them being played. There will be informal con-certs, lectures and work-

talking to master craftsmen as He is dismayed that instru-ments at the Victoria and Albert Museum in London or the Musée de la Musique in Paris are never played. In Paris, they are locked away behind armoured glass, half an inch thick, and never touched - except by curators. That makes me weep, If you see an instrument, you want to know what it sounds like." Never allowing anyone to play them is madness, he said. While accepting that some instruments are extremely fragile, he disagrees with museum curators who believe that every time an instrument is played, original evidence is lost. They deteriorate if they missionary, Navarre, Spain, 1506; William Wordsworth, Poet Laureate 1843-50, Cockermouth, Cumbria, 1770; Randall Thomas Davidoria, 1770; earbail Homas David-son, Baron Davidson of Lambeth, Archbishop of Canterbury 1903-28, Edinburgh, 1848; Gabriela Mis-tral, poet, Nobel laureate 1945, Vicuna, Chile, 1889; Sir David

Low, political cartoonist, Dunedin, New Zealand, 1891: Billie Holiday, jazz singer, Baltimore, Maryland,

DEATHS: Sir William D'Avenant,

Poet Laureate 1638-68. London, 1668: St Jean Baptiste de La Salle.

founder of the Christlan Brothers,

Anniversaries BIRTHS: SI Francis Xavier, Jesuit raised more than £4 million from private sources. Its collection has just re-ceived an added boost: a Stradivarius cello sold by Christie's for more than £500,000 last month was donated to the academy by an anonymous benefactor. It has the greatest collection are not played, he argues. But James Yorke, assistant curator of the V&A's furniture department who is responsible for its musical collection, said it would never allow anyone to perform on such historic exhibits: "Every time you play them, there is the risk of a slight deterioration."

The academy museum will be based in a building at York

Gate, which has been acquired with nearly £8 million from the Heritage Lottery

Fund. Turning it into a muse-um will cost a further £6 million, but the academy is well on target, having already of old Italian stringed instruments in the world, as well as pianos and brass instruments (the largest collection of 18th and 19th-century instruments in the country), and a precious archive that ranges from one of only two surviving musical manuscripts in the hand of John Dowland (1563-1626), the

Rouen, 1719; Dick Turpin, high-wayman, executed, York, 1739; Phineas Barnum, showman, Phineas Barnum, showman, Bridgeport, Connecticut, 1891; Henry Ford, car manufacturer, Dear-born, Michigan, 1947; Theda Bara, silent film star, Los Angeles, 1985;

Jim Clark, world champion racing driver, killed in an accident, Hockenheim, Germany, 1968.

Mount Vesuvius erupted, 1906. WHO, the World Health Organisa-tion, was established in Geneva, Swedish civil servant Dag Ham-marskjold was elected UN Secre-

CND supporters marched from London 10 Aldermaston in 8 ban-the-bomb protest, 1958.

tary-General, 1953.

Church news

The Royal Academy of Music, right, with No 1 York Gate next to it, where the academy's dramatic new museum will open next year great English composer, sing-er and lutenist, to the original manuscripts of Gilbert and Among up to 300 stringed instruments are no fewer than seven by Stradivarius, including one worth more than £3

Until now the academy, which has never had the space to display its collection.

has lent out instruments to students and young profes-sionals. Their insurance company understands the importance of getting instruments played, but has "specific guide-

Sullivan.

Academy plans £14m 'living museum' of music

The Rev Patricia Robson, Priest-in-Charge, St Enoder (Truro): has been appointed Honorary Canon of Truro Cathedral (same diocese). The Rev Robert Rogers, Assistant Chaplain, York Healthcare Trust (York): has been appointed Senior Chaplain, York Healthcare Trust. The Rev Ian Scott, Assistant Chaplain, University Hospital Bir-mingham NHS Trust: has been appointed Chaplain, South War-wickshire Combined Care NHS Trust (Coventry). The Rev Hilda wark): to be Vicar, Earlsdon St Barbara (Coventry).

Air Marshal Sir

lines"; for example, no more than four Stradivarii are allowed in any room at any one time or to travel oo the same

"I strongly feel that unless they are played, they die," Dr Price said. The Stradivari Museum in Cremona has a small collection. They employ someone to play them every day. Otherwise they do lose

"A violin is made of wood that is meant to vibrate, If wood isn't exercised in this way, it becomes rigid and dore, Royal Fleet Auxiliary will give an address.

Forthcoming marriages

Mr G.P. Brant

and Miss G.F. Walshaw The engagement is announced between Geoff, son of Mr and Mrs Brant. of Kenardington, Kent. and Gilly, daughter of Dr and Mrs Michael Walshaw, of Kilmacolm.

Renfrewshire. Mr J.A. Cox

and Miss J.E. Duff The forthcoming marriage is announced, and will take place on fune 21, 1999, in Portland, Oregon, USA, between Jeffrey Allen, only son of Mr and Mrs Norman Cox. of Portland, Oregon, USA, and Jane Elizabeth, only daughter of Mr and Mrs Peter Duff, of Ilford.

Mr T.W.C. Edge and Miss E.M. Ford

The engagement is announced between Titus, only son of Major and Mrs William Edge, of Fovant, Wiltshire, and Marina, eldest daughter of Mr David Ford, CBE, and Mrs. Conf. of Paule 1, San Paule. and Mrs Ford. ol São Paulo.

Mr J.D. Ford and Miss S.M. Herbert and MISS AM. Hatcher The engagement is announced between Jonathan, son of Mr and Mrs Roger Ford, of Woolpit, Suffolk, and Susannah, younger daughter of Mr Robin Herbert, of Lianover. Monmouthshire. and Mrs Margaret Herbert, of Lianarth, Monmouthshire. Mr D.E. Higgins and Miss J.K. Cowler

The engagement is announced between David Edward, son of Mr and Mrs James Higgins, of Aldwick, Sussex, and Joanna Kathryn, younger daughter of Mr and Mrs James Cowler, of Farnborough, Hampshire. Mr R.P.W. Johnstone and Miss J.S. Stewart The engagement is announced between Robin, son of the late Major Ian Johnstone, of Suiton Veny. Warminster, Wiltshire, and of Mrs Susan Day, and Jacqueline, daughter of Mr and Mrs Hugh Stewart, of Chapel House, Kettlebridge, Fife.

Mr P.T. Lalor and Miss L.J.L. Wells The engagement is announced between Peter, son of Mr and Mrs L.J. Lalor, of Umhlanga Rods, Natal. South Africa, and Lucinda, elder daughter of Mr and Mrs Richard Wells. of Littleton, Guildford.

Marriage

Mr J.V. Wroc and Miss M.G.M. Harrison The marriage took place on April 5, 1999, at St Joseph's Church, Chalfont St Peter, Buckingham shire, between Mr John Wroe and Miss Marie Harrison.

Council for Licensed Conveyancers

The following were successful in the Council for Licensed Conveyancers Winter 1999 Examinations: Foundation Law of Contract

Christine Alexander, Sevenoaks; Rachel Bairstow, Heckmondwike: Gillan Bebbington, Manchester; Emma Benson, Bolton; Christine Blenkinson, Stunley: Jacqueline Burdett, Wellingborough: Donna Cross, Wordester: Anita Cundall, Wirral: Helen Bortest. Weinigorough: Donal City, Worester: Anita Cundall. Wirral: Helen Dawson, Bingley; Sukhdev Ohinea, Coventryi Nigel Deal, Grays; Samentha Ediginton. Birmingham: Clare Farrell. Middleton: Deborah Glezier, Hastings: David Gray, Leighton Buzzard; Samuel Gyan. Londore, Finola Hoiwell, Davenory: Sosan Hudson, Nordiampton: James Jackson, Warrington: Alisan Kettley, Northampton: Linda Lyons. Notinepham: Julia Mallard, Manchester; Sally Maloney, Swansea; Pamela Massam, Holliax: Andrea Moran. Accrington; Mandy Moreton. Bradford: Beryl O'Risw. Warrington; Karen Richards, Aberystwyth: Leon Richards, Selford; Joila Sansone, Olney; Chazala Shah. Ruisdipt Liss Skinner. Shezrness; Sessin Smith, Socieport Heena Sudman, Banbury; Andrew Sutcliffe, Brighouse, Jamest Sweetman. Hailsham; Deanne Turner, Stanfort-le-Hope; Deborah Vaugham, Bicknacre. Claire Welford, Northampton; Jeanne Wood, Pontypool; Sally Wood, Kirby Le Soken.

Foundation Land Law

Foundation Land Law

Karen Ashton, Shrewshury: Linda Bates, Bestop's Stordierit, Kanishka Bodh, Southall: Jacqueline Braddock, Pattingham: Jennifer Burns, Searborough: Donna Cross, Worcester; Emma Davis, Shochuryness; Sukhalev Dhinsa, Coverney: Carin Donn, Newport Timothy Duggan, Easteigh Samtantha Edginon, Barmingham; Elaine Garnett, Stockport; Pan Hall, Northampton; Rachel Harrison, Bournemouth; Kadiryn Heathlield, Maidssone: Patrick, Hennesy, Wrazall; Mariame Helloway, Hook; Kazi Hossain, Putney; Jounne King, Ware: Duise Lay, Goldlining; Susan Notley, Bury St Edmunds; Leslie Read, Croydon; Karen Richards, Aberystwyth; Gillian Samdford, Leeds; Susan Simons, Elstree; Christine Simpun, Sheerness; Nicola Sline, Cardifft Lisa Schmer, Sheerness; Jeanette Staptehurs, Hassocks; Caroline Tuston, Farmborough; Josephine Wheatey, Peterborough.

Kate Barwick, Billernay: Gregory BegBrentwood: Journe Bigg, Basildon: Cheyl Brabon, Reading: Elizabeth Bryon, Soufiampton; Stephen Carew, Luton: Janet Care, Enfield: Tracy DaCosta, Woodford Greez,
"Dehoruh Gent, Laindon, Susan Gollon, Bladon: Michael Harmen, Wieldon'i Susan
Hoyle, Sowerby Bridge: Steffen Hullah, Bristol, "Sasan kemings, Greenhilbe, Jule killengrey, Brentwood, Adriam Kribla, Kiddermirsterl Stephanie Lyte, Connado,
Cougly Valede Lymn, Maldon'i Kerry Manrang, Witharol Lisa Marun, Rayleight Chair
Mason, Brainterel 'Karen Maibews, Beingstoler, Nicola Randles, Oswestry, Lesley
Read, Croydon: Renata Steggles, Norwich,
Sandra Tennant, Thurmaston: Judih Weman, Copenhagen; Valerie Williams, London: Martin Williamson, Darlington, Final Landlord and Tenard Final Landlord and Tenant

Final Landlord and Tenant
Catherme Ball, Gravesend; Elizabeth Bryon, Southampton; Robert Croft, Woking, Tracy DeCosta, Woodford Green: Friest,
Dad, Bourne End: Susan Dodsworth, Lenks
Stephen Draper, Rossendale: Caroline
Evans, Barrow in Furness: Sumaniha
Hicks, Northampton: Debra Kerrigan, Bolton: Amanda Kirwan, Dawentry; Joanne Lett, Northampton: Patrick Logan, Colcheter: Karma Marchese, St Columb Major, Lynne Overton, Crowley; Ametic Rayner,
Walton on the Naze; Jane Sals, Northampton; Julig Sheklon, Leeds; June Saler, Thorpe Bay; Daniel Sonah, London; Susan Savenson, Sale Nancy Walker, Northampton; Louise Watts, Northampton; Judit ton; Louise Walls, Northan Wekman, Conenhagen; Crisnin

denotes Distinction

BMDS: 0171 680 6880 PRIVATE: 0171 481 4000

PERSONAL COLUMN

FAX: 0171 481 9313

Don't be jealous of violent people or decide to act as they do, because the LORD hates people who do wil, but he takes righteous people into his confidence. Proverbs 3.31.32 (GNE).

ATKINSON - On 4th March at Guy's Hospital, to Heather inde Towell and Adam, a son, Alastair Siles Garnier, a brother for Bethia and Eleanor. BELL - On 17th March to Sophia ince FitzHugh) and Gary, a daughter, Emily Rafela, a sister for Harry Rafola, a sister for Hari and Tobiss. BENEGIAMO - On March 30th at The Portland Hospital to Janet and Luca, a son, Marco, a brother for Gluita.

BURROUGH - On April 2nd 1999, to Philippa (nee Collyer) and Bryan, a son, George Henry Grant, a brother for Leo.

CALVERT - To Tilly and Tom on 25th March 1999 a son, Bertram Devid, a brother for Jack and Susannah.

CARE - On March 29th 1999, to Alison (nee Follows) an Tim, a daughter, Isobel Frances Follows, a sister for Charlie.

CLEMPSON - On March 9th at The Portland Hospital to Emms and Graham, a son, Sam, a brother for Lily.

brother for Conor. EATON HART - On Monda

COMEN - On March 31st at The Portland Hospital to Amanda Ince Clumpus) and Joosthan, a son Jamie, a brother for Ellie. DOHERTY - On March 31st at The Portland Hospitol to Evolyn and Patrick, a son, Joshua Callum, a

PRICE - On March 3 ist at 39th March 1999, to Serah (née Evans) and Andrew, a son, Jonathan Harry. GREEN - On April 5th, to

HENDETSON - On 20th March 1999, to Olivia (née Bendon) and Iaa, a son, Luke Nicholas and a daughter, Ilse Kerstin, a brother and sister for

Harry. HINDLEY - On Wednesday 31st March 1999, to Elizaboth (née Rashleigh) and Goy, a daughter, Madeleine Florence, a sister for Laura.

HUNT - On March 29th at The Portland Hospital to Monica (nee Bestos Santos) and Seán, a son, Thomas, a brother for SKARES - On March 29th at The Portland Hospital to Alex (nee Howelis) and Duncan, a son, Benedict Alexander, a brother for Toby and Oliver. Maria.

KIGALION - On April 2nd
at The Portland Hospital to Johnino and Patrick, a daughter, Ryan Kate.

KIMBERLEY - On 30th March
at The Portland Hospital

at the Fortland Hospital to Nicky and Cary, a son, Max, a brother to Fiora.
LROSAY - On March 19th at
The Fortland Hospital to Lucy inée Davenhill) and Lucdovic, a son, Simon, a brother for Merlin.

McBAN - On April 4th 1999 io Jeddah, to Susannah (née Benyon) and Neville, twin sous, Joseph George and Samuel William. AAOUMOVITCH - On March 27th at The Portland Hospital to Sayra and Daniel, a daughter, Alexandra.

MEVRICA - On March 3 lst at The Portland Hospital to Sara John and Frantisck Newtkla, a son. Tomás, e brother for Sophie.

NITTA - On April 1st at The Portland Hospital to Kazuko juće Iwate) and Takeshi, a daughter.

Haruka, a sister for Takuni.

NGENT - On April let at The Portland Hospital to Nancy and Robert, a daughter, Mary Ellen Bail a sister for Bo, Rhatt and Beverly.

PARROTT - On March 24th
at The Portland Hospital to Christine (nde Kraus) and Timothy, a daughter, Brittany Goorge.

PERRY - On March 28th at The Portland Hospital to Karan (nde Jackson) and Even a con Olives Lessoh

The Portland Hospital to The Portland Hospital to Alotse (née Batty) and Dominic, a daughter, Ottilie Cynthia Elizabeth, a sister for Halcyon and Horatio.

RYALL - On Easter Sunday April 4th in Monza, Italy, to Hélène (née Maurise) and Edward, a son, Oliver Mauriac, a welcome brother for Matthew and SCHUL! - On April 1st at The Portland Hospital to Anna Yang and Joseph Schull, a daughter, Lara Helens, a sister for James.

a seter for James.
SHEE - On 6th April, to Stells (née Bowcock) and Charles, a daughter, Amelia Brenda Catherine,
a stater for Harri, Edmund

SPARRÉVOHN MORCK - On March 29th at The Portland Hospital to Besma (Al Sidi) and Henrik, a son, Michael.

RIMM - On 2nd April, to Tracy and David, a beautiful girl, Harriot Louise, eister to Emily. THORNTON-ALLAN - On March 31st, to Lizzie (née Monckton) and Tim, the gift of a daughter Eleano

WAKE - On 4th April, to Katherine and Edward, a son, George. WILLETTS - On March 27th, to Christine and Garry, a daughter, Semantha Jane, a sister for Douglas.

WHEKLER VON STERREHE - On March 29th at The Portland Hospital to Busan and Olof, a son, Sven Henrik Olofsson. ANNAGHAS - On Thursday

a son, Henry Peter Anthony.

DEATHS BARR-SIM - Andrew John, 2.7.1933 - 2nd April 1999. Pencefully at home after a courageous light against cancer. Beloved bushand of Evelyn Susan, dearly loved stepfather of Fiona and Allson, brother of Charles, and uncle of Andrew and Caroline Victoria and Magdalen Andrew and Caroline Andrew and Caroline.

Funeral service at St
Mary's Church, Linton, Cambs. on Thursday April 15th at 2.30 pm, Donations if desired for Ward C9 Addenbrookes Hospital
may be sent c/o H.J.
Paintin Ltd., F.D., 43 High Street, Linton, Cambridge
CBI 6HS, tel: 01223
891226.

BATEMAN - George William (Bill) of Perth, Western Australia, formerly of Henley-on-Thames, Oxfordshire peased away oo lst April 1999. Dearly beloved husband of aegins, father of Michael, Karen and Nicholas, father-in-law of Marion and Annette, son of Mary and brother of Audrey. A long illness patiently borne". No flowers, donations to Leuksemia Foundation of Australia,

Foundation of Australia, 725 Ann Fortitude Valley SEWICKE - Juliet, on let April suddenly at home

April suddenly at home.

BULEN - Peacefully on Easter Day Dr. John
Bullen aged 86 years.
Beloved husband of Mangery for almost 60 years, dearly loved father of Anne and Vivienne, and grandfather of Rupert.
Philippa and Simon.
Privato family cremation followed by Thankagiving Service on Friday 9th
April at 2 pm at St Mary's, Bampton, Oxford. No flowers please. Donations to British Red Cross c/o E.
Taylor & Son, 21 Corbett Jond. Carterton, Oxon.
Tai: (01993) 842421.

CARMEGE - Peacefully in Edinburgh on April 2nd 1999, James Forrest Carnegio, busband of the late Betty Thin and father of William, Mirren, Victoria and Modeles victoria and Magdalen.
Private family cremation followed by a memorial service on Friday April 9th at 3 pm in the Chapel.
Pettes College, Edinburgh (enter from East Pettes Avenuel. All Forrests friends are invited most friends are invited most great-grandmother, sunl and friend to many both here and oversear. Service at Guildford Crematorium on Monday April 12th at COOPER - Mary Elisabeth (Lis) on 5th April 1999 peacefully at Aldbourno Nursing Home. Widow of Sir Charles, beloved Mother of Robin d'Abo. William and George. Funeral Service at Holy Trinity Church, Wonston. Sutton Scotney on Wedneaday 14th April 1999 at 3 pm. Family flowers only. Donations for King Edward VII Hospital, London may be sent to Thomas Free & Sons Ltd., The Parade, Marlborough, Wilts. SN8 INE. Tol. 01672 512110.

on 31st March 1999 aged 72 after a short illness. Widow of Frederick Wynn Cotterell. Funeral Service at Bournemouth Crematorium at 1 pm on Monday 12th April. No flowers please. Donations to the British Heart Foundation. Enquiries to Tapper Funeral Service, tel: 01202 673164.

Donald Hall

Curtis Price, the academy's Principal, with a Stradivarius viola from its collection aircraft.

their voice.

A service of manksgiving for the life of Air Marshal Sir Donald Hall, will be held on Thursday, April 22, at noon at St Clement Danes, Strand, London, WC2.

The Marine Society

The ZZ7th annual court of The Marine Society will be held at 11.30, on Wednesday, May 19, 1999 at the Royal Pharmaceutical Society, Lambeth, when Commodore Wild, Curate. Newark (South- N.D. Squire, CBE, former Commo-

Maureen Addison, Northampton: Karen Astuori, Shrewsbury: Susan Atha, Wilmskow: Madeline Batley, Croydon:

Final Conveyancing Law and Practice
Christine Alexander, Sevenoake, Linda Andrews, Crockham Hill; Manthew Ball, llford; Gary Blissmire, Brombey: "Elizabeth Bryson, Southampton; Michele Churcher, Enfield Armete Colson, Felizatowa Friedi Dad, Bourne End; Margaret Forrest, Bladbourts Simoon Hawkons, Poole Sephen John-Cyrus, West Ealing: Janice Lewit, Swanses; Thalomena McMullen, Londiff, Armanda Nelson, Chorley: Joanna Oliver, Newport; Janet Rhodes Blangated, West Molessy, Genffrey Robinson, Cardiff, Bleveley Roocroft, Bolton; Edward Rubidges, Convey Island; Julie Rundle, Plymoulti-Christine Simpson, Slade Green, Christine Smith, Shrewsbury; Kathy Taylor, Sandbach: Minn Thompson, London; Debach: and Practice

TRADE; 0171 481 1982

BIRTHS

oromer for Gluia.

BROWN - On 27th March, to Diana (Dido, née Arthur) and Alan, a son, Augustus Allan Xavier, a brother for Maximilian.

BUTCHER - On 28th March 1999, to Henrietta Joée Nevillo) and Jonathan, a daughter, Matilda Tilly Anna Casaley, a sister for Charles.

CANNETI - On March 28th at The Portland Hospital to Romana inde Wenkerti and Alex. a daughter, Mimosa, a sister to Cosima.

Ryan, a son. Oliver Jos a brother for Sophie.

RIGNEY - On March 30th al The Portland Hospital Io Kimberley and Damian, a daughter, Tara Ellen, a sister for Claudia.

DEATHS

BUTLER - Diana France

BUTLER - Diana Frances

MBE died on March 31st
1999 aged 77 at Josemary
Lodge Nursing Home, Wimbledon, peacefully
after a long tilness.
Beloved sister and sisterin-law of John and Francoise Butler and friend of Betty Foster. Sha will be much missed by her nephews Piers and Richard and her nicces
Sandy and Janet. There will be a service at St Mary tho Virgin, Merton Park, London SW19 at 11 am followed by a cremation at Putney Vale at 12 noon on Monday 12th April 1999.
Family flowers only.
Family flowers only.
Dons tions if wished to the Parkinson's Disease
Society.

CHADWICK - Andrey Merion (née Absoli) on Good Friday April 2nd 1999 in her 94th year. Beloved wife of the late Arthur Vivian and dear mother of Rodney Idecessed), Jenny Koralek, Peuny Eyre and Jonathan. She was also a much loved grandmother, grant-grandmother, sunl and friend to many both

COTTERELL - Rezel | 166 Phillips) of Bournemouth on 31st March 1999 aged 72

DAVIES-JENGINS - Michael, MA ARICS, late RWF, aged 63. Peacefully from cancer en Friday, 2nd April at Holme Tower
Marie Curie Home,
Penarth, ofter wonderful care. Adored busband of Sus and father of Katle, Ben and Will; loyal comrade and friend.
Funeral 9th April at 2 pm
at Holy Trinity Church.
Aberystwyth, Family flowers only, Donations may be sent to Holme Tower, Bridgeman Roed, Penarth, CF64 3YR.
Thanksgiving Service 2nd July, He just wanted to fade away - and be managed if perfectly, domans 14:8.

DMOCK - Betty, suddenl on March 29th aged 84. Dearly loved mother of HOLMES - At Drumben

Dearly loved mother of Sallyame, and the late John, mother-in-law of Gall and grannie to Joanna, Sarah, Jamie, and Richard. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends, but is reunited with Robert. Funeral Service to take place Priday 9th April 12.30 pm All Seints Church, Nazeing, Flowers or dosations if preferred to R.S.P.B. e/o F.J. Pianock & Son. 8 Sunnyside. & Son. 8 Sunnyside, Nazeing, Essex EN9 2RH, ESPH - Patricia, daughter of Mrs Yvonne and the late Teddy Smouhs OBE, and beloved wife of Michael, mother of their four children James. Timothy. Rosalind and Marion, and grandmother of their twelve grandchildren, diod peacefully at home on March 31st.

HARRISON - On April 3rd Tinka, wife of Yony, loving mother of Nick, Judy and Gillie, mother-in-law of Nigel, Sunie and Peter. proud grandmother of Lucy, Pera, Claire, Jack,
Harry and Indl. Service at Poole Crematorium on Tuesday April 12th at 4pm.
Family flowers only but donations in her memory would be welcomed by donstions in her memory would be welcomed by either the Gurkha Museum or the Gurkha Welfare Trust. Enquiries to Mews Funeral Directors. 3 Bournemouth Road, Lower Parkstone, Poole BH14 0EF.

HEAL - On 28th March, peacafully in Maidstone Hospital, Margaret Emily, aged 83. Funeral enquiries c/o A.W. Court Funeral Directors, tel: 01622 850840.

HEATH - Margaret Nina (née Jory) of Fairles.
Bournemouth, dearly leved wile of Gerry and much loved sister of Joan and John, died pescefully on 5th April 1998 at the Royal Bournemouth Hospital following a stroke, coming after many years of ill beaith, bravely and cheerfully borne.

Cremetion at Bournemouth Bournemouth Cremetorium at 12 noon en Thursday, 15th April.
Flowers and enquiries to Deric-Scott, Pertman Lodge Funeral Home, Bournemouth (01202)
309609.

Cardress, on 4th April 1999, Jack Holmes M.C. Architect, Funeral private

HUGHES - Michael on April 2nd 1999 peacefully in hospital, beloved husband of the late Marcia and much loved father and grandiather. Privato cramstion. A Service of Thanksgiving on Wednesday 14th April 12 noon at Holy Trinity Church, Penton Mawsey. Pamily Howers only IVANOVIC - Vane, retired Consul General of Monsco, died peacefully on April 4th. Cremation private. No flowers please.

Kifik - Neil MA Oxon, beloved son of Mrs Gwen Kirk and brother to Michael. Died auddenly at his home. Holmdale, Challysford Band, Falsted Chelmsford Road, Feisted Chelmsford Road, Felsted, Essex on 16th March 1999. Funeral at 3.15 pm on Wedneeday 14th April at the Church of the Holy Cross, Felsted, Flowers or donations to Trinity Hospice, Clapham, to Daniel Robinson & Some Ltd., Haslers Lane, Great Dunmow, Essex CM6 1XCS.

AMGDALE-KELHAM Michael Anthony, Passed away stiddenly on Saturday April 2rd, 1992 aged 72. Much loved husband of June; dearly missed by all his loving family and all who knew him. Service at Randalla Park Crematorium,
Leatherhead at 4.30 pm oo
Thursday April 3th.
Family flowers only and donations, if desired, to Parkinson's Disease
Society Cro G. Boutell &
Son, 50 High Road, Byfleet
KT14 7OL. Tel: 01932
345037.

LIVENS - On April 1st, 1999, after e long lilness, Robin George, very dear busband of Margaret, devoted father of Francis and Roger and father-in-law of Clare, much loved prother of Ursula. Fuceral brother of Ursula. Fuoeral at St Thomas More Church. Wolfston. Nottingham on Thursday April 8th at 10.30am. In the Standard Stand

LOTT - On April 2nd 1999

LOTT - On April 2nd 1999
peacefully in hospital Lawrence Charles Lott aged 76 years of Walcote, Leicestershire. The dearly loved busband of Darlen and dear father of Adrian and Stephen. Private cromation followed by Memorial Service at Misterton Parish Church (near Lutterworth) on

Misterton Parish Chnrch (near Lutterworth) on Friday April 9th at 3 pm. No flowers please but donations if desired for The Strake Association | to whom Cheques should be made payablo). All further enquiries to Ginns & Gutteridge Funeral Directors of Leicester tel: 0t 16 2516117.

LUCAS - Michael Stewart, aged 51, dearly loved bushand of Lectitia and father of Stewart, Catherine, Charles and Antonia, dearly beloved ann of Muriel died Monday 5th April in Dubai, funeral to be appropried MiLTON - Jennifer peacefully on April 1st.
She leaves her family and friends with courage and love. Service at Gidleigh.
Church. Friday 9th April
3 pm. Any donations to Dr.
T.A. Dudgeon,
Moretonhampetend
Hospital Appeal, Health Centre,
Moretonhampetend

Moretonhampsteed. Devon TQ13 8LW. PARSONS - Kenneth Charles CMG, OBE suddenly at beme on 2nd April 1999, aged 78. Much loved husband of Mary and lather of Judith and Suzanta Creametics father of Judith and Suzante. Cremation at Rendelis Park Crematorium. Lea therhead, Surrey at 10.30 am on Monday 12th April. Family flowers only, donations if desired to Age

PATEY - Joan Howse died peacefully in her sieep at her bone on April 1st in her Sird year. She was the dearly loved wife of Barry and loving mother of Jenny and much loved granny of Vatché and Bou by whom she was affectionately known as Do-do. Cremation private. Memorial Service will be held al Si Peter's Church. Tandridge on Tuesday April 13th at 2.30 pm. No flowers bet donations ilf desired 1 to N.S.P.C.C. or R.S.P.C.A.

POLLARD - Jacquelyn Inée Harris) on Good Friday aged 65 peacefully at bome in Cornwall after a long illness. Much loved mother, grandmother, sister and friend.
Donactions in lieu of flowers to Sutton and Croydon MS Therapy
Ceaure, The Mount, Lloyd Avenue, Coulsdon, Surrey
CR5 3QS.

PRESTON - Ronald Onuglas Hildebrand, 7th Baronet, on Easter Sunday after a short illness, dearly loved husband of Pauleen.
Private cremation followed by service al
Beeston St Lawrence Church at 2.30 pm on Monday 12th April. Family flowers only. Donations if desired to Cancer Research Campaign, 6-10
Cambridge Terrace,
London NW1.

PULMAN-JONES - Peacefully on let April 1999 at Copperbeech Nursing Home, Uckfield, Barbara agod 89 years formerly of Bexhill on Sea. Wife of the lata Hugh Pulman-Jones, and much loved mother of Annabelle, and Crandmother of Miles and Patrick. Funeral service to take place at Eastbourne Patrick. Funeral service to take place at Eastbourne Crematorium Family Chapel. on Wednesday 14th April 1999 at 1. 15am Family flowers only. Donations if wished to Sussex Kidney Trust c/o Fuller & Scott. The Wakelyns, Uckfield, Easl Sussex, TN22 1AJ, Tel: 01825 763241.

RICHARDSON - Ceorge of Wakefield, West Yorkshire, on 3rd April 1999 aged 83. Dear husband of Ethel, loved father of Martin, David and Helen and a caring grandfather to his five grandfather to his five grandfather. Service at Wakefield Cathedral at 1.30 pm on Monday 12th April followed by private cremation. Family flowers only please, but donations to Dr Barnardos would be gratefully acknowledged by the family.

ROBINISON – William (Bill) Morecroft born in 1916, raised in Dundas, Ontario, Canada, lived in Cheshira 1944–1997, died in his sleep in Torooto, Canada, on Good Friday April 2nd 1999 and now reunited with his dear wife Moule Harvey Stewart Sey. Beloved father and best friend of Judith, Ian Lennifer, Carol Augus an friend of Judith, Ian (Jennifer), Carol Anne and Glies. He will be sorely missed by his grandchildren: Tim, Steve. Sandy, Tanya, Deso, Kate and Ellie. Donations in Sill's memory may be made to St Dunstan's Association for the Work. made to St Dunstan's Association for the War Blinded, 12-14 Harcourt

ROBLOU - (née Robinson)
Christino Mary Ingeborg pence fully on April 2pd 1999 aged 56 years. She was loved dearly and will be missed by all her (smily and friends. Funeral astrone takes place at St service takes place at St Mary's Church, Crundale oear Canterbury on Monday April 12th 1999 at 11.00 am followed by 11.00 am followed by burial in the churchyard. Flowers | white only its C W Lyons & Son Ltd. 10 Military Road, Canterbury. Kent CT1 1 ND.

Tree Road, Bawtry. Doncaster DN10 6LD. All ongulries to Barbara #12 Oak Crest, Bawtry Road, Doncaster DN4 7PJ.

To place

W ROOM

DR PAIRICK

PERMINAL

1.51.75

2 T

シ 残島?

Sec. 3

70 N 19 × 2 445

F = 1 . R = . . .

2: 7

.

.

NA COL 323

ROUTLEDGE - John J., retired Chairman of N.E.D.A. Suddenly in Palm Springs California, on 20th March 1999, one day after his 72nd birthday. Dearty beloved husband of Barbars, much loved father of Paul and Glenn, and grandfather of father of Paul and Glennand grandfather of Gemma and James. A cremation service was held in California and a memorial service in celebration of his life will be held at St Michael's Church Passington. Church, Rossington, Church, Rossington,
Doncaster on Saturday
24th April at 2.30 pm. No flowers please but any donations to The British Heart Foundation c/o Mr J.K. Robb M.B.E., 25 Oak death notices, acknowledgements or notices please call 0171 680 6880

صكدا من الاصل

Ben Weinreb, antiquarian bookseller. died on April 3 aged 87. He was born on February 5, 1912.

n June 1956 a short. somewhat rotund, bearded man carrying a large Gladstone bag hurried into the office of the librarian of the Royal Institute of British Architects. It was Ben Weinreb, and in his bag were John Stuart Milio ine 1589 Barbaro Perspettive.

Rushs's Seats in Essex, a recole of first editions of T. S. and a roll of papers which turned out to be Hawksmoor's drawings for one of the Evelyn family's houses and an exquisite design by Robert Adam for a chimneypiece.

Weinreb had been selling books for some time, and now. with the decline of the great architectural publishers and booksellers Batsford's (once a great rendezvous) and Tiranti, he sensed his opportunity. He was soon to outdo every the was soon to outdo every bookseller in the world in the field of architectural books. drawings, manuscripts and

Benjamin born in Halifax. His mother birth, and died soon after his birth, and since his father was interned during the First World War as an enemy alien, he spent his early years at a nurses' training college before his father's second wife took him to live with her in a weaver's cottage. It was to her that he owed many of the tastes and instincts that brought him success. When the family moved to London, he was sent to Whitgift School, but he performed so spectacularly badly that the headmaster said that it was extremely unlikely that he would succeed in life. His first job was in the theology department at Foyle's, but he was soon sacked for being late, and over the next few years eked out a living as an intermittent scriptwriter for documentary films, as an assistant stage carpenter, and by making sandals for the Regent's Park Theatre. Yet he was irresistibly drawn to books and increasingly supplemented his income as a book-runner, buying cheaply where he could and selling to established dealers.

In 1935 he took a job minding the bookshop devoted to poetry and left-wing politics at No 4 Parton Street (where he shared the attic floor with Dylan Thomas). He always had a leaning towards architec-ture, perhaps because he liked buildings and streetscapes. and perhaps also because he was dyslexic but responsive to splendid engravings. Slowly he acquired a stock of books on the subject, and in 1952 he began to make the change from book-runner to dealer. setting up a small storeroom in New Oxford Street.

John Betjeman became his first regular customer, though as Weinreb wrote, he "left behind far more than he took away, for, stimulated by the

BEN WEINREB

Weinreb in his best bookroom in 1976. At the time he was perhaps the leading dealer in architectural books in the world ebullient, graphic and reveal-ing homilies which each succeeding purchase inspired, I began to look with ever-widening perception at buildings and the books about them". In 1960, with the help of Eileen Harris and Paul Breman, who assembled a series of notes on his stock, Weinreb issued the first of 60 remark-able catalogues, which set a new standard of scholarly description and which remain an envied model.

Shortly afterwards he moved to a three-storey building at 39 Great Russell Street, where the business took off in

Although the timing was propitious, Weinreb was also fortunate to be succoured by two major collectors who boosted his rise to success: Paul Mellon (through his librarian, Willis Van Devan1er) and Phyllis Lambert, who was determined to form one of the greatest architectural libraries in the world: her Canadian Centre for Architecture in Montreal. In 1968 Weinreb achieved the legendary feat of selling his entire stock to Texas University, after which he bought the huge corner building at 93 Great Russell Street and rapidly filled it up with ever mure books. It had at least a dozen rooms and so many basement stores that even he lost track of some of them. The shop sold books from the cheapest to the most expensive, and there were also periodicals galore and boxes and drawers of drawings.

مكنا من الأعل

Dealers, collectors, librari-ans and historians came to browse and to buy, and to scoff his delicious sandwiches, quaff his good wine and - endlessly - to talk. Among the customers were Anthony Blunt, Claus von Bülow, Mark Millard, Phyllis Lambert and James Sürling (who was head to complain that he never had an opportunity to look at books, because Weinreb always butionholed him to discuss the latest trends in architecture). Weinreb's expertise enabled him to spot many "sleepers" in the auction rooms. Most notably, in 1978, he identified the importance of a book estimated at £20-£40 in Sotheby's Signet library sale, and spent £10,500 on commission to acquire a very rare second edition of Ledoux's Architecture (1847).

By 1982, when he turned 70, Weinreb was so prominent in the world of architectural history that his birthday party was held at the Architectural Association, with Sir John Summerson giving the address. Weinreb's business was finally sold to Sotheran's in 1986 for well over £1 million. He contributed a series of articles to The Times on all aspects of books and book collecting during the late 1970s and early 1980s, and took great pleasure in contributing to his son Matthew's photographic study London Architecture: Features and Facades. But the work for which he is best known is The London Encyclopaedia, which after many years' work reached fruition in 1983 with the help of Christopher Hibbert, and which remains in

Although he never considered himself a scholar-bookseller. Weinreb recognised the value of scholarly advice and often turned to architectural historians such as Howard Colvin in Oxford, Robin Mid-dleton in Cambridge, and John Harris at the RIBA. His office became a nursery for a group of young bibliographers and bookmen, without whom he could never have produced his magisterial sequence of catalogues. Through that group of friends and employees, many of whom are now themselves leading antiquarian bookdealers, his high standards and precepts have benefited the whole of the trade.

Ben Weinreb married Kay Lazarus in 1939, but the marriage was later dissolved. after which he married Joan Kingdon-Rowe in 1957. He is survived by a daughter from his first marriage and a son and a daughter from his

DR PATRICK MOUNSEY

Dr Patrick Mounsey Provost of the Welsh National School of Medicine, 1969-79, died on February 21 aged 85. He was born on February 1, 1914.

BEFORE Patrick Mounsey became a medical administrator. he was what is known as "a doctors' doctor', for his colleagues sought his opinion for themselves as well as for their patients. Courteous and softspoken, he always gave a well-thought-out judgment based as much on an understanding of human nature as on a sound knowledge of medicine. As a doctor he strove for standards which were so high as to be disconcerting, but his demands were usually softened with a dry but humorous comment, and he endeared himself to his staff by his loyalty and generosity. He had a slightly unusual upbringing, as his parents were great friends and constant companions of the Chris-ties of Glyndebourne. He played in the orchestra at Glyndebourne when still only 14; the association helped to inspire his lifelong interest in sey was educated at Eton, where he was Captain of the Oppidans; for the rest of his life he was always proud of being the first head of a house to introduce compulsory baths. After Eton he read classics at King's College, Cambridge, where he develnped a keen interest in linguistics. He was an above-average artist and draughtsman and after Cambridge began training as an architect. However, on a visit to Paris he sat for too long on a sun-drenched balcony and developed severe heatstroke with cerebral complications. When he recovered he abandoned the idea of architecture, determined to become a doctor, and studied medicine at King's College Hospital, London.

John Patrick David Moun-

Although he was a comparative latecomer to medicine, his rise in the profession was meteoric. He qualified in 1944 and was appointed Sherbrook Research Fellow at the London Hospital in 1951. At the hospital he was also doctor to the staff, and was as happy looking after the cleaners as the consultants. He became a lecturer at the Postgraduate Medical School, Hammer-smith, in 1960, and senior lecturer and sub-dean in 1962. In 1967 he was appointed deputy director of the British Postgraduate Medical Federation, and in 1969 he became Provost of the Welsh National School of Medicine in Cardiff.

The appointment of such a ouintessential Englishman caused some surprise and even criticism. He nevertheless made a great success of the office and was soon engrossed in the medical and academic world in Wales, confounding his critics by even learning to speak Welsh. He took endless pains to achieve an accent which

MUSICAL

INSTRUMENTS

FLATSHARE

AEPS - Concert/Polk Harps, New showscom, 8 Buzhaley Square, Lendon, Tek 0171 495 4495, Citys Mostey Harps Ltd

ATMATES (Set 1970). Seet Date bounes to share (EFOpwe). Land locks/tenants 0171 589 5491

SHABE A-FLAT Led. For a fast, one vanisht, professional fist plan ing service (0171) 464 4133

SVDENMAM DULINCH Border, SIRŽe, Lux flar, besužíval pozlod bullt, Dio cu, TVVIdeo & Phone. Ovn průdnej specu, ar Rikall & Shope, Pod. Ni or 7 MX, 6495 pom had. Tek 0181 659 4923.

ly refurb 2 had fint close twhe £520 pcm or 07771 936343

SCHOOLSTEEFER in Genneny, Bury Gennen tamily seeks Swely, ma-ture, Burthly seeks Swely, ma-ture, Burthly and responsive to motivate position, to start seep. Two were aged 8 and 12 at bona. Femnenous post. Teach including them with the most halping them with the most halping them with the most halping towning theorytics, more without of closing halfy and mund de-mentic tasts. Important qualifi-cations with visit properties of proposability, with highly to beep children to rules, some of he-mont, outly dispusiones. Solary to chilgram to ruise, sense of le-ment, griddppubleness. Solary to be agreed, Scom svallable at first satil own account. Is found. Interviews in UK for about-listed applicants. Apply with complete CV, pacto, references and de-tinated as no, to been seember 5770.

FLIGHTS

NANNIES & DOMESTIC

would be acceptable when he made official speeches in Welsh, as he frequently did. Mounsey became a member of the Council of St David's University College, Lampeter, and was a member of the South Glamorgan Area Health Authority, as well as being the University of Wales's representative on the General Medical Council and serving on the General Dental Council. He was awarded an honorary doctorate by the University of Wales in 1980. While still a practising cardiologist. Mounsey wrote extensively on heart and lung disease and he later became assistant editor of the British Heart Journal.

He retired to Gloucestershire, where he was able to return to his early love of music as well as to painting and gardening, and to devote himself to his family.

He was married to Sally King, who predeceased him in 1990. He is survived by his son and daughter.

FLIGHTS

DIRECTORY

PLIGHTSEEKERS

0171 663 4425

FARESAVERS

01476 592095

ETTINE

DIS OF MILLEY HOUSE AVOICABLE

0171 360 1111

ANNOUNCEMENTS

th & tough winter to work is the field in Konovo or Albania to help with refugers in voluntary capacity Box 160 5785.

1-680 USZ Helir EUS T9 CARISCEAN 195 83 S. AFMICE 549 89 EAMARA 199 169 IADIA 299 120 FAR EAST 229 129 FAR EAST 229 129 ASTRELLE 599 159 ASRICA 230

LUCILLE LORTEL

Lucille Lortel, theatrical producer, died in New York on April 4 aged 98. She was born on December 16, 1900.

TWO unrelated things earned Lucille Lortel the epithet "the Queen of Off-Broadway": a traditional husband and a shortage of oats. Her husband put a stoo to her budding acting career when he demanded that she stay at home in the evenings. But the bored dutiful wife reinvented herself as a producer when a grain shortage on her country estate allowed her to convert the barn into a

Over the next fifty years, she helped some of the greatest names in modern theatre - including Edward Albee, David Marnet and Sam Shepard - to make it in the Off-Broadway theatre. Always in search of the new and experimental, she was interested not in staging the classics, but in supporting playwrights who were still searching for a voice and an audience. "Shakespeare is not a new writer - he does not need my help," she once said.

Born Lucille Wadler, she changed her name, after attending the American Academy of Dramatic Arts, to Lucille Lortel when her sister and a friend determined that actresses should have alliterative names. Lortei made her Broadway debut in 1925 in the Theatre Guild production of Shaw's Caesar and Cleopatra, with the similarly alliterated Helen Hayes as Cleopatra and Lionel Atwill as Caesar

She then worked steadily on the stage until her marriage in 1930 to the businessman Louis Schweitzer, a chemical engineer who made his fortune manufacturing cigarette papers. He objected to her absence in the evenings, and after finishing her run with Jean Arthur and Claude Rains in The Man who Reclaimed his Head in 1931, she retired from the stage and worked only during the days, on radio and in movie shorts.

In 1947 she resolved to turn the empty barn at her estate in Westport, Connecticut, into a theatre. She christened it the White Barn Theatre and declared that is would function without commercial pressure. From its first production — a play called The Painted Wagon — it became the focus of a new, non-traditional American theatre. Lortel encouraged young playwrights, acrors and directors to bring their experimental works. Among the plays that had their premieresat the White Barn were Eugene Ionesco's The Chairs, Sean O'Casey's Red Roses for Me and Murray Schisgal's The Typists, and the actors who made their debuts at the White Barn included Peter Falk. Vincent Gardenia, George Peppard and Sidney Lumet

In 1955, while Lortel was flourishing in her second incarnation as a producer, her husband was growing weary of the constant flow of actors and directors

OLD VIC

HENRY V

Lortel (1989): helped to establish some of the greatest names in modern drama living on the estate. So as both a 24th wedding anniversary present and a compromise, he bought her the Theatre de Lys in New York's Greenwich Village. In New York, Lortel continue to use her connections and her husband's financial resources to produce plays that were not commercially attractive to Broadway. But despite this policy, her first production, Brecht and Weill's The Threepenny Opera, ran for seven years, and put Off-Broadway on the map. The success was gratifying, but the long run frustrated her ambition to mount several productions each year, so in 1956 she began a series of matinee readings, giving actors opportunities to develop their talent. These readings series ran for 20 years and attracted many of the most serious actors of the day. A verse adaptation of Alan Paton's novel Cry the Beloved Country was the first to be staged, followed by readings of poetry by Robert Frost, Archibald MacLeish and W. H. Auden, and plays by O'Casey, Tennessee Williams, Albee and William Inge. When Richard Burton was performing Camelot on Broadway at night, he appeared at Lortel's theatre during the day to read Dylan Thomas's poetry.

Lortel was always hungry for new talent, and travelled to Europe regularly to scout for it. She once said in an interview that the influence of George Devine and the Royal Court was very that spirit to Off-Broadway. In the 1950s and 1960s Lortel was indefatigable in her efforts to mount new plays and expose American audiences to fresh faces and voices. She also made a point of working with blacklist-ed actors. In all she produced 500 plays at her theatre, including Jean Genet's powerful, and they inspired her to bring

Child and Wendy Wasserstein's Isn't It Romantic. In her honour, the building was renamed the Lucille Lortel Theatre in 1981. In her last two decades she continued to tackle difficult, non-commercial and provocative themes, including Aids in Larry Kramer's Destiny of Me. and apartheid in Blood Knot by Athol

The Balcony, David Mamet's A Life in the Theatre, Sam Shepard's Buried

Fugard. Lorrel once said she had no hobbies beyond theatre production. She was a generous donor to theatrical institutions. including Yale Repertory Theatre, and in 1996 she established the Lucille Lortel fellowship for playwrights. She received virtually every award in the theatre except a Tony Award, which is given for plays produced on Broadway. She was the recipient of the Lee Strasberg Lifetime Achievement Award, and was inducted into the Theatre Hall of Fame in 1990.

Louis Schweitzer died in 1971. There were no children of the marriage.

PERSONAL COLUMN

TICKETS FOR SALE

ACCESS TICKETS World Wide Sporting Events, Top West End Shows & Pop Concerts 0171 821 6616 All Avail

All AVAIL Springstoon, Jamiro qual, R.E.M., All Fop, Theatre Bugby & Sport, 0171 586 0781

CHEAPEST DI LONDON Planeton Chirago, Seigon, All pop 3 spor We daliver, 0171 930 5636

ENGLAND V WALES 5 Nucleon March. Sunday 11/4/99. 4 cick ets. Office. Tel 01554 749524.

RVE MATIONS Change, FA Cup Semis, Engly World Cup. Eng V Sweden Chicket WiCup, Amot, Linda McCartney Casetty, All Gund Prix. Lion King, Winable-don Dabn Halps sporting events, theatre 0171 394 8283 CCs

ALL TICKETS

5 NATIONS

ENG v SWEDEN BRITISH GRAND PRO

ROYAL ASCOT

0171 283 4040

CREDIT CARD HOTLINE

CORPORATE HOSPITALITY
ALL TICKETS
5 NATIONS
WORLD CUP RUGBY

GRAND PRIX FOOTBALL, ASCOT CRICKET, ETC TEL 01675 443248

FIRST CLASS ENTERTAINMENT

DEATHS SUTTON - On April 1st, after a long iliness faced with dignity and courage, Alleen, beloved wife of the late Anthony, dearest mother of Anthea and much lowed Ba to all her grandchildren and greatgrandchildren. Funeral Service at St. Andrew's Church, Ilford on Thursday April 15th at 2.15 pm, followed by private cremation. Family flowers only. Donations if desired to St Andrew's Church Fund c/o Gilderson & Sons, 512 High Road, Seven Kings, Esser.

USHER - Kenn, beloved bushand of the late Lian, father to Lindsey, father-in-faw to Colin, died peacefully on April 4th 1999 at White Gates Number Home Surrey Nursing Home, Surrey, after a long illness. The cremetion will be at cremation will be at Slough Crematorium. Stoke Poges Road, Slough on Thursday 8th April 1999 at 4.20 pm, followed by refreshments at the Grenadier Guards Club, Windsor, it was my father's request that no one wears black. Flowers and donations to F. Smith & Sons, 12 Richmond Road, Staines, Middleexx TW18 2.88 - cheques to Road, Staines, Middlesex TW18 2AB - cheques to Mrs L. Sleep on behalf of a school for blind & handicapped children.

WEINREB - Ben. Died peacefully on 3rd April 1999 aged 87. Much loved father of Lindy, Matthew and Deborah and loving Wilson MA, MD, FRCP Which RA, MD. RCF (Retired Senior Consultant Geratrician for Aberdeen and the North East, Scotland) et Hawkhill Reven Millahet Home, Militimber, Aberdeen on Monday April 5th 1989. Aged 81 years, beloved husband of the late Helen Marshali Wilson, father of David, Dorothy and Douglas and grandfather of Chlos, loanns and Colin. Service ts Aberdsen Crematorius Haziehead (West Chapel) on Priday April 9th at 3.35pm.

MEMORIAL SERVICES

ARMER - A Memorial Service for Major Edward Hethersett Charles Garnier M.C. will take place at SS Peter and Paul Church, Shropham, Norfolk, on Saturday May

. .~

THANKSGIVING SERVICES

BOYLE - A Service of Thankspiving for the life of Charles Leofric Boyle will be hold on Sunday 18th April at 3 pm at St Saviour's Church, Eton Road, Loudon NW3. REES - A Service of Thanksgiving for the lifa of Squadroo Leader Jamie Rees A.F.C. will take place at St Mary's Church, Preston Candover, on Preston Candoves, 5... Saturday, 17th April, at STUTFELD - (Lowry).

Service of Thanksgiving for the life of Helen to be held at St Paul's Church.
Covent Garden on Friday
30th April at 2.30 pm.

IN MEMORIAM -PRIVATE BARKER - Nicholas, Royal Navy, died two years ago todsy. Forever in my thoughts and prayers. J.B.

Aug:HAN - in memory of Hazel, beloved wife of Bill April 2 1958 to April 7 1996, Always loved and ILEY - Died April 7th 1996. Remembering Derek with much love by his wife Barbara and family.

VOADEN - Graham Keith April 7th 1992. Loved and Remembered with Remembered with great love and pride by his family on this his hirthday. MARRIAGES

COMMANDARLEY - The marriage took place on Saturday 3rd April 1999 in Egham, Surrey, between Justin Christopher, elder son of Nr & Mrs R. son ot Mr & Mrs K.
Bowman of Frimley.
Surrey and Clare Louise, only daughter of Mr & Mrs
C.D. Darley of Oxton,

WANTED SAME COAYS, for costs purchases East price paid. Please would enquires & details to bes 5737

RUGBY WALES ENGLAND HOSPITALITY PACKAGES TEL: 0181 970 2600 TEL: 0181 970 2610

FOR SALE tation · also Bundays'. Remember When, 0181 749 6369 or Call Free 0500 E20000 DIRECTORY Jetworld Fights include all Taxas:
SAM m. CH STRANDO 1-148
PORTUGAL 23 CARABA 19MALTA 28 CARRESEAN 191
CARRESES 56 USA 286
CREECE 180 TARLAND 235
TURKET 195 C. 479-CA 235
TURKET

01273 277 877 FLIGHT SEARCHERS

01920 484007

Legal, Public, Company & Parliamentary Notices To place notice for these sections places. Telephone 0171 690 6978 Fax 0171 792 7930 Or Email tril features@neverist.co.uk Notices are subject to confirmation and should be received by 2-30pm and days prior to insertion.

To place death notices, acknowledgements or notices please call 0171 680 6880

now is this section in the community of the contraction of the contrac

ON THIS DAY

A friendly rivalry exists between the Old Vic and Stratford, and Henry V. now to be seen on both these stages, invites a general comparison. The methods of approach of Mr. Tyrone Guthrie and Mr. Iden Payne, the two producers, are very different. To brilliancy of colour Mr. Iden Payne adds a consistent solidity of definition. A ship, a castle, a throne room - these on the Stratford stage have value not merely because they create atmosphere but because they are so pleasingly themselves; and the effect is that of turning the pages of a child's picture book which has some preten-sions to archaeological accuracy. Mr. Tyrone Guthrie, whose scenery and costumes are designed by Motley. also seeks the equivalent in colour of a trumpet call. The stage of the Old Vic glows with colour from emblazoned shields and surcoats richly embroidered and from banners which fall forward and fold themselves into tents for the camp scenes, but this polychromatic splendour is set off not by realistically painted vistas but by a simple arrangement of curtains. The appeal is to a more adult aestheticism.

April 7, 1937

In this Tyrone Guthrie production Olivier led a strong cast that included Harcourt Williams, Jessica Tandy, Ivy St Helier, Alec Guinness, Stephen Murray and Leo Genn.

The performance as a whole moves with a firmer tread than its country counterpart, and the Henry of Mr. Laurence Olivier moves firmly with it. We find it comparatively easy to overlook the ugly side of the warring king and to delight in him as the heroic inspirer of a small army which fights and routs another five times its size. Mr. Olivier suggests fortitude and similar undramatic virtues which, because control is of their essence, are by no means easy to represent on the stage. With a minimum of heroic gestures and a clear avoidance of rant, he contrives steadily to impress the mind with the image of a heroic character. The preliminary episode of the tennis balls is given a rare vibrant quality, and here the hard-bitten Archbishop of the resourceful Mr. Harcourt Williams is an enormous help.

Mr. Olivier is also especially effective in his handling of the aristocratic traitors and in defending himself from the criticisms of that incorrigible grouser. Williams; nor does he fail when forced to stand and deliver up his rhetoric at the breach of Harfleur and on the morning of St. Crispin's day. It is a finely judged performance. Miss Jessica Tandy and Miss Ivy St. Helier, borne on a litter for the French lesson, live daintily up to their silken splendour.

THE TIMES TODAY

BALKANS WAR

Nato rejects Serb ceasefire offer

An offer from Belgrade to begin a unilateral ceasefire in Kosovo from 7pm last night was rejected out of hand by Nato leaders, who claimed it was merely a ploy to stop the airstrikes. The announcement of a ceasefire came after a day in which Nato aircraft carried out the largest number of bombing sorties so far in the campaign...Reports, pages 1-6

Serb actions 'evil'

War crimes and genocide are being committed in Kosovo on a massive scale as Serbs systematically kill or force out the Kosovan Albanians, according to a graphic account by America's special ambassador on war crimes ... Page 2

Firepower boost

The American decision to deploy the Gulf War-proven Multiple Launch Rockel System to strike at Yugoslav military facilities will significantly increase the firepower available to Nato commanders. It was one of the weapons that caused such destruction in the Gulf War

KLA appeals for aid

The Kosovo Liberation Army launched a desperate appeal for military aid to defend up to half a million ethnic Albanians in villages the guerrillas still hold against the Serb onslaught, and vowed to become "Nato's ground troops" in the Balkan campaign... Page 4

Nato bombs kill 12

Dragan Miladinovic earned little, but had won the respect of all who knew him. On Monday night the 67-year-old was killed by Nato. with his wife and daughter, as his neighbourhood was flattened by what Brussels calls precision

Suspects hear toll of bomb victims ■ One by one, all 270 names of the Lockerbie bomb victims were read out to the two Libyans suspected of blowing up Pan Am Flight 103. On their first full day in Scottish custody, Abdel Basset Ali al-Megrahi and Lamine Khalifa Fhimehok sat for two hours as Dumfries and Galloway police read out the detailed warrant outlining the charges against them......Page 10

Bard means business Cranfield University School of Management in Bedlordshire has teamed up with the Globe Theatre in Southwark to offer courses on what Shakespeare can teach today's high-powered corporate executives.....

Scots go into battle

The campaign for Scotland's first parliament in 300 years began with Labour accusing nationalists of downgrading plans for independence. The Scottish Labour leader Donald Dewar accused the Scottish National Party of dishonesty over plans for an inde-

'Phone neck' a pain

Office workers who spend hours hunched over the telephone and tapping at a computer are putting themselves at risk of more than a pain in the neck. A condition christened "phone neck" can cause problems in the spine, arms and

New guide to nannies

Parents should employ people to look after their children only if they agree not to smack them, the Government advised. The first official guide on employing a nanny effectively outlaws physical punishment of children by people pendence referendum......Page 12 acting in loco parentis....Page 14

Aussie prawn bigger than the barbie

■ Throwing a prawn on a barbie will never be quite the same again. A giant crustacean previously unknown to science is about to make its debut on the Australian menu. It's emerged from Sydney Harbour and dates back to the Jurassic era. It looks like a cross between a lobster, a prawn and a praying mantis and grows to between 8in and 16in......

THE TIMES CROSSWORD NO 21.071

Buckingham Palace will take on a Caribbean feel next Monday and Thursday when a detachment of the Jamaican Defence Force moves in to mount guard. The 120-strong Jamaican contingent is in Britain as part of an exchange programme with the Coldstream Guards

BUSINESS

Shares surge: The stock market hit a record high while the pound slid to an 18-month low against the dollar on renewed hopes that the Bank of England will again cut interest rates tomorrow...... Mobile boom: The number of mobile phone users jumped dramatically over the last year and is set to keep booming throughout 1999, according to new figures ... Page 23 Tie Rack: Tie Rack is leaving the stock market, with one of its main suppliers. Frangi, paying just 431/2p a share for a company that floated at 145p a share in 1987...... Page 23 Markets: The FTSE 100 index rose 85,30 points to 6415,3. The pound fell 1.52 cents to $1.5898 and 0.32p against the euro to 67.89p. The sterling index fell to 101.7..... Page 26

Football: Robbie Fowler, the Liverpool striker, has been charged with misconduct by the FA for pretending to sniff cocaine after scoring a goal in the Merseyside derby against Everton..... Rugby union: Graham Henry, the Wales coach, named an unchanged side but England's Clive Woodward must await fitness reports settling on his line-up...... Page 38 Golf: The Masters this week will be the last major championship that Earl Woods, Tiger's father and mentor, will be able to attend for ... Page 42 Simon Barnes: "f fear Robbie Fowler has fallen into the clutches of the humouriess. Moral: don't make jokes. Ever. The humourless al-

SPORT

Perfectly Candide: As the National Theatre prepares for the opening of Candide, the lyricist Stephen Sondheim explains the history behind his long association with Bernstein's musical..... Rising star: At 16, the actor Raymond Pickard has scored quite a double: he plays Robson Green's son in a TV drama, and is making his stage debut in Kes......Page 32 Dizzy ride: In East London the Turner Prize winner Douglas Gordon unveils his latest installation, an apt homage to Hitchcock's movie classic Vertigo Page 33 Movie murder: in the wake of a recent Supreme Court ruling, there are signs that Hollywood is getting nervous about portraying gruesome crimes on screen...... Page 34

TOMORROW

IN THE TIMES

John Travolta plays a lawyer who takes on corporate giants in writer-director Steve

Zaillian's true drama

entranced by a graceful, gentle novel that does not shy from the truth

■ BOOKS

Erica-Wagner is

FILMS

Hidden world: Autism is believed to be a mild form of brain damage. Now the world inhabited by those with autism is being explored with imaging equipment to see how the brain functions...

Kidnepped: In the second extract from his book. Chris Moon tells of his encounter with the Khmer Rouge.

Top tips: Make the best of your savings; why the lottery is a waste of money; credit agencies...... Page 15

Snacks: We know you hoard food in your office drawer. So which snacks are the best?.....

On the move: Why the smart money is moving into historic Bermondsey in inner London.......Page 35

Earlier this year Kofi Annan, with American approval, assured Colonel Gaddafi that only the two suspects, not the Libyan Government. would be put on trial. But Mr Annan's assurance should not preclude questioning about who might have ordered the suspects to carry out the bombing. There remain many unanswered questions about the Lockerbie case, including whether Syria or Iran may also have played a role.

Preview: New six-part drama series set in the aftermath of a huge asteroid collision that destroys human civilisation. The Last Train (ITV 9.45pm) Review; Charles Lane's preaching of Four legs good, two legs better comes as a shock to Joe Joseph Pages 42, 43

The final test

At a time when Europe's capacity for unity and leadership has been so tragically questioned in the Balkans, it may seem troubling to discuss the issue of whether the single currency will create a political feder ation in Europe....

Serbs bearing gifts Mr Milosevic's aim over the next few days will be to spread division among Nato nations, not to reconcile Kosovo with Serbia Page 10

Chalk and cheese

The NUT executive would, it seems, prefer equality of poverty to differential affluence.......... Page 19

If Mr Salmond is accurately article lating what the opinions of his peo-achieve "stability" have acted as a quiet way of helping Serbia ... But there has been a high price to pay in civil liberties......Page 18

Street with sponsors winding round the door... ...Page 18

ORITUARIES

Ben Weinreh, antiquarian bookseller; Lucille Lortel, theatre producer; Dr Patrick Mounsey. ..Page 21

LETTERS

Kosovo; child's right to British nationality: business polls on single currency; speed traps; manufacturing industry's apathy; irritating software; landfill tax; free access to The New York Times | galleries: rites of spring..... Page 19

ACROSS

- 1 A suitable sucker? (7,5). 9 Levels up the odds (5).
- 10 Rising note in dance music by celebrity (9).
- 11 Departs to lead union in timewasting activity (9).
- 12 Brush a fur coat (5). 13 Cover up as new organisation
- takes blame (6). 15 Atmosphere, in certain situations
- cairns down (8). 18 Lines roughly measured? (8). 19 Made to smile by a thought (6).
- 22 Elephani's tail, something like the trunk (5). 24 Dog cart ordered for Croesus (9). 26 To study a French instrument can
- Solution to Puzzle No 21.070 be a problem (9).

- 27 Athenian doctor's in the money
- 28 Shown by one looking for scraps: (12).
- DOWN
- 2 Standard to aim at in croupier's profession? (5).
- 3 Stubborn stain to be treated (9). 4 Bound to get three months - or re-
- lease from prison (6).
- 5 It gets held up when the weather? bad (8). 6 A man seen in the distance (5).
- 7 Expires, broken by a wager, and illness (8). g High spirits? (6).
- 14 Pay-phone gambling (8). 16 Job wasn't made any easier by ad-
- vice from this dummy (9). 17 Agency worker, said to be non-re-
- ligious (8). 18 The cad is out to break the engagemeni (6).
- 20 How to get rid of poor relations?
- 21 Head girl is a mace-bearer (6). 23 Cat required? There are quite a - few in the pound (5). 25 Type of French novel (5).

Times Two Crossword, page 44

World City Weather @management

M Car reports by fax

red car reports from 0336 616 399

HOURS OF DARKNESS Sun sets: 7.42 pm Moon sets: 10.04 am

Last quarter April 9

NEWSPAPERS Recycled paper made up

☐ General: Scotland will have a bright and breezy morning with a few scattered sharp showers, dying away. Rein in west by dusk, Much of England and Wales will be dry with some surny spells.
☐ London, SE England, Cent S England, Channel Isles: showers cleaning to leave a mostly dry atternoon with surny spells. Moderate NW wind, Max 12-15C (54-59F).
☐ England, E. Milderde, E. England, Cent. Lake Obstrict: early showers will clear to give dry day with surmy spells. Moderate NW wind. Mex 11-14C (52-57F).

TE Anglie, E Midisords, E England, Central N & NE England: morning showers may linger lowards coasts but elsewhere a dry attemion with some sunshine. Moderate to fresh NW wind. Max 12-15C (54-59F). SW England, Wales: mainly dry with sunny spells but becoming cloudy by evening, Moderate NW wind. Max 11-14C (52-57F).

W Midlands, NW England, Iste of Man,

In Borders, Aberdeen, NE Scotland, Ork-ney, Shetland; some early showers but be-coming dry with sunny spells. Moderate to liesh NW wind. Max 10-13C (50-56F). Iresh NW wind, Max 10-13C (50-56F).

SW Scottland, Glasgow, Cent Highlands, Moray Firth, Angyti, NW Scottland: dry for much of day with some spells of sun but clouding over with rain by dusk. Moderate NW wind, Max 10-13C (50-55F).

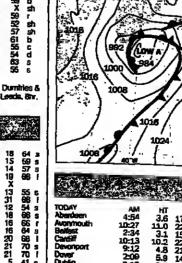

In Instanct dry start, becoming cloudy with rain. Moderate NW wind will back W and decrease light. Max 11-14C (52-67F).

Propublic of ireland: bright intervals, showers. Wind tresh or strong SW. Max 13C (55F).

If Outlook: mild but cloudy. Rein in north.

Outlook: mild but cloudy. Rain in north. AROSHE SECTION TESTERON

Eskdaterru Eurnouth Fishguard Folkestone Glasspow Hastangs Hayling I. Herne Bay Hove Hunstanton isle of Man Isle of Wigh Kinicas Leeds

4:54 10:27 2:34 10:13 9:12 2:09 3:12 8:43 3:57 3:09 1:42 9:44 9:18 9:44 6:21

Total number of lives saved so far this year: Total number of lifeboat launches so far this year: Cost to RNLI per day: Cost to taxpayer:

To make a donation, telephone:

361 £222,000 0800 543210

an opinion of the war that stretches across the political kaleidoscope then Mr Cook's smears will prove as myopic as they are historically illiterate. Page 18

JAMES PETTIFER

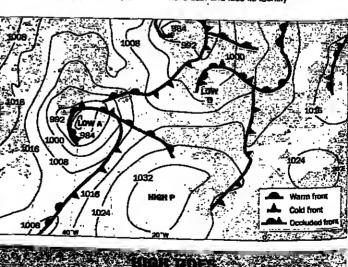

The West has fêted Skopje's ruler, President Gligorov, as a moderate. Its support for his attempts to achieve "stability" because of the war that stretches across the political kaleidoscope then Mr Cook's smears will prove as myopic as they are historically illiterate. Page 18 o'Groat's, millions of hopeful couples are pursuing love's young dream of a big house on Easy Street with

CHOOL TODAY がけい CALM 纸 Malk æ. Υ.

٠.,٠..

74.5

Changes to the chart below from noon: high P will decline in situ; low A will run northeast and lose its identity

PM 14:48 17:38 13:14 15:41 21:58 20:23 20:23 20:23 16:42 20:38 16:42 16: 27:24 22:21 15:08 22:27 21:30 14:30 15:25 14:03 22:08 21:36 22:04 18:49 HT 82 85 22 43 5.8 3.2 4.6 4.1 4.1 5.0 10.7 9.3 3.8 2:30 5:23 1:02 3:24 9:39 8:34 8:56 7:59 10:02 2:36 2:19 2:14 7:23 3:06

All times GMT Heights in metres

هكذا من الأصل

Rate cut speculation spurs European stocks but weakens sterling

Shares surge to record high

OF BY ALASDAIR MURRAY bu-sag 🗗 🖚 ECONOMICS high high correspondent

 $\mathfrak{f}_{0} \cdot \mathfrak{g}^{n}$ $\mathbb{P}^{\mathrm{Gigr}}$ 319

∋st

t unique de autor ship her hand hale

Cheese HE London stock market sterday hit a record high in month low against the polar on renewed hopes that a Bank of England will Mins gain cut interest rates to-

OBER Other European markets on made strong gains on reculation that the European i entral Bank may cut Eurorates while the euro re-Mure gonded against the pound and the dollar after Yugoslavia unexpectedly announced a unilateral ceasefire in Kosovo. The FTSE 100 index of leading shares closed up 85.8 points at 6.415.8 on the first day of the new financial year. having earlier posted an alltime trading high of 6,443.9. The market was also bolstered by a flood of fresh money as investors rushed to meet the final deadline for Peps and a strong rise on Wall Street while European markets were shut for the Easter Monday holiday. However, later gains were limited by a poor start on standing about 50 points lower back below the 10,000 level by hunchtime in New York. Other European markets also played catch-up with Wall Street, with Frankfurt shares climbing 2.6 per cent, while Paris shares closed up 1.76 per Expectations of an ECB rate cut after its meeting tomorrow were tempered, however, by hawkish comments from Jean-Claude Trichet, Governor of the Bank of France. M Trichet gave warning that the euro

Wall Street yesterday with the .was falling towards a level Dow Jones industrial average where the ECB may be required to "demonstrate its vigi-lance", adding that he saw no "change in tone" to the ECB's policy stance.

The euro, however, made sharp gains in later trading as traders greeted the news of the Yugoslav ceasefire as positive for the embattled currency. The euro climbed more than a cent from its lows against the dollar to trade at $1.0840. Against the pound, the euro jumped from 67.37p to 68.10p. Sterling also fell sharply against the dollar slipping more than a cent and a half to $1.5898 — its lowest level since September 1997. Traders said that expectations of further UK rate cuts and the possibility that US rates may rise is helping to depress the pound against the dollar.

However, economists emphasised that the MPC meeting, which begins today, could still prove close run with recent surveys suggesting that the economic growth rate is beginning to pick up again.

Three surveys published yes-terday added to the impression that the economy is at a turning point with business confidence sharply improving. The Confederation of British Industry consumer, business and professional services survey reported a rapid improvement in sentiment with companies confident of a return to robust growth in the second half of the year. A separate Institute of Management business confidence survey also showed a sharp upturn in confidence while business enthusiasm for further interest rate cuts is waning, although a clear majority still wants rates to fall further. The breakdown of the data, how my is still operating at "two speeds" with manufacturing confidence still below its longterm average

The BDO business trends index also rose for the third consecutive month suggesting that the economy is slowly returning to growth. The survey which uses a "poll of polls" ap-proach, however, is still pointing to sub-trend growth across the year and suggests that there are no immediate signs of rising inflation.

Stock market, page 26

Business Today

Niche work if you can get it 25 Telecoms sector climbs Unit trusts: Equity price

Mobile phones

City reserves judgment on pre-pay frenzy

STOCK MARKET INDICES 6415.3 (+85.3) 8/8 2998.26 (+32.06) 16479.71 (+144.93) US RATE

117,95 (116,98)

1.5899 1.4773 2.3582 192.47 .101.7

Yokyo close Yen 121.03

MORTH SEA OIL Brant15-day(Jum)., $15.05 ($14.65)

600 London close $279.05 ($290.60) * denotes middey trading pnces Exchange rates _____Page 24

Robinson

nets £5m in

Huge sales rise boosts mobile phone firms

BY CHRIS AYRES

RIES REARLY 1.9 million Britons ought mobile phones over se past three months, accordig to figures out yesterday. The lith some analysts estimating bat more than a quarter of the untry's population now use re-free telephone services.

The figures follow the mole phone industry's busiest er Christmas trading peri-그 during which Britain's big ur network operators — Votitine, Cellnet, Orange, and ne20ne - attracted a total of 5 million new customers.

Telewest shares lifted by CWC talk

BY RAYMOND SNODDY MEDIA EDITOR

SHARES of Telewest, the cable operator, sbot up nearly 7 per cent to a iigh of 2964p yesterday after growing speculation that it is close to dong a deal with Cable & Wireless, the international telecoms group. The 19p rise at Tele-

west was a reaction to speculation that C&W is considering a plan to merge the residential side of its majority-owned UK cable business — Cable & Wireless Communications (CWC) - with Telewest. Under the plan it is speculated that C&W would then absorb the corporate operations of CWC and that CWC would be taken private. CWC and Telewest confirmed yesterday that preliminary discussions were being held between them "and certain of their major shareholders concerning various corporate options, which may include, among other things, the transfer of various businesses of CWC and Telewest".

Yesterday's figures did not overshoot City expectations, but analysts said that they provided fresh evidence of the success of so-called pre-pay mobile phones. Shares of Vodafone and Orange both made significant gains, while shares of BT and Cable & Wireless, which hold large stakes in Cellnet and One2One respectively. also rose.

Pre-pay mobile phones are typically priced at £69.99 and allow customers to pay for calls in advance. All Britain's mobile phone operators now offer pre-pay phones, which can be bought from retailers such as Tesco and Boots, as well as specialist outlets.

However, one of Britain's largest mobile phone retail chains, the PocketPhone Shop, yesterday gave warning that lower-paying pre-pay phone customers are replacing the mobile operators higherworth consumers. The retailer also said that many consumers are being "mis-sold" pre-pay phones, which do not offer them best value for money. Both the City and mobile phone companies, however, shrugged off these concerns, with analysts reacting most positively to Cellnet's firstquarter figures, which showed that it attracted 479,000 net new customers during the period - a 444 per cent increase on the same quarter of 1998. Cellnet, however, remained second to Vodafone, which attracted 700,000 net new customers in the UK during the period, and 1.3 million new customers around the world. Vodafone, which is orchestrating a £67 billion merger with America's AirTouch, now has more than 10.4 million customers worldwide. Orange remained in third place according to yesterday's figures, attracting 370,000 net new customers during the first quarter of this year. Trailing behind Orange was One2One. which is expected to be either floated or sold by its current owners, Cable & Wireless of the UK, and MediaOne of the One2One attracted 329,000 new customers during the first quarter, giving it a tolal of 2.25 million customers.

mobile frenzy, page 27

Fashion move. Tie Rack, the tie and scarf retailer that was founded and floated during the Eighties high street boom, is to be sold to one of its main Italian suppliers for £22.6 million, just a fifth of its stock market valuation of two years ago (Sarah Cunningham, retail correspondent, writes).

Frangi, a producer of silk ties and scarves that is based on Lake Como in northern Italy, is offering 43%p a share. The Rack's directors and its main shareholder Vadep, part of the HSBC banking group, have agreed to sell a total of 42.6 per cent of

Roy Bishko, the founder and chairman who took the company to the market in 1987, is remaining as co-chairman alongside Simone Frangi, above. currently international director of his family's firm.

Tie Rack non-executive directors Gillian Oakes and David Spitz, who will be remaining with the company, said in a statement: "The company is going through a difficult period and we believe this cash offer represents good value for shareholders after taking into consideration the downside risks and the time it will take to achieve an acceptable level of profitability." The Rack bows out, page 24

Monument Oil talks with several suitors ration company in which the former Tory Energy Minister Tim Eggar is chief executive, is in discussions with several oil companies, including Enterprise Oil and Lasmo, which could lead to a takeover (Carl Mortished writes). The company, which owns extensive exploration acreage in Turkmenistan as well as a 20 per cent share in the Liverpool Bay field, said that it had been approached by a number of parties but had not received a firm proposal. Tony Craven Walker, chairman and principal shareholder of Monument, said the company was looking at vari-ous options including asset deals as well as acquisinons. "Those talks may or may not lead to a transaction." he said. The talks stem from Mr Craven Walker's belief that the company needs scale to exploit its three core assets: oil and gas production in Liverpool Bay and exploration prospects in Turkmenistan and Algeria. Last month he opened the door to merger talks by saying the company was keen to participate in the consolidation that has swept across the industry, most recently with the proposed BP Amoco takeover of Arco.

Prescott appoints rail franchising director

JOHN PRESCOTT, the Deputy Prime debt-laden group. His work at Euro-Minister, will today appoint an executive from within the industry to shake up the railways (Arthur Leathley

Mike Grant, deputy director of property at Railtrack, is to be appointed the new rail franchising director, renewing a working relationship with Sir Alastair Morton, his former boss at Eurotunnel.

Mr Grant, who joined Railtrack only six months ago, was formerly treasurer at Eurotunnel and played a pivotal role in the £8.5 billion refinancing of the tunnel brought him into close contact with Sir Alastair, who is to head the new Strategic Rail Authority. Mr Prescott has been anxious to appoint a franchising director with de-tailed knowledge of the railway industry and a business background. Mr Grant will be responsible for renegotiating franchises with train companies. His appointment follows that of Tom Winsor, a City lawyer, as the rail regu-lator, whose main role will be to review the access charges imposed on franchis-ing companies by Railtrack option sale

BY DOMINIC WALSH

GERRY ROBINSON, chairman of Granada, has reaped a profit of more than £5 million after taking advantage of the recent strength of the leisure group's share price to cash in share options. Last week, he exercised 537,500 share options at a cost of almost £1.4 million, selling them on yesterday for nearly E6.7 million — a profit of E5.26 million. Mr Robinson and his family still hold interests in more than 300,000 shares worth a further £3.7 million. His timing could turn out to be impeccable. Tomorrow ONdigital. the main commercial digital terrestrial TV service, in which Granada has a 50 per cent stake, will announce its first subscriber numbers since the November launch. Analysts are not expecting a spectacular performance. Yesterday, the shares rose 25p to £12.39 — almost double October's low point of 684p after Goldman Sachs added Granada to its recommended list of stocks.

Game on for US virtual toy seller

FROM ANDREW BUTCHER IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK'S Internet madness continued yesterday as eToys, a virtual toy seller, became the latest company to be valued by the stock market at more than $1 billion (£610 million) - despite posting multimillion dollar losses.

The California-based company announced that it would offer about 8 per cent of its shares to the public, raising more than $80 million and giving it a market capitalisation of about $1.1 billion.

Succeeding in the Internet toy market will not be child's play for eToys. The tiny retailer will compete against the name recognition of the likes of Toys 'R' Us, which has as much as 20 per cent of the toy market in the US.

For its part, eToys is betting that parents and children will prefer shopping from the comfort of their homes rather than battle through queues and crowds at shopping malls.

To judge from investor response to previous flotations by Internet retailers, it would be no surprise if eToys rockets in value as soon as its shares are traded publicly. Last week, shares in Priceline.com. an Internet site where people bid for airline tickets and accommodation, soared more than 500 per cent on the day that it was listed. Different from other Internet retailers, eToys has broad support from wholesalers as well as Web-hungry investors. The company has been helped by toy manufacturers that are tired of the unpredictable nature of business at existing toy retailers - Toys 'R' Us cut its toy inventory last year as it struggled to lift profitability. The toy market in the US is and is dominated by a few large chains.

EToys started selling toys in October, 1997, and was the fifth most-visited Internet retailer by last December. However, it made a $15.4 million loss in the nine months to December 31. The company has added 75,000 new customers in the first three months of 1999, giving it a customer base of 365,000.

You can't please all of the people all of the time.

With our new Fusion Mortgage you can.

John Charcol.

Our new Pasion Mortgage combines all the best mortgage options in one: () 5 years of discounts, 2) free switching to a fixed rate before 2002, 5) no redemption pendries (offering flexibility to repay the loan to full or part) and, 4) it has a cop of 6.49% (7.0%, APR) to 1/5/2002, offering aterest rate protection. The details: 1.75% discount until 1/5/2000 = 5.4% (5.9% APR) ■ Followed by a 1.5% discount until 1/5/2001 and a 1% discount until 1/5/2002 ■ Available for purchases and remortgages up to 95% of property value. Call now for your nearest branch.

Talk about

A 280,000 Interest only mortgage: theing 279,975 credit + 225 teet) on a property valued at £120,000, completing 30/4/99 ower 25 years. I net monthly repayments of £355,94 followed by 11 net monthly repayments of £343.29, 275 net monthly repayments of £343.29, 275 net monthly repayments of £345.29, 275 net monthly repayments of

AstraZeneca

to ride out losses as patents end

TOM MCKILLOP, chief exec- in the new group, narrowly the utive of the newly merged AstraZeneca, is planning to ride out the expected loss of sales from Losec and Zestril, the big-selting drugs that are ap-aim to "at least replace" the lost sales with new products and drugs licensed in from other companies.

Speaking after the completion of the Anglo-Swedish merger, Dr McKillop said that he was seeking a rapid integration of its two consotuent pharmaceutical companies. Shares

US drugs

firms to top sales charts

ASTRAZENECA, Glaxo Well-come and SmithKline Bee-cham are set to lose out to American drug companies over the next five years, according to a report from a new pharmaceutical research firm.

ing medicines and a failure to replace the lost sales with new blockbusters means that European firms are forecast to supply only three of the world's 25 best-selling drugs by 2002. Ten years ago, the success of British industry leaders meant that European companies were responsible for half of the top 50.

up by Jonathan de Pass. former head of healthcare re-search at BZW, argues that

US companies have read the market better, recognising the huge appeal to US consumers of drugs that ease the pain and burden of growing old.

Evaluate Pharma, a firm set

Patent expiries on big-sell-

He said AstraZeneca would proaching patent expiries.

world's biggest drugs compa-ny, traded for the first time yesterday, falling 91p to £29.46.

Dr McKillop said that he had set June t as the date to have the group operating as a single company. This will involve a wide-ranging shakeup of management responsibil-ities, the setting of new budg-ets and an integration of com-

AstraZeneca is aiming to secure $1.1 billion of annual cost-savings from the merger over the next three years. Dr McKillop would not say how many of the group's 55,000 employ-ees are expected to lose their jobs, but said it would be less

He said that the merger, announced in December "has been concluded in record time

- 80 working days", which he described as a "tremendous performance".

Dr McKillop said that his priority after completing the integration was to tackle the threat to AstraZeneca's sales posed by the patent expiries on its two biggest sellers. Losec, the Astra ulcer drug that is the world's biggest-selling medicine, is expected to start to lose its protection against competitors from April 2001. Zestril.

the Zeneca heart drug, will be vulnerable from mid-2002.

Dr McKillop said: "We have launched 12 products in recent years. We have got as many again scheduled for launch by 2001. We have got a very active in-licensing programme." Zeneca's shares had been strong in the run-up to the formal completion of the merger.

partly because of index funds

secking to increase their weight in the stock.

Tempus, page 26

puter systems.

than 10 per cent.

BUSINESS ROUNDUP

CBI in co-operation

THE CONFEDERATION OF BRITISH INDUSTRY and the British Chambers of Commerce have begun a series of talks on co-operation that could lead to a merger of the busiress organisations. While neither side expects a sudden mener, neither is ruling out the possibility. A fusion of the two would be the logical conclusion of their present efforts to boost their lobbying voice and pool their resources and expertise. The two groups share views and concerns on a number of policy areas including regional work and help for small businesses. Both are strong supporters of the European single currency. Co-operation on these issues would give both parties a stronger voice in dealings with the Government and

The CBI is regarded as the representative of big business with 170 trade association members and 2,500 direct members, while the BCC is seen as the voice of smaller companies with 120,000 members. Talks between Adair Turner, Director-General of the CBI, and Chris Humphries, Director-General of the BCC, come as Mr Turner prepares to quit his post at the end of this year.

House prices rise

talks with BCC

By Sarah Cunningham RETAIL CORRESPONDENT

TIE RACK will be leaving the stock market with none of the razzmatazz that greeted its arrival 12 years ago. When it floated in 1987 - just weeks ahead of the market's crash on Black Monday - the issue was 85 rimes oversubscribed and a queue snaked around the Bank of England as investors made desperate last-minute attempts to get hold of the shares.

Like Sock Shop, Knickerbox and the Body Shop. Tie Rack was riding on the wave of the Eighnes retailing boom. A successful new category had been inveoted, niche retailing, and investors wanted a part of it.

Now, even though Tie Rack survived as an independent quoted company longer than many of its peers, it has finally succumbed. One of its main suppliers, an Italian familyowned silk scarf and tie manufacturer named Frangi, is buying it. Roy Bishko, the South African entrepeneur who started Tie Rack in 1981, is taking out about £500,000 and is remaining as co-chairman. He will also own nearly 12 per cent of the company. Frangi, however, is paying just 43top a share for a company that floated at 145p per share.

The stock market has become an increasingly unfriendly environment for small companies. Tie Rack's trading problems over the past 18 months, which have led to repeated profit warnings, had left it looking very vulnerable.

Mr Bishko feels that he has found a safe home for the company. "I'm very pleased the the company's future will be secure," he said. "From my point of view. I have been working full, full, full time; perhaps now I will just be full, full time."

He started out in the retail trade, after false starts in dentistry and the law, with a chain of shoe repair shops. When they failed to prosper, he bought a job lot of des from a wholesaler and put them in the window at cost price. The ties — or so legend has it - sold out on the same day.

He received backing from Vadep, a Swiss investment arm of the HSBC banking group, and built up what he claimed was "the smallest multinational in town". Along the way, however, Tie Rack went through some dreadful omes. The high street recession at the beginning of the decade and an ill-advised expansion into the US saw the shares fall to a low of 156p in 1990. The recovery lasted unol mid-1997. when the first of its recent profits warnings sent them almost into freefall.

Mr Bishko says he is not bitter about his experiences with the stock market and remains proud of the company's record. "You can look at us and say we floated at 145p and are selfing at 43kp, but we did make money."

Evans to join up with Curnock withdraws from the sector.

vestment specialists.

The deal will allow Mr Curnock Cook to continue the RBU's active involvement in the companies IBT backs - a policy seen to have hampered its freedom to sell out of problem companies. Mr Curnock Cook is chairman of Biocompatibles International, an IBT investment that was one of the most spectacular casualties of the shump in biotech share prices.

Dr Evens has also had prob-lems. Celsis has lost 80 per debt financing arrangements that previously allowed Dr

Dr Evans said that he and chief executive of Merlin Biomistakes, particularly the im also take on the management of RBU's Australian and Canadian biotech funds. The RBU arose out of the late Victor Rothschild's enthusiasm for biotech. Rothschild is withdrawing from the sector after IBT's failure to agree a merger with Biotechnology Invest-ments Limited, a larger offshore fund advised by the RBU.

try are joining forces to take over the running of the £57 million International Biotechnology Trust as NM Rothschild

With about 25 people drawn from Dr Evans's Merlin Venworld's largest bioscience in-cent of its value in 18 months and tumbling valuations have forced Merlin to rethink the Evans to take a quick profit on early stage investments.

Mr Curnock Cook, who will be portance of management.

TWO of the best-known figures in the UK biotechnology indusscience, had learnt from their Merlin, which is seeking to raise a £100 million fund, will rise offset the 1 per cent fall in house prices between October 1998 and February 1999. House prices fell by 0.6 per cent in February, marking the third fall in four months.

Jeremy Curnock Cook, head of the Rothschild Bioscience Unit, which has been manag-ing the fund, will join Chris Evans, the founder of Chiro-science and Celsis International, to form Merlin Bioscience. tures team and key members of the RBU, the new firm claims it will be one of the

Cook

CONFIDENCE is returning to the property market with house prices rising by 1.2 per cent in March, according to new figures from the Halifax. The increase, which brings annual house price inflation to 4.4 per cent, is the latest sign that the housing market is recovering from its winter gloom after a series of recent interest rate cuts. The bank said last month's other organisations.

Backing for Moorfield

MOORFIELD ESTATES, the property minnow, has secured the backing of the secretive Barclay brothers for its £392 million purchase of a property portfolio from Royal & SunAlliance, the insurer. The company yesterday gave details of the deal; it is being funded via a limited partnership. Moorfield Capital Partners, in which the company has invested E12 million for a 24 per cent stake. Moorfield's three executive directors will own 4 per cent, while 72 per cent is controlled by Ellerman Investments, a company owned by David and Frederick Barclay.

Henry J Bean's sold

CAPITAL RADIO, which acquired the My Kinda Town restaurant group in 1996, has sold its Henry J Bean's chain for £2.4 million to a management buyout team backed by ProVen Private Equity. The deal, led by Douglas Smillie, head of Capital's international restaurant operations, includes two directly owned Henry J Bean's outlets in London and Bristol and 18 franchises, including ing Edinburgh, York, Beijing, Beirut and Bangkok, Mr Smillie said that his new company, the Henry J Bean's Group, would continue to expand overseas through franchise deals.

JSB in software buy

JSB Software Technologies, an Internel access management specialist, yesterday announced the acquisioon of Kansmen. a software company based in California, for a maximum of $5 million (£3.1 million). The company also announced that it was raising £5 million, net of expenses, by way of an institu-tional placing and open offer. The additional funds will be used to finance the Kansmen purchase and to invest in supporting and developing its existing products. Kansmen had turnover of $1.3 million for the year ended December 31, 1998.

Navy chooses Flagship

FLAGSHIP TRAINING, a Vosper Thornycroft joint venture company, said that it has won a 20-year £180 million contract to design, build and operate firefighting training units for the Royal Navy. Under the contract, awarded by the Naval Recruiting and Training Agency, two new state-of-the-art fire-fighting facilities will be built for the Navy in Plymouth and in Portsmouth, while a unit in Strathclyde will be modified. It is understood to be the first big contract awarded by the Ministry of Defence under the Private Finance Initiative.

Caradon in US sale

CARADON, the builder's merchants group, said yesterday that it has finally completed its disposal programme announced six months ago. It reported that it has sold three remaining North American doors and windows businesses -Peachtree, Thermal-Gard and Caradon Doors and Windows (Canada) for $66 million (E41 million). The three businesses. which have been bought by Nortek, last year made operating profits of £5.4 million. The deals mean that since September Caradon has sold ten businesses for a total of £134 million.

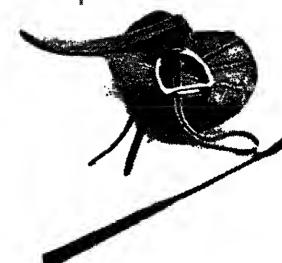

Grafton acquisition

GRAFTON GROUP, the building supplies group, yesterday announced that it has acquired Niall Bailey, a builder's merchant trading in the Birmingham area, for £13.5 million in cash, funded from the group's existing resources. Niall Bailey trades from six branches and the acquisition brings Grafton's presence in the Midlands to 29 branches. Niall Bailey had a pre-tax profit of £380,000 for the year to January 3t on turnover of £13.6 million. Grafton now operates from 85 locations, mainly in the South East and Midlands.

Balfour wins contract

BALFOUR BEATTY MAJOR PROJECTS, a subsidiary of BICC, said yesterday that it has been awarded a £75 million contract by Union Railways for the construction of the easternmost 16-kilometre sector of the Channel Tunnel rail tink from Ashford to the tunnel at Folkestone. The section is being constructed alongside the current Ashford to Folkestone line. Balfour Bearty is currently the preferred bidder for the £200 million West Coast Main Line elec-

Without Aldaniti, Bob might not have been champion.

Things get done when you've got the right partner. With unbridled determination, horse and jockey became a runaway success. With the same antitude, we'll team up with your business. Supply you with all the information you need to select the most profitable trading partners. And make the best-informed credit decisions.

So let's talk. Because with the right partner, you'll be a winner.

AEA given share boost by MoD

AEA Technology, still feeling bruised after the share price collapse that followed its recent profits warning, has won a £26 million contract to help to ensure the safety of the reactors in Britain's nuclear subma-

Michael Marx outside Development Securities' Curzon Street site, which once housed MI5

Developer reports progress

337p per share (279p) and earnings per share rose 59 per cent to 66.7p. The final dividend of 2.2p (2p) brings the yearly payout to 3.3p (3p).

Lord Gowrie, chairman, attributed the increase to its development programme, whereby impressive letting activity during 1998 was translated

DEVELOPMENT Securities.

the property company where Michael Marx is managing director, reported an increase of 6l per cent in pre-tax profil for the year to December 3l, to £20 million, from £12.4 million last time (Saeed Shah

Net asset value increased to writes).

The company will advise the Ministry of Defence and its new internal regulator on the safe operation and mainterines (Paul Durman writes).

nance of reactors in Trident and Humer Killer submarines. Two weeks ago. AEA's shares lost 40 per cent of their value in one day when it warned investors of weaken-ing demand for its engineering software and energy consultancy business. At 3431:p. the shares are a third of the value they raced to after the business was privatised in 1996.

Marketing lift for SkyePharma

BY PAUL DURMAN

SKYEPHARMA, the drug delivery company headed by lan Gowrie-Smith. has won US markeong approval for a cancer drug acquired with its re-cent $25.6 million purchase of DepoTech Corporation.

into significant development gains. He also said that the company had benefited from Lord Gowrie will hand over the chairmanship to Hugh Jenkins, previously an executive director of the Prudential

Corporation, at May's annual substantial tax losses.

DepoCyt is an extended-release version of an off-patent drug used to treat dying patients who contract a form of meningitis that can accompany non-Hodgkins lymphoma. Peter Laing, analyst at SG Securioes, said Chiron, which will sell the drug in the US, is tooking for sales to reach $50 million. He expects a similar level of sales in Europe. though DepoCyt has still to be filed with regulators.

Mr Laing said SkyePhar-ma's deat with Chiron should allow it to make annual profits of $9 million from US sales by 2002, and another $3 million of royaloes from non-US sales. Michael Ashton, SkyePharma's chief executive, said DepoCyt offered patients an improved quality of life, reducing the number of injections they will trigger another payment to DepoTech's vendors. Shares in SkyePharma rose 31:p to 64p. They have been weak recently, partly because Smithkline Beecham has not revealed its plans for the version of Paxil, its big-selling antidepressant, that SkyePharma helped to develop. Eli Lilly also abandoned work on a promis-ing heart drug on which SkyeP need. Marketing of the drug

Italy expected to lead return of Western presence Oil companies look to Libya BY CARL MORTISHED, INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS EDITOR proven and recoverable re-

LIBYA'S huge oil reserves could be the next prize for Western energy companies as the country slowly sheds its pariah status and begins to court foreign investment.

Only a day after the two Libyans accused of the Lockerbic bombing were sent to a court in The Netherlands, Italy's Foreign Minister was beading to Tripoli on the first flight since economic sanctions were imposed by the United Nations in 1992. His presence confirms the importance of Libya to Italy: ENI, the Italian oil company aiready has a large presence in the country; Italy is a big importer of Libyan crude and has ambitions to link Libya to Italy's gas network.

Other oil industry executives are certain to follow as airlines renew potentially lucrative traffic to the country. Western oil-men have had to take circuitous routes to the country, overland via Tunisia or by ship. They will soon flock there as they previously rushed to Iran when the US. last year, agreed to turn a blind eye to non-US investment in the country. Libya has vast oil resources

- some 30 billion barrels of serves, twice the level of the UK and Norway's combined oil assets. But unlike the North Sea. Libya is underexploited. its oil production in decline and suffering from underinvestment. Lasmo, the UK group headed by Joe Darby, has a big presence with a third interest in the Elephant field, which has proven reserves of 500 million barrels. Others active in Libya include Elf. of France. Repsol of Spain, and Wintershall, part of Germany's BASF.

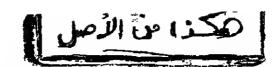

Lockerbie trial, page 10

Darby: big presence

EXCHANGE RATES

n Internet toy shop will shortly make its stock market debut with a valuation of more than $1 billion. Never mind the multiple on earnings — there are none — the price is more than 45 times the company's total sales last year.

Clearly, it would be wrong to say that investors have lost their appetite for niche retailers. By comparison with the enthusiasm now being generated by eToys. the reception which greeted the launch of Tie Rack back in 1987 seems positively staid. The share issue, 85 times oversubscribed. was at least for a company with a profit record.

Admittedly, eToys is planning to play on the American stock market, but it might encounter a similarly rapturous welcome in the UK, such is the current enthusiasm for any stock with Internet connections. But niche retailing, whether on line or on station forecourts, has its limits.

The redoubtable Roy Bishko at least held out very much longer than Sophie Mirman, the Sock Shop founder. She found a niche and exploited it but did not know when to stop. Her expansion plans went far beyond the market she had found.

By their very nature, niches have limits. Even bored travellers do not have an insatiable appetite for Mickey Mouse ties and stripey socks. Tie Rack had the ambitions of a big business when it is, essentially, a small one. And small companies are no longer welcome on the stock exchange. But there should still be back-ers for bright new retailers who can spot that clusive gap in the market. Trained eyes are currently focused on The Holding Com-pany, the brainchild of an Ameriwoman whose enthusiasm for keeping things tidy inspired her to open a shop devoted to help-ing people to keep their things m order. So successful has the first branch been that THC is now developing into a chain. Il could even be heading for an appearance on the World Wide Web.

Niche work if you can get it

It will take years before retailers can gauge how shoppers will divide their spending between the Web and the high street. The likelihood is that there will be room in the marketplace for both eToys and Toys RUs, but the newcomer has a very long way to go before it can rival the buying power of the market leader. And that brings us to the crucial issue of price.

Shoppers are more price conscious than ever, on both sides of the Atlantic. They will not happily pay a premium to buy over the Web, despite the convenience that it offers. And the price charged by the virtual retailer has to take account of the cost of delivering the goods to the customer.

COMMENTARY by our City Editor

That factor could put a heavy burden on the Internet stores. Even Amazon.com, the fashionably unprofitable bookseller, demonstrates how margins suffer when books must travel.

Clever investors may find that, as ever, the real money will be made by the middle men. The distribution companies will be the first beneficiaries of e-commerce.

A victory for market forces

he battle for Kosovo has been a bizarre one by any standards. On the ground, the two sides have been operating on completely different battlegrounds with wholly disparate time horizons. In the financial markets, no one has been interested in gold, the traditional store of value in times of chaos. Yet shares have blithely broken into new highs in New York and, eventually, in London.

Investors evidently feel that the whole thing is far too short-term to have any destablising or infla-tionary effects beyond the Balkans. The threat of a no-confidence vote succeeding in the Indian Parliament and IMF officials' haggling with Russia are proving more price-sensitive.

Only the euro has truly suf-fered. Euroland's proximity to the killing fields may have some-thing to do with it, along with the dollar's safe havens status, especially for Americans. But traders just love any excuse to kick a currency when it is down.

The pragmatic, unsentimental, market view yesterday was therefore different to that of Nato. Serbia's Easter "ceasefire" was the reality on the ground and spelt the beginning of the end of this conflict, regardless of Nato's aims or the fate of the Kosovars. So euros bounced back against the dollar and trod on the pound.

the old man in the middle of the road. The euro's post-launch debacle is not over yet but if and when it concludes, sterling may find all the bullies pointing at it and giltedged prices under pressure.

Meanwhile, there seems nothing to stop shares rising. London's FTSE 100 index would in any case have reacted yesterday to its twin's advance in New York late on Maundy Thursday. Over Easter weekend, there was more short-term good news as tens of thousands of savers rushed to buy last-minute personal equity plans while stocks lasted. Most of that money will have to go straight into UK equities.

The Pep inflow was a reminder of a more posteral force.

of a more potent force. Liquidity in pension funds remains high, a relic of the autumn 1998 correc-tion that stopped the share index improving on its July 1998 peak until about six weeks ago. Share ratings are already dizzily high by historical standards as well as in relation to extremely dull profit trends. The only force likely to cause another massive "correction" is a rise in shortterm interest rates. The US Federal Reserve is doing its best to hold off. But the bad news for market is eventually more likely to come from a loss of nerve in Washington than in Belgrade.

Quiet man is the big noise at C&W hen Graham Wallace took over from Dick Brown at Cable & Wireless, he did not relinquish all interest in his former role. Since C&W continues to hold 53 per cent of Cable & Wireless Communications. Mr Wallace still has some sway over what goes on there. In fact, the profile of Greg Clarke, his successor as chief ex-ecutive at CWC, has been so low that one might assume Mr Wallace is still running the show, and continuing to negotiate the deal with Telewest which he had on his wish list last year. But Mr Wallace's plans go far beyond that sensible merger. Dy-namic Dick Brown led the first wave of restructuring at C&W but there is much further to go. Quiet, understated Graham Wallace may be the man to create a C&W which can grab its share of the glamour raongs in which most of the telecoms sector now basks.

Deal-hungry bankers are besieging him with complicated plans. Mr Wallace may be wary: after all, he is now having to ask the courts to help him to sort out C&W's $1.75 billion Internet purchase from the sharp shooters at MCI. So why not just opt for the easy ways of demonstrating C&W's attractions? Float mobile phone operator One2One; sell down the stakes in Hong Kong Telecom and Oprus, and, perhaps, in CWC.

That should make clear that investors are currently getting the rest of C&W for a song. Mr Wallace is tuning up to take the company into the hit parade.

Monumental struggle

No sooner do Enterprise Oil and Lasmo stop talking about how they might engineer a friendly get together than they find themselves at odds. Monument Oil is the cause. Tim Eggar has but a negligible stake in the firm but the former Tory energy minister may still find his poliocal skills of use in playing one potential bidder off against another. Who would have emerged as chief executive in a merged L'Enterprise is unclear but now Pierre Jungels and Joe Darby have the chance to show their strengths.

Jarvis shares hit after warning on cost of strikes

By ROBERT LEA

JARVIS, the rail and roads maintenance group said yesterday that months of industrial action by members of the Rail, Maritime and Transport union (RMT) should soon end. But it said the intermittent strikes would result in profits for the past financial year falling short of City forecasts. Afier the warning the shares fell nearly 12 per cent yesterday. Jarvis, which has expanded rapidly over the past three years to account for the maintenance of a lifth of the UK rail network, said yesterday that a new pay and conditions deal had been thrashed out. It said RMT members would vote on the new deal in the next three recks and that the proposals would carry a recommendation from the RMT executive. The deal is, according to Henry Lafferty. Jarvis finance director, "ground-breaking after decades of little change in working arrangements". It means that night-time and weekend working will no longer be classed as overtime but that RMT members will now receive a higher basic rate of pay. Mr Lafferty said its traditionally lower-paid workers would not now have tions. Paris Moayedi, chief exec-to put in extra time to make up utive, said: "It would be unrealtheir pay packets and that they would be able to achieve the same levels of income from being on duty fewer hours.

On the flip-side, said Mr Lafferty, this would give the company greater flexibility in overnight and weekend rostering.

However, the prolonged industrial action over changes in working practices, which had been going on since last June, will take the shine off Jarvis's results for the year to March 31. Announcing that the results will not meet market expecta-

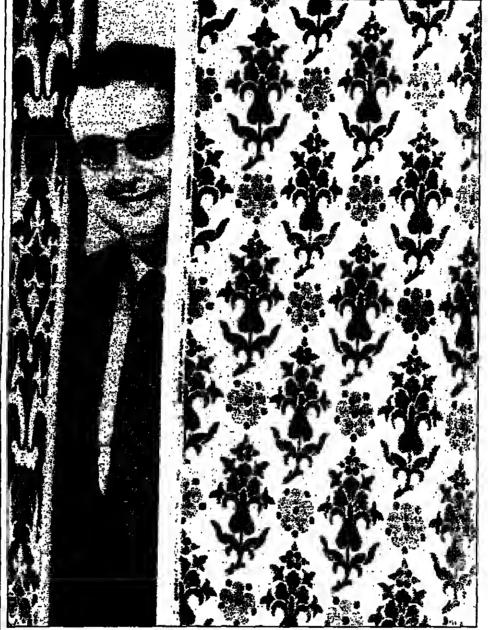

Moayedi: "strong action"

istic to assume that such a fundamental overhaul of working practices could have been achieved without some tension between the parties."

He said: "During the indus-trial action, Jarvis Rail took strong action to ensure that the company maintained its services. Inevitably, however, the cost of implementing this action had an adverse effect on the company's operating results. This was compounded by the wholly unrelated and well-publicised decision by Railtrack to defer certain renewal activities while the criteria which should be applied to renewals decisions

Peei Hunt, the broker, immediately cuts its pre-tax prolit forecast for the year to £56 million from £62.7 million. Although the company said the problems it had highlighted affected only the past financial year, Peel Hunt pulled back its forecasts for the current year to £77 million from £80 million. Jarvis shares closed down 64½p at 478p.

Papering over the cracks: Aidan Connolly expressed confidence in an upturn this year profits fall in wake of disposals

By SARAH CUNNINGHAM

WALKER GREENBANK. the company that supplied the infamously expensive wallpaper for the refurbished residence of Lord Irvine of Lairg, the Lord Chancellor, saw its profits more than halve last year after the disposal of some

Pre-tax profits, excluding exceptional items, in the year to January 31 fell to £3.4 million from £7.8 million. Sales were down 4 per cent to £52.4 milllon. The company made an exceptional profit of £29.7 mil-lioo on the sale of its commercial wallcoverings businesses. The company admitted that the policy of buying up distri-bution rights in continental countries had "proved to be an expensive mistake". But Aidan Connolly, chief executive, said that while market conditions remained difficult, especially in Europe, the company was "looking forward to a considerable improvement this year". He said that sales were running ahead of the same time last year, with two of the businesses, Zoffany and Harlequin, already returned to profit. The company will pay a final dividend of 2p (3.4p). It did not pay any interim, so the fullyear payout will be 2p (3.7p).

Greenbank | Cleveland backs cash bid from Ashtenne

By Saeed Shah

ASHTENNE HOLDINGS: the industrial property investment company, has made a recommended cash offer for Cleveland Trust, a property company with a similar portfolio. At IIIp per Cleveland share, the offer values Cleveland at £33 million.

The offer represents a premium of about 47 per cent to the closing middle-market price of 75%p per Cleveland share on September 9, 1998, the last dealing day prior to the an-nouncement by Cleveland that Trefick had acquired a 5.49 per cent holding in the com-pany. Trefick an Isle of Man investment vehicle holds a 14 per cent stake in Ashtenne and has built up a 28 per cent stake in Cleveland.

The purchase will be financed from Ashtenne's existing resources. Ashtenne said its acquisition of Cleveland is in line with its strategy to increase its industrial holdings in the UK.

Cleveland, which owns and operates the port of Boston in Lincolnshire, reported pre-tax profits of £1.3 million (£997,000) on turnover of £5 million (£4.3 million) for the six months to September 30, 1998. Net assets were £33 million, with asset value per share at 110.5p, compared with

News Corp finalises deals

FROM ANDREW BUTCHER IN NEW YORK

The News Corporation an increased presence in US cable sports and entertainment broadcasting and added to the media group's list of lead-ing shareholders.

in the first deal, News Corp moved to full ownership of the Fox/Liberty Networks. buying out its 50 per cent partner, Liberty Media Group. the AT&T subsidiary which is run by John Malone.

Liberty's stake in the cable group, which is focused on

TWO deals yesterday gave the Fox Sports Net and FX entertainment channels, was exchanged for $1.425 billion (£900 million) of News Corp shares. The deal represents about 5 per cent of NewsCorp

> Rupert Murdoch, the chairman and chief executive officer of News Corp, said that the deal would give the company full control over one of its fastest growing sources of revenue.

Mr Murdoch said: "As TV gets more fragmented, the one thing that stands out is live-event broadcasts. draws the large numbers. It's a very strong cornerstone for all our cable strategies."

The second deal involves News Corp buying back $1.39 billion worth of shares acquired in 1995 by MCI World-Com, the US long-distance telephone company.

News Corp will then sell half the stake to Liberty for about $700 million. Prince Alwaleed Bin Talal, the Saudi Arabian investor, will add to his existing 5 per cent parcel of News Corp shares by buying a $200 million slice of the MCI stake.

The two deals will give Liberty an 8 per cent stake in News Corp, making it the shareholder with the secondbiggest stake. Only the Murdoch family owns more, controlling about 30 per cent of the company's shares.

News Corp owns News International, the company that owns The Times and several other UK media properties.

Banks call for universal Isa Catmark logo

By Marianne Curphey

HIGH street banks, insurers and financial services companies are clubbing together to design a logo to help investors to spot which new individual savings account (Isa) carries a

The logo could feature a car's paw, a feline face or just a simple tick to denote that the savings product meets the necessary criteria laid down by the Treasury covering costs, access and terms.

A number of companies have aiready brought out prototype Catmarked products without having a common mark or logo and there is concern that investors will be confused.

Yesterday, on the first day that the new isa was available, ten financial services companies said that they were drawing up a shortlist of four Cat logos to be used across the Direct Line, b2, Fidelity, Legai & General, Marks & Spencer Financial Services, Royal & SunAlliance, Scottish Widows, Sun Bank, Standard Life and Virgin Direct are backing the plan. The Association of British insurers (ABI) and the Association of Unit Trust and Investment Funds (Autif) are also tak-

Di Skidmore, of b2, said: "We have seen a plethora of marketing logos for Cat standard products and we wanted to design a common logo which would be widely recognised." The Financial Services Authority said it had no objection to the plan provided the logo kept within its advertising rules.

Annual figures 1998

- Strong net profit growth for 1998 to NLG 5,882 millioo

- Profit per share rose by 19.2%.

 Dividend increased to NLG 2.75 (+19.6%).

(in millions of NLG/EUR. except for amounts per share)	1997* NLG	NLG	1997* EUR	1998 EUR	change Result before taxation:
insurance operations	3,620	5,351	1,643	2,428	47.8
- banking operations	2,989	2,371	1,356	1,976	-20,7
Net profit	4,861	5,882	2,206	2,669	21.0
Net profit per ordinary share	5.25	6.26	2.38	2.84	19.2
Dividend per ordinary share	2.30	2.7S	1.04	1.25	19.6
Total assets	620,400	870,300	281,525	394,925	40.3
Shareholders' equity	48,331	64,078	21,93t	29,077	32.6

Adjusted for the changes in the accounting principles:
- influence on published net profit +NLG 786 million/EUR 343 million
- influence on published shareholders' equity +NLG 2,213 million/EUR 1,004 million

Despite the turbulent conditions in the financial markets, ING Group closed the year 1998 with good results. All core activities contributed to the net profit increase, with the exception of the international corporate & investment banking activides. Especially the operations in the Benefux reported favourable results.

The total contribution of the acquired companies to oet profit was NLG 1,359 million, after deduction of finance charges. These contributions were made by BBL (NLG 1,154 mittion), Equitable of towa (NLG 161 million) and Furman Selz (NLG 44 million).

Without non-recurring items of, oo balance, NLG 1,247 million, the operational oet profit amounted to NLG 4,635 million (-3.5%). The non-recurring items were the profits made on the sale of the non-life insurance operations in the US (NLG 833 million), Libertel (NLG 445 millioot, Kredietbank Belgium (NLG 377 million) and credit insurer NCM (NLG 53 million) as well as additions to special provisions for low interest rates outside the Netherlands (NLG 331 million) and the Millennium Calamity Fund (NLG 130 million).

The cet profit from the insurance operations rose by 49.2% to NLG 4,247 million. Excluding the conrecurring items, the operational net profit amounted to NLG 3,600 million (+23.7%). Equitable of lows and higher sales results from equities, convertible bonds and real estate contributed to this increase. The global financial crisis depressed the net profit from the banking operations, which decreased by 22.6% to NLG 1,635 million. Excluding non-recurring items, an operational net profit remained of NLG 1,035 million (-48.0%). This decrease can be entirely attributed to the non-recurring strong decline of the trading results and the extra additions to the debt provisions. The item Additions to the provision for loan losses of the banking operations increased by NLG 1,155 million to NLG 2 billion, of which NLG I billion related to Asia and Russia.

Assets under management went up by 45.3% to NLG 558 billion. Due to the uncertain economic conditions in several important markets, the Executive Board considers it premature at this stage to make a firm profit forecast for 1999. However, ING Group has a strong financial and commercial foundation. Therefore the Executive Board faces the future with confidence.

The annual report appears on 20 April 1999 and can be obtained at the following address: ING Group, P.O. Box 810, 1000 AV Amsterdam, The Netherlands Tetephone: (+31) 20 541 54 71, fax: (+31) 20 541 54 51, e-mail: order@inggroup.com computer system is fully Year 2000 compliant. www.mcse-resources.com Millennium Consultant Systems Engineering Ltd. Tel/Fax: 01384 255355. E.Mail: info@micse-resources.com

The complete Millennium Bug PC solution for complete peace of mind. See our web site now for more details about the limited period introductory offer and ensure that your

GET TOOLED UP

TO BEAT THE MILLENNIUM BUG.

PAUL ARMSTRONG

Telecoms sector climbs on more merger talk

INVESTORS resumed the scramble for telecommunications stocks amid more talk of mergers and figures showing speciacular rises in mobile phone subscriptions.

Telewest Communications led the charge, leaping 6.8 per cent to 2964p in what was the third-biggest rise in FTSE 100 stocks on the day. Speculation centred on the possibility of Telewest merging with Cable & Wireless Communications. CWC sbares rocketed 3612p to 754450, and those of its parent. Cable & Wireless, added 234p to 775%p. Vodafnne Gronp gained 24p to £12.0o. Orange surged 34p to 928p and Securicor, which owns part of Cell-

net, added 5p to 573p. Analysts described the mobile telephone subscription figures for the March quarter as "spectacular" and "exceptional", saying that they relocused investors' attention on the industry's huge growth profile, Energis followed suit, jump-ing 77p to £19.05, as did BT, with a rise of 54p to £10.82.

The renewed appente for telecommunications stocks combined with another surge on Wall Street on Monday to push the FTSE 100 index to a record close of 6,415.3, up 85.3 points. It peaked at 6,443.9 in mid-morning trade before profit-takers moved in. Sennment was also buoyed by strong performances on Far Easiern markets overnight and a weaker pound.

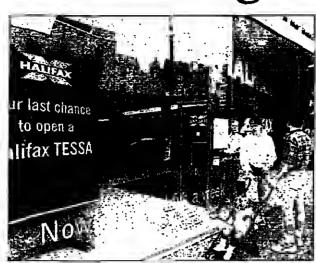

Strong gains in technology stocks on Wall Street flowed over into the London market, enabling Dixons, owner of the Freeserve Internet service, to record the biggest rise of the FTSE 100 stocks. The shares finished IIIp higher at £14.16. Reuters added 54p to 959p, continuing its recovery from a 12-month low of 418p in October.

A bullish note from CS First Boston, the broker, saw Marks & Spencer tussle for top spot among the FTSE 100 risers for most of the day. After being a little slow off the blocks, the shares raced to CSFB said that investors were undervaluing M&S's recovery prospects.

It said that most of the retailer's recovery would be made in the second half and that M&S would reassert its market leadership in clothing over the medium term. Next enjoyed one of its bet-

Halifax, which rose 15p to 801/2p yesterday, has been downgraded from hold to sell by Charterhouse Securities ter days on the market since the release last month of the re-tailer's profit results. The shares jumped 25.5p to 752p. Kingfisher added 38%p to 810tep, but it was not all good news for retailers, with Great Universal Stores dropping 38p to 637½p. Banking and insurance shares enjoyed a strong day, helped by fund managers looking for homes for the millions of pounds that have flowed into Peps and Tessas in the lead up to the April I deadline. Those considered to offer the best prospects of capital growth posted the strongest gains. CGU jumped 511/2p to 9834p, and Royal & Sun Alliance put on 114p to 5754p. St James's Place Capital rose 61-p to 2494-p on the back

THE embattled oil sector has started breathing a litthe easier in the past week or so thanks to promises of production cuts. There are lingering doubts as to whether all the commitments will be honventory levels are also likely to keep the corks in the industry's champagne bottles for some time yet.

However, in a 216-page review of the sector, Merrill Lynch, the broker, says earnnies should be upgraded provided that the price remains at current levels. Merrill's forecast for

Brent crude stands at $13.50 a barrel for this year, rising to $16.50 in 2000. It traded at $15 yesterday. With the prospect of an background, we are moving overweight in the sector on a six to 12-month view," the broker wrote. It says the market is yet to recognise the possibility that inventories may be no the brink of another overcorrection, this time by being reduced to heavily.

of cononuing speculation that it would soon be the subject of takeover bid from Prudential Corp. The Pru finished 2p higher at 795p.

Among the banks. HSBC raced to £21.03, up 58p, and Lloyds climbed 25p to 977p as brokers cited the company's track record of exceeding average earnings growth. Investors' pursuit of the bigger names also helped Standard Chartered to rise 28p to 924/pp and Bardays to gain 22n to

However, a report to be released today by Charterhouse Securioes, the broker, will advise investors to take an underweight position in the mortgage banks. Charterhouse has downgraded its recommendations on Halifax (up 15p to 801 p) and Woolwich (up 7%p to 385%p) from hold to sell.

The report says that returns on new business will about one third of that enjoyed on the current book. Capital Radio rose 17p to 700p after it announced the sale of its Henry J Bean's restaurant brand to a management buyout team. Although the price was just £24 million. the market welcomed the deal as a further sign of Capital's gradual unravelling of its illconceived acquisition of the My Kinda Town restaurant group in 1996. Analysts believe it is just a matter of time before it sells its Latin American theme bars and restau-rants, leaving Radio Cafe as its only restaurant brand.

Investors appear to be view ing EMI Group in a more fa-vourable light since the company gave an in depth presenta-tion to analysts last month, its first for several years. The stock put on 29 up to 488 up. GILT-EDGED: UK git prices staged a late recovery. with the benchmark 9 per cent 2008 gilt up £1.08 to £134.52. Traders said the market had been caught long ahead of a meeting later this week of the Bank of England's Monetary Policy Committee, at which interest rates are expected to be was 39p higher at £108.21.

NEW YORK: Wall Street

bulls cooled their heels after Monday's run into the record books. News of a Serbian ceasefire in Kosovo offered little if any reason for stocks to rise. At midday, the Dow Jones industrial average was off 41.34 points at 9,965.99.

MAJOR INDICES New York (midday): Tekyo: Hong Kong: Amsterdam: Franklurt: Singapore: Brossels: FISE 350 FISE Europop 100 ... FISE All—Share FISE Non Financials FISE Faed Interest FISE Gord Secs Extrange Index 101.7 (-0.5) Bark on England official close (4pm) RPI 153.7 Feb (2.1%) Jan 1987=100 RPD 162.3 Feb (2.4%) Jan 1987=100

	RECENT	SSU	S
	Axen Group	271	_	15
	BGI Endowment III	100	+	٠,
	Cairngorm Euro Restruct	1142	+	1,
	Calingorm Restruct Wirts	20	+	1
ı	Carrary Whart	333⁺≥	+	2
i	Entenced Zero Trust	1004	_	1,
	Gander Properties	72
ŀ	Gartmore High Income	108	+	1
1	Gartmore Zero Div Pf	106%		• • •
1	Sovelt Enhanced Dv Pi	1024
1	Govett Enhances Inc	94
1	Jupiter En Zero Dv Pf	1084	+	1,
1	Jupiter Enhanced Inc	104'2	+	14
	Luminar Warrants	255		. . .
	M Currie Cap Return	75'a
ı	M Carrie Portiello	79'.	_	1,
i	Mercury Asset Allocator	10512	+	1
ı	Morse Holdings	2423
ı	Murray Global Return 8 Ut	$185
ł	Murray Global Return Pri
ı	Murray Global Return Unit		+	Ĭ,
1	NOA Charter		•

PISES: Stock Clase Ching Chicago Foster (d) 10½ + 3½ + 50.1 Versiona 10½ + 3½ + 50.1 Versiona 10½ + 22 + 25. The Pack 42½ + 7½ + 21. Sterling Pub 27 + 3½ + 11. Honument Hidgs 71½ + 7½ + 11. Manument 47½ + 5 + 11. Manument 47½ + 5 + 11. Costain 24½ + 2 + 8.1 LPA 95½ + 7½ + 8.1 LPA 95½ + 7½ + 8.1 Costain 24½ + 30¾ + 7.5 Development Sec 24½ + 17 + 7.5 Attartic Telecom 263 + 17 + 6.5 Scota 108½ + 7 + 6.8 Scota 108½ + 7 + 6.8 TeleWes 296¾ + 19 + 6.6 Attartic Telecom 263 + 17 + 6.5 Scota 108½ + 7 + 6.8 TeleWes 296¾ + 19 + 6.6 Attartic Telecom 263 + 14½ + 5.8 SkyePharma 64 + 3½ + 5.7	First Tech Cav Pd avp (320) 31 + 1 Helmes Place a/p (275) 18
RISES: Stock Clase Ching Ching Faster (J) 10½ + 3½ + 50.1	MAJOR CHANGES
TeleWest 296° + 19 + 6.6 Altho WS 437° + 27° + 6.7 Tempus Gp 25t + 14° + 5.6 SkyePtama 64 + 3° + 5.7	RSES: Stock Clase Ching Ching Faster (J)	58448767B58559
L EATI C.	TeleWes2 296's 4 19 + 6. Altho WS 437's + 27's + 6. Tempus Gp 261 + 14's + 5.	8 7 8

Ching - 1'z - 3's - 17

RIGHTS ISSUES

TEMPUS

Bitter pill to swallow for daylight weekday hours.

with all other work paid as overtime. With a high basic salary, but flexible hours, the

THE market spoilt the party at AstraZeneca vesterday, knocking the shares 9lp lower to E29.46 on the first day of trading in the newly merged drugs group. A pause for breath was overdue - Zeneca shares had climbed from £24 only last month as investors positioned themselves for AstraZeneca's heavier weighting in the FTSE 100 index.

Further buying by index funds is likely to dominate short-term price movements. The heavy Swedish ownership inherited from Astra could easily apply an artificial squeeze on

The continuing growth of Losec, the Astra ulcer drug, and the $1.1 billion of savings anticipated from the merger should ensure that AstraZeneca will continue to grow strongly over the next three years. The market's nagging worry is the impact of the patent expiries on Losec and Zestril, the Zeneca heart drug, that could start to bite from 2001. Tom McKillop, the chief executive talked confidently about overcoming this hurdle yesterday. Not everyone shares his faith in perprazole, the follow-up to Losec that will face a wave of cheap competition.

Addinonally, Merrill Lynch believes that it has detected the first signs of a change in sentiment in favour of cyclicals, perhaps bringing an end to the extraordinary run enjoyed by the big drug stocks.

It is this track record that should form the biggest worry about paying £30 for AstraZene. ca. Within the last 18 months, Zeneca shares were trading for little more than £17. Such high ratings leave the sector vulnerable to the faltering attempts at US healthcare reform and other nasty surprises. Take profits.

that it has taken a shart-term hit. But with Railtrack's ten-year £27 billion investment programme, the fundamen-tals remain for Jarvis, which

Jarvis

THE only check on the seemingly inexorable rise of Jarvis has been its ongoing dispute with four fifths of its 5.000 workers employed on the maintenance and renewal of Britain's railways.

From 5p five years ago to 787p last summer, the company has bought businesses that now give it responsibility for 20 per cent of UK tracks. But Jarvis was founded on former British Rail maintenance companies replete with inflexible former public sector working practices. Yesterday the company said that it has finally struck a deal that it hopes will revolutionise its industrial relations. Its maintenance work is done during the week, but at night. Its intensive engineering renewal work is done at weekends. Staff, however, have been on lowly paid contracts company said that it now has a flexible and more producis also in road maintenance via its Streamline subsidiary. rive workforce which should see the beginning of the end, for instance, of a £16 million-With a share price to 1999 earnings multiple of about 16, a-year agency staff bill to en-sure that it fulfils its contracts. Jarvis looks cheap among its peer group. Buy into the cur-The company has admitted

Monument

IF MONUMENT Oil & Gas is prepared to quil, what hope is their for the survival of lesser fry? Tony Craven Walker, Monument's chairman, has always been regarded as the cleverest in-and-out merchant in the volatile exploration sector. Not for him. huge teams of geologists and vast production teams. Monument was always an investor ready to take a chance.

Monument has a knack in timing things well; it raised £100 million last spring, tapping the share market before it fell away with the oil price. It is cash-rich in a sector burdened with debt and Mr Cramay be a buyer rather than a seller. But the colours at the masthead look more like the white flag of surrender than the Jolly Roger.

Monument has built up an interesting collection of as-sets; it has found oil but needs to get il to market.

Transport in Turkmenistan costs $6 per barrel, offering opportunity but no margin to-day. At $14 per barrel, highrisk exploration is a mug's game; certainty is required but opportunities in the established fields of the Persian Gulf and Iran are being pursued aggressively by European majors, soon to be fol-lowed by their US cousins.

In such a world UK independents are marginal players, as shown by Premier Oil, which yesterday admitted de-feat in Iran. Once again, Monument may be timing its

Walker Greenbank

WALKER GREENBANK is a company with very good intentions. It says that it is confident of "a considerable recovery" but also let shareholders know of several reasons why this could all go wrong.

Factors in its favour are an improvement in underlying trading in the second half, a further pick-up in trade at Harlequin and contract fabrics since the year end, a strong balance sheet and greater controls on costs. Among the macroeconomic worries, the strength of the pound could certainly have a huge effect on the company's profitability as 44 per cent of turnover is derived from exports. Also of concern will be the admission that restructuring the European business will involve some exceptional costs in the first half of the

But what is likely to have an even bigger effect on the share price is investor sentiis firmly turned against such small manufacturers

With a few clouds hanging over the company's head, and in the absence of any overwhelmingly compelling buy story, these shares are likely to remain in the doldrums for some time to come.

CB 6139 :0460 9462	(Official) (Volume pray day) LONDON METAL EXCHANGE Rudolf Wolff	FTSE 100
Eng Water E: 73 107.13 93.57 14:-1 -392 +5.40 -0.60 5530 -200 -410 Scottant 58.40 96.76 98.66 14:-1 -0.23 -6.00 -2.94 5190 -140 +37.0	Copper Gide A (Shorner Cashr: 1367-0-1388-9
	LIFFE OPTIONS	Base Rates: Clean Discount Market L Treasury Bills (Dis
Series Age Int Oct Age Age Add Oct	So Clas 900 47,112 1524 77; 80; 116 Proteind 750 99; 106; 122; 165; 44; 57 Public 750 75 75; 134; 56 107; 144; 1789;) 800 40; 77; 32; 36; 66 82 Rames W 900 35; 72 93; 7 48 64; 86 180; 80 49; 81 102; 17 56; 77; 176; 1 90; 107; 45 64; 31 76 90 1766; 1 90; 77; 61; 62 45 60; 90; 1766; 1 90; 176; 61; 62 45 60; 90; 175; 61; 61; 62 45 60; 90; 175; 61; 62 45 60; 90; 175;	Prime Bank Bills (I Sterling Money Ra- Intarbank: Overegic open 6 - cm Local Authority De Sterling CDe: Dollar CDe: Building Society C
(*60)) 700 9 35 55 15 54 645 BALlina 500 50 56 73 6 22 427 (*519) 550 7 33 50 24 56 685 7 Backers 1800 12 211,277 261,301,51 171862*4 1900 57 162*220 69 151*2011;	Catts Pats Series Stay Ang Stev Stay Ang Series Jan Sep Dec Jan Sep Dec Series Jan Sep Dec Jan S	EUR
Bats 800 51° 85° 10° 21° 15° 75° 75° 16° 35° 36° 36° 36° 36° 36° 36° 36° 36° 36° 36	Bue Carc 330 22 37', 48', 15 26 36 BB Bu 15 4 5', 6 2 37', 4 1'335', 360 10 24 32 33 43 1'16', 1 20 2 2', 4 5', 6 7', 2 1' 35'	Currency Dollar: Starting: Euro: Yen: Canada:
CAW 750 18 86 135: 15 95 82 1771; 1 1771; 1 80 13: 61 135: 15 95 82 1771; 1 80 13: 61	Description 650 61 67 109 17 38 51 625 680 75 99 121 25 63 73 1689 710 35 62 83 63 83 63 63 75 75 78 1689 700 35 62 87 87 77 78 78 78 78 7	GOLD/F
Pharma 900 26* 65*, 72 17 46 56 1*297*) 850 8 40 57; 49 74 85 100 550 27 64* 76*; 11 36* 56. (567) 600 7 47* 54* 39 65*; 81 12nd 56*; 900 25* 64* 65* 10* 47* 56*; (567) 850 11 41 61* 36*; 75* 93*;	1529 550 23 47 66 12 675 76 68 69 91 52 75 55 58 75 58 75 76 76 76 76 76 76 76	Low: $278 Krugerrand: $279 75 Platimum: $354.25 (S)
NASS 4CT 27 - 40° 50° 5 79° 39° 19° 140° 140° 5 73° 60° 13 66° 13 66° 13 66° 13 66° 13 66° 140° 50° 52° 48° 53° 15° 53° 53° 53° 140° 53° 1	Lazine 133 167 221 23 7 13 165 72551 555 211 22 43 55 59 77 171297 130 111 18 13 12 185 52 12 187 52	STERLIA Mid Rates for Apr
Reed and 550 29' 55 77 13 40' 55', 1569'11 600 1 1' 55 45 69 83 -	1"891"-1 900 41', 82 99 48'; 72 94" April 6 Tultat 42691 Caller 15644 Poles 17647	Coperhagen
Residus 950 42 66 142 75 62 166-17054) 1000 21 62 121 55-107 143 169-17054) 1000 21 62 121 55-107 143 169685an 550 40-15; 55 3 26 55-178014 600 13: 51: 71: 37 67: 81: 536443 201 77 28 25: 55-17 13: 35: 17257-1 260 6 18: 25: 17. 31 35: 17257-1 260 6 18: 25: 17. 31 35: 17257-1 260 6 18: 25: 17. 31 35: 17257-1 260 6 18: 25: 17. 31 35: 17267-1 360 29 40: 25 3 7: 15. 31 44	Callic FTSE NIDEX TSC 18415" Pubs	Nontreal New York Uslo Stockholm
Table 3 340 102 36 37 38 38 38 38 38 38 38	6450 76 184 253°, 220 100 130 248 292 — 6500 54 154°, 223 291°, 548°, 127 212 267°, 312 539 6550 35 132°, 198°, 365°, — 158 239°, 220°, 312 539 6500 22°, 110°, 176 246°, 493 125 257°, 31°, $10°, 566 4001 6 Total: 19918 & afte: 9166 Pulse: 1752 "Underlying sectority price:	Tokyo

	Poried	Open	High	Lew	Sett	Vol	Open In
Long Git	Jun 99 Sep 90	117,48	118.29	117.49	117.95 117.85	28099	77583
6-Year Gilt	Jun 99 Sep 99				105 47	0
talian Govi Boud	Jun 99	113 49	114 45	113 36	114 05	17810	31864
Japanese Govi Boad	Sep 99	132,10	1 2 .10	131 %			940
3-Nith Sterling	Jan 99 Sep 99 Dec 99	94 596 95 058 94 850		94.970 95.040 94.830		30584 30121 5264	183071 188852 141,91
- With Europa	Am 99 Sep 99 Dec 99 Man 00 Jun 00	97.210 97.250 97.070 97.190 97.130	97,230 97,280 97,085 97,295 97,140	97.255 97.050	97.070 97 190	11446	195077 195256 170790 95290 67401
-Mth Europeiss	Jun 99 . Seg 99 .	98 790 96 700	98 830 95 749	98.770 98.670	95 890 98 710	8927 3965	117)84 56390
-Mith Euro Liber	Jun 99 . Sep 99 Dec 99 . May 00 .	97 020	97.275 97.080	97.260 97.060	97 365	229 172 88 8	106068 93016 83216 84051
TSE 100	201 93 . Sep 99 .	6415.0	6490.0	£79€9	6460 D 6505 D	31544 0	169061
· 1.70 - 2	MONE	ΥR	ATE	5 (%	,
lase Rates: Cleang Barks Discount Market Loans:	thed Mount	5-10m S		*, 3 mgs	ď.	1He	d food Sc
Basa Rates: Clearing Barks Discount Market Loaris: Treasury Silks (Dis):Ser 2	magni bagni mih 5 -, 3 m	to 5 Sell	2 लक्त 4° क	3 लाधी	6	गाँधी	de foed Sid
Base Rates: Clearing Bank. Discount Manket Loans: Pressury Brits (Dis):Box 2 Prime Bank Birls (Dis): Sterling Money Rates:	mun 5 -, 3 m	5-10+5 th 5 Sell 2 m 5-	2 mm 4*		. 6

	Jeun OO _	97 (30) 97 140	97 110	97 125 9928	6740
3-Mth Euroswiss	Jun 99 .	98 790 98 830		95 800 8927	11718
	Seg 99 .	96 700 95 740	98 570	98 710 2965	56.36
3-Mith Euro Liber	Jun 99 .	97 220 97 23	97.210	97.710 229	10606
	Sep 99	ST 275 97 275		97 265 112	9301
	Der 99 .	97 020 97,080		97 970 85	8321
	May 00 .	97 185 97 185	97 185	97,190 8	8405 5342
TSE 100	20193	6415.0 6490.0	6796.0	64600 31944
Tal 100	Sep 39.	0412TI 643A1	67,96.0	65050 0	16909 397
FIN sel	MONE	Y RATE	5 (%
				3. 1 . 3 · .
Base Rates: Cleang Bark Discount Market Loans	Comen bet	100 S		14	out food 5
Treasury Bills (Dis):Bor	2 12/15 - 31	in 5 Sell 2 min	4" च, 3 लाग्न	T.
	1 mb	2 min	3 सामि	6 mili	12 mt
Prime Bank Bills (Dis):	5-5-	5-5-	5-5
Sterling Money Rates:	5-5'r	55*	$±-2,		55
Interbenk: Overlogh: open 6's, close 5's	5-5-	5'1-5-	5-5	z 55'e	55
Local Authority Deps:	54	4.3	5	. 5.	5
Sterling CDs:	5-5-	9.50	9-5		5-5
Dollar CDs:	4 87	4.3	49	0 495	5 1
Building Society CDs:	5-5=	51-5-	5 -5		5:-5
EUROP	EAN M	ONEY E	EP0	SITS (%)
EUROP	EAN M	ONEY I	EPO 6 mm	SITS (%)
Currency Dollar:	1 mth 4° c-4° -	3 mth 5-6's		12 mile	Cell
Currency Dollar: Sterling:	1 mth 4°,-4°. 5°-5°s	3 mm 5-6'- S e-5'-	6 anth 5 ← € - 5′-5′-	12 mile 5 = 5 = 5 = 5 =	Cell
Currency Dollar: Sterling: Euro:	1 mth 4°-4°- 5°-5°- 2°-3°-	3 mth 5-ft. 5-5'- 2"-2 =	6 anth 5 ← F ∘ 5' ∘ 5'. 2' ∘ 2''.	12 mth 5 - 5 - 5 - 5 -	Cell 5-
Currency Dollar: Sterling:	1 mth 4°,-4°. 5°-5°s	3 mm 5-6'- S e-5'-	6 anth 5 ← € - 5′-5′-	12 mth 5 - 5 - 5 - 5 - 2" - 2" - 1 - 15	Cell 5-36-30-35-47-55-47

Discount Market Learns Droph 6-10e 5' Pressury Mile (Discher 7 mh 5- 2 mh 5 Sei 2 mh 4'- 3 mh 4'-
,,,,	1 mm	2 mth	3 mith	6 mth	***
Prime Bank Birls (Dis)		5-5-	5/4-5%	5:-5:	12 mth
Sterling Money Rates		55.	3r-5r	5-5
Interbank:	5-5-	5'2-5-	25-25	5,-5,
Overreght open 6 - close 5		31-34	2072	31-31	7:-31
Local Authority Deps:		42	5.	۶.	5.
Starting CDs:	5-5	9·5·	50.53	5-5-	5.5
Dollar CDs:	4 87	4.3	4 30	4 95
Building Society CDs:	5>-5:	51-5-	50-87	5-5,	5-5
EUROP	EAN M	ONEY I	PEPOS	ITS (2).
Currency	1 mth	3 mili	6 anth	12 mth	Cell
Dollar:	4.4.	5-6'-	5-5-	5-5-	5-4
Sterling:	5'-5'-	Se-5'-	51-51	5-5-	5.5
Euroc	2"3" =	2-22	7	77.7
Yen:	1.5%	l'-i	1-1-	1-1
Canada:	4-47	4-4.	4-4	5-4%
GOLD/PR Bullion: Open: $278 40- Low: $278 30- Krugerrand: $279 75-201 Patlimum: $354 25 ($22)	278 70 Close: 3 278 90 AM: $278 .75 ($175 50-17)	218 80-279 30 13 PM: 327 50]	High: $178 8	Q-278-30
STERLING Mid Rates for April 6		10 973-11	lose 1 1984	month '-'spr	3 Month
Euro				_	0.36-0.39pr
Montreal	2.3821-2.4006	2 3905-2	3934 ni	1-0.040	0 23-0 10m

t 5894-1 5903

12.316-12.332

13 125-13.148 192 31-192.58

0.06-0.04pc 0.010-0.007pc

1-15

2'-2'-0 2'-2'-0

Decount - ds

- 45

	DOLLAR RATES	SAC.
ľ	Australia 1.5938-1.5951	ì
3	Canada 1.5032-1.5042	ı
)	Denmark 6.9300-6.9340	í -
)	Euro 1.0712-1.0720	AE AE
)	Euro 1.0712-1.0720 Hong Kong 7.7474-7.7484	AL AL
П	Japan 121 08-121.18 Malaysia 2.7998-3.8002	41 Ab
	Malaysia 3.7958-3.8002	Ad
	Norway 7.7778-7.7828	AO Au
1	Singapore 1.7330-1.7335	40
2	Sweden 8 2950-8.3050	A
1	Switzerland 1 4877-1.4887	41
		A
	OTHER STERLING	4
-		410
	Argentina peso"	Art
П	Australia dollar 2 SZ75-2.5311	Am
9	Bahrain dinar 0.5955-0.6107	Apri
	Brazil real* 2.7463-2.7563	Am
	Cyprus pound 0.8540-0.8754	Arn
	Euro 1.4800-1.482S	No.
-	Finland marks 8.7818-8.9448	And In
	Greece dracture	A(S)
	In 52 cures 57 22 56 04	Asp
ı	Hong Kong doltar	Arm
1	Kravait data KD B 4825_0 4940	AS All
ı	Malaysia ringgit 6.0261-6.0305	Algo Aut
1	New 7ealand dailes 7 0051_2 0000 i	Ave
. }	Pakiskan rupee	Rate
١	Saudi Arabia 11yal 5 7475-5,8947	Bat
. [Singapore dollar 2,7484-2,7509	Bar
Į	S Akica jand 9 7980-t0 0498	Barr
1	0 A C Gunam 5.8000-5,9486	Ban
1	Barclays Treasury * Lloyds Bank	Base
1	3000030	Bec
1	FISE VOLUMES	Bet
ſ		Bus
1	3 607 Knolleher 3.790	Bio
1	3 697 Kinglisher 3,736 ASDA Gp 8,291 Latarohe 8019 Abbey No 2,444 Land Sec; 1,370 Altrice 8 Leic 1,827 Legal 8 Gp 4,114	Boo
ŀ	ADDRY NO 2,444 Land Secs 1,370	Bos
1	After Dom. 6198 Lines 198 0.734 1	Bris
1	3 697 Kinglisher 3,736 ASDA Go 8,291 Ladordie 8,019 Abbey No 2,444 Land Secs, 1,374 Albrez 8,1 etc. 1,027 Albrez 3,1 etc. 1,027 Albrez Joh 4,095 Barks Spr. 20,277 Albrez 20,11,125 Albrez 20,110	Bron
ì	3 ASDIA Go 8291 Laxforder 8 019 Abbrey No 2.444 Laxforder 8 019 Abbrey No 2.444 Laxforder 1,170 Albrez 8 Left 10,27 Albrez 8 Left 10,27 Albrez 8 Left 10,27 Albrez 10,00 Albred 20th 4,695 Blanks 5pr 20,277 Ammelicap 1,125 Mays 5,437 AB Foods 742 Ast Grid 2,501 AstraZensta 22,328 BAA 2,210 Browstot Ibn 4,407 BAA 2,210 Browstot Ibn 4,407
ı	ASIGNOS 22 328 Not Private 6 072	CK.
Į	Bir N Scot 5,254 Nativa Bi 2,594	02
1	Astracement 22,288 Nat Priver 6,975 Bir of Scot 5,254 Nat With Ea 2,594 Bir of Scot 5,254 Nat With Ea 2,594 BAA 2,210 Norwich Un 4,497 Gar Clars 4,999 Cange 1,491	Car
ł	825 1,880 P& 0 4,153	Can
1	BG 13,710 Pearson 3,438	1

FIS	E V	CLUME	5
3	697	Kinalisher	3,736
ASDA Go	8.291	Lationale	8019
Abbey No	2,444	Land Secs	1,370
Althor & Letc	1.027	Legal & Go	4,114
After Dom	6,198	Lioyds 158	9.73 20.27
Affed Joh	4.695	Marks Spr	20,27
Armescap AB Foods	1,125	MISVS	5.43
ASI/3Zeneca	22 278	Mai Grid Nat Private	2.50 6,97
Bit of Scot	22.23 5.254	Nativa Ba	7 50
BAA	2210	Morwich Un	2,594 4,407
darcla/s	4.999	Oance	1,491
Bass	1,889	PAD	4,153
BG	13,710	Pearson	3.438
Billidon ROC	3.949 688	PowerGest	1,33 5,20
Soots	2.087	Prudential	5.70
BP Amoca	28,540	Raffirack Recket Cel	4,556
BA	8,350	Reed Inti	2.87
BA	4,611	Rentolal	3,714
Brt Am Tob	534	Reuter;	3,107
Brit Energy	2,667	No Time	2 023
SCH18	5,108	Holls Royce	7,119
BTR Stabe	13,580	Ryl & Sun	3.441
CGJ	21,675	Ryl Bl. Sci	2.283 85.
COL1 Telecom	1,397	SA Breveries	604
Cable Wire	t3 185	Sansbury	4.56
Carbury	1 203	Schools Scot & New	352
Carlton Cmc	1.308	Scot San Engy	1.989
Cene co	5,856	Scal Power	3,470
Commerce Go	2.343	Securitor	2,385
Day Mad A	191	Server Go	1.422
Dragen	7,971	Sen Iren	1.235
Downs Grp	3 (83	Stell Trans	21,300
EMAP	2.290	Seette Ind	7 454
FMI.	2047	Sml() 8ch	11.826
Energis	1 (6.	Stagecoach	7.544
Gen Elec	4.567	Charle	2.923
BKN Class Maria	2.090	Sun Lite	1 374
Glancy West Granacto	8,345	Televier;	14,805
ils	3,589	Tesco	13.693
EKE	3,734 1,483	Thane; #	1.382
Kanson	738	Uniterer	7.267
CI	2.384	Uto Mews Uto Unkines	2.184
moental Tob	1.973	Vocafore:	17,403
ISBC	4.449	WPP	1,714
tantes.	5.178	Whithead	753
Kares	2615	Wandaire	7753

ALF'	35'4a 40 .a	(for James	47'- 48" id	Habin State Pro	Tr. 77.
ALAP tox ALAFI Corp	5J ~ •	Date Factor	55% 55%-	Occidental Pel
41 & 1	65' 64". 17' 17'	Du Pont Eastman Dram	55° 59° 42° 47° 4	Office Deput Cracle	7. 7.
According	484	Eastwars Rodak Easton Corp	63 63- 74- 75	Ower, Cornag	31'4 31'24	***
Adobe Systems Advanced Micro	56"- 55" 16": 15":	i-dison in	23"- 23"-	PM Goup	50° 51	E.
Agrogato-Vick Actro Life Allac		Elect Data Sys Enterson Bec	69. 49 54. 53.	PNO Group PNC Barn PPSL Res	50° 50° 50° 50° 16° 16°	E-1
Allec	50% 51%	Higginas Carp	17 17 4	Pacificant	16 16
4s Prod & Chem As facets Comm	33 34 34 98 97	Edicar Corp Edicary	64' 63' a	PaneWebber Pall Corp	39. 39. 16. 17	ــب الا
Attentions	51° 53	Enterpy Entr Of Props	3° 25°-	Parket Harmitin	35% 35%	2.5
Alcan Alumner Albest Signal Allem Co of Am	22 - 27'10	FOX Holding	25° 25° - 72° 72° - 99° 97°	People (UC)	40~. 41%
Alum Co of Am America Hissa	494 50's	PMC Carp	51'> 51'>	Person	25. 37.
Ame Gen Carp	123'a 135'a	FOR There Base	66° 66°s	Pharm 3 tlesho	67- 61 -
Arrest Haven Dr	710 124 68 661 m 1372 1384	Flect Fini Gra Floor Carp	17'- 78	Photos Occige Photo Morre	49. 21. 25 25	×
Arter Inti Arter Online Arter Standard Arter Standard	68 66° m	Ford Meter	26 II . 564 56 . 39 II .	Distance Date	15 15 47 47 4
Ama Soles	170 166°-	Fortune Brands	39- 31-	Pécay Bowes Potavoid	29 - 31	5 ₀₀
Armoniests	77 - 36 12 - 62	Franklin Fics GTE Coop	30 36 36 36 66 66 66 66 4	Proctes & Grabi Providan	1817-2 1807	٠,
APPOINT .	MO- 19.	Cannell	Care Come	Pub Sen E & G	30
Andrew Corp Antreus and Bussen	12" 17" 75" 75" 2 38" 37" a	Galerica 2000	6 6 6 72 4 72 4 72 4 72 4 72 4 72 4 72 4	Charles Clats Raision Presing	17: E	*
Apple Computer Archis Dannels	38' = 37' m 14' = 14'.	(Gen Unnames	66 - 67 -	1 Paveime Con	A	273
Armo	4" 4"	Gen Miles	77" - 76's	Raymeon B Recool Inti	16- 16-	(
Ameling Wing Action	45" 46" 13" 13" 4	Cen Molars Gen Inst Co	90 - FT-	Releast Energy Releaster Fin	41.	- E
All Rightleid	74 17"-	Genome Parts.	N I	Reynold: Masat: Rockwell into	50 - 45 -	423
Almet Corp Auto Euto Pro	18'4 11'4 41'- 41'5	Georgia Pac Gillette	79 79 50 57 70° 67°	Robert Inti	W-a .	* e
ANDY DOWNERS	56" 56 47 m 48"	GLEON WHATE ADDA	70°- 69°-	Royal Dolch CBC Comoss	3 2	_
Flakes Heights	25. 25.	Goodycar (SF)	34	Salero Com	4) 2 60 2	4
Batem Gas & Fl Banc One	23 - 25 - 25 - 25 - 25 - 25 - 25 - 25 -	Great Lakes Hallmourton	37 37	Si Pault Cos Sara Les Corp	31. Z.	1.
Canadanana	70° 71's	Harcouri Galerai	37° 37 .	Schering Plauan	9. 9.
Bank of NY Bankheston	36° 35° 42° 43′	Heatt (HJ) Hastoias	47 = 464 207 - 251 =	Schlumberger Seagram	3 7.
Backers fi Cop Backer & Longo	MO. 6011 -	Hersber Foods	52% 564.	Seas Roebech Shell Trans.	40 - 41-	.10
Santo Ind Recor Dictoran	67. 67.	Hewlett Packant Hillian Horeis	62°	SHOWING MINES	24 20 T. 12	٠,
BELL AUTOM	עי עי 51 - 51	Home Depai Homessile Ning	67 63 L 8' 8'	School Graphics Scap-On-Foot	T. 3
Best Four:	Com Com	Hoseveel	78 905	Southern Co	3 3
Otack & Decirc	48"-, 48". 53"-, 55".	Household Intl Humana	47">4 48%	Southbusi Stanley Works State Sir Corp	36 J
Rioch (H&R) Boring Beds Cascadt	41: 40: 36: 36: 37: 36: 41: 40: 41: 40:	Han Others Toutous Teaps	16- 16. 17- 13	State Sir Corp Survice	W- 5
Booker Cascade Booker Screet	P 3	B10742	51's 60'= 21's 21's	Sam Muzicons	C	. ≂:
BP Ampco ARR		Ingersoll Pane	50 - 52 -	Supervale	m 7
Brissov Myrs Sq Represent Farms	64° 65	armyl Corp	129% 127%	Systems Fin	7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7 7
MARIE CONTRACTOR	18's 19'-	Maria Page & Fr	165 a 163 a	Systo Coup Tiller loc	Mr. E.	1.65
Date Corp	18's 19's 31's 32's 42's 42's	Ind Paper Japan & Japan	43. 43. 94. 94. 33. 33.	TIG HINGS Langy Co.p	. A.	+
CAC Sneet Cosp	40° 41° 39° 39°	Kellogg Net-McGen	37 34	Temple Internal Tened Healthcare	1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	(1-0-1)
Campbell Soup Carolina Pas	41 41%	Neystan Energy	30 30 35 35 46 19	1 CHARLE	29
L-252 Coro	36 39	Kirdherly-Clark	48 . 19 .	Teas inst	11.00 1184	a1
Carpal & SW	44 . 46.*	Navaril - Publicies	18° 16° 49°	eas Dilines	The life	1.5
Chambion Indi	40. 40.	Larry (Etc) Lumping law,	41 39	Teatron Thomas Best	7700 141	10
Chemn Corp	79" 78"	Lincoln Nat	96" 100%	Tone Warnes	Se. 56 -
Charle Corp	87 . 90	Lity Claritorpy	56' 57'- 37'- 32'-	Tones-Minu A Fichen Tockman	77. 77	1
Closs Com	79 99 86 86	Lockheed Martin Louiseng Pac	1	Toys A Us	15 19 -	2
Chagana		, dericol	To Z	Transporter Transporteris	75'. 73	THE .
Core	115 - 117 -	Lucent Tecz NGC Waldcom	10 S	Interes	- A-
Coastal Corp Costa Cota	33°s 34°s	Marpowe Inc Market an A	89. E	Tyen let UST let	14 To 15 To
Colgate Paler	30- 31-	March & McLon	33' - 34' - 73' - 75' -	US Parcers	744 757 364 757 374 757 767 754	3 Ni -
Colombia France	927 947, 537 533	Masco Cosp May Dept St	77. 7	Links	31 31
Compact Comp	19 19	Maytag Corp	39°m 39°m 60°m 61°m	USinas	16. 16.	8 11 -
COTTON 100 MI	30 • 312 35'• 363-	ART THE SALE.	46. 46.	US Wasi USAInage Goup	- d	E 1
Coragua	35 35 35 27 27 34 34 34 34 34 34 34 34 34 34 34 34 34	Mosco Hill Mest Corp	33 35	ISS Marshoo		Transpired in the second
Cost: Edicas	24 20. 454 450	Mediadre Group Bedarusi Carp	67 69-4	Unicari Unitens NV		3
Compar locks	50 50	Mestions	125 127 80' 4 67'm	Union Camp Union Carbida	4	3
Committee (Inc.	60 60	Median St. March inc	/1 /(J*	Union Pacific	25. 25. 25. 25. 26. 27.	10
Comme Credit	30 30	Marrie Lunch	78" - 78" - 92" - 91	United Tech	29, 2	4 1
Administrators:		Mantesta Ming	53's 64*s	Unocas Corp	F
Dans Corp Dayton Hueson	37 m 39	Marge Resorts	72 73 30'• 20':	VF Corp Venilo Greup	7. 3	集 [[]
Deec	39 31	Martania Martania	9000, 9000	Walgreen Wal-Mart Stores		2
Dell Computer Delta 4a Lucs	6.490 44'u	Mongan (JP)	45% 45% 124% 125%	Walker Stores	B. 8
District Corn	10 1 70 70 1 29	Makeala inc Makea Lates	78 m 76 e	WORS Feege		30
Deltard Deal 53 Dealery (Wats)	W 31	Mail Some	3° 3°	Weyerlacuse Whatpool	10
Date Food for Potter Gen Corp	3 = 8	Manu Service Ing Mandalay Ing	34"- 3€	THE REAL PROPERTY.	1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
Donument Ac.	37	NY lones A	Zr= 215	When Dode Office Carp	5 m 19	I U
Drawicy (RF) Draw Cup	2 1	Houseman Mag Hite B	17°- 16°- 58°- 58%	Migley (Min) Jr		1
Down Chemical	20 11 12 12 12 12 12 12 12 12 12 12 12 12	Harpston	41', 47',	Xigina bec	- All	الم
r the fir	SEU L'AUCE	Model Stan	ווחפר את האוו		THE PARTY NAMED IN	and Bay Mary
		_	THIEF	The state of the s

WALL STREET 233 C 10 ; 9.7 45.5 Golden I. Manage Resolutions of Manage Resolutions of Manager (IP) Manager (IP)

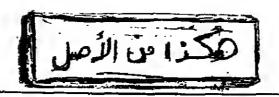

مكذا مث الاصل

t 5854-1.5972

12.316-12.424

13 114-13 209 192.12-193.91

23571-2.3744

the concept of the neutral rate of interest has been making a frequent appearance recently in the debate over UK monetary policy. For interested onlookers this trendy piece of econospeak is inherently attracrive. It does not owe its origins to complex economic theory and can be explained easily in layman's terms as follows. Interest rates are said to be at their "neutral" level when they neither add to nor subtract from the level of economic growth. At least, in principle, this has implications for policymakers. As a rule of thumb, base rates should be below their neutral level when the authorities wish to stimulate the pace of activity. Conversely, they should be above it when the economy is required to cool down.

Where the simplicity of this notion breaks down is in assessing where the neutral rate actually is. There is no firm consensus among economists. Minutes from recent Monetary Policy Committee meetings suggested that neutrality could lie in a range somewhere between 4.5 per cent to 6.5 per cent, hardly a definitive guide towards deciding where to set interest rates. A growing view though, and one expressed by at least one mem-ber of the MPC, is that neutrality is represented by base rates at about 5.5 per cent. The inference is therefore that monetary policy is currently neutral.

The lessons of base rate neutrality

This begs the question: if the current stance of monetary policy is neutral, then why is it? The economy is virtually at a standstill with domestic and international factors continuing to pose risks to the downside. Fiscal policy is arguably expansionary, but only mildly so. Moreover, from industry's point of view, sterling is unhelpful-ly strong. Put plainly, base rates should be at a level that encourages more growth. In the absence of a sudden improvement in economic prospects, this leaves two possi-bilities. Either rates have signifi-cantly further to fall or else the neu-tral rate is actually higher than 5.5 per cent. We think the latter is the case. Our estimate of neutrality is between 6 per cent and 6.5 per cent, consistent with the average for base rates since the publication of the Bank of England's first Inflation Report in early 1993. Looking at the range of interest rates since then reveals an interesting story. Policy was clearly restrictive in June last year when rates were raised to 7.5 per cent. No argument here. But over the period, base rates have only been below 5.5 per cent between February and September 1994, when Kenneth at 5.25 per cent. It is nighon impossible to believe that during these six years monetary policy has been expansionary for just seven

Implicitly the Bank's analysis seems to support our overall condusion. The green fan chart on page 46 of the latest Inflation Report shows the Bank's projections of GDP growth on a scenario of rates remaining unchanged at 5.5 per cent. Far from remaining flat, the central path sees the economy gathering steam from an annual rate of expansion of I per cent this year to a pace approaching 3 per cent in early 2001. This reinforces our view that the current level of interest rates is generous rather than neutral.

There are two implications of this analysis. First, it should be remembered that current economic. circumstances are far from normal and that the reason for rates being as low as they are is to counteract an extraordinary set of deflation-ary economic shocks. In the near term, interest rates are likely to be brought down again. But at some point, when the economy has begun to stage a more convincing re-slashed by up to 40 per cent because of pre-pay phones. Si-mon Jordan, the brash co-founder of the PocketPhone Shop, which has more than 120 outlets throughout Britain, says: "Pre-pay is massive, but if it's not controlled it could be dangerous. The network operators are getting big numbers of users, but the reality is that network operators are already trying to nudge potential customers away from pre-pay services by lowering the price of contracts. "You'll find that standard contracts will be reduced in price," he says. "Already. Vodafone has changed its cheapest contract from £17.99 a month to £14.99. You will see contracts below £10 a month by the end of this year."

ccording to most analysts, the success of

they are lower-return users." He adds that, in his opinion, covery, they will probably need to rise to keep a lid on growth and prevent the build-up of inflationary pressures. This contradicts the often heard view that argues that rates will continue on their downward path over the next couple of Secondly, there is the issue of the UK's membership of the single currency. For sterling to enter safely. the Government recognises that Britain's business cycle must converge with that of the eurozone.

This, of course, is true, but to use another a piece of jargon, this condition is necessary but not sufficient. With just one stance of monetary policy applying over the euro area, it is critical that the neutral levels of interest rates in the UK and the core eurozone economies are similar. If they are not, then rates could be acting as a restraint on, say, the German economy while simultaneously creating a boom at home. We would argue that the UK's neutral rate currently lies above that in Germany, part-ly because of higher inflation, and if this does not change, the UK's participation in EMU could be fraught with difficulties.

Note here the dangerously rapid growth of the Irish economy. made worse by the cuts in rates before it joined the single currency. Over the next three to four years. it is possible that UK inflation and expectations of inflation, are squeezed relative to those in the eurozone. In these circumstances, the neutral rate of interest would fall and help the UK on to the path of convergence. But there is no guarantee that this will occur naturally and the assumption that it will seems to signify the triumph of hope over experience.

Philip Shaw is Chief Economist at Investec in London

City reserves judgment in spite of mobile phone frenzy

Chris Ayres asks whether the rush for pre-pay deals flatters

to deceive

months, a staggering 4.3 million Britons have bought mobile phones. The evidence is everywhere: from train carriages filled with the din of one-way conversations, to classrooms where children send electronic messages to each other instead of listening to teachers. Wherever there is human life, it seems, the irritating electronic trill of a mobile phone is not far behind.

This growth has been accompanied by an enormous amount of corporate activity. Vodafone, Britain's largest mobile phone operator, is currently orchestrating a £67 billion merger with its American rival Airtouch, while One2One is preparing for an £11 billion flotation or sale. Meanwhile, whether or not to buy the 40 per cent of Cellnet it does not already own. Yet there is evidence to suggest that the mobile phone industry is beginning to question the marketing ploy that has helped to provoke such super-charged growth. The ploy is "pre-pay": a means by which consumers can buy mobile phone handsets for as little as £69.99, then pay for calls in advance using vouchers costing between £5 and £50. In Italy, pre-pay was seen as the only way to sell phones to a

Brazilian footballer Ronaldo proves there is no hiding from the trill of mobile phones as he keeps in touch even on the team bus race which loves talking but hates signing pieces of paper. By abolishing contracts and calls in advance, Italy's mobile phone operators stumbled upon one of the 20th century's most effective marketing initiatives. Now, nearly 40 per cent of Italians own a mobile phone. Pre-pay caught-on Britain last year and has since opened up the mobile phone market to millions of consumers who previously felt they could not afford it. Parents have been able to buy their children phones without worrying about huge bills, and consumers with bad credit histories have also been able to take the plunge. The craze for mobile phones was ing pre-pay services, comfuelled by high street retailers such as Tesco and Boots stock-last year. Meanwhile, 40 per

At present, only about 25 per cent of Britons own a mobile phone, but many believe this will double within the next two years. As Alan Lyons, a telecoms analyst at ABN Amro, says: "Mobile phones are clear-ly going to achieve mass market penetration in the same way that television sets and video recorders have. Everyone will have one."

The percentage of mobile phone users now taking advantage of pre-pay services is astonishing. About 32 per cent of Vodafone's customers are usare using pre-pay, up from 8 per cent last year

Although the City has reacted positively to the number of customers attracted by pre-pay, it remains uneasy about just how much money they will spend. Industry analysis are also concerned about Britain's army of new mobile phone users abandoning their products when they realise how much they cost to run.

Other questions have been raised over the ability of mobile phones companies to cope with pre-pay's massive success. Vodafone admits that its call centres nearly went into meltdown after being borncustomers, while customers of Orange have had to put up with 30-minute delays before being connected to the company's customer service staff.

Mr Lyons admits that prepay customers are "clearly not as profitable" as contract customers. But he adds: "Of course I would prefer that we could get the current growth rates without pre-pay. But without pre-pay we would be moving up the penetration curve much more slowly." Not everyone is so optimistic. Mobile phone retailers pre-pay will not be de-cided until Vodafone and Orange publish financial results later this year. Even if analysts conclude that it is a good thing, mobile phone comvanies will have to work much harder for both their shareholders and customers to stay ahead. The final quarter figmillion Britons buy mobile phones — caused many analysts to totally rethink their expectations for the sector. There is now a feeling that there is little more that mobile phone companies can do to impress the City. And, given the huge amount of mobile phone company shares being issued around the world, even the City's enthusiasm for the likes of Vodafone and Orange is subtly waning. All of a sudden, gaining 4.3 million customers in just six months no longer seems such an impressive feat.

Consumer choice beaten by companies' financial muscle

From Mr David Morgan Sir, Your lead article of March 24 on the subject of Britain's supermarket operators commented upon the recommendation that "when judging planning applica-tions, local authorities should be asked to bear in mind con-sumer choice. If only auth-orities had the luxury of being able to consider this and other relevant criteria, such as local need, the opinions of local residents and the impact of the granting of such applications on local services, to say nothing of traffic flow, congestion and environmental issues.

All of these unfortunately give way to one simple question that local authorities ask themselves - if we turn down a planning application by a major group or company and the matter goes to appeal, how much will it cost us if we lose? All other criteria, particularly the merit of the application and the feelings of local residents, are ignored. Pragmatism rules the day! Cash-strapped local authorities just do not have the will or the resources to fight the commercial giants over planning applications and such large concerns know that they only have to whisper the words "appeal with costs" in the ear of any hard-pressed planning officer and the au-thority will inevitably roll over and meekly grant the ap-plication, often in the face of vociferous local opposition. This has happened in Guildford where a large supermarket group has been granted permission to add a petrol station on its site, 300 yards away from another operator. No matter that local residents opposed the applica-tion, or that there was clearly no local need for such a facility. The local council judged that it was a waste of their limited financial resources and council taxpayers' money to oppose the application and lose the subsequent appeal. with the subsequent attendant costs. So much for local democracy!

Surely there has to be a better system of considering planning applications so that local authorities are not penal-ised financially by monstrous appeal costs, which more fairly should be at least shared between the parties rather than heaped upon the local residents through their coun-

Yours faithfully, DAVID J. A. MORGAN. Pathways, 8a Downsway, GUI 2YA.

B&B demonstrates cavalier attitude

From Mr Keith Chambers Sir. A letter from the chairman of the Bradford & Bingley Building Society has gone out attached to a voting form.

It begs the question by commencing: "A small group of members want (sic) your building society to become a

What it should have said is that a requisite number of members to propose a motion has called for a vote to see whether the membership as a whole wants the society to convert: the numbers of those either for or against conversion are surely not yet known - hence the vote. By manipulating language along the lines of "someone has stolen next year's election results", building society directors have once again shown a cavalier attitude towards members - their employers - and have surely weakened any case they wish to make.

Perhaps they will now have the courage of their convictions and promise that, should a society convert, they will themselves refuse to accept any so-called windfall payout. Yours faithfully. KEITH CHAMBERS. 19 Hill Road. Basingstoke,

HOW THE PHONE GIANTS GREW customers 01 1999 gained during Q1 1998 5.57m 32% VODAFONE 700,000 444% 20% 479,000 CELLNET 29% 216% ORANGE 370,000 40% 329,000 2.25m ONE2ONE bey pro-pay mobile phone packages, in many cases they should not. The examp below shows how If you upond only two hours a mouth tailing on a mobile phon you could end up paying more by opting for a pre-pay mobile phone than by nightin PRE-PAY:

Cost of cashs per minute, using the Orm network 50p (ming 25, £10 or £15 cash Total cost of calls per months £60

CONTRACT (typically 12 months): Handsot: anything from nothing to £299.99 for the Motoroin Y3658 Connection cost one off payme Cost of calls: 60 minutes worth of free calls included in the Orange Talk 80 plan, then prices range from 5p a minute to 20p to depending on time and type of

Total cost of calls nor mouth: 547.38

Pru's package

was at the centre of a little spat. The Pru chief executive was highlighted by some investors as the main beneficiary of a long-term incentive plan, which they thought breached the guidelines set for these schemes. This was particularly embarrassing for the Pru as its own Hugh Jones was chairman of the Association of investment British Insurers' committee.

Ultimately, good sense prevailed

THREE years ago Sir Peter Davis and the scheme was approved. Now, according to the Pru annual report, the scheme has paid out, giving Sir Peter £812,000 worth of shares, making a total package for 1998 of El.71 million, including pension. And worth every penny he is, too. SIR TOM FARMER is a man known for his charity — he does bankroll Hibernian football club. So when he decided to launch a Kosovo appeal through his Kwik Fit chain, there were no half measures. Despite the campaign being launched only on Sunday, Sir Tom has already raised £1.5 million, 5,000 bags of clothing and 7,000 cans of food. The first shipment goes out today. You can't shift quicker than a Kwik Fit shipper, as one might say.

Golden Eyes

GERALD RICHARDSON, the entrepreneur who sold his pub and table dancing company to SFI Group two years ago, is back in business. Or strictly speaking, his wife Anne and three other members of his family are back in business, as Mr Richardson himself, who stayed on at SFI until last year to oversee the For Your Eyes Only table dancing operavember and is prevented from setting up in competition.

His wife is to open a new chain of strip joints — sorry, table dancing venues — called Golden Eyes, with a site already earmarked close to Heathrow. Although this does not break the terms of his contract, I understand that Tony Hill, the SFI boss, is none too pleased. But Mr Ri-chardson tells me: "It's nothing to do with me what my family do. My wife is an independent, strongwilled woman."

SO FAREWELL Roy Bishko, who always mouned about Tie Rack being called a niche retailer. What's in a name, he laments: "If Karl Marx had not come up with the word commu-

Solar suspense

TRAVELLERS to Cornwall know there are only two routes into the county. One is across Bodmin moor and the other is over the Tamar Suspension Bridge. So it is with some concern that I report that Kvaerner, the accident-prone Norwegian builder. has signed a £24 million deal to widen the bridge in time for the millennium.

But isn't there an even more significant event occurring in Cornwall before then - August's solar eclipse. My man in the hard hat assures me that the work will not even close one lane of the bridge during peak hours. So if you are stuck in a 20-mile-tailback, you know who to blame.

AG BARR has trod on a few corns while promoting its undrinkable soft drink, Irn-Bru. Its advert, featuring a cow saying: "When I'm a burger I want to be washed down with Irn-Bru", led the Advertising Standards Authority's list of most complained about ads of 1998. A total of 589 people objected. 418 more than the next most objectionable - a TCP advert featuring a man being eaten by a tiger. The ASA did not uphold any of the complaints.

Foster's face

TALKING about Caledonian refreshment companies, Scottish Courage will today reveal the new face of Fosmism med all have been a lot better ter's lager. In the past the brewer - ber Nectar - hired the former presenter of Channel 4's The Big Breakfast, Denise van Outen, as its first Foster's ambassador", followed by Kelly Brook, who then succeeded Ms van Outen at The Big Breakfast. The new Foster's face will be announced with a massive promotion, which will send 350 Poster's drinkers to Sydney for the millennium. I am sworn to secrecy as to who she is, but if you were to guess that she is Australian, is the younger sister of a supermodel and was the unwitting star of an infamous home video in her home country, you might not be a million miles from the truth.

JASON NISSÉ city.diary@the-times.co.uk

PA Consulting Group

SOME COMPANIES WILL INEVITABLY MISS OUT

Not all businesses will have the vision to recognisa how a PA Interim Manager can. solve their short term management dilemma.

Whilst they're struggling to realise a new business opportunity, their competitors will be surging past them in the fast lane of corporate decision making.

They'ra already switched on to the fact that PA Interim Managers are highly experienced individuals, covaring evary senior management need. Oftan available within days, to assuma full executiva responsibility for an assignment.

PA INTERIM MANAGEMENT

Call for a brochure on: 8171 730 9000 or write to PA Consulting Group, 123 Buckingham Palace Rd, London SW1W 9SR, Or fax 0171 333 6198.

- 276 - 378 - 2100 -1700

PROMES POSTPOLIO NGRS 170
11423 458 652
Decidad 147 70 157
14 58 142 30 10 415
10 A Gen 19 22 58
Pund of final 22 58
Pund of final 32 58
Pund of final 45
Pund

VIRGAM DIRECT PPS LTD
69-db Sates5
heame Facs
719 80
Pess Sorth 127 16
Pess Sorth 133,35
Lik Index Packing 67
196 67

. 249 450 . 223 149

WOOLINCH HRIT TRUST MERS LTD

First 200 come

176 | 50 come

176 |

10 55.00 155.

048

361 051 120

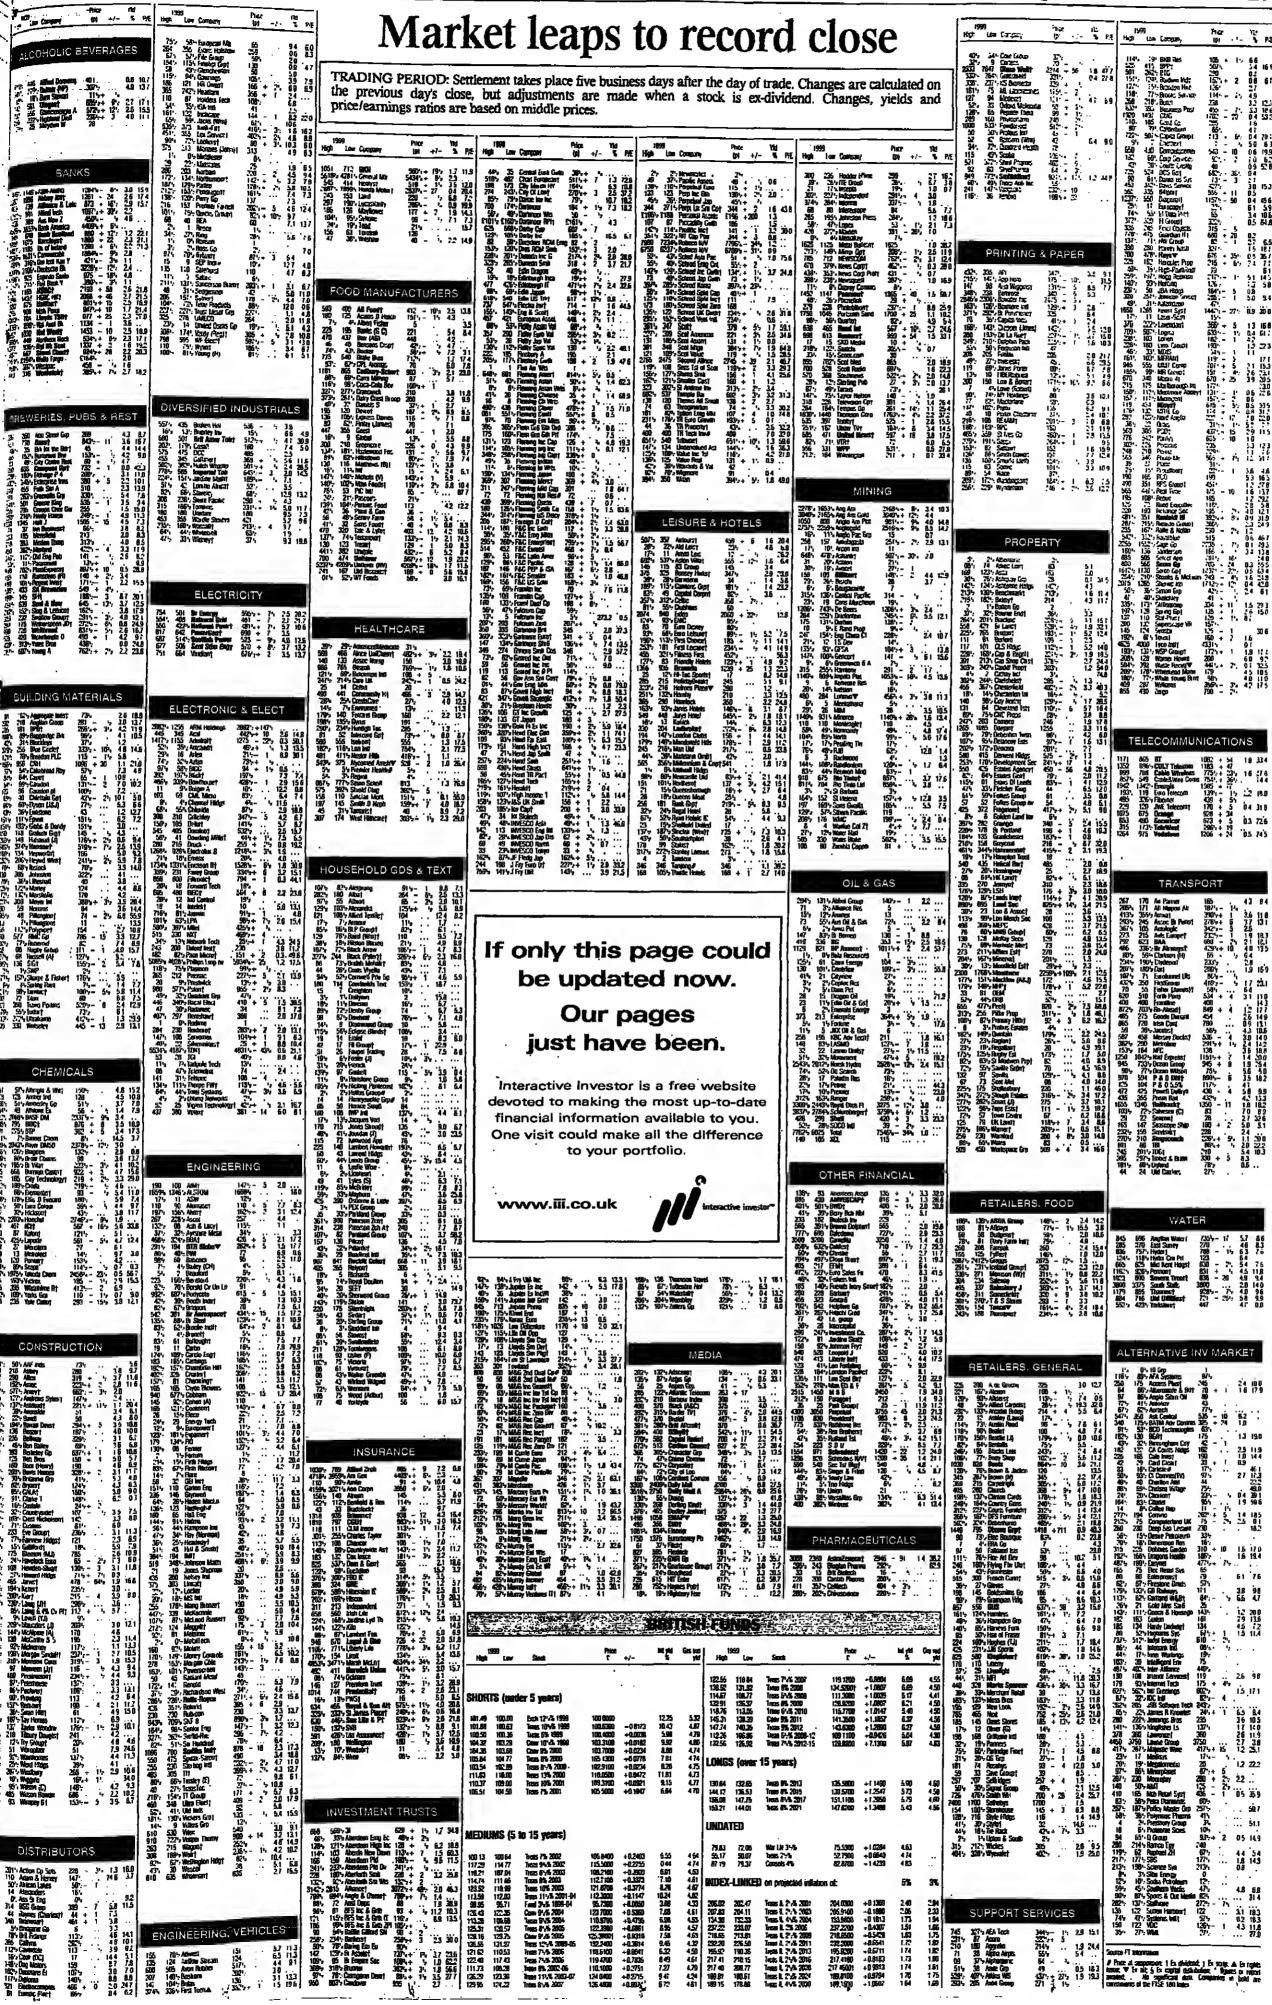

-1120 100 -2550 -540 023 -260 055 - 320 038

- 600 - 900 - 370 - 110

- 0.30 464

1 - 0.70 348 1 - 240 154 1 - 056 315

-0000 -3600 -730 029 + 250 040 -1,06 016 - 276 044 - 119 076 - 312 - 312 - 4030 041 - 4030 041 - 4030 041

Crème de la Crème

Fax: 0171 782 7899

GLOBAL ASPECT SW1

c.£27,000

Two distinct aspects of this job make for an unusual and nteresting role in this management consultancy. Your report (Cambridge, Harvard), a senior global account ager is also Head of Sales for Europe, Middle East and Africa. This role necessitates frequent and complex travel for client meetings and presentations, also the ravision of sales/database information for the team. As PA and sales support, you must have excellent IT. database and communication skills. You also need to organise and attend international conferences. This means your standards and ability to multi-task must be rated at a global level. German helpful. Temp to perm possible, Please call Sarah Jane Wood.

0171 814 0800

Angela Mortimer

PROACTIVE PA

Directors. Excellent organisational skills are your key to success as you will be co-ordinating seminars and presentations, arranging international travel itineraries. dong with taking the responsibility for the various recruitment needs of the department. You will display excellent interpersonal skills as well as a highly professional outlook to liaise and act as an ambas with principle clients in the absence of the Directors. 50wpm and a good knowledge of W4W, Excel and PowerPoint are also essential. Please contact Philip Hall or Sarah Latham.

nitted to equal opports

DOOR TO BANKING £23,000 Package

An international bank within the City is recruiting rematile, self-assured PA. You will be required to support a well respected, energetic deportment head and his direct reports. The role will involve utilizing your ability to prioritise ad hoc projects and your strong ational skills to bandle dury management and nive travel itineranes. This front-line role will equire good PowerPoint skills for a variety of events. You will also like using your initiative and enjoy increased responsibility within a true support role. Please call Marianne Fryer if you have 2 years' secretaria nce and a good understanding of MS Office.

> sitted to equal opport 0171 814 0800

Angela Mortimer

HGCA

PA/RESOURCE PLANNER

mand, blase-chaip company based in the City is

£25,000 Package

ooking for a resource planner. It's a key role calling for strong monthsing skills, you will be allocating staff throughout the empany, basing at all levels and negotiating to resolve caucas. Your responsibilities will also involve he forecasting of recruitment trends. Probably from a names or resourcing background, you will have excellent personal skills and a talent for building relationships. Resthility is important as well, as you'll have the opportu to attend regular evening social events. Able to s regarde your team and manage your own time, you'll need ervisory experience, 50 wpm+ and a good working, wholes of Excel. Please call Philip Hall or Surah Latham.

0171 287 7788

Angela Mortimer

Personal Assistant to the Director of Research

C. £19,000 PER ANNUM

Applications are invited for the post of Personal Assistant to the Director of Research. HGCA is the national industry funded organisation supporting the production and marketing of ocreal and oilseed crops. It provides a wide range of services. These include R&D project management, technical publications, market information and prices, promotions for grain export and consumption of cereal based products.

We are looking for a pro-active individual, preferably with some PA experience, for this challenging role. Your key tasks will include secretarial support to the Director of Research and managing a support team of three which provides assistance to departmental staff. The department services two Advisory Committees, and your role will encompass the co-ordination of meeting papers, organisation of meetings and the ance of membership details. You will be capable of working in a busy office and of providing the first point of contact for a wide range of stakeholders.

A committed team player, you toust have excellent secretarial skills and be able to work to tight deadlines. A high level of diligence and excellent communication skills are essential.

Please apply with a letter of application and current CV to: Head of Personnel, Home-Grown Cereals Anthority, Caledonia House, 223 Pentonville Road, London N1 9NG.

The closing date for receipt of completed applications is 19th April 1999.

HGCA has an Equal Opportunities Policy and welcomes applications from all sectors of the comm

MURLEY WOOD PA TO DIRECTORS MAYFAIR

PACKAGE £24k pa

Murley Wood is a specialist Property Finance Consultancy providing a high level of service to an expanding client base, An experienced P.A. is required to join this small dynamic team (5). Working closely with the company's two Directors you will assist them in all aspects of their commercial and private

The successful applicant will be self-motivated with tional skills in order to manage the excellent organisational skills in order to manage the office and meet tight deadlines. You will be bright and articulate with good typing and computer skills including a sound knowledge of Word and Excel. Some bookkeeping knowledge would be an advantage.

Apply in writing with full CV to: Mr K I Wood, Murley Wood Ltd, 11S Mount Street, London, W1Y 5HI

TOHN D WOOD & CO

ADMINISTRATORS WOULD YOU LIKE THE OPPORTUNITY

TO JOIN A SUCCESSFUL AND PROFESSIONALLY MOTIVATED PROPERTY COMPANY? We are currently recruiting bright caree minded individuals to assist and support a team of negotiators in several of our Letting Offices. Your WP skills must be oficient with speeds in excess of 60wpm. Excellent career prospects for ambitious self motivated individuals. Send c.y. to Mrs G Waddell, HR Manager, John D Wood & Co. Lettings, 296 Kings Road, London SW3 5UG.

PA/Office Manager - package to £25,000 country matters. Dynamic, young director needs a right hand person to help organise his professional and personal life. Must be flexible and able to work under pressure with fast, accurate audio typing, of which there is massed Super position for a smart, well spoker, organised individual who offers commitment in return for fun. Fax CV with covering letter and current salary 0171 409 1904

PA / SECRETARY - £20,000

Architects with exciting projects throughout Europe are looking for a PA/SECRETARY for one of the two directors and team. Must be highly organised, enthusiastic and resourceful. Min. 65wpm and W4W essential, Excel an advantage. Please write with CV to: Mrs Liane Dawe + Geddes Architects, 22 Cross Keys Clos friendly haw firm Experience esse £20-21K

IOLLY JOB FOR FUN bout 16 yrs old who would loves greating people, showing known fizes to nternational clientale plu learning the ropes reads Must know London cancrally. £12,500. Lynn

fortis Bosuchamp Bur 0171 259 6999

OFFICE MANAGERIPA to Chairman, A diverse role which will encompass office management, extensive client listen, co-oxidinating projects, researching pewer articles, all company travel atmagements and some personal work for the Chairman, ES,000 + personal whenthe house, 017 + personal

Tip top

£26 - 30,000

Leading, American investment bank needs a proactive senior secretary to assist the General Counsel for Europe, Middle East and Africa, She will require e strong individual capable of acting on her behalf and high level networking. Candidates will have a corporate background in a legal, compliance or regulatory field and first class secretarial skills. Please call Celia Connolly on 0171 636 0800.

Crone Corkill Pure Recruitment Skill

PROPERTY cf25,000+EXC. BENS.

into the unacting world of the Property Industry. Whather you are not Secretary, Personal Amintees, Administerance, Receptations, Office rea., there will always be room to milities your skills within this fast not previous maring envisonment. AT THE ECLEPSE ORGANISATION we pide omnelves to supplying the most sengite after Compussion? we we pide the industry. You may enjoy working for an international Property Com-Firm dealing with Leismer, Auctional Research. Development, Human Resources and Investment etc. Whatever your requirements we will help you to fulfill your two potentials. Mean of our clients offer superb benefits and working conditions, coupled with executions prompted and on-going training, Join the leaders in the Industry and make that may Listed below are just a few of the positions which we are currently offers to behalf of our clients.

to belief of our circuit.

PERSONAL ASSISTANT
AUDIO SECRETARY
ADMIN SECRETARY
TEAM SECRETARY
YOUNG SECRETARY
JUNIOR SECRETARY
RECEPTIONEST

riber information and an interview, please tel The Eclipse Organization, 13 Maddex Street, Landan WLR 91.E. 0171 629 4060 or fax 0171 629 5493 We are open 3.30am till 6.60cm

To £25,000

Join this dynamic successful venture capital company working for a charming yet demanding director! He will keep you on your toes, involving you in all aspects of organising his busy diary and travel and liaising directly with clients - predominately media based. If you enjoy working as part of a team, have excellent secretarial skills and can juggle a variety of tasks whilst keeping a smile on your face then

Tel: 0171 225 1888 Fex: 0171 225 2013 omail: rotroit@vwa.com

VICTORIA WALL ASSOCIATES

DESPERATELY SEEKING SECRETARIES

Legal Experience Essential We are continuously looking for the best candidates on the market for the best ellents around.

We are looking for good all round legal secretaries with:

• Readole attitudes: An understanding of the legal envi
 Speed and efficiency essential

Paim Logal with Insurance/Reimbranes - Legal degree not elistential, previous esperience-required

HR authority lewe, US Low firm, psyroll essential

Para Legal with proven medical experience, idear candidate would have worked in a hospital handling Medical Records

Semetary for temp to point, City Low Firm, Private Client Dept., $228.

OFFICE PROFESSIONALS

400.00 100.0000 100.

SUPER SECRETARIES

LACURDER for small project, This role will very a develop according to strengths & desire to tale responsibility. Age 404. £18-20K. 0171 493 2868 Beringe Sec. ANNUME SEC 228,000 - A minute to companies plus bunking exp. are to companies plus bunking exp. are to companies plus bunking exp. are wind wide group. Unique role where you'll be at the nerve cantre of int'l Marketing. Outpoing personality is a must. Brand new coffices with a real bent Pribus Coffices with a real bent Pribus Secretarial, 0171 491 0222

IOS SHARE Ser Sec. 223k + Berne (Fro main). We confuse out. 20% Typing + full Paffee decise to large int I Co. 3 ym + Ser Sec. sep. 50 ym & Wood/Excel/P.potet all tog. Feers. NEXT EMPLOYMENT. 0171 287 2664.

COME COME LEXILY DECORATY COM-posty seek team secretary to sup-post two samespers and oversee fundor secretary, Must have good Wilesc skills and a desire to mante a usche within this di-verse and interesting role. Age 22-25. C20,000. King à Tobera Secratament 0171 629 9648. Ret ES OVE MITO LAW 222,000 nowly established City office of UK law firm. Re-insurance or property exp to cuit competencial lawyer. Organise conferences, registro-

Organise conferences, marketing, sound presides MS cuttool Cather Dasign 0171 489 0829 ORGANISE your Boss. 222,500 + Bens. 1 to 1 PA role in top managoment consultants. First cless organizational skills in highly brouved sole. SSoppn. 3 yrs + Snr.
PA & Word/Excal/P,point cas. Peter. NEXT EMPLOYMENT. 0171
227 3664.

ERSONNEL ASST £18,000 for City Law firm. Organise float, team lease, new staff procedured, at-tend support staff meetings. Up date database, arrange cocktain parties. Impervi parties, general pc levels, 2+ yes exp. Car 0171 489 0889

POLITICALLY AMARET 225,000 & 22,000. Two På's with political/ House of Commons / Civil Service background for MD of small laws at Westumester Pa firm. Shorthand essential for the MD studio desirable for both 0171 377 8600, SECRETARIES F.US. the secretarial consultance. PROPERTY. #21,000. PA. 25- for Chief Executive of company SWI. You will have a jumier to analyty you in a sole where the administrational element will see when 30 to 30%. Fast smite (Obspare); is what hole + good craver prospected 0171 377 8500.

MINIA CONSTITUTE,

MAYELLING / BISSIMESS P.A.

640-C50,000 basic. Working so the right hand to this dynamic and entripresequated chap you will totally support item to all unces of its Destines. This will suit a client driven, focussed, motivated and career minded P.A.

who is free to threat frequently and fine. No typing, He is a very likeship povershouse who needs to be organized, edificient and outpoing. Please fize CVs 0171 274 4905 Smah Storemt-Smith fac 0171 734 5955.

TV - SEC to £16,000 Experienced secretary to work for busy TV Executive + team to successful production co. Involved role for proactive candidate, must be organised, good under pressure + an effective communicator. 60 wm communicator. 60wpm typing, W4Ws. This is an interesting secretarial support role but not a stepping stone into production.

TEL. 0171 499 6946 PAI: 0171 489 6320

SECRETARY/ RECEPTIONIST Executive Search Co. W1 Nicoly spoken, wellpresenced person sought.
for young professional co.
Exp. ess. 65wpm + W4W.
Age to mid-20's. £16-£18k. Call Karen George on 0181 789 0107.

SIX WEEKS TO CREME

Attend the only secretarial event that matters in the JK, dedicated to the needs of secretaries, PAs, office managers and administrators. Now io its 5th success show provides a unique combination of motivating seminars, spectacular fashion shows and a one stop business shop with over 150 companies from the world of Recruitment Technology, Office Products. Stationery ofessional Developmen Seminars provide the opportunity to brush up or essential skills and learn new ones. Learn how to make "Office Politics" work for you, "Get the Best from Difficult People", "Deal with Agression" and adopt a more pro-active role in Making More Decision on Behalf of your Boss." Discover the effects of nformation technology in "The Secretary's Role & The Future of IT" and ecome a planning wizard in "Planning in an Instant". For the first time ever, Sarah Cook PA to Phil Riley, MD of Heart Radio and Julie Flynn, PA o David Beckett, Head of Cash Payments at Barclays Bank will discuss their Manager/PA partnership and Karen

Bishop, PA to Anita

Roddick, The Body Shop

will provide an insight on how she made it to the top.

London, Olympia 2. call 01923 690662, For secretaries who want to get ahead. Get to Creme

£,25,000 Package

This fast moving, global Pund Management Company requires a talented PA to support two high profile

0171 287 7788

Angela Mortimer

PA TO MANAGING DIRECTOR

£20k - £22k - WESTMINSTER

The MD of this growing company, offering a wide variety of professional services to the construction industry, seeks a professional PA.

The ideal candidate will have excellent administrative and secretarial skills with a sound knowledge of MS Office. Good communication skills at all levels and an ability to work on own initiative are essential. As well as PA duties, the role consists of administering a number of other activities including an awards scheme and maintaining the company's existing Investors in People programme. The benefits package includes a contributory pension scheme and 25 days

Please apply in writing, enclosing a full CV, by Manday 19th April to: Jacqueline Hilary, Personnel Manager, Thomas Telford Limited, One Great George Street, London SWIP 3AA.

Thomas Telford

Call TODAY Tel: 0171 588 5888 RESOURCING MANAGER Excellent Salary

Blue Chip organisation in the Lewisham Area seeks HR Assistant to provide support for their progressive team of Human Resource Generalists. The Resourcing manager will be directly responsible for design and execution of assessment centres, conducting interviews and any other form of selection. Overall recruitment experience including senior IT personnel, effective communication skills and the ability to administer ad-hoc HR projects with speed and accuracy are essential. For further details please call Kathy Liddle 0171 588 5888 or Email to kathyl@centrepointgroup.co.uk advanced human resources

e-mail: indegenate visit as at ways.com

Order, Order! £20-25,000 re 2 exciting positions in olitical Affairs div. of a

To The MD is looking for a P/ with senior level cap, pref. within a political environment. We are also looking for a PA with a good senior of humour to work for 3 young Cousulants. Both positions pro excellent socretarial skills & MS Office. Age 20's - 30's Norma Skemp Recruitment Ltd

0171 491 0707

An exc, opp, has arisen for a outlident, young PA to train a a Party Planner with one of

Norma Skemp Recruitment Ltd

0171 491 0707

JOHN D WOOD & CO.

Secretary/P.A. For M.D. To join happy, hardworking team in Kensington. Skills required: Computer literate, audio, shorthand and minute taking.

Must be resourceful and helpful. Must have: Sense of humour and good telephone manner. Salary: £20/25k

Peter Young John D Wood & Co.

162 Kensington Church Street London W8 4BN

£25,000 CITY PA

ript with C.V. and passport photograph

Proactive PA / Secretary Administrator for Head of investment. This is a start-up spin-off from a household name so there will be a fair amount of organisational and secretarial work for first few months, "City" / corporate background ideal. Free lunches, 5% bonus, profit share. 0171 377 8600

PLUS

PA WITH CONSIDERABLE

SECRETARIES

EXPERIENCE needed to support the managing director and deputy managing director of leading travel and lessure pr agency. We are a medium sized company and the applicant must thrive on a challenge, have excellent organisational skills and enjoy working as a member of a lively and creative team. Word, Powerpoint, Excel and

Applications in writing to: Fanny Armitage, BGB & Associates, 7 Westminster Palace Gerdens, Artillery Row, London, SW1P 1RL

PA/Office Manager - package to £25,000 For small, friendly, professional office in Maytair dealing with country matters. Dynamic, young director needs a right hand person to help organise his professional and personal life. Must be flexible and able to work under pressure with fest, accurate audio typing, of which there is massest Super poetion for a smart, well spoken, organised individual who offers commitment in return for fun. Fex CV with covering letter and current salary.

0171 409 1904

NSR ARABIAN NIGHTS PARTY TIME £14-20,000 a.a.e. £A.A.E. We are looking for 2 Arab/Prench/English speaking PAs, one based in the UK, the

P/A - GIRL FRIDAY W11. AREA For entrepreneut (clubs, property). Small office. Must have: wp & excel. Must be: relaxed, efficient, like dogs. Salary £19k. 0171-243 1336

ordile digentary. You must be well presented, with exc. organisational stills & corrected experience combine with a resourceful & flexible manner. Diplomatic cap, helpful. Age 20's - 30's. Norma Skemp Recruitment Ltd 0171 491 0707

CENTRE POINT

P

Call TODAY Tel: 0171 562 1640 SHORTHAND NR LIVERPOOL ST

U

A new position has arisen for an experienced secretary to work 1:1 for a Finance Director. Based in lovely offices, you must possess a flexible and adaptable manner to go with you first rate skills. As a senior secretary you will also be responsible for ad hoc projects including IT lisison. Word and Eccal are assential together with at least 80wpm shorthand and an education probably to A level at least. Salary 6225.500.

Call Aventi on 0171 562 1640

YOUNG TEAM SECRETARIES £18,000 to £21,000

Free family P.P.P., 23 Days Holiday, IFSTL, Paid O/T, Gym and Leisure Facilities, Free or Subaidleed Restaurant, Life Insurance, Pensions, Social Events, etc.

Country Estates, Marksting, Investment, Hotel & Leisure, Auctions, Personnel, Shopping Centres

Vacancies exist for well-educated college leavers to work with yo fun teams of Surveyors through to more expensioned Secretaries and PAs for Associated Partners, Partners and Equity Sherehold

For full details an accurate immediate interview call 0171 709 3700 or fax CV on 0171 481 2115, Out of hours: 0850

PA TO FD, PUBLISHING to £27k + bens This busy Group Finance Director needs your This busy Group Finance Director needs your support. You will have a min. 5 years exp. as a senio PA, have good shorthand (80wpm), be cheerful, calm, proactive and organised. Duties will range from organising travel and meetings to generating Powerpoint presentations and attending meetings. This is a very varied role that calls for exceptional interpersonal skills, a flexible attitude and the willingness to get your hands "firey" Word Event illingness to get your hands "dirty"|| Word, Excel, |owerPoint, typing 55wpm, Shorthand 80wpm,

Call now for an interview. 0171 828 6228.

Fax: 0171 828 5866 (Agy)

SALES ADMINISTRATOR

their prestige Mercedes-Benz showroom in Chelsea. The ideal candidate will need to be highly numerate, ess good keyboard skills and be happy to work in a small but busy team. In the first instance, please apply in writing to: The Dealer Principal, Bradshaw Webb Mercedes-Benz, Jev Row, Wandsworth Bridge, London, SW18 1TB.

SHEILA CHILDS RECRUITMENT LTD Monte Carlo - £30,000 plus package Commuting between London and Monaco, this is a challenging opportunity for an authoritative Execute Assistant familiar with governmental procedures and dvantage. Might suit contract temporary. Television - £26,000 - This is a front-line role of pressure and pace and the PA must thrive in such an privironment. Masterly organisation and first rate people skills are top of the list for this absorbing and happy job. 2 Ganton Street London W1V 1LJ Telephone: 0171 437 3111 Fax: 0171 437 4050 at ease with high profile individuals. French an

£22K + 2 Bonuses

International market research company looking for a PA to work for their charismatic Chairman, Must have excellent skills - shorthand 100 graduate level - interested in public affairs - well-organised - tough spirited under pressure - age 24+.

Tel 0171 629 9323 Fax 0171 629 4255 DIRECTORS' SECRETARIES

TEMPS TO £12.00 P/H PLUS TEMP TO PERM OPPORTUNITIES For stimulating, rewarding and interesting assignment at rates you cannot afford to miss. We currently need junior, Learn and PA secretaries together with experienced administrators to cover long & short term assignments (great overtime opportunities) and we assignments great over time opportunities; and have a variety of "Temp to Perm" positions offering superb potential with some of the biggest names in the City and West End. If you have excellent secretar skills and a flexible, lively personality call Jacqui today on 0171 377 5500 or fax 0171 377 5599 or

ADMINISTRATIVE

CROSS SELECTION

CAREER PROSPECT Out of the Kitchen - Into the Office

We need a dynamic person with cooking experience, to work in a leading and expanding agency. Admin experience essential. Contact Lucy: 0171 633 9363

CREME MINCES. Pajor

LEGAL CREME

Float Secretary Covent Garden, Call Karen George on 0181 789 0107.

FIRST CREME GRADUATEIN SCIENCES SCALINGES req as Sales Admin Ming for occupational Energy from West Co. Acand Ends, suits MD to prepare Tech docs. Varied, challenging role leading to good

SUPER SECRETARIES

20k Fackage One of the UK's largest IT solutions companies requires a senior PA to work for the Plangue Director. This is an ideal opportunity for an experience FA to use this advanced cognational and trumsteal skills. A proactive attitude is required as well as 3 years + experience to a blue chip organization. Strong secretorial and IT skills are importative. Call Philip Rail or Sarah Lathaus at Ascorts Mortimer pic on C171 287 7788.

BillingGOAL Prench PASed to FF Director. Seins tres come Ser with solid skills and pp. 522-244 bens. Language Br Gruitment 0171 287 0424. FLUENT GERMAN & 20mps de

BUCK

(を)の ちゅうり

7-200

MAL

RAG ME

VENTURE CAPITAL

WWW.VWG.COM

Speed and efficiency profit vacancies available: Lagid receptionist, pr Baker Street, provious esperience mt :rim

0171 550 7000

RADING FLOCE (25,000 - far moving opportunity for a condi-dont secretary with good 18 skills, high energy and busing up. Generics career propers and opp. besse. Call Prime Sent-terial, 0171 491 0222 PA to partners of new Soho PR agency manted Excellent typing shills and telephone manner ential. Up to £14k. Send CV's to Sputnik, Carnaby Street

London W1V1PE EXEC ASS 430k for PID of high profile compar-in dweign field, Hayfair. Heat have good Corporate sep in recognised firms, Public school ed, Yal For a PA with top

JOEN THE THE

MINOMALE

Charles of

MULTI-LINGUAL OPPORTUNITIES 626,000 W1. Experience shorthand PA with finest Genous for hish puttle Creative MD. Enells Callle Secretarient, Tel/Fan 0171 437 311144050. III. Italian Secretary with Eschal to mother tongov atminut to legal dept of innernations of Euro. DSA (Agy) 0171-794-449 DUPCH Transl have facilish for fi-nance Media on to £14%, 184 (Agr) 0171-734 4469

PLUSHT French (20,000 - Commerce of the commer

I Weste Vande ip. . . 12上旬。 المكذا مث الاص

I get a buzz from the paintball wizards

A day in the life of Kate Menniss. PA to Denis McCourt, managing director of Party Express and

Awesome Events, and to Odette

Penwarden, sales development menager for Awesome Events ij

arrive at our office in Victoria. London, at 8.45am, make a cup of tea then check the e-mail. We receive up to 50 e-mail inquiries and bookings a day from all over the world. Then confirm the meetings that Denis and Odette have today, with clients, tour operators or to view venues. Then have my daily ten-minute briefing with them both — they are of-ten out of the office — before moving on to their dictation tapes from yesterday's meetings.

This takes a while because I am intecrupted by phone calls all day. Denis is not here to take calls so I have to know what is going on and take bookings and answer client queries. Many of our callers are from overseas and are calling to organise incentive groups and conferences.

11:30am: Denis and Odette phone in for messages, and Denis asks me to send out brochures, and transparencies to clients who want to use them in their own brochures. He also asks me to write short adverts to go with them.

12.30pm: Grab a quick sand-wich. I have worked here for eight months; it is an extremely sociable job and the atmosphere is buzzing. There are always lots of events going on, which I am invited to. I have been to the Party Bus nightclub tour, a James Bond night and paintballing with Awesome Events. I am getting married this year, and some friends are arranging my hen weekend through Awesome Events - though I have no idea what will be taking place.

have booked to go sky-diving on our honeymoon in Florida.

1 try to work on my own projects during the afternoon. 1 am working with a website de-signer at the moment, redesigning the Party Express site and a new site for Awesome Events. My role has really developed since I first started and I'm now involved with such things as marketing, and have just been on our stand for two days at the British Travel Trade Fair at the NEC in Birmingham. I am also setting up databases for both companies. It is very busy and hard work, but really challenging and rewarding.

3pm: Adjust the colours and put the finishing touches to a voucher wallet I am designing on my computer. This is to contain the tickets, maps, itineraries and everything else the client needs for the event that they have booked. I thought it would be a good idea to design special envelopes so the client has everything available; they are also more eye-catching.

4pm: Do the weekly invoicing to our tour operators and chase up any outstanding invoices, then check through the pile of things people have put on Denis's desk, taking away and dealing with things he does not need to see. Then I call him with any important messages.

6pm: Go to help out at a winetasting organised by Awesome Events for a financial company.

• Kate Menniss was talking to Amanda Loose.

Post's done. Time for a chocolate bar and sushi

We know that you hoard food in your office drawer, says Amy Anderson. But which snacks are the best?

هكذا من الأصل

Four top drawer at work is meant for diaries, pens and Tippex — but accord-ing to a study of UK office staff, it is more likely to contain the better part of a supermarket snack counter. The study of "top-drawer grazing" by Office Angels reveals that food hoarded ranges from choc-olate and crisps to yoghurt and ready-made meals.

Although an encouraging 42 per cent of those surveyed opted for fruit as their preferred snack, 57 per cent were more partial to chocolate or biscuits. One in ten admitted stockpiling snacks in case they felt peckish.

In the drinks department, one in ten of us stores herbal tea in our drawer, while 31 per cent prefer standard teabags. The most popu-lar drink to hoard, though, is coffee. When asked how many times they dipped into their snack supply, 75 per cent of those questioned said that they "grazed" once or twice a day, while many others admitted eating at their desks at least three times daily. Men are just as tempted to subsist on snacks as women, it seems, but less likely to share their food with others. And when office staff of either sex run out of snacks, they are likely to raid a colleague's supply. One in five staff in the survey confessed to filching food. So why do so many of us keep a snack drawer? Hunger is the obvious explanation, but other reasons that emerged from the survey were boredom, stress relief and using food to boost concentration. The last of these is debatable, however - research carried out at Middlesex University found that the smells of chocolate and spearmint distracted people from their work.

Rather distasteful was the revelation that more than one in ten of us stores food at work that is well past its sell-by date. Office drawers contain such delights as rotting bananas, unrefrigerated yoghurt, soft

A straw between chores: herbal tea is better than fizzy drinks rice-cakes, bars of mouldy chocolate and curling sandwiches. Odd eating habits? We have those, 100, Office Angels reveals. Chocolate and cheese-and-onion crisp sandwiches are just the start. Other staff admit dunking toast in their bot drinks, munching on blocks of marzipan, consuming

yoghurt with their fingers and wolf-ing three chocolate bars in rapid succession. Many people confessed to swallowing junk food at work that they would never eat at home.

Office "grazing" is clearly a deep-ly ingrained habit, with chocolate emerging as the single most popu-lar comfort food. But it can be expensive: 80 per cent of us spend between £1 and £5 a week on snacks, some more than £10. The nutritionist Kate Stringer suggests that for those in search of healthy snacking options, the best bets are carbohydrate foods (bread, cereals) that will help to keep your blood sugar levels constant; fresh fruit; unsalted nuts (in moderation); sunflower seeds (rich in zinc); orange juice (vitamin C); and, if you really must, a little dark organic chocolate (plenty of iron).

Needless to say, cigarettes, alco-hol and chocolate in excess are not good for your health. Much better are bean salads, tuna, chicken, cottage cheese and yoghurt, for instance, with herbal or fruit tea. And whether you snack healthily or not, take a stroil around the block before lunch.

But if that is healthy office grazing, the habit can lead to odd, or at least mildly antisocial, food choices. For PR executive Emily Morris,

22, the perfect snack is - fish socks. "I work in a room with just four other people and they are used to the smell of my fish sticks by now," she says, "but when a new person comes in, they put their hands over their nose. I know I could put them in the fridge, but having them in my drawer means that I can snack away all day without having to move from my chair."

ate Stringer says: There is nothing wrong with snacking on fish sticks they are much better for you than chocolate. But I am not sure that keeping them in a drawer is a good idea. Offices get very warm and by not refrigerating her snacks. Emily is putting herself at risk from food poisoning." Claire Coward, a 25-year-old marketing assistant, prefers to keep her drawer full of fruit, cereal bars, yoghurt and bottled water. "I have quite a stressful job," she says, "so I need foods that keep my energy up. The sugar rush that choco-late gives you is very short-lived and you end up craving more." Kate Stringer says: "Claire has the right outlook. And as she cannot do much exercise during the day, it also means that she is not exposing herself to weight gain."

MAINE-TUCKER

Graduates welcomed

A job with a Future

pkg £28,000 inc free gym & all meals!

A weekly guide to keyboard skills by Chris Ward

☐ YOU may already know that you can run various programs from the Start/Run command in Windows 95 — sysedit is a good one for modifying your basic system files such as autoexec.bat, config.sys and so on. It may also be easier to use this to install a program from a floppy disk — type a:\setup.exe or a:\install.exe or whatever. You can also use Start/Run to open documents, though — try it by just typing readme.txt and it will open your Windows 95 Read Me file. You can use it for other documents, too, although you might get fed up with typing long paths to those more obscure files.

☐ IT IS handy to be able to paste an Excel chart into PowerPoint sometimes — just right-click on it in Excel, leftclick on Copy and then Paste it into your PowerPoint presentation (Ctrl-V, right-click and choose Paste, or left-click on Edit/Paste). Once you have done this, you can have some fun with the chart by animating the various components using PowerPoint's Ungroup facility. Left-click on the chart to select It and then click on Draw/Ungroup. Press Ctrl-A to select all the components, then hold down the Shift key while you deselect all the components you do not want to animate with a left mouse click. When you have finished, let go of the Shift key and click on Draw/ Group. Now right-click on the chart and choose Custom Animation. Left-click on Timing/ Animate, select the components to animate, left-click the Effects tab and choose the tabs you want. Now you can right-click the chart and choose Custom Animation. Click the Timing tab and select Animate, Select the components to animate and then click the Effects tab. Select the animation effect you want for each component. To see how the effect looks, click Preview. When you have finished, click OK to close the dialogue box and save your work.

MULTI-LINGUAL OPPORTUNITIES

bl opportunities abroad caus Sum London Appointments now 9171 583 0180, Face 0171 583

nguma ORE: BH German Sec for smeath role in prestigious for panes co, Needs III communicate at top level and bandle a varied workload. Baparlemen + top sec skills see. Seary Del 90,000. DSA (egy) D171-734 4469

atmiting average and a signification of the state of the 521K - Advanced Power-olat skills essential for this varied team sec role. Boro London Ap-polatments. Tel 0171 583 0190. Roc 0171 583 3131.

PA to President - Finant Dutch - 125-30E - Amsterdam. A senior security is required to fulfil s densembling role attending close the security of the security s

DE LA CREME

PURE RECEPTION £19,000 pkg + profit share, gym, med

Glide through the doors of these luxurious offices of this world famous people company and revel in the vibrant buzz around you. Greet all their Clients with the assurance that comes only from working for the best, smile down the phone and have a laugh with your chic team mates when the pressure is on. Reception or Customer Service experience is a plus. In your 20s? - your fantastic social life starts here!

18-21 Jermyn Street, St James's, London SWIY 6HP Telephone: 0171 734 7341 Facsimile: 0171 734 3260

Personnel £25,000 + pens, med, gym, 5wks hols

Smart, shorp, presentable and wanting a career in HRV Personnel? This is a top name in their field with a very highly regarded reputation. You'd be working for a chaming, very experienced Personnel Director as his right-hand PA. It's far more administration than typing in this role and you'll need grout communication skills to deal with all levels of professionals within the firm. Based very close to Victoria you will benefit from a very Based very close to Victoria you will benefit from a very supportive team and any personnel/tile experience you've got will be an advantage. Lively, a good sport and a real people person' should be an accurate description of yourself - it is a corporate firm, however it's fun and definitely not stuffy! You will be senior yet down-to-earth and your enthusiasm to do more than secretarial duties will be very important - the scope is there to become very involved. Call us now to hour more about this very unique role. this very unique role.

18-21 Jermyn Street, St. James's, London SW1Y 6HP Felephone: | 0171 734 7341 | Facsimile: | 0171 734 3260

REAL POTENTIAL AS A RECRUITMENT CONSULTANT?

Competitive Salary Package

you are probably a Secretary in a 'people business' or an Administrator in Human Resources/Recruitment with some impressive experience already behind you but you know you want to get away from the support role and into something that you can personally develop. You want to be part of a growing company with an impressive brand name and track record, based just off Piceadilly. To achieve this you are prepared to work very hard and to conquer a steep learning curve. You are a person of great stamina and commitment, a lateral thinker and a born organiser. You'll need a business brain and be well educated (A Levels minimum) and you'll need confidence to deal with Clients at all levels. You have a polished image already and a strong personality with a good sense of humour! If you would like to consider this career role and consider yourself ambitious (in your mid 20s) call us in complete confidence to hear about this rare opportunity.

18-21 Jermyn Street, St James's, London SW1Y 6HP Felephone: 0171 734 7341 | Facsimile: 0171 734 3260

RECEPTION SELECTION 19K - Jaz. Receptionist/Admin-Luxury Property Co. 6 months exp. 40wpes. Good Distion/pres-entation. Tel: 0171 493 0313 Bec Coms.

CREME

DE LA CREME

The Stonne Street office of Strutt & Parker is of Strutt & Parker is looking for an enchantastic receptionist with strong secretarial skills, a knowledge of Microsoft Office, and happy to work in a itvely, team atmosphere in the heart of Knightsbridge. FASMON Commission Head Office of leading lart Designer Label needs stylish, well spokes, expe-rienced recopionist is an excep-riencally leay, up-front role - a sally faminatic opportunity with great headinal E16,000 -c18,000. NB World 40-yes. Au-denna Hoars 0171 589 6799.

Contact Veryan Pocock in writing with your fall CV at 66 Stoame Street, London SW1X 9SH.

RECEPTION

STRUTT & PARKER

Destined for an Executive Career?

pkg £28,000 inc free gym & all meals! This top firm, based in very smart, corporate offices in the heart of the West End will look after you like you only dreamed an employer would! Training, inductions, free food everyday, corapany benefits, opportunities to travel, a fantastic gym and a very good basic salary that will provide you with security and stability. The people here are professionals and the best at what they do so if you can show your abilities off to their best advantage, you too will be rewarded and encouraged all the way! You will need to have about 2 yrs secretarial experience (50 typing & good Microsoft Office knowledge) however it is your personal presence, strong character and bright confidence that is the key. It's social, lively and every day will bring a new challenge, so don't miss out as jobs fike these don't come along too often, call us now!

axtrements chie west and likeway goods co, weeks two succeptionals proposed for their glorious offices. Receptionals assume their glorious offices. Receptionals assume their glorious offices, Receptionals assume their glorious offices of their glorious control of their glorious

Tempting Opportunities £9.00-£10.50 per how

18-21 Jermyn Street, St. James's, London SWTY 6HP Telephone: 0171 734 7341 Facsimile: 0171 734 3260

Earn lots of money!!! Corporate Finance Team Secretary, ASAP – Nov. Word, Powerpoint, Excel and SSwpm typing. Previous banking exp. and a willingness to work long hours, O/T at 11/2. Presentation Secretaries. We urgently need experienced secretaries for short and long term assignments. Essential skills: Word, Excel and Powerpoint. 50 wpm typing.

Team Players. We have a number of opportunities for team secretaries. A fleedble attitude and a willing and helpful manner are the essential attributes, together with 50wpm typing and Word.

Please call Maria Allen, Julie Green or Maphia Rasool for an immediate appointment. Tel: 0171 670 3100 or Fax: 0171 670 0677 21-22 Warwick Street TAL)(SMAN London W1R 5RB e-mail: enquiries Maileannach.co.ch CILOOO test free + free accom-modelton & food. But comfident, well presented, clear specker with good admin & communica-tion skills in their 20%. We need 2, have you a friend? Ref 13056. Tel 0171 287 2044 Pax 287 3717 - mail:mugakies @mgrw1.ismen.co.uk MDDOLB-TON DEFERS REG LTD.

NON-SECRETARIAL

COSFUE Specialist villa bompany, Costa Villas (CV Traval) require competent cooks this summer for humany polyane pillas on the NL Cost. Cooking course preferred followed by min. 2 years practical experience, Russi anyophadiserament cooking. Hight, account, transport, good salaryi tap. Russilast opportunity to enhance cooking stills as well as enjoying a summer in the sen cooking for our diverse citeratals. Call Suspany at CV Traval on 0.171 591 2000.

PROPERTY ADMIN £18,000, May-fate, Manager of verticeatial flat Co needs a No 2 right hand per-son, good IT skills, clear speak-ing votes & excellent presenta-tion combined with midless common sense will squip you well to do this group job, her 10367. Call 017 127 2044 / Far. 287 3717 e-resil: compair-sequeire Ldemon.co.uk MID-DLEYON JEFFERS REC LIDA

EALES REF for Lanceier Decificate!
Proper Co at the cratting edge! &v. good + consumeration. Suff articlegood + consumeration. Suff articlecities and sufficient to their 20's with process sales record to market wouldn't products all over UK. Bed 13059. Call 0.71 207 2044/Fra: 227 2777 - cantiun-quitze@mirrl.Assess.co.pk MIDDLETON JEFFERS REC LTD.

PART-TIME VACANCIES

lose international company in the Frank Corner - has 1-5. The mast have noise experience the finglish mother tonges. Sel 2,000 (neg). Eing & Toban E cruitment 0171 629 9648.

CREME DE LA CREME

£27,000 + med + stl

Do you come from that fearless tribe of PAs that are nomerate and proud of it? Can you handle some accounts admin and work on your own initiative? If you think you have these skills and, more importantly, ENJOY some figurework (nothing too difficult however) and you have a good PA background then this role could be for you? This small, friendly, successful organisation just off Bond Street need a forward thinking, bright PA who wants a really measy job using their PA organisational ability together with their flart for figures - you'll be putting together financial info for board meetings etc. Your charteing boss (one of the Directors) will need a little bit of managing so your secretarial skills 60 wpm typing and good Microsoft Office knowledge will be important. If you are 20s to 40s and you would enjoy this independent and fulfilling job, call us now.

MAINE-TUCKER RECRUSEMENT CONSULTANTS 35yrs +

Setting the Style....

£25,000 + pens, med, sti

This super organisation who are involved in millennium projects, theatre restoration and all kinds of high profile events are looking for a very special, multi-skilled PA to work for the Senior Partner. This very charismatic individual would like you to be calm, mature, and very capable under pressure! Over 35yrs old, you should have a good PA background (architecture is an advantage) with 60upm typing. Their amazing offices in WI give an idea of how design and style are key to their business! This role is definitely more true PA co-ordinating functions and meetings at senior level. One descent and definitely more true PA · co-ordinating functions and meetings at senior level. Chic, elegant and a real figurehead with an ability to take on more · is this you? Call us now for more details.

18-21 Jermyn Street, St. James's, London SW1Y 6HP elephone: 0171 734 7341 Facsimile: 0171 734 326

Maternity Contract c£25,000 pro rata + free parking

Could you handle being at the forefront of a very senior Director's office as his ambassador and chief right-hand person? This major international organisation, based in Fleet, in looking for a very special person to work from April 99 for nine months In this top PA role. You'll need director level experience and be able to run his office when he's travelling including working with high level management and be an approachable and highly efficient organiser! The offices are very smart and comfortable and you too must have a professional. well-groomed appearance. If you're aged 25-45 yrs (graduates welcome) call us now to hear more.

SW1 No Shorthand Necessary! pkg £30,000 + sti + bonus

This massive American law firm is small in Europe but very well established. They're looking for a PA to join them in the office in SW working at senior level. It's an international environment and fairly fast-moving so you should thrive on a busy day! Legal secretarial experience is essential for this role (a year mimum) however there is not a huge amount of typing to do. The people here work very well together and most have been here for a very long time! If you enjoy responsibility and your typing is a fast, accurate 60wpm and you're mid 20s to 40s, call us for more information.

18-21 Jernyn Street, St. James's, London SWAY 611P Telephone: 0171 734 7341 | Lucsimile: 0171 734 /260 their travel to assisting with the launches of new products across different regions of the world. CORPORATE PR £25,000

£18,000

MULTI-LINGUAL

OPPORTUNITIES

The Head of Corporate Communications of this Global Holding Company is looking for a PA. You will be in charge of oraganising his diverse international trips and assisting with corporate events. Language skills are vital when dealing with press enquiries across Europe as is a relent for multi-tasking.

JOIN THE INTERNATIONAL ELITE...

As part of the Multilingual division of Angela Mortimer plc we specialise in recruiting for a unique portfolio of chems in the fashion and cosmencs world. We are currently ealing with opportunities within various hexary brands.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY

Join the fast-growing consumer division of this leading

Cosmences Company. As PA to three Product Managers

you will assist this dynamic Account Handling team

You will be involved in everything from arranging

FASHION ELITE

£27,000 The Chief Executive of this exclusive designer label is now looking for an Executive PA. You will manage the heene life of this American Entrepreneur who operates globally. Experience as a PA at senior level is paramount. Seize the opportunity to travel with a individual who is in constant worldwide demand. If you have sound secretarial skills, 50-wpm, Word, Excel and PowerPoint, please call Monies Gibbs, Diane Jones or Malin Person on 9171 287 7788 or fax us your CV on 9171 439 2820.

The multilingual division of Angela Moreimer

MEDICAL SECRETARIES

> PERMANENT PART-TIME MEDICAL SECRETARY

MEDICAL SECRETARY to work approximately 20 hours per week Monday to Friday mornings in busy Harley Street office. Orthopaedic and Medico-legal experience desirable, Word processing, dictaphone typing and PA skills required.

Salery to be negotiated.

For further information please contact:
Mrs O'Reilly on 0171 323 0040.

Please send CV to Mr Simon Moyes, at 86 Harley Street, London W1N 1AE or fax on 0171 323 0080.

CREME DE LA CREME

MAINE-TUCKER REMBILLMENT CONSULTANTS

Fearless about figures?.....

8-24 Jermyn Street, St James's, London SWTY 6HP elephone: | 0171 734 7341 | Facsim'te: | 0474 734 3260

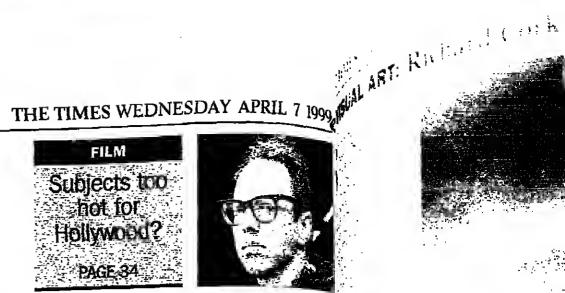

18-21 Jermyn Street, St. James's, London SW1Y 6HP Telephone: 0171/734 7341 Facsimile: 0171 734 3260

VISUAL ART An impressive new gallery for Scotland

THE TIMES

Subjects too hot for Hollywood?

A chance to be perfectly Candide

THEATRE:

Stephen Sondheim tells Michael Owen

why he is helping to restage Bernstein

Leonard Bernstein's musical Condide was on its pre-Broadway try-out in Boston in 1956. the show was in trouble. The creative team, including the director Sir Tyrone Guihrie and the playwright Lillian Helllooked impressive on paper but their contributions were refusing to gel. Bernstein sent for a young lyricist who was working with him on another project to offer his advice. It was Stephen Sondheim.

"I was 25, and supposed to tell people of the calibre of Guthrie and Hellman what they were doing wrong." he recalls, still awed at the presumptuous role he had been invited Bernstein was still drafting in new songs as the produc-tion approached its Broadway first night - and they sounded familiar to Sondheim. The composer had been working simultaneously on Candide and West Side Story, for which Sondheim had been hired to provide the lyrics. "Lennie was switching songs from one show to the other. They were flying all over the place."

One Hond, One Heart had been intended for Candide under the title of One but ended up in West Side Story: the melody of Officer Krupke was pinched from a Candide Get You in the End; and another song called Hoppy We went score had nothing to do with

A pocket full of rhyme: lyricist Stephen Sondheim (left) has had a long and sometimes tortuous relationship with the various attempts to stage Leonard Bernstein's (right) musical adaptation of Candide in the opposite direction, from West Side Story to Condide. But, despite all the activity. the show was not a success in New York and closed after just 73 performances. Sondheim the director, the book and the

EXCLUSIVE READER OFFER

oday, The Times offers readers a FREE online Feng Shui best use of your space to improve relationships, health, finances.

family and career. If you re-arrange your environment according to Feng Shui principles, fans of Feng Shui claim, your life is enhanced.

Times readers can also have interior design advice online for other

When you go online you will be asked to use a compass to check rooms in their home for £5.50 per room, half the usual price of £11.

The offer applies to a dining room, study or bathroom.

consultation to give a room in your home a new look. You will be given a complete Feng Shui report helping you to make the each other. Hellman had written it as a black comedy. Lennie's score was basically pastiche and Guthrie had directed it like a wedding cake." Sondheim now says he was in either show. "I was a young man and eager to get on with

An online Feng Shui

consultation — Fig. E

Increase life energy through design. Enhance your home or office my own music but Oscar Hammerstein said West Side Story was too good an opportunity to miss. He persuaded me. My suggestion for Condide was that Michael Flanshould write the lyrics. He would have been perfect. But

THE TIMES

he was wheelchair-bound and it became impossible."

Bernstein's show has since then enjoyed as picaresque a journey as Voltaire's eponymous hero and now, more is still active on the sidelines as the musical comes up for a radical reworking at the National Theatre under the director John Caird - "assisted by Trevor Nunn", as the credits have it.

It was Caird who secured the rights, persuaded the various estates involved to allow him to revise the show and sought new lyrics from the American songwriter Richard Wilbur, who worked on the original 1956 version, and one new set of lyrics from Sondheim. It was for a number called Life is Happiness Indeed sung by Maximilian, the brother of Candide's love. Cunegonde.

"I can't say it was fun." says Sondheim. "I didn't know all the nuances they were seeking and I had a lot of questions but I didn't want to get involved in endless phone discussions and couldn't get over there. But John Caird asked me to take a second look and I was happy to comply. My original version dwelt on the character's vanity but they wanted to bring out his aristocratic qualities. I could see the sense. After its Broadway failure, Condide managed a short West End run, in which the title role was taken by Denis

Quilley, who now plays the elderly Martin in the new revival. Bernstein continued working on the show: it played in various stock companies in America but had to wait until 1972 before it came back to wider public recognition.

That was when Hal Prince devised a ground-breaking production, first given in a studio at the Brooklyn Academy of Arts then transferring to Broadway as the hit of the season. The Voltaire original was submitted to a celebratory, anarchic performance style. there was a new book by Hugh Wheeler and Sondheim was again re-engaged. "That show was great, it was real fun. Hal asked me to do an opening number for Condide. He has rewritten the book himself, reordered many do an opening number for him. The first thing I suggested was that he get Lennie's permission to use any of the tunes that had been written for the show but not used before. I ended up writing the lyrics for three new songs.

ut Bernstein felt Prince's production. despite its public success, had drifted too far from his original intention. He increasingly felt it belonged in an opera house; he rescored it for operatic voices and it was staged by New York City Opera in 1982. Six years later Jonathan Miller directed it for Scottish Opera with a new libretto by the late John Wells. It also enjoyed a successful run at the Old Vic.

When Nunn and Caird embarked on their plan to create an ensemble company occupying the Olivier in a series of themed productions, they looked for a musical with something to say about contemporary life and chose Candide with the intention of restoring as much as possible of Voltaire's searching philoso-phy. Caird says: "Condide is a comedy with a serious moral theme about issues that are relevant today. We were looking for works that would make people ask what is the morality that helps you to live your capitalism at the end of the 20th century. Condide fits the

While Nunn concentrated on Troilus and Cressida, Caird picked up the reins on of the songs, switching some from one character to another, built up some minor characters and given the show a stronger through-line. He says: "This show has had a very chequered existence. I believe it has always been a series of wonderful numbers but without a lot of dramatic coherence. That's the area we are concentrating on."

Daniel Evans, who played Peter Pan, will be Candide: Simon Russell Beale is doubling as Pangloss and Voltaire him self, who has been brought in as narrator; Clive Rowe is Cacambo and Alex Kelly is Cunegonde.

On John Napier's multipurpose Olivier Theatre set, the production will not deploy lavish effects, and the new orchestrations, which do not require operatic calibre voices, will be played by an unseen 14-piece

Sondheim does not expect to see it until his visit in June as he is working on his own new musical, Wise Guys, which Sam Mendes will direct for a January opening on Broad-way. "It's a small show but." like Citizen Kane, it is a birthto-grave story following two legendary American brothers called Meisner who were born at the turn of the century." Candide opens at the National

GREAT BRITISH HOPES

Rising stars in the arts firmament RAYMOND PICKARD

Age: 16.

Profession: Actor.

Double whammy: Next week he adds two major credits to an already impressive CV. On Sunday night he plays the au-tistic son of ex-footballer Rob-son Green in Rhinoceros, a two-hour ITV drama. Three days later he makes his stage debut as Billy Casper, schoolboy hero of Kes, at the West Yorkshire Playhouse.

What's the TV role? "My character in Rhinoceros accidentally gets on the wrong train and ends up alone in the Welsh mountains. Robson's always one step behind in trying to Pure coincidence: "During filming. Robson and I were talking about great movies and he asked me if I'd seen the film of Kes. When I said no he promised to send it to me on video. Two days after the tape arrived my agent sent me the script for the stage version. What are the odds? Where did the road to Ker begin? "I grew up on Merseyside but went to Intake High School in Leeds because it had a good reputation for drama." A casting director visited the school in search of "a skinny kid with a Yorkshire accent" to play Linus Roache's streetwise little brother in the BBC wartime drama. Seaforth. When they picked me I was so excited I went round telling everybody at the school - even my worst enemies."

How did he end up on Auntie's Bloomers? "In Seaforth there was a scene with me and this dog sitting on top of some sand-bags. The dog's leash was around my wrist when somebody in the crew opened a packet of meat-flavoured crisps, the dog sniffed them and ran off, dragging me across the ground. They kept filming."

Where else has he appeared? In a US television version of The Canterville Ghost, and in the 1997 film of The Borrowers.

What effect has all this shooting had on his education? "I used to have a private tutor but I've now left school. I might go back to college to take A levels, but for the moment I just want to keep on working and put some money away so that I can eventually fund myself through drama school," life in a time of war, greed and Theatre on Tuesday (0171-452 3000) 28 performances only - Ends 6 May 'Antony Sher is at his compelling and intelligent best

'Gregory Doran's gripping production...joyous' evening Standard

Barbican Centre Box Office 0171 538 8891 service 4. . .

FREE ONLINE TOKEN 4

THE 線線路 TIMES

door and create the layout of your room. Describe what you can see out of each window and submit the room to an online Feng Shui expert for analysis. The analysis will highlight the negative and positive areas of your room and make recommendations for you to put your furniture and fittings in places where they will not suffer/create negative

the direction and position of the

HOW TO APPLY

Collect four of the seven tokens published in The Times this week. On each token there is a twoletter code. You need four, two-letter codes to access the free consultation on the Feng Shui website: www.onlinefengshui.com

When you have any four of the seven sets of two-latter codes, key them into your computer when asked and follow the instructions carefully. You will need a web browser Netscape 3 or above, Explorer 3 or above, or their equivalent. full instructions are on the site. If you have difficulty downloading, please check you are following the instructions. If you are at work, make sure there is no firewall. Try again or contact your 土金的木 www.online-fengshui.com

CHANGING TIMES

Terms and Conditions: Only one free room consultation per household. Consultations for other rooms are available at half price, just £5.50 per room, instructions for how to do this will be on the website. Offer closes at midnight Wednesday April 28, 1999

مكذا ما الاصل

VISUAL ART: Richard Cork on an installation that reinterprets Vertigo through its visceral music tumbling through the darkness of the Atlantis Gallery in East London, we suddenly discover that a precipitous drop separates us from the screen where Douglas Gordon's Feature Film is projected. Halted by a barrier, we stare down into the shadows and realise the aptness of the void below. For Gordon has de-cided to tackle Hitchcock's Vertigo in this, his first London exhibition since winning the Turner Prize three years ago. And the dizzying fear suffered by James Stewart, as he climbs a belltower in pursuit of the elusive Kim Novak, is echoed by the unease we feel on this lofty platform.

Our disorientation is increased by the images on the screen. Unlike his previous homage to Hitchcock, a 1993 tour de force called 24 Hour Psycho, Gordon's new film contains no visible trace of Vertigo itself. He concentrates instead on James Conion, the charismaoc chef d'orchestre of the Paris Opéra, conducting a per-formance of Bernard Herrmann's score for Vertigo. Gordon does not even offer a glimpse of the 100 musicians under Conion's control. The face, arms and hands of the conductor are all we see, and they prove mesmerising in their own right.

Conlon responds to the heightened emotions animating Herrmann's score with athletic sensitivity. The sounds seem to run through his body with the force of an electri-cal discharge, reaching a climax in the quicksilver motion of fingers alert to every musical nuance. Even when the orchestra lapses into silence, during the periods when Vertigo's manic story develops without Herrmann's aid. Conlon does not allow his involvement to lessen. Gordon's camera lingers on his face for a while, and the tears in the conductor's eyes show the depth of his engagement with the unfolding narra-

As a result, Gordon succeeds in presenting an audacious alternative to the experience normally offered by Vertigo. In a convencional cinematic presentation, Herrmann's contribution is always subservient to the overall impact of Hitchcock's directorial vision. Audiences may even remain unaware of its exceptional potency, and give Hitchcock unqualified credit for Vertigo's ability to sear the imagination. By slicing off Herrmann's work and holding it up for inspection. Gordon enables us to assess it with far greater clarity. And by showing how ardently Conlon responds to the score, the full extent of its capacity to ensuare us in Vertigo's nightmarish convolutions is revealed.

Anyone familiar with Gordon's previous work will appreciate how his fascination with Conton's movements relates to earlier concerns. Conlon's exclamatory manual gestures reminded me in particular of a based on a film showing a hand endlessly repeating the act of firing a gun. He called it Trigger-Finger. and the neurosis it exposed is far removed from Conlon's infinitely supple responses. All the same, Gordon uses hands in both these contrasted works to disclose a surprising amount about the emotional condi-

don of the men themselves. Nor does he stop there. As we gaze down at the screen enlivened by Conion's exertions, our eyes gradually notice another film flickering

Hand-eye co-ordination: James Conlon conducts the Paris Opéra orchestra in Bernard Herrmann's evocative score for Vertigo, from Douglas Gordon's Feature Film

Hitching a dizzy ride

at the far end of the vast Atlantis hall. A staircase half-hidden in the gloom enables us to descend. The distant film turns out to be Vertigo itself, far smaller in size and projected modestly on to a wall by equipment resting on the floor. The almost offhand presentation suggests that Gordon intends it as a footnote to the principal offering. But once I started watching Vertigo, it would not let me go. My eyes kept moving between the two rival images, eager to follow Hitchcock's narrative and yet determined to see how Conlon tire gallery with its doomed Mahlerian disquiet.

Gordon makes the experience still more complex by robbing Vertigo of its dialogue. The actors mouth soundlessly at each other, just as they did in the films Hitchcock would have seen during his youth. But there is scant reliance on the melodramatic acting that so often fuelled silent movies. The absence of dialogue made me aware of Hitchcock's restraint as a director - Stewart and, supremely, Novak are for the most part reined-in. Apart from scenes of high anxiety. like the dream sequence where Stewart is tortured by neurotic memory-flashes, the actors are notable for their stillness, their reluctance to rely on rhetorical flourishes of any kind.

In such a hushed context, where a substantial court scene reduces all its players to a notably undernonstrative level, the return of the music has an extraordinary impact. At one point, after a bout of soundless conversation, Stewart re-enters a room in distress. Herrmann's score amtor's anguish an intensity it would not otherwise have attained.

itchcock may well have found his composer too emotionally effusive: there is undoubtedly a between Herrmann's unabashed late Romandcism and the understatement dictating so much of Hitchcock's visual style. Against the odds, though, an unlikely chemistry is established between the two men's approaches. Without Herrmann, Hitchcock might well look stilted at times. And shorn of Hitchcock's rigour. Herrmann could easily sound embarrassingly lush. When they come together, the fusion goes a long way towards explaining why Vertigo exerts such a compulsive, lingering hold over us.

Ultimately, however, Gordon's installation sustains our attention through the interplay between Vertigo and the film he has made. The longer I looked at Conion conducting, the more I realised that he. seemed to inhabit a Hitchcockian strange resemblance sometimes between details of Conlon's frowning face and Anthony Perkins in Psycho. Although he is manifestly in charge of an orchestra, Conlon becomes one of the characters in the complex. multilayered drama played out here. When Stewart's haunted face caught in close-up, enmeshed within a spider's web at the height of the nightmare sequence, he looks utterly alone. Conlon likewise seems marooned in a nocturnal void during the moments when the camera

rests on his features for a while. He appears overcome by the same autumnal melancholy that afflicts Stewart in his futile search for the unattainable Novak. And Conlon's ability to identify so strongly with this sadness helps him to locate it in Herrmann's score, ensuring that the music is sometimes as overwhelmingly insistent as the Mahler soundtrack deployed by Viscomi throughout Death in Venice — an-pursuit of a destructive infamation. Gordon does not make it easy to ship between Hitchcock, Herrmann, Conlon and his own equally obsessive art. Only repeated viewings would disclose everything worth extracting from their interaction; and the absence of seating in this austere hall obliged me to end up squatting on the floor, swivelling from one screen to the next and back again in an attempt to absorb the array of competing images on offer. It is a strenuous experience, and yet the inordinate demands made by

Gordon end up tallying with the or-other film dominated by the doomed deal Stewart forces himself to undergo during the film.

All the disparate elements combine most arrestingly in the final minutes, when Stewart bullies Novak into ascending the tower one more time. The brutality of his struggle with her is surprising and then alarming. Herrinann's music responds to the challenge with hectic conviction, while Conlon attains a frenzy of gestures on the other screen. As Stewart goads Novak up the stairwell, the conductor's hands stab, claw, thrust and swoop white ares of agitation. Conlon drives his orchestra onwards with the single-minded vehemence Hitchcock unleashed on his actors as they stagger to the top. They are all caught up in the same demented trajectory. And nothing, not even the swift intervention of the nun who sounds the bell, can prevent the tragedy from ending in freefall. • Feature Film, an Artungel/Beck's com-mission, is at the Ailantis Gallery, 146 Brick Lane, London El (0171-336 6803) until May 3 - . .

he has always been an importantly nationalistic figure. The races, the boxing ring, dark

Irish storms and tall Dublin houses are the subjects of an expressionistic painter who loved colour above anything.

But this mixed and not particularly distinguished little show reveals a man who dispersed his energy into too many

Theo Waddington Fine Art.

25 Cork St. WI (0171-494 1584).

RACHEL CAMPBELL-

JOHNSTON

until April 30

Toasts and tears

he one day devot-ed to the arts and culture of Northern Ireland during the Barbican's Irish festival From The Heart came at a pregnant moment on Easter Day, amid the knowledge that the peace process was about to enter a solemn week.

Yet with Tommy Makem heading the bill. it was never going to be a sombre occasion. The 66-year-old veteran began performing with the Clancy Brothers in the late 1950s and his style has changed little since. His jocular presence and mixture of sentimental songs such as Wild Mountain Thyme and drinking ditties such as Nancy Whiskey make him the archetypal stage Irishman and his act has gone down a storm with Itrish-Americans for decades. Here his comic patter seemed badly off-key. Most of the rest of the programme hit a better

FESTIVAL

note. An afternoon concert by Voices for Peace, a children's choir drawn from both Catholic and Protestant communities. was full of hope, even if the choice of standards. such as Amazing Grace was unadventurous, Elsewhere a workshop explained the differences between the musical traditions of Ulster and the Republic and both Makem and Davy Hammond, who shared the main bill. offered a more song-based style far removed from the familiar Celtic laments and jigs and reels. When Hammond sang The Banks of the Bann and Makem of-fered As I Walked Out. er connection with the ballad tradition of Scottish folk music.

Yet the best moments came from Kentucky's Jean Richie, who joined them on stage. The foremost living exponent of Appalachian mountain music, her high, clear voice belied her 76 years and her repertoire illustrated how traditional Irish song has been preserved in remote American rural communities in an almost pure form. In her youth Richie learnt dozens of songs from ber family of Irish-Scottish descent and first travelled to Ireland in the early 1950s to trace their origins, during which time she met the young pleasing symmetry and she seemed to represent a frail but obdurate link with a dying tradition.

原表人 高端海

> NIGEL WILLIAMSON

A cultural prize for Dundee

Andrew Gibbon Williams visits

the new Dundee Contemporary Arts centre

undee Contemporary Arts (DCA) is set to do for Dundee what the new Guggenheim did for Bilbao. This £9 million cultural flagship is adventurous in concept and brave in design.

The building has been designed to facilitate a unique concept. Edinburgh-based Ri-chard Murphy Architects was faced with a potendally confusing brief: to design a building which would satisfy the demands of a tripartite client, ie. the new art-led company spearheading the development (DCA), Dundee City Council and Dundee University.

While the council desired another facility to complement the Dundee Repertory Theatre and the McManus Galleries. the university - more specifi-cally. Duncan of Jordanstone College of Art and Design which, since 1996, has formed part of it - demanded a stateof-the-art research facility, a kind of art laboratory. DCA itself wanted ample gallery space and accommodation for the back-up paraphernalia essential to any contemporary art venue.

A mere two years since the Scottish Arts Council National - Lottery Fund voted the lion's share of the finance, some £5.4 million, Murphy has managed to satisfy each party. There is a fabulously equipped print workshop, an artist-inresidence flat and studio space, a large café area with exterior terraces, and two smallscale, luxury cinemas.

The core of Murphy's scheme is a renovated former coal warehouse which rises up Hehind a cliff face from reclaimed land that forms Dundee's desolate waterfront. At the level where this reaches one of the city's principal arteries, the Nethergate, this has been extended by a new, smaller block set at an oblique angle to the old structure. At street level a severe, prow-like structure projects alongside a small piazza, the entire street frontage making a dramatic interjection between a late 18th-century Lord Provost's residence and an early 19th-century Ro-man Catholic cathedral.

Scottish success: Tony Cragg's boat becalmed in Dundee's new contemporary arts centre

Inside, the wit and ingenuity of the design are immediateapparent. An interior avenue, off which are located an activity area and information desks, leads directly into the vast top-lit exhibition space (something rather grander than the usual white box). while a parallel staircase descends to the restaurant, visual research centre, print workshop, cinemas, and artists' fa-

But Murphy's most impressive achievement is the way he has fulfilled his declared intention to integrate the individual elements of hisadesign. No one activity is hidden from another, so that from the central thoroughfare you are aware of the galleries; from the galleries, the café area; from the café area, set at the juncture of the two blocks, almost everything. The larger cinema must be the only one in the country which allows you to see out. A shinwindow offers views across the Tay before and after

That this means is that in contrast to so many comparable complexes, the creative work going on is no secret activity behind closed doors. Visitors popping in for a snack enjoy the feeling of being caught up in the artistic process, while artists and researchers should benefit from the feedback of public interest.

The inaugural exhibition, entitled Prime, includes virtually nothing which might be construed as dumbing down. A video of and accompanying detritus from a Joseph Beuys performance: a scattering of lifesize dead crows sculpted in bronze by Kiki Smith; an enormous wall-mounted, polished steel disc by Anish Kapoor, conceived as much in acoustic terms as in visual terms; and Tony Cragg's extraordinary dinker-constructed boat cov ered. porcupine-like, with hooks. Straight art is virtually confined to homegrown talent Callium innes's spare, latterday action painting.

The director, Andrew Nairne, admits to having included Warhol's screen-printed "Jackies" to cajole the public with a "name". But his personal taste makes it unlikely that popular artists are going to get much of a look-in. Next in line is the former Turner Prize candidate, lan Davenport, whose stridently coloured, poured paint on fibreboard works form his first oneman show in a public gallery. How far-reaching an impact this pioneering institution will have on Dundee depends on the continuing generosity of sponsors such as Atlantic Telecom, whose £100,000 supports an education programme for the next two years. ■ Dundee Contemporary Arts, 152 Nethergate, Dunder (01382 432290)

ple and sensual as a woman's. The curves of their bodies seem made for the caress. And Robert Mapplethorpe under-stands this. His lens typically roams the contours of the corporeal landscape. But now, marking the tenth anniversary of Mapplethorpe's death, this retrospective traces the attraction to sinuous line and texture which bred the artist's homocrotic sensibilities. Although some of his later, aggressively sexual works are displayed, the earlier photo-graphs reveal a subtler sensivity. The curl of an orchid echoes the clean-cut curves of a vase, collages flirt with veils and layers. But the desire to outrage which made Mapplethorpe one of the touchstones of censorship was always latent. Kitsch religious iconography, cold sadomaso-chism and flowers that unfuri like sex organs became his subjects at an early age. Hamiltons, 13 Carlos Place, WI (0171-499 9493), until May I

Georg Baselitz, the painting world's equivalent of the heavy-metal thrasher, is known by many for no other reason than that he hangs his paintings upside down. "It's the best way to liberate representation from context," he explains. But in his first London show for five years he aims to rouch an instinctive level of consciousness in a rather different way. There is no right way up in this series of seven paintings. Torsos are impetuously jumbled in what looks for all the world like some bil-lowing daisy-printed duvet. Baselitz plays with the trans-parency of pattern, of a whitened surface veiling brighter layers of paint below, to shed new light on his vision of a "painting behind the canvas". Where before he tried to reach this impossible image by hacking like a wood carver through layers of paint, he now opens up the surface of his works like a window. And the carelessly sketched figures suddeni seem more like the doodles which a child might draw with a finger in the mist of a pane. Anthony d'Offay Gallery, 24 Dering St. W1 (0171-499 4100) until April 24

Robert Mapplethorpe's Untitled (Gingham) of 1970

LONDON GALLERIES

AROUND THE

Harold's Always Saying Goodbye is the title of Julian

Schrabel's new show. What does it mean? How does it relate to the pictures? The gallery hasn't a ciue. Schnabel may not have either. But perhaps this bewilderment is the best point from which to start looking at the great self-publicist's four new paintings. Oils, resin and spray paint scrawl over large, ugly-framed canvases, as though each had been applied by a different hand. Greens are applied with whipped and knotted sheets of cloth. Reds are scribbled across them like meaningless graffiti. For a moment you imagine there are muscular studies or drawings of drapery in the imprinted patterns. You search for words in the writing strokes. But inspect the canvases more closely and they dissolve into a mess. Perhaps Shoabel is taunting the view er: if I, with my personality, do it then it's art. But if you did this, it would amount to nothing more than a scrawl. If so, then these paintings untease the boundaries between the personal and impersonality. Timothy Taylor, I Bruton Place, WI [0171-409 3344] until May I

☐ HISTORY left Jack Years overshadowed by his famous poet brother. But for the Irish

Tiesten to the Collecum New Production April 9 | 15 | 23 of Mephis 27 | 29 at 7.30pm You will enjoy yoursel April 17 at 6.30pm Sung in English njoyed every minub Tickets from $5-$55 English National Opera fuction supported by London Coliseum WC2 Box Office and Mr Gerand Amhold 0171 632 8300 Mephistopheles Boito

TOMORROW

The latest films reviewed

RECOMMENDED TODAY

Guide to arts and entertainment compiled by Marit Hargie

LONDON

ROBERTO ZUCCO: Jar Macdonald's acclaimed Stratford production of Bernard-Marie Koltes's masmerising drama. Zubin Varia plays ina killer nero. Pit (0171-838 8891), Opena tonight. 7pm. in repertaina

MATIONAL YOUTH ORCHESTRA OF GREAT BRITAIN: Tadaald Otaka conducts this impressive band of niang talent in a showcase concent featuring frince Russian composers: Rachmeninov, Liedov and Mussorgsky, Berbican (1171-638 8881). Tonight, 7, 30cm (6).

PHILHARMONIA: In this gate concert in sid of cancer research Vladimir Ashkenazy conducts the Philharmonia Orchestra in an evening of works by Berneten, Gershwin and Rimsky Kortaktov. With soloists, Plater Jablon-th, plane, and Christopher Warren-

Green, violini. Festival Haji (0171-860 4242).

BRIDGE QUARTET: These champions of English composers turned musical steads give the UK premiers of the third and and bourth movements of Defus's 1888 String Quartet, recently discovered on microfilm in the British above the avenue also features. Library. The evening also features quartets by Schubert and Frank Bridge Wigmore Half (0171-835 2141).

ELSEWHERE

GSTOKE: The acc plantst Peter Donohoe continues his ourney through Beethoven's Piano tas here with a performance of I. Patherque, contrasted with Op 14, and the lestive Op 22. Anvil (01256 844244). Torright.

A Delius rediscovery is played at the Wigmore

BIRMINGHAM: Salear Oramo and the City of Birteingham Symphony Orchestra and Chorus make another excunsion into the Firmish soul with a performance of Sibellus's massive chord symphony kullano followed by the brooding tone poem 7apola. The CBSO Chorus, singing in Firmish, are joined by solicits Life Passitiot, mezzo, and Heiski (Kipelainen, bertlone, Symphony Haff (C121-212 3333). Tongin, 7-30pm. (a) STRATPORD-UPON-AVON: First full adaptation, by Blyt Bandele, of Aphra Behn's 1688 novel Oroonoto, the history of a West African prince sold vito slavery. Gregory Doran directs. The Other Place (01789 296623).

© Previews from tonight, 7.30pm.

Michael Grandage directs. Donmar (0171-389 1732) [5]

CARD BOYS: Even the pests who stick sex cards in phone boxes have dreams of bottering therreeives, Mike Packer's spirited play tells us. Bush (0181-743 3388).

U 400 JOKES WITH THE DEVIL. This is Theetre Aldo's touring account Eisenstein's lite and career, from the Odessa Steps onwards, Lyric Studio, Wd (0181-741 8701).

THE COLONE. SIRD: Bufgerian author Hristo Boytchev's award-winning play about an asylum baken over by the function. Rupert Gould directs, Gate (0171-229 0706).

SACRED HEART: In Mick Mahoney's new play two second-generation trish tade trom NW3 meet again efter years estranged. Edward Hall directs Ambassadors (0171-565 5000).

NEW WEST END SHOWS

Jeremy Kingston's choice of theetre showing in London ■ House Iuli, returns only 🖾 Some seats available 🗆 Seats at oil prices

El MAMMA MIAI: Musical based on the songs of Abba: Stobhan McCartt and Lisa Stokke play mother and daughter on the eve of the grif's wedding. Phyllida Lloyd directs. Prince Edward (0171-447 5400).

☐ THE GIN GAME: Dorothy Tutin and Joss Ackland play old folk in a retirement home whose card-playing styles echo their sad lives, Frith Benbury directs a Pulicer Prizewmner, Savoy (0171-836 8989). ⑤

HAMLET: Paul Rhys plays the prince in Laurence Boswell's new production. With Donald Sumter as Claudius.
Young Vic (0171-928 6363).

©

CI THE PRISONER OF SECOND AVENUE: Fuchard Dreyluss and Mersha Mason make their British stage debuts in Neil Simon's play about big city angel. Royal, Haymarket (0171-830 8800). 🔊

■ GOOD C.P.Taylor's best play, tracing a liberal professor's gradual descent into working with the Necs. Charles Dance treads a strong cast.

☐ GROSS INDECENCY The Three Trials of Oscar Wilde: Michael Penningion plays Wilde in Moses Kaufman's play. Gleigud (0171-494 5085).

FILMS ON GENERAL RELEASE James Christopher's choice of the latest movies

NEW RELEASES

TEA WITH MUSSOLINI (PG): Flashes ol genius and dry humour illuminat Zetikeli's sentimental tribute to the culture-med English spinislent who talsed the director in Florance below Museolich jatied them, With Maggle Smith, Joan Plowright, and Judi Dench.

PLUNKETT & MACLEANE (15): Jake Scott's 18th-century swashbuckler is closer to Bulch Cassidy and the Sundance Nd them The Rake's With Robert Carlyle and Johnny Lee Miller.

BLAST FROM THE PAST (12): Ingenious comedy about 3 man (Brendan Fraser) released after 35 years in a nuclear bunker. His 1950s us make him look mystical, mad, and blindingly naive in the sleazy 1990s. Bill Kelly directs.

BEYOND SILENCE (12): Plucky BEYOND SILENCE: [13]: Plucky performances can't save this: a tortrous trawl through a German soap in which a young gri thes to get a file beyond her protoundly deaf parents. Caroline Link directs

THE NIGHT OF THE HUNTER (12):

AUGUST IN THE WATER (ICA): You could heng Sogo Ishti's surreal Japa-nese science fiction in the Tate. It's a cursed by drought and a mysterious epidemic that turns the guts to stone

CURRENT

GODS AND MONSTERS (15): len McKellen excels as a legendary horror movie director who grooms his gardener (Branden Fraser) for a role WERICAN HISTORY X (18). Edw

Nortan is feractauely competing as a white supremaces skinhead in Tony Kaye's lavish, controversial but

PAYBACK (18): Mel Gibson blasts his wey through Brisn Helgeland's chunky thiler. With Gregg Henry, William Devans, James Coburn and Kns

THE RUGRATS MOVIE (U): Pairle big cancon adventure in which tarting toddlers bond in a spooky torest. With enough for adults; an unavoidable necessity for three to eight year-olds.

ARTS

When murder is too foul

CINEMA: Hollywood

is getting the jitters about its moral responsibility in the portrayal of gruesome crimes, says Lesley O'Toole

he US Supreme Court gave Hollywood the shock of its life in March when it ruled in favour of Patsy-Ann Byers's negligence lawsuit against Oliver Stone and Time Warner Entertainment. Byers, a Louisiana woman, was shot and paralysed in 1995 during a holdup at the local store where she worked. Eighteen-year-old Sarah Edmondson and her boyfriend Benjamin Darrus told police they had taken drugs and embarked on a criminal spree after watching Stone's film, Natural Born Killers. Byers's lawyer, Joe Simpson, said in filing the suit: "Part of this is a crusade to clean up the movie industry."

It remains to be seen whether those with the power to approve films in Hollywood will become more cau-tious in the light of this unexpected decision, though the effects will not be reflected in the major American studios' output for some time.

For the moment, films inciting de bate, outrage and loud moral objections continue to proliferate, Disney will release a film by the director Spike Lee this year about a 1977 killing orgy in New York's Bronx district by David Berkowitz, nicknamed Son of Sam. That the studio which recently announced it would return to its original roots and concentrate on family fare should be releasing the film is noteworthy in Itself, though Summer of Som will be released under the company's Touchstone arm. ensuring that the name Walt Disney will not appear on its poster.

Joe Roth, the chairman of Walt Disney Studios, told The Los Angeles Times last week: "Summer of Sam is the work of a somewhat controversial artist, not an example of what the Walt Disney Company thinks is a family film.

A different, more far-reaching question was posed by The Los Angeles Times in its February review of 8mm. There are some films whose existence makes the world a worse place to live and this is one of them." wrote the newspaper's chief film critic. Kenneth Turan. His comments sparked a deluge of mail from readers who subsequently saw the film, both in support of the review and taking issue with it. A story analyst for a major film studio was the most effusive in her support for Turan's stance. "Unless more men and women like Turan have the courage to speak up and remind women - and men that they not only do not condone but are sickened by the continual treatment of women as exemplified by 8mm and all the 8mms before it, we will be forced to believe This Is The Way Men Are."

8mm stars Nicolas Cage as a private investigator who turns vigilante when asked to find out if a purported snuff film featuring the brutal murder of a teenage girl is real or fake. The piece of film itself is not especially graphic, the real horror, as the director Joel Schumacher asserts, is

"filled in by your mind". Cage, like Schumacher, does not see the film as a social statement on pornography. For me, it's a social statement about what happens lo your average American man who's had enough of hearing and seeing young people getting killed on the news. That's where I come from with it."

Schumacher says he is 'cynical and angry" about the American justice system "so I seem to be taking it into my own hands". But he laughs off any suggestion that his film might inspire copycat cases. "I think that people who want to commit atrocioes are just looking for an excuse. I think the people who murdered after Notural Born Killers would have found another movie. When I made Flatliners, about young medical students de-ciding to kill themselves to see what death was like, journalists asked me whether I was afraid college students would start trying the same thing. I would always say, 'No. I think they're smarter than you are."

Smm was far from a box-office disaster in America, nor could it be called a hit. But it won no awards. Happiness, on the other hand, Todd solonda's follow-up to the hugely acclaimed Welcome to the Dollhouse, earned a rapturous response at the Cannes Film Festival last year and won the International Critics' Prize. Yet the company which planned to release Hoppiness in America, October Films, was forced to renege on its deal last year when its parent company, Universal Pictures, cited a littleused legal loophole to avoid distribut-ing the film. Happiness was promptly picked up by the independent New York distributor, Good Machine, who released the film in America last autumn. Solondz is anxious that the correct story be told "because October Films had always been very supportive. Universal just didn't think this movie would be appropriate for the image of the company. It wasn't worth its while to endure all the controversy and flak that it expected from this little movie." Universal's escape hatch is the term "morally objectionable". Should the conglomerate find any film morally objectionable, it has the right to refuse to release it.

> In Hollywood the only morality is the bottom line. If a movie is profitable, then it's moral?

The source of controversy stemmed from one of many storylines in Hoppiness: that about a paedophile who, despite having a young son of his classmates. Nothing graphic is seen in the film and many reviews in America were extremely favourable. Solondz thinks Universal exercised its option for the very reason that the film stood no chance of generating the same kind of revenue as 3mm. which earned more than $35 million at the box office. "If Universal thought the film was going to earn £100 million, I think it probably would have characterised it as morally courageous," says Solondz. "But this being Hollywood, the only morality is the bottom line. That is to say, if a movie is profitable, then it's moral." He maintains that it was not the subject-matter itself which generated attention but the fact that his paedophile is portrayed with "a kind of com-passion and humanity. I think this is the greatest shock for people." Clearly, the director does not invite easy sympathy for the character -- "what he does is unequivocally unlorgivable" - but rather paints him as a man who is "not a monster but struggles with the monster within and succumbs to this demon. I don't need to underestimate the intelligence of my audience. They know rape is bad; that is implicit. But I'm not interested in judging or punishing these characters as much as I'm interested in exploring them." Both Solondz and Schumacher insist that nothing in either of their movies is any different from subject-mat-

DEXTER

GUEENS (917) 454 5040 (C1 big led) Groups (917) 454 5454(0870 240 1205 RUFUS SALLY

MACBETH

SEWELL

on television or in the tabloids. "There is a huge market for atrocity." says Schumacher. "Even your local bookstore is full of books with actual police photos of the most brutal murders. There's a film called Foces of Death which is in most video stores and shows human atrocity at its worst, it's always rented." Solondz, employing the same black humour which pervades his films. says there's "a certain hysteria" in America about the sexual molesia-tion of children. It seems now as if every third person on TV was abused as a child. Everyone seems to have gone through it. You almost feel like you missed out on something."

ut he is not joking in bemoaning the fact that even people who appear to revel in rather than be turned off by, his film are missing the point. At a film festival last year, he was an . proached by a young man who told Solondz he had loved his movie. Then he said, 'I've got this joke and I think you'll love it. He proceeded to tell me the ugliest, most crass joke im- 1. aginable and then laughed and ran off. It was so depressing because for this young gentleman, watching the movie was a kind of hip, cool experience. Clearly, he didn't get what I was getting at: otherwise he would never have told me that joke."

● Happiness is released in Britain on ter readily available for consumption April 16; 8mm on April 23

VICTORIA PALACE

Sex, Rugs & Rock' o Roll THE NEW

ROCKY HORROR SHOW

JASON DONOVAN

Whitehall 0171 389 1735/544 4444 Oxford Stage Company presents Beaser Bros in MAKING NOISE

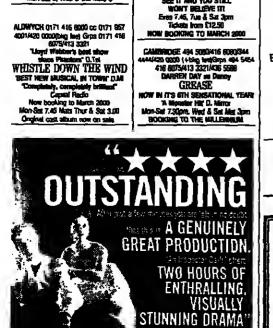

OUIETLY

Opens 14 April, 6 weeks only

WHONEN
1996 TONY AWARD BEST PLAT
1996 TONYER ANAPO BEST COMED
1996 STANDARD AWARD

"ART"

OPERA & BALLET COLISEUM 0171 632 8300 (24hr) THEATRES ADELPHI CC 24ms (C1 blug be) 0171 344 (005 Grps 413 3321/0806 614 903 TALL POR A TICKET M.S. CHICAGO STILL THE HOTTEST SHOW IN TOWN and Mon-Sat 8, Wed & Sat Mass 3 LDWYCK 0171 416 8000 cc 0171 957 4001420 00000big hee Grps 0171 416 6075/413 3321 Livyd Webbur's best show shoes Planstone '0.74 WHISTLE DOWN THE WIND Original cost album now on sale

AN INSPECTOR CALLS . GARRICK THEATRE

by Tennesse Williams With Shelle Gish and Rachel Wesz Dwarand by Seen Mathets From Tomorrow, 14 weeks only Mon-Set Apric Wed & Sat Mate 4pm by Rub Broker Sprowlously Servey D Tol RESOLUTELY BRALLANT John Gray (Men are from Mars...) Mon-Trus 8, Fri 8.45, Set 6 & 8.45 APOLLO VICTORIA CC 0171 416 5 cr24vs 0171 344 44440171 0000 Gyps 416 6075413 3221 Andrew Lloyd Webbur's STARLIGHT EXPRESS SEE IT AND YOU STALL

Mais Wed & Sat 230 GOOD by CP Tasks

Entertainments To advertise in this section please call the Entertainments Telephone 0171 680 6222

0171 782 7930

COMEDY 8171 389 1731

SUDDENLY LAST SUMMER

Criterion 386 1737/344 4444 Hilarious 46 Great Year

THE REDUCED

AARDSPEARCE COMPAS OF THE COMPACTE WORKS OF WILLIAM SHARESFARE (Stringerd) Mass Thur at 3pm, Sar at 5pm Sur at 4pm, Even at 8pm Laugh, I nearly ded' Times GO NOW S. Times Tenetias ords at 8pm

Tuesdays only at 8pm THE COMMLETE HISTORY OF AMERICA (abndged) Booking 'Ni September '39

DRIVEY LANE THEATRE ROYAL SS cc (blug tee) 24'v 7 days 0171 494 5000/344 4444/420 0000 Gros 494 MISS SAIGON THE CLASSIC LOVE STORY OF OUR TRIEF

NOW IN ITS 197H

NOW IN ITS 197H

See 7 45 Mars Wed & Sat 3pm

Sood seets swell for Wed Met.

& some parts - apply 8.0.

SHAKESPEARE COMPANY DUCKESS 0171 494 5075 00 017 DUCKESS GITT 494 SUSS CE CITT
AND COOL (Signe) Gree CITT 494 SAN DAYED SANA MATTHEW BLINKE RESTELMAN MARSH
IN MICHAEL FRANTS
MULTI AWARD WIRBING PLAY
COPENTILACEN Or by MICHAEL BLAKENORE Mesterly performances in a mesterwork* 7 mass FORTUNE BO & CC 0171 836

DOMINION (1)1 856 1866 344 4444, Groups (12+) 0171 416 6086/413 3321 HOW IN ITS 10th HIT YEAR METTLETON BEAUTY AND THE BEAST THE WOMAN IN BLACK The smash hit musical A GREAT NIGHT OUT BES. STEAL, BOPROW Adapted by Saghan Hallarrat The most swiling and chilling play for years' D.Mail Mon-Sat 8.00. Mais Tue 3.00 & Sat 4.00 OR, BETTER STALL, JUST BUT A TICKETT APPRICK 0171 464 5005:344 444

(big lee) Gas 0171 494 5454413 332 XN EPIC FOR OUR EPOCH ESH The Royal National Theatre Production WILLIAM PHILIP MARJORE GAUNT WHITCHURCH YATES AN INSPECTOR CALLS THE OF THE MOST INTOXICATING THEATRICALLY BLACEMATIVE PERSENCES OF THE 1990'S ESM UNRESSABLE Time Out Mon-Fn 7.46, Set 5 & 8.15

GIELGUO 0171 494 5055 (+big lee) ENSATIONAL EXTRAVAGANZA'E, Sid STRONGLY RECOMMENDED Ind GROSS INDECENCY THURCELING I
Thus Thins of Ocean Wilds
by Micris Knuimen
A DRAWATICALLY CHURCED AND DEPLY MOVING EXPERIENCE D.Tel
Mon-So 7.45 mais Wed, Se 2.30

45 (8) 24 (9) 275 (8) An (0117)

HAYMARKET, THEATRE ROYAL OTTI 930 8800 CC 344 444 (DAT hell RICHARD MARSHA DREYFUSS MASON NEIL SIMON'S THE PRISONER OF SECOND AVENUE Mon-Sat 7.45, Wed & Sat Mets 300

HER MAJESTYS 201 494 5400 blog (et)ac344 4444420 0000/ber) Grpt 494 5454413 3311/436 5286 AMDREW LLOYD WEBSERS MINARE WHOMIG MUSICAL THE PHANTOM OF THE OPERA

Directed by HAPOLD PRINCE NOW BIGS TO JUNE 2009
Ents 7.45 Mass Wed 8 Sel 1.00
Apply to Box Office deely for neurons and Wed Mai aveilability

LONDON APOLLO Hammersme PHILLIP SCHOFFELD PRILE SCHOPELD THIS IS A SUPERFE HT IN PURE PLEASURE Daily Mail Book, mark & lyncs by Lasie Broose Denated by Seven Prince
Tue-Sat 7.20, Mark Wad, Sat 2.30
SEASON ENDS 28 AUG 18

LONGON PALLADIUM 0171 494
5000344 4444 (SAG 144) GIPU 0171 494
5454113 3021
SATURDAY NIGHT FEVER
TA SEMSATIONAL MIGHT OUT DARTEY HOT STUFF ANY MIGHT OF THE WEEK TIRREL TEVER IS STILL REFECTIOUS D.T.(Mon-Set 7.30 Wed & Set Met: 2.30 NOW BOOKING TO OCT 1998 SOME SEATS AVAIL FOR WEDS MAY

SCARE SEATS AWAIL FOR WEISS MAY LYCEUM BO+CCZ-PURSISETS SOS 3440
OTIVINE SOSP344 4444428 0000
THE SEASON'S SERSATION
TO Bright Relations Thereby Production
Rodging & Hearmer Stein's OKLAHOMA!
Where of & Larrescy Chilir Awards into Constraining Medical Production Boot Mented - Eve Standard Award
OH WHAT A SEAUTHEL EVERNE'
DAMAI, Guerd, Times, Ind., stc.
Even 7.50 Mars Weid & Set 230
103 Manufoy medic 9 13 Intel 100 standay acts 89 to held 100 fee day Mon-Ther at 80 11 WESTS ONLY TO 28 MINE

مكذا سالاصل

LYCELAX 0870 243 8000 fishig last Groups 0171 416 6083 THE LION KING Performences begin 24 Sep

ANIMAL CRACKERS Maca Beothers' Musical Corredy DELIFERUSET FURSIT' D.Mas* Mon-Sat 7.45, Main Wed & Set 1.00 Easter Special Children half price

NATIONAL THEATRE BO 0171 ASS 3000 Gps 0171 452 3010 24tr cc bkg lee 0171 452 0000 OLIVER Ton), Tomor 7.15 (PREYEWS) CANDIDE LYTTELTON Today 2.15 & T.30 (FINAL PERFS) BETRAYAL by Harold Pirasr, Tomor 7.30 THE

Harold Prinsr. Tomor J.Sv Irre POREST a curredy by Alexander Ostrovsky in a new version by Alex Ayddourn. COTTESLOE Today 2.30 & 7.30, Tomor 7.30 THE PROT a new play NEW LIDNERON Druy Lane WCZ 80 6171 465 0372 oc 2415

344 444 Gar 45 155/473 3311
THE ANDREW LLDOW WEBSEN
T.S. SLUTI INTERNATIONAL AWARD
WHITE MASSCAL
CATS Eves 7.45 Made Time & Sal 3.00 Burs open at E.S Good seats and its Tous Mat

OLD VIC 0171 494 5372 (C) be DAVID SUCHET Unit 17th April AMADEUS BY PETER SCHAPTER MICHOLAS LE PREMOST as Salari Front 19th April Highly Theorical & superbly described by PETER HALL Sch

EVERYORE MUST GO NO!

27 37 37 30 - 150 (2) 1 re riode of the re-

PALACE THEATRE 0171 434 0909 c 24/yrs fisks feet 0171 344 6444 (bird Heef grow 0171 413 5311 THE WORLD'S MOST POPULAR LES MISERABLES NOW IN ITS 14TH RECORD BREAKING YEAR Even 7.30 Mets Thu & Set 2.30 9000 SEATS AVAILABLE

Listed rios of seals well daily from E.O. for one performance Latecomers not admitted unit the paymen ROYAL SHAKESPEARE COMPANY STRATFORD 01789 295623/ 0541 541051 RST: From Fri OTHELLO Swam From Fri TALES FROM OVID TOP: OROONOKO Ton! 7.30 LONDON 0171 538 8881 7HDEREX BOXCC 0171 369 1735 BEST MUSICAL OlivierOrams Awards
Plays & Playsro/Inor Novello Awards BLOOD BROTHERS

"Blood BROTHERS

"Brings the sudience to its feet and routing its approve" D Mail
Exes 7.45 Mats Thurs 3pm Sal 4pm

PICCADILLY 0171 389 1734/544 4444
PRIMELLA SCALES TRICOTO WEST
STEVEN PACEY MEGA. TENNY
THE BIKTHOAY PARTY Mon-Sat Spm, Thur Spm, Set Spm

PICCADELY 0171 368 1734 SHAMA FRAL WEED SLAVA'S SNOWSHOW The World's Greatest Closen Most-Set 7.30, Mats Thurs & Set 2.30

PRINCE OF WALES 0171 836 9907 0171 425 0352 03 20% 544 4444 "A MASTERPECE OF MUSICAL THEATRE! FROM START TO FRISH WEST SIDE STORY IS A BRELLIANT BUSICALTUMAN Even 7.45, Met Thure & Sac 3.00 NOW BOOKING UNTIL SEPT 4TH PRINCE EDWARD 0171 447 5400 0870 8401111/0171 344 4444

Berry Anderson & Bjorn Unesus MANNA MTA!

on the sangs of ASBA

UNFORGETABLE, EXPLOSIVE SENSATIONAL, SUPERBY COMP MAIL MOT-SIX 7.30, Mary Wed, Set 3.00 MOW BOOKING TO 2000 ST MARTING 0171 636 1463 Ever & The 249, Sat 5 & 6 AGATHA CHRISITE'S THE MOUSETRAP

RENT

ACKLAND

10th TRRIMPHANT YEAR Over 3,500 Performances Now booking Till She year 2000 VAUDEVILLE 0171 BIG 050 0171 344 4444)+bkg fee ALISON STEADNAN STELLA GONET THE MEMORY OF WATER Barbican: THE LION THE WITCH AND THE WARDROBE Tont 7.15 Pic ROBERTO ZUCCO Tont 7.00 By Shelegh Shiphenson Directed by Terry Johnson PROP-DEAD FURBIT' Exper Mon-Sal Spm Mats Thu & Sal 3pm ROYAL COURT Duke of York's 0171 565 5000 co24fm 420 0005 Beel New Play Other Awards 1989 THE WEIR by Control for Presson, MorSat 730 Wed & Sat Not 3.30 Upstains (Ambassations, West Sty SACRED HEART by Mick Mahanay Tune-Set 7.00. Sat Not 4.00

BUDDY

The Buddy Holly Story BRELLANT Sun

BUDD9

WONDESPLE STUFF Sun Tel Ture-Thurs 8.0 Fri 5.30 & 8.30 Set 5 & 8.30

Sundays 4,00pm. Kids 1/2 pncs ALL SEATS 1/2 PRICE FRI 5,30 PERF

DOROTHY EVENT. TUTIN THE GIN CAME 'A STURBING PIECE OF THEATRE BORROT Globe Mon-Sai 7.45 Mass Thur & Sai 3.00 Call SHAFTESBURY (1700) 21 12 21 0570 $40 1111(017) 344 4444 (blg las) TO CELEBRATE Time Out for Bookings & Future Events 01223 506560

A rear play by Yearnine Reza. Trans by Christopher Hampton Sturmingly brillient and turny Trace Eves 8, Mais Wed 3, Sat & Sun 5 Michael Jackson Concert for Linda (George Michael, Elvis Costel Pretenders & Many more) Bruce Springsteen & The E Street Band CORRS Depte 17th 3df REM. Celine Dion

The Beautiful South BOYZONE Prince Naseem v Paul Ingle Wales v England Wembley 11th April - hospitality pass?

The smart money is moving into historic Bermondsey, once home to the Bard's creations. Jamie Ross reports

Shoppers browse for bargains at Bermondsey market, above, off Tower Bridge Road. Right, Butler's Wharf is home to Sir Terence Conran's Pont de la Tour, Cantina and ChopHouse restaurants

In love with Shakespeare's London

he property developers' flags are flying high in Ber-mondsey. Bucking the general trend that cities tend to move west, upwind of grime and pollution. London is moving east. With inner-city industry all but gone, speculators are filling the gaps.

On the quiet, Bermondsey has become distinctly fashionable, a natural progression in the renaissance taking place along the south bank of the Thames

The list of reasons to visit is growing: the Tate Gallery at Bankside. Sir Norman Foster's new mayoral palace, the Bermondsey antiques market, the Design Museum, Zandra Rhodes's Fashion Museum, Conran's eateries at Butler's Wharf. the Globe Theatre, Southwark Cathedral and old-world Borough market. Soon there will be hetter transport - the Jubilee Line extension. And now people want to live Historically. Bermondsey has long been a place of interest with a strong community spirit. The area - now part of Southwark - is defined geographically: to the north by the Thames, to the west by London Bridge and Borough High Street, to the east by Rotherhithe and to the south by the Old Kent Road. Tower Bridge Road takes you from the City straight to its heart.

The district's history goes back to murky Saxon origins, beginning with a Lord Boermund (the 'ey' added to describe the marsh it was at

Until the 16th century, it had an abbey second only to Westminster in importance. Sam-uel Pepys frequentdens with his children in the 17th century. But Victorian London's industriat growth and urban decline produced a less attractive Ber-

By 1850, appalfing housing and open sewers earned meet his end in Charles Dickens's Oliver Twist.

ted with bits of history. The heart of old Bermondsey village, Bermondsey Street, has 17th-century houses and conservation area, Bermondsey the descriptions "the Venice of drains" and "the capital of cholera": a fitting place for Bill Sykes to The area is don-now happily undergoing a facelift. Until 1970, Bermondsey's warehouses, which lined the riverfront from London Bridge to Rotherhithe, were the city's central depot for goods from around the world. It was its Thameside community of warehousemen, wharf owners and shippers who earned Bermondsey the palatable description of the "larder" of London. Large-draught ships would arrive at Surrey Docks before smaller lighters brought the cargo further Thames, with names redolent of their past such as Saffron Wharf upriver for storage at Bermondsey. This all ended with containerisation, although until recently teascented streets near Tower Bridge reminded passers-by that some warehouses were still active. But bargain-hunters looking for a warehouse conversion bave missed the boat. Since the mid-Eighties the disused, warehouses around Shad and Java Wharf, have been transformed from pigeon-infested black holes into halogen-lit acres of wood flooring and boilerplate chic. Twobedroom apartments sell for at least £400,000, with river frontage adding an automatic £100,000 to the price. A few unconverted warehouses remain, but all are accounted for. According to Roger Smith, of the Bermondsey estate agents Michael Kalmar, it is not just the predictable City and media types who are enjoy-ing the Bermondsey warehouse life. There is a significan number of older and perhaps richer purchasers interested in the area." he says. One such couple, who have bought a flat in Jacob's 1sland on the river. are a retired radiologist, Dr Nicholas Godlee, and his wife Barbara. They divide their time between Sussex and Bermondsey. "We love being near the river and Bermond-sey is really very central," says Mrs Godlee. "But development is absolutely rampant around here now and we are afraid of losing our view of the Thames and Tower

Mr Smith says security can be an issue for some purchasers, but many riverside developments offer enough security to quell such con-

The popularity of Bermondsey has now spread from the riverside deeper into the old borough, and the property price gradient is steep. A two-bedroom flat of about 700sq fi in a "new build" will cost you about £175,000. You can still find Victorian terrace cottages — those that escaped the intense wartime bombing of the area — going for £200,000.

David Campbell, a management consultant, and his fiancee have recently moved into one. He says: There is a strong sense of history in Bermondsey, It is real old London. Our 60-year-old neighbour was born in his front parlour."

The scale of building is impres-sive. Around every corner there are new constructions or old industrial buildings being transformed into apartment blocks or "shells" popular with design-inspired buyers.

hells are a City-fringe phe-nomenon for the wellheeled. Essendally, they are newly created empty spaces: bare walls and floors, with utility points, which the purchaser fits out with partition walls, heating systems and as much as he or she wants or can afford at the time.

The rule of thumb for shells is to add on a minimum of £30,000 to the purchase price before you can move in. A shell in a warehouse in inner Bermondsey goes for between £150,000 and £250,000.

According to Mr Smith, prices of residential property have risen by 50 per cent in the past four years. It still a rising market with purchasers flocking to new developments. Once the Jubilee Line to Greenwich is finished and the Millennium Dome pilgrims start flowing through, Bermondsey will be back on the map.

Buyers go for design

tF IT is not furnished and decorated to within an inch of its life, then forget it. Amanda Loose writes. Buyers of new developments at the top end of the housing market are increasingly interested only in properties that have been interior-

The show flat at the Bromptons, the redevelopment of the Royal Brompton Hospital in southwest London by Northacre, has sold for £1,000 per sq ft, almost double the going rate.

Increasingly, developers are having to recruit interior designers, says Linda Beaney at Beaney Pearce, as growing num-bers of buyers of luxury developments demand show homes.

She says: "If you have the chance to show a buyer a shell or a show home, nine out of ten will opt for the show home." Chesham Place, a development of 23 flats and houses on the Chesham Place Estate in Belgravia, is a case in point. Those properties that were marketed as shells sold more slowly. savs Brendan Roberts at Aylesford. Peter Wetherell, of Wetherell in Mayfair, says: "We are selling a lifestyle as opposed to real estate. No matter what you do, they tend to buy with one chequebook and will use another to rip it all out again." Wetherell is currently selling 15 Culross Street in Mayfair, Its refurbishment has been overseen by Michael Reeves, who won the 1998 International Interior Designer of the Year award on the back of this work. The asking price is £2.95 million for a 99-year lease.

Aylesford is selling flat four at 37 Chesham Place for £4.75 million from January 1995.

Changing rooms and styles that changed our lives

Danny Lee looks back at 90 years of the Ideal Home Show and at how tradition has triumphed over sci-fi properties

f you look at your home on the past may present itself. From the ceiling rose through to the central heating system, a trail of design innovations stretches back to when the property was built.

Architects have spent most of this century making bold predictions for the fate of the home in the year 2000, including glass properties, moveable houses and underground homes. But as we head towards the millennium, how many of these forecasts will be realised?

The Ideal Home Show gives visitors the chance to see some of the current ideas on the abode of the future. A centrepiece exhibit is the award-winning

Pierre

D'Avoine Architect's Slim House. Designed to save space, it features a single-storey terrace with communal courtvards and roof gardens. It is a far cry from the mock Tudor village shown at one of the first exhibitions in 1910, which made great play of the space available in the houses. Nothing about them was Tudor, of course, but the style of the properties was nevertheless backward-look-

The future is unpredictable," says Alan Powers, an architecture historian. "People are naturally conservative and the part of the housing stock that changes is only a tiny rim on a large staoc

. Some designers take a more strident view. Traditional standard houses are boxes where people are supposed to live," says Jan Kaplicky, of the design group Future Systems, which designed the Teletubbies' underground house in the Pembrokeshire hills. "They offer nothing in green or spacial

 Although the much prophesied domestic robot of the Fifties and Sixties has so far managed to evade the mass market, trade in labour-saving devices, such as microwaves and dishwashers, is now worth billions. The 1928 prophecy of one architect. Robert Duncan.

1970 show: a flashback to taking a bath by the fireside, before the modern bathroom that could be opened to the

In the United States in 1940, extravagant optimism was also the order of the day.

The Futurama, a 36,000sq ft scale model of America in 1960, showed futuristic homes and an advanced

In the true sci-fi style of the decade, the Fifties brought with them the Round House.

a house shaped like a ball, with plastic furniture that

So, is it just public conservatism that has strangled so many of these ideas at birth?

rose from the floor.

100mph highway system.

1959: Round House on its way to the show via the Thames was that the house of the future would be made from "material never before employed - a thin impervious substance carried by hidden supports of stainless steel".

Windows would open by "rising and falling" like those in a car. A ventilator over each bed would punip out ozonised air and there would be a bathing pool on the aerocar garage roof. And if more space was needed for entertaining, shutter-walls could be removed and pneumanc chairs deflated. The 1930 Ideal Home Show played host to The Nursery of 1960 which featured a ceiling oil crisis, the Vietnam War and environmental scares at the end of the Sixties, meant that designers in the Seventies and Eighties tended to err on the side of caution. As well as the Slim House at this year's show, other designs struggling to become the shape of the future indude: □ A solar-powered pyramid house unveiled by BP at the beginning of the year. □ Underground homes made from prefabricated modules, which allow light to enter through a sunken courtyard in the middle.

☐ A healthy diagnostic house with kitchen anti-frying alarms and lavatory sensors that detect bowel prob-

☐ On a more visionary scale. the designer Steve Johnson has created a prefabricated, quick-assembly house for Scotland's Millennium Forest. It is built among the leaves and branches, high above the ground.

How many householders of the future will look at the traces of today's design ideas in their homes and smile? • The Ideal Home Show is at Partly, but factors such as the · Earls Court until Sunday.

SOUTH OF THE

COUNTY HALL - CHI, Sales Office Say no more - Just call Charle 0171 633 0436

PRIMATOSE HELL ITWI: garden flat i bod, inrge s/room + f/place, she facing garden with summer householdine. E198k. Call 0171 422 2026

NORTH OF THE

BELGRAVIA

BLACKHEATH

MARKEE ANCH. WI. 3 bd. furnished fit on the 1st fit, double reception on measuring 25'x 15'4. Offering 26'ya L/R. with an option to extend to a

CITY & WEST END

THAMES FACING 1 bedset aps.

17ft belcomy, views Gryenwich, pvt communal gendens, own car putching, secure h private,
£150,000. Tel; 07931 770205. HIGHBURY/

CITY, DOCKLANDS

LONDON LETTING

DANIEL WATNEY Residential Letting

171 253 4414 (decisionates) Odernos EQ LIVING City. Clerkerwell and Islington Left enchouses and live/work space available to let

FELCITY LLORD Sales & lettings, morrgage kers, property management, Clerkeow Shoredisch, City, Sphalleids. 0171 251 9449 fax 9171 251 3917

PRANK HARRIS & CO. Sales and fettings spo sss in the Barbican, City and Clerketwell area. Oxy 0171 283 2111. Tower Bridge 0171 407 1172. Hamptons International Sales: Tower Bri

PHILLIPS RESIDENTIAL Specialising in sales leadings of flats, house & lofes in City and Dodd areas, 9171 363 9666

STERLING ACKROYD, Sales & Lessings, tolts, igs, Houses, Devs. Dertonwell, Oby. 0171 251 0770, horofitch Spitaliteids 0171 729 7763

STOCK PAGE STOCK Sales, Lettings, manage-racut & investments, Barbican, Clerkenwell, Chy N1 & SW1. 0171 251 4171

CENTRAL LONDON ings & management, selling or acquiring flats & uses 0171 235 6418

ALEXANDERS Letting, Sales and property and agenters. St. Johns Wood. Regards Park, Marylebone, Maids Vole & Westminster 8171 462 9846

MINISTRACE PROPERTY DAVISTACIONS Search agents specialising in finding high yielding Investments in Central London 8171 917 9832 n Kraelesbridge, Chebes, Kensington

AYLESPORD Place - sales & festives. Orelsen Office: 0171 351 2383 Kensington Office: 0171 727 4463

BANKLIKY & BALL Residential sales & lettings Bloomstury, Covers Garden & Fitzrovia, Tal 8171 833 4466 Fase 0171 833 4488 BEAUCHAMP ESTATES Residential sales and dags in prione control London 0171 499 7722

BEST GAPP - Belgrams Specialist. Charleted sur veyors, valuers, residential sales & lettings. Telephone 0771 730 9251 ENSONS PLC Property Lake and lettings in

Telephone 0171 222 7626 Fax 0171 222 1632 BOLD LE INT 25ers in let, management, relaction, Central/W/SW. French, Dutch, Greek, Afrikaans spoken, 8171 221 5429

Parliament, Letture Complex, Pkg, long/short term. Fr £250pw. 6171 620 1460 CHEATHE WHETE HOUSE Opp Royal Festiva Hall. Fully furn ages or Waterloo. Pkg. Fr £300pw. 0171 928 7007 CHL-CENTRAL Do not rent a flat in Central

London before speaking to CHL Central. 0171 620 1680 CHIL-RESIDENTIAL Do not buy a flat in Central London before speaking to CHL Resider 8171 633 8435

COLLIBRS INTERNATIONAL Specialists in le tings of new developments in priore costral Lon locations, City, Doddands, 9171 491 9791 CONTACT LONDON Residential lettings + property manageness specialising 5th Konsingson, Cheisea, Knightsbridge, Belgrava, 0171 589 8878 (Luttings) 0171 589 8848 (Salan) COPPING JOYCE West End Sales + Lettings

drigs. Lunury sparaneous - Kendington, Bayes & The City, 0171 499 9222 DE GROOT COLLIS Residential lettings. Knightsbridge, Chalses, Kensington, Mayfair, Victoria. 8171 235 3536

DE GROOT COLLES Residential Lettings, Wes DTZ Debenham Thorpe Residental. Specialists I usles, lettings, and acquisitions to prime control

EA SHAW Covers Garden and Soho, Re Sales and Lettings. 0171 240 2255

FARADAYS Shore & lone for specialists in

PDSAVELS Houses & flats. Sales & letting Belgravia, Cheista, Knightstridge, Mayfair. 8171 730 8822

FRANK HARRES & COMPANY Spe sale of flats and houses in Moomstury and Coveri Garden. 8171 387 8877 FRANK HARRIS & CONTANY Specialist in the etting and management, of flats and houses in Boomsbury, Holborn and Covent Garden.

GRANVILLES OF BAYSWATER Flats & hours in Bayawazer, Paddington, Notting HS & Maida Vale, Sales & lettings, 0171 221 4935 GREENE & CO Maria Vale, Behitze Park, W. Hampstead, Selection of Bets to rent from £200p. phrs. #171 286 8787

HAMPTONS DET Lettings. Stoane Square 0174 824 8242. Chalaca 0171 370 0774. Proles 0171 834 7314. Antigushridge 0171 584 2014. Kensington 0171 937 9372

MANAPTONE INTERNATIONAL Sales, Cheles 0171 835 1444, Pimico 0171 834 4771. Knighethriage 0171 584 2044. Kensington, 9171 937 9371

HOWARD ESTATES Chartered au

JOHIN C VAUGHAN Property con

FTM CODE Residential sales & lett

Residential purchase & tenting spatialists. 0171 495 4452 journilijevilijahnevangh KAY & CO Maryletrone + Regents Park, Residential tales, short and long term lettings. 8171 48A 6338

Residential/Commercial property sales, invest-ments, letting 8 management consultants (C20 to Clm) 9171 487 4994

PROPRILIM AGENCY LTD Central landor dential sales & lettings specialising in the Royal Borough of Kansingum & Chelsen, 0171 $89 4296

SANDFORDS Sales, lessings, mirrog javnssmens, Regares Park, Marylebo Makia Vale, 0771 723 9988 ns in SW3, SW5, SW7, SW10 & W8.

TUCKERMAN RESIDENTIAL Sales and lettings

DOCKLANDS Property Sales 0171 394 9988 Lestings 0171 237 6767

ALEX NEIL Res Sales & Lattings, Wapping E1 / Shad Thomas SE1 0171 234 0288, Island / Care What E14 0171 537 9859. CHL - DOCKLANDS, Do not rent a list to

Ducklands before speaking to Crit. Doct 0171 536 9936 FPD SAVELS. Sales & Lessings: Buders Wherf, City, ble of Dogs, Umelicuse, Rocheships, Wapping, Buders Wharf 0171 940 6900, Wapping 8171 454 6860

PHOENIX PROPERTY (UR) LTD. Sales and Lectings (Also covering Oty & East London) 9171 702 3434

r views Close DLR. From £175 pw.

ABACO ESTATES "The Lenging Specialist," Area covered, North, North West, City & Central London, sale 8187 959 9996 feet 0187 201 1718

NORTH LONDON

FELICITY JLORD Sales & letting, mortgage bro lars, property management, billington, Stoles Newfington, Highbury, 0171 225 8383 long 0171 226 4848,

3

HAMPTONS INTERNATIONAL Lettings: Hampstead 0171 431 4462. Mington 0171 783 2111 St. John's Wood 0171 584 9595

HAMPTONS INTERNATIONAL Sales: Hampstead 0171 794 8222. Islington 0171 226 4688, St. John'y Wood 0171 586 9596 HEALEY GRAHAM & CO. The restricted Lactin and Maragement Specialist for Mington / Highbur and Clerkanwell. Tob 0171 254 3283

istogran, Highbury, Clerkenwall. 8171 354 5224 / fin: 0171 359 5404 SOUTH LONDON

Capham 0171 627 5888. Richmond D181 940 1199.

0171 498 8686, Dulwich 0171 738 7622.

HENDWOODS & WHITE DIBN'T Spies & Lettings

PDSAVILLS 5 offices covering Burnes, Chaptern, Fulham, Pietrcy, Roehampteo, Sheen, Waretsworth, West Kendington. 9171 737 9400 PPDSAVULLS 40-42 Hill Rice Richmond, House and fire rates and leasings in Richmond, Pener Harn, Korr, St. Margarets, 0181, 614, 9100

WEST LONDON

ANGEL A STANLEY & CO. Residential Sales at Lettings 274 Futhern Road, London SW10 9EW. 0171 352 9556 or 0171 349 0205

HAMPTONS INTERNATIONAL LOSINGS Sales: Futhum 0171 384 100

OAKTREE (West London) Ltd. Residented Lettings, Sales, Ealing, Action, London W1, W2, NW8, SW1. 0181 997 8533

PALACE GATE Lessing to The Royal Borough of Management to Fulhant, Barons Court &

9171 381 4998 or 0171 610 6716 YORK ESTATES Baker St. Marble Arch, Hyde Park, Residential Lettings & Sales. 8171 724 8335

36 KENSINGTON & KNIGHTSBRIDGE DEVON KENT MIDLANDS CHELSEA e. 2645,000.0181 969 3511 MAYFAIR OXFORDSHIRE FROOK GREEN W14 4th ftr 8 bed flat, U/G plang, 24kg pomer, hit L/H 6345,000 0171 603 4444 ly size 4 bed suziscesetts, court-yand, 6485,000, 0171 603 4444 SCOTLAND GLENEAGLES: New Dat 3 Esc., 4 Sed., 3,000 sq ft, highest spec GF: E225K, 01764 684459. SOMERSET sows & house controled burns of the CC priced from £112/50-£164/95 Please contact Charles States Ltd (01460) 73003 Malia Vale CORNWALL Masier detes unvelled HOLIDAY INVESTMENT LODGES CGT ROLL-OVER RELIE Full management, High Occupancy. Weekly tariff to £800 and annual gross income to £14,000, Indoor & Ountoor Pools.
Own Use & Exciting
Rewarding Investment
Packages Packages £32,950 to £500,000. Vernoa Knight Associate Tel. 01626 777942 or fax 776187 NEW HOMES The Drayton 69 Drayton Gardens CHELSEA SW10 EXCLUSIVE NEW BUILD APARTMENTS WITH PARKING FROM £510,000. SHOW APARTMENT OPEN Weekdays. 11.30 am - 6.00 pm 11.30 am - 4.30 pm LCR . DEVELOPMENTS 0171 835 1357 The Glass Building The most dramatic new residential development in London The Glass Building was recently described by The Times as The building is an unique example of modern architecture, with 25 vast, light filled open lofts inside. Some are available as shells. Others are fitted out and ready to move into. With interiors every bit as dramatic as the building - huge open spaces, curved walls, timber strip floors, stainless steel kitchens and more. All in the heart of Camden Town, at prices from £185,000 to Come and be amazed by the new show flat. Simply phone David Rosen on 017(-486 5256.

PORTUGAL

ESTE DA GARLE ~ PARQUE DA FLORE GOLF AND LEISURE RESORT Luxury Villas (from £235,000) and Town-Houses (from £115,000)

All care control of the second

BELGRAVIA WALES

66 Rochester Rov Westminster SW

EXCLUSIVE

APARTMENTS SET WITHIN THE DIVISION BELL AREA FROM £180,000 SHOW APARTMENT OPEN

TODAY 17.30 am to 4.30 pm DEVELOPMENTS 0171 828 3636

SUSSEX

NORTH OF THE THAMES

Che

Westminster SW1

riki i HELL See front property ore looking beautiful bakel. Spli into 4 lgs spertments, £139,000 0161 445 4218/0410 145568. YORKSHIRE

LONDON RENTALS ABSOLUTELY Pabulous flats houses to Let in Central Londo but new Landlords & Tenan needed. C & G 0171 589 5481 AMMCAN, SC2 Luxury 1 bed flet E300 per week, Stock Page Stock 0171 251 4171

ELSIZE PK. Lux 2 Bed, 2 beth fur flat period property, superb lo cation, £365pw. Avail 1st May Tel: 0411 142460. No Agents.

KENSINGTON & CHELSEA

The Drayton 9 Drayton Garden CHELSEA SW10

LUXURY APARTMENTS OFE BROMPTON RD WITH PARKING FROM £510,000 SHOW

OPEN Weekdays 11.30 am - 6.00 pm 11.30 am - 4.30 pm

APARTMENT

LCR DEVELOPMENTS 0171 835 1357

LONDON RENTALS OV GOM. 1 bed flat, ffctts, ne

dec, ar Plant & Tube Drury 0171 379 2162 ASE S COURT SW6. 2 rooms, hit buth, unfurn £660 per mont! Adetza Shor 0171 404 7794

SHOW APARTMENT OPEN

4.30 pm PRICES FROM £180,000

DEVELOPMENTS 0171 828 3636

LONDON RENTALS

CLOSE TO CITY / South Bank SWI. 2 bed fint, 2 bath, with view, PF, parking, sym, pool. £380pw. Tel: 07060 616197

Chepstow Place, London W2 Superb top floor | bedroom

0171 499 9222

NORTH OF THE THAMES

Queens Gate Terrac London SW7 0171 499 9222

TODAY 11.30 am to

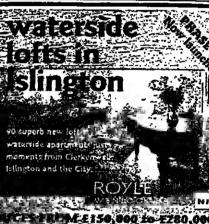

TO LET COUNTY HALL 171 620 16

The Drayton 69 Drayton Gardens

CHELSEA SW10 SHOW APARTMENT OPEN Weekdays

11.30 am - 6.00 m 11.30 am - 4.30 pm PRICES FROM £510,000

DEVELOPMENTS 0171.835.1357

FCFS+809/££150,000 to £780,000 influentation cal 0179-253 8480

THE ULTIMATE IN MODERN LIVING

★ Magnificent views across London

* Superb location close to Gloucester Rd. tube

★ Excellent high quality specification

★ 24 hour concierge/security

* Sainsbury's and David Lloyd Premier Health & Fitness Club on your doorstep

POINT WEST, CROMWELL ROAD SOUTH KENSINGTON SW7 OPEN 11am to 6pm DAILY

Phone 0171 373 3100

Fax 0171 373 8252

www.regalianplc.com

Reti

Mort

Tax avoidance scheme is legal

Hitch and Others v Stone (Inspector of Taxes) Before Mr Justice Jonathan Parker

Undgment March 181 A complex and artificial tax avoidance scheme, evidenced in sloppily executed documents by taxpayers and their legal adviser, could not be regarded as a sham and having no legal effect. The performance of the agreements for the disposal of potential development land giving rise to real consequences that affected third parties made it impossible

CHELSEAD

SHO#

PARTMA

.1.30 am . iq

::.30 am . Q

PRICES FO

£510,0

JEV ELOPMB

Mr Justice Jonathan Parker so held in a reserved judgment allowing appeals brought by way of case stated by the taxpayers. Mr Henry Hitch, Mr Ian Handy and Mrs Bearrice Handy, from a decision in principle by the special commissioners holding that the agree-ments on which the scheme was based were shams.

for such a conclusion to be

Mr Leolin Price, QC, Miss Penelope Reed and Mr John Smart for the taxpayers: Mr Phillip Vallance. r)C and Miss Karen Steyn for the

MR JUSTICE JONATHAN PARKER said that the Revenue assessed the taxpayers to capital gains tax on the disposal during 1984-85 of some 463 acres of agriculrural land known as Abbey Farm. Blunsdon St Andrew, Swindon, which was beneficially owned by members of the Hitch family,

The taxpavers annealed the asessments relying on documents which came into existence as part of an avoidance scheme entered into by the family that was designed to convert capital sums rep-resenting the realisation of the development value of the land into in-come in the hands of the lamily, as and when received by them.

The Revenue contended that the documents were of no legal effect. its primary contention being that they were shams. At one stage the Revenue had challenged the efficacy of the scheme on the basis of the decision of the House of Lords in Furniss v Dawson | [1984] AC 474) but abondoned the argument shortly before the commissioners heard the case.

By agreement the commissioners had limited their decision to ruling on the Revenue's challenge to the legal effect of the documents. The commissioners found that a purported agreement dated April 16, 1984, which formed part of the jax avoidance scheme was a sham in the sense that it was "intended ... to give the appearance of creating between the parties legal rights and obligations different from the actual legal rights and obligations (if any) which the parties intend to create", per Lord Justice Diplock in Snook v London and West Riding Investments Ltd [1967] 2 QB 786.

Following that finding, the commissioners concluded that a further purported agreement dated April 17, 1984, and two recitals to a deed dated June 22, 1984, whereb part of the farm was acquired by Cresi Homes pic, were also shams.

The commissioners criticised Mr Henry Hitch and Mr Patrick Taylor, a solicitor specialising in tax avoidance, stating that their evidence was inherently unreliable and that their dealings with the Revenue had been less than straightforward.

The commissioners found that although the evidence was largely circumstantial they were driven to the conclusion that the taxpayers did not intend by virtue of the 1984 agreement to grant a 999-year lease of the farm to a small Singapore company.

Having correctly directed themseives on the question of sham, per Lord Justice Diplock in Snook, it was prime facie difficult to see how the commissioners' finding of fact could be susceptible of challenge on appeal.

But it was important to appreci-ate that the finding was made in the face of the parties own evidence as to their own intentions and thus was based, as would almost inevitably be the case where allegations of sham were made, on inference drawn from the facts.

. It was for the court to consider whether the inference which the commissioners drew as to the true intentions of the parties to the 1984 agreement was correctly drawn. II in all the circumstances and on the totality of the facts found that inference could not properly be drawn, then the position would be that the true and only reasona-ble conclusion contradicted the commissioners' determination and the appeal had to succeed: see Edwards v Bairstow ([1956] AC 14).

Of the factors that led the commissioners to their decision, nei-ther the Hitch family's wish to realise the farm's development value, nor the unreliability of some of the

at arms' length did no more than set the scene for the inquiry. That the agreement was not performed in every respect according to its terms took the matter little fur-witnesses, provided evidence of sham. Equally, the fact that the 1984 agreement was not negotiated whether it was performed at all. If and to the extent it was performed. it was difficult to maintain that it was 8 sham; the more so in circumstances where performance of it led to real as opposed to share con-sequences affecting third parties.

It was impossible to regard the 1984 agreement as a sham. Where parties had entered into an agreement to effect a particular disposition, and that disposition was subsequently effected, there was no scope for an argument that the parties did not intend the agreement to have its expressed effect.

In a case involving a complex and artificial tax avoidance scheme, where the scheme ducumentation was sloopily executed, where the evidence of the taxpayer and of his legal advisor, the devisor of the scheme, was found to be unreliable, and where their dealings with the Revenue had been less than straightforward, there had to be a strong temptation for any tri-bunal to throw up its hands and cry "Sham!" But in the instant case and so long as the Snook definition remained that temptation had to

Having examined the facts lound and with every respect for the experienced special commisonly reasonable conclusion was inistent with their decision

Any challenge to the fiscal efficacy of the scheme had to based on Furniss v Dawson. No such challenge had been mounted by the Revenue and no view would be ex-pressed as to whether if it had been I would have succeeded.

Solicitors: Gregory, Rowcliffe & Milners for Mr T. P. D. Taylor, Douglas, Isle of Man: Solicitor of ther. The important question was Staying action before tribunal

Chorion ple and Others v

Before Mr Justice Laddie Judgment February 24]

It was wrong for essentially the same issues to be run in two separate tribunals. Where there was a significant overlap between an application to an employment tribu-nal and an action in the High Court, with common issues permeating each dispute and un effectively agreed timetable, it was appropriate to stay the former.

Mr Justice Laddie so held in the Chancery Division, on interlocutory applications by the plaintiffs. Chorion plc. Chorion (IP) Ltd. Enid Blyton Ltd, Agatha Christic Ltd. Robert Boll [1973] Ltd and Rights Ltd. In ordering David Charles William Lane either to apply for a stay of his complaint of unfair dismissul in his employment tribunal case No 6004195/98, or to consent to an application for such a stay by the plaintiffs.

Mr Ian Geering, QC and Miss Juliet May for the plaintiffs; Mr Michael Collins, QC and Mr Mar-tin Griffiths for Mr Lane.

MR JUSTICE LADDIE said that the plaintiffs were a group concerned, inter alia, with the exploita-tion of intellectual property rights. sues of impropricty; and 3 Allegations of unfair dismissal

Mr Lane had become managing director of the third plaintiff in February 1996, and in July 1997 an executive director of the first and manage ing director of each other plaintiff

On September 29, 1998, he had handed in a letter, the effect of which was in dispute: the plaintiffs amtended that it resigned all six of his directorships, and he, that it only resigned his directorship of the first plaintiff. Next day he had returned to his office in the plaintiffs' premises and cleared out his

On December II his solicitors wrote a letter before action to the plaintiffs, accumpanied by an originating application to the employment iribunal setting out his grounds for asserting unfair dis-

On February IS the plaintiffs served their own statement of claim against Mr Lane alleging wrongful acts committed by him both white still a senior executive of the plaintiffs and subsequently. On three matters, then; seemed

I it was proper that Mr Lane's claim for unlair dismissuff he heard as soon as possible; 2 Issues of breach of fiduciary duty and of confidence raised serious is-

.no dispute:

His Lordship would nrder the could give rise to injustice.

maybe a lesser one.

plaintiffs' amended statement of claim to be served by March, adopt Mr Collins' umetable as the fastest that could be imposed while doing justice to Mr Lane, and order an expedited trial in the High Court to come on not before July 1, with an estimated duration of five days.

also carried a stigma, although

His Lordship had considerable sympathy for Mr Lane's view that the timetable proposed by the plain-tiffs for the tribunal hearing was too ught for him adequately to defend himself: speedy lingation was likely to be cheaper than slow, but there came a point when speed

That left only one issue: should the court make an order effectively forcing Mr Lane to hold back on his application to the employment

His Lordship would proceed on the basis that, as at present formulated, the same questions of breach of fiduciary duty and breach of confidence would form part, hut not the whole, of the matters to be de-termined in the tribunal and would form a major part of the High Court action.
The courts had always set their face against avoidable duplication and Goldstone Ltd (1979) ICR 574. 5761 Mr Justice Brislow, delivering the decision of the Employment Ap-peal Tribunal in relation to a simi-lar common question which lar common question which lormed part of the investigation both by the High Court and by the industrial mbunal had said: "We think it clearly right in the interests ceedings should be heard first." Mr Collins urged that here, an application to stay being on foot belore the tribunal, his Lordship should not take that decision away from the tribunal: also, that in the case of an unfair dismissal there was a fundamental objective that the employee's claim should be de-

However, his Lordship had come to the conclusion that it would be wrong for essentially the same serious issues to be run in two separate tribunals and that it was appropriate to make an order that Mr Lane should apply for a stay, or consent to the plaintiffs application for a stay, of his com-plaint of unfair dismissal, currently listed to take place on April 26, pending final determination of the High Court action, and, in the meantime, be restrained from proceeding before the tribunal.

Solicitors: Norton Rose: Sim-

Duty to make full and accurate disclosure

Bird v Hadkinson

Before Mr Justice Neuberger Judgment March 41

A disclosure order contained in an injunction carried with it an obligalion to do more than simply tell the truth. Accordingly, a respondent who gave a truthful but inaccurate answer, without taking reasonable steps to investigate its truth, was in contempt of court.

Mr Justice Neuberger so held in the Chancery Division when orderng that the respondent, Bernadette Hadkinson, pay 85 per cent of the costs on an Indemnity basis of abandoned committal proceedings brought by Colin Graham Bird. the trustee in bankruptcy of Colin Graham Hadkinson, the respondent's husband.

Mr Andrew Lenon for Mr Bird: Mr David Marks for Mrs Hadkin-

MR JUSTICE NEUBERGER said that on February 27, 1998 a bankruptcy order was made ainst Mr Hadkinson. According to his own sworn statement of affairs, his total indebmess was approximately £17.1 millio; of that. only about £1,800 had been recrived by the trustee in bankrupt-

Mr Justice Eady had granted

the principal creditor an asset-freezing Mareva injunction restraining Mr Hadkinson from dealing with or disposing of his assets. Some two weeks after the Mareva was granted and served, he transferred approximately £4.25 million from his bank account in Jersey to his wife, who deposited the money into an account in Switzerland.

On December 2, 1998, Mr Justice Rance granted a Mareva injunction against Mrs Hadkinson. Puragraph 2 of the order required her to provide certain information within 24 hours of service and serve a confirmatory affidavit within seven days. On December 5, 1998 she swore an affidavit which purported to provide the information required by paragraph 2 of the order. She that she did not know what had happened to the funds trans-ferred to her account but that to the best of her knowledge they were still in her account.

The applicant's solicitors considered that the answers were wholly adequate and that Mrs Hadkinson had failed to take all steps which she ought reasonably to have taken to obtain and provide the necessary information required by the order. Accordingly, the applicant tigated committal proces against her.

On February 9, 1998, she provided a fuller affidavit and in those carcumstances the applicant decided not to proceed with the motion to commit but contended that he should have his costs on an indemnity basis.

His Lordship said that the case raised a question of principle; where an order such as the familiar disclosure order in a Mareva injunction required the respondent to do something, was it enough that they give an honest answer or did they have to do more than merely provide an answer to saosfy the terms of the injunction?

In his Lordship's judgment the order carried with it an obligation to do more than merely tell the truth, if the respondent gave a truthful but inaccurate answer. without taking reasonable steps to investigate the much or otherwise of the answer, then that was con-In the instant case, Mrs Hadkin-son had not given an accurate answer to the questions in the order and acted in an unreasonably dilary manner. Second, his Lordship said that he had to consider the mental element required for contempt on which there was conflict between the Court of Appeal in Irtelii v Squarriti and Others (1993) QB 83) and the House of Lords in Di rector General of Fuir Trading v Pioneer Concrete (Lik) and Anoth er (1995) 1 AC 456). In Irtelli Lord Justice Farquharson said (at p90) that it was inappropriate to find contempt unless: the evidence establishes beyond reasonable doubt that (the respondent] did intend to act in contempt of the court's authority".

The decision in Intelli was a decision of a strong Court of Appeal however, his Lordship was sails fied that he should not follow it.

The House of Lords decision in Pioneer was more consistent with the previous line of authority. Moreover, Irtelli suffered from two problems. First, the previous line of authority was not cited and second, the deion of the Court of Appeal in Pioneer, which was subsequently reversed by the House of Lords, appeared to have been cited in skele ton arguments, which might ex-plain the observations of Lord Justice Farquharson.

Accordingly, his Lordship said that he was not only free, but House of Lords in Pioneer. Solicitors: Stephenson Har-wood; Wragge & Co, Birmingham.

Whether driver was an employee Express and Echo Publica- an industrial tribunal sitting at Ex-Oxfordshire Health Authority

tions Ltd v Tanton

Before Lord Justice Hirst, Lord Justice Peter Gibson and Lord Justice

Judgment March [1] It was necessary for a contract of employment to contain an obligation on the part of the employee to provide services personally. A contract which allowed services to be carried out by a person other than the contractor was a contract for services and not a contract of serv-

The Court of Appeal so held allowing an appeal by Express and Echo Publications Ltd from the dismissal by the Employment Appeal Tribunal Judge Peter Clark, Mr P. R. A. Jacques and Miss S. M. Wilson) (unreported January 30, 1998) of their appeal against a decision of

LONDON RENTALS

WHAM Light & ziry heaverfully modernised house, 3 hed, 2 bezh £450pw. Tel: 0171 731 8696

ERTS & ESSEX. Over 100 Country House for sale from £200,000 to £2m. Tel: Hetheringtom Countrywide - 01799 516480

SOLBORN - Very lexury large 2 & 3 bed, 2 bath, FP/ and, porter, man raba, #300 - #500pw. Ciry Lata 0171 488 1458

SLMGTON - lor lge 3 bed, 2 bath FF/ unf, pkg, to tobe, £315pw City Lets 0171 486 1458

CHSMGTON, Wa. Superb 2 be main newly refurb, ar Park+füg St_£300pw. Tel 0171 244 771 1

CHSHIGTON, WS . Luxury 2 bed-room, 2 bethroom (lat £440pw. Temple Creek 0171 792 2053

EMSINGTON lex 3 bd, 2 bth flat designed to high standard. Opp park £660pw 0171 371 1707

ENSINGTON, SW7. Large lexury: bedroom, 2 bath flat E698pv Terepie Crest 0171 792 2053

Higs 8D 5 mins - Brand new lux-ary 1,2 & 3 bed, F/Farm, parking, port, gym, ar tube, it £350pwpw. Chy Lets 0171 468 1468

LAMBETH, SE1 (Zone 1). Spac 2 bad first floor flat Almost bened new. Ff. Good size roosp, sep beth à kinchen. I dible 1 les spie. Private of cr'ecod parking, ideally located for Waterloo & Elephant & Castle transport facilities. E230res. Tet: 0171 312 7900.

ONDON WALL - Hi-Tech beand new leavury large 2 bed, F/Farm, air con, mear rube, fr £375pw. City Lets 0171 488 1458

UCINY Apartment 1st Finor. 3 Bedras, 2 betterns with balcomy, svafibble fundahed ov turfurnished, asen Hyde Fark. Tel, Patricis: 0171 584 2358.

AYFAIR, Close Barkeley Square, Lazary interior designed 2 bed/ 2 bathroom flar, 12 mouth let, £750pw, Available now. Michael Richman & Co 0171 439 0661

OTT Will. 2 hed 2 hath flot in mansion block, F/ Forn, newly dec, porter, ar tube, $425pm. Drary 0171 395 5100

LD SECONDITION RD SW5. Special-ular importing 1st floor Dat. 60 x 30ft bit/recep. Bed, ensuite. Gal-letted voom, shower. 6970 pw. Avail now, 0171 787 0568.

Avail nose 0171 787 0568.

MLICO SWI, Lungs 3 bed maisomette in quint street. New conversion, excellent condition, 2 double, 1 single, lounged dines, 2 large builts, kit. All appliances inc washerd dryen, distremeler, microware. E400pw. 0171 976
6957 (Bars-10pat Mon-Fel)

PHILICO SWI Studio flat in new conversion. Good evadition. Ex-collent hitchen and bathroom. CH, washed dyen. £196pw. Tek 0171 976 6957

Piki.ico - V tux ige 2 bed, 2 beth, 1/1. pkg. pert, ar tube, fr £325pw. Cky Lets 0171 488 1458

Philico Swi 1 bed flat in con-verted house Quiet street, large kitchen, all appliances. Patio. (231pw. Tel: 0171 976 6957

SCENTS PARK NW1. Yary quiet area 2 bed p/b fint spac ingo & 1/kit, buth, pkmg geh. E330 pw Tob 07050 616197

OUTHWARK BEEDGE Immac 2 bed 2 both flat, F/ F, balc, at clif, pkg, 6375pw, 0171 396 5100

ST JOHNS WOOD, 2 bed Gat, F/ Pum, balenny & porter, or pack, 6400ps, Drury 0171 395 5100

eGTON Prestigious arties for Corposate and utive Tenants, Berkeley national 0171 229 1155

eier on September 16, 1997 on the preliminary issue whether the apolicant, Ernest Tanton, was an employee within the meaning of section 230 of the Employment Rights

Mr Jonathan Swift for the employer; Mr Tanton in person. LORD JUSTICE PETER GIBemployee of the company but had een made redundant in 1995 and had subsequently been taken on as a driver under an "agreement for services", clause 3.3 of which pro-

"To the event that the contractor is unable or unwilling to perform the services personally he shall arrange at his own expense entirely

SON said Mr Tanton had been an for another suitable person to perform the services.".

His Lordship referred to Clork v brankfast tous, 2 beds suite, large terrocs, Royston 0781 563 7100

OVERSEAS

RETIREMENT

HOMES

Two bed, two bath flat newly ded & furn, gdn, pkg £280pm, Drury 0171 379 2162

COUNTRY RENTALS

said that the contract was one of

FRANCE

FRENCH ALPS

English Countyard-have a limited number of tuxory

Lenham, Kent - Ilminster, Somerse

East IIsley, Berkshire - Toquay, Devon

Prices from £92,500 to £165,000

Freephooe 0800 220858 quoling ref RP2

8 Holland Street
Level grown Warder English Courtyard Residence ward

(1998) IRLR (25) where it was held that an irreducible minimum of obligation was necessary to create a contract of employment. Without such an obligation it could not be

The law now recognised unambiguously that a contract of employment involved mutual trust and confidence: Malik v Bank of Credit and Commerce International SA (The Times June 13, 1997; [1997] ICR 606).

II was established that where a person who worked for another was not required to provide those services personally it could not be right as a matter of law that the relationship between the worker and the person for whom be worked was that of employee and employ-

SPAIN

CABO BERMEJO

THE NEW GOLDEN NILE

MARBELLA - ESTEPONA

Beautiful homes and penthouses in prime beachside location

2225,000 - 2560,000

VORLD CLASS HOMES

ISCOUNTY OF CABANYES

CALONGE . GIRONA

PAY JUST 20% AND MOVE IN

2 HRS FROM UK BY CAR OR THE

Sking i hour - France 30 mas

PRICES FROM £80,000

MALLORCA Homes in Andraix, Bendinei, Deys, Cale D'Or, Palmii & Pollensa Costa Blanca Moraira & Javes villas

ALSO MENORCA . PORTUGAL.

Freefone 0800 90898

From Ireland 1800 50946.

International: +44 181 553 6294

RETIREMENT

HOMES

It was the common intention of the parties that Mr Tanton should be a self-employed contractor. Matters such as the absence of notiday and sickness pay which the industrial tribunal chairman had found to be pointers to a con-tract of service were in no way inconsistent with a contract for servic-But clause 3.3 not requiring Mr Tanton to perform any services personally was a provision wholly in-consistent with the contract being a contract of service, Both the tribunal chairman and the appeal tribunal had erred in izw. The only conclusion which could properly be reached was that the contract was one for services. Lord Justice Hirst and Lord Jus-

FRANCE

Solicitors: Foot & Bowden, Ply-

GREECE

ITALY

PORTUGAL

USA

RIEND & FALCKE

293 Brompton Road

London SW3 2DZ

Tel: 0171 225 0814 Fax: 0171 581 0720

SOUTH LONDON

Sullivan Thomas

Fax: 0171 731 4607

19 Bellevue Road, London: SW17 7EG Tel: 0181 682 3121 Fax: 0181 682 0089

DUNCAN ALLEN

Telephone: 0171 487 2799

DOCKLANDS

CENTRAL LONDON

Lettings Directory

Association of Residential Letting Agents

Hyde Park

Association of Residential Letting Agents Provides financial security through a clients money bonding scheme

Sets strict criteria for membership and operates a stringent code of practice Provides extensive training for members

The voice of the private rented sector influencing government policy and legislation

and promotes high management

Over 1,300 member offices covering the whole of the UK through 21 regional

The only professional body dedicated solely to the residential lettings market

TO THE WAY TO SEE THE

CHESTERTONS

0171 924 3344 Little Venice 0171 266 2369 Baitersea 0171 589 4585 Mayfair 0171 629 4513 Chelses 0181 747 3133 Wimbledon 0181 879 7922 Chiswick 0171 731 3111 Pinlice 0171 834 9998 Fulham 0171 794 1125 Putney 0181 788 4551

IN RENTING OF PROPERTY IN LONDON SINCE 1805

Ealing 0181 997 5777 Residential letting West London's professional agent

MARLER M& MARLER

LANDLORDS Have you a Property to Let?

We currently see first class properties. Please contact our experienced lettings team 6 Sloane Street, Knightsbridge, London SWIX 9LF Tel: 0171 235 9641 Fax: 0171 235 1173

> CLUTTONS Daniel Smith

SLOANE AVENUE 75 Shape Avenue, London SW3 3DH Tel 1071 584 5143 Fax 0171 584 1054 HVUE PARK, 23 Afrom Street, Londo W2 2A5 Yet 0171 262 2226 Fax: 0171 262 1166 TOWER BRIDGE 3 General Street, London M51 2M1 Tel 1071 407 3060 Fax, 0171 407 4470 NT JOHNS WOOD 53 Charlest Street, London SW5 610 Fax 0171 586 2020 BELIGRAVIA: SA Bourne Street, London SW1W 8HQ Tab 0171 720 1730 Fax: 0171 730 1717 SURREY OUTAYS: 303 Potheristhe Street, London SE16 1EY SURREY OUTAYS: 303 Potheristhe Street, London SE16 1EY

IRONSIDES

34. Beauchamp Place Knightsbridge SW3 INU 0171 581 5877

BIRCH & CO 18 Jermyn Street

London SWIY 6HP Tel: 0171 734 7432 Fax: 0171 439 4742

EW. GAPI

Facimile: 8171 407 3275 5 Hillgate St London W8 7SP Tel: 0171 243 0964 Fax: 0171 727 7580 COUNTRY SOUTHERN PROPERTIES AND MANAGEMENT

5 Bereili Yard Surrey 6U9 7NU Tel: 01252 724438 Fax: 01252 734247

Landlords we have tenants Waitingfor your property

> Oxford • 01865 200401 Putney • 0181 780 2233 Barnet • 0181 441 1702

NDREWS

Retire in comfort and style

Award-winning spacious and comfortable houses and flats set in beautiful landscaped gardens. Located in pretty towns and villages, properties are currently available in:

Girton, Cambridge - Tattenhall, Chester Goodworth Clatford. Hampshire - Mytchett, Surrey Dunchurch, Warwickshire - Marlborough, Wiltshire. Soon in Aldeburgh, Suffolk

From £159,000 to £295,000 For further details call 0800 220 858

8 Holland Street, London W8 4LT www.englishcourtyard.co.uk English Courtyard ref:

0171 602 5666 Brook Green 0181 994 7022 Chiswick 0181 579 9282 Ealing Notting Hill Gate Putney St John's Wood

0181 891 6371 Twickenham AKLA

South Kensington 0171 244 9911

0171 792 9977 0181 785 4255 0171 372 9900

please call Chris Marshall on 0171 680 6204 or fax 0171 782 7828

To advertise as an Arla member

0181 748 7733 Kensington 0171 937 7260

EXCELLENCE

0171 262 5060 Tower Bridge 0171 357 6911

Kensington 0171 937 9777 Chiewick 01B1 995 5439

SURREY (PAYS, 303 Potheristic Street London SEIn IEV Tel: 0171 257 7575 Fact 3171 237 7378.

COUNTRY

Bristol • 0117 946 6566 Cheltenham • 01242 253123 Sidcup • 0181 302 8990

FW7 Pointwest - V luxury large brand new studio, 1 & 2 bed. F/F. pkg. port, ar tube, fr £230pw. City Lets 0171 488 1458

RUGBY UNION

Woodward waits for Guscott to prove fitness

BY DAVID HANDS, RUGBY CORRESPONDENT

ENGLAND know the enemy that stands between them and a grand slam with which to conclude the millennium. Now all they have to do is determine their own composition for the final match of the final Five Nations Championship, against Wales at Wernbley on Sunday, and their medical team could have the final say in selection.

Clive Woodward, the England coach, will have expected the unchanged Wales XV that was named yesterday, at much the same time as his own squad of 25 was announced, from which three will be dropped today. Whereas Graham Henry, the Wales coach, admitted that he took only five seconds to select his starting line-up. Woodward must await reports on Jeremy Guscott's harnstring before settling on his three-

Guscon's frame of mind will not be helped by the court appearance that awaits him later this month after an alleged road-rage incident. If the Bath centre makes his sixtieth England appearance this weekend, then Woodward can ponder whether to recall Tony Underwood to the right wing in place of the injured David Rees or to throw in Steve Hanley, the Sale teenager. who has enjoyed a meteoric rise in his first season of firstclass rugby.

Underwood has started games this season against Australia and South Africa, and represents the safe option. This was not always Woodward's modus operandi as a player, nor has it been his hallmark as a selector. He watched Hanley play an important role in Sale's win over London Irish at the weekend and will not be worried at his youth or his inexperience.

If, however, he has to replace Guscott in midfield, his thinking may change. The only other centre in the squad is Barrie-Jon Mather, who is not first-choice at Sale these days, and other midfield

SQUADS

(Cardiff, M Taylor (Swences), I S Gibbs (Swenses), O F James (Portypridd), N R Jenidins (Portypridd), R Howley (Cardiff, copiain), P J D Rogers (London Insti), G R Jenidins (Swensee), B R Evens (Swen-see), J C Culmenti (Pichmond), C P Wysti (Uarelli), C L Chiervis (Swensee), B O Shidarson (Neath), L S Quirineti (Larrelli), Replacements: N Waiter (Richmond), N Boobyer (Llandill), O B Llewellyn (Edbw Vale), M J Voyte (Leneth), D Young (Cardiff, A L P Levis (Cardiff, B H Williams (Richmond)

cirii, A L P Lewis (Calcini, & P Walaparis (Richmond)
ENGLAND SOLLAD: Becies: N Beel (Northampion), M Penry (Bath), & Hariley (Sale), D Luger (harlequine), T Underwood (Newcastle), J Guscott (Bath), B J Mather (Sele), J Wildmann (Netwcastle), M Cett (Bath), M Dewards: O Gerforth (Lecester), Lecentral (Harlequine), G Rowshree (Lecester), V Uboqui (Bath), R Cockerff (Lecester), N McCarthy (Sioucaster), G Archer (Newastle), M Johnson (Leicester), T Hoditer (Northampton/Army), N Beck (Lecester), & Calride (Bichmond), M Comy (Leicester), L Delingioptions include moving either Matt Perry or Nick Beal from full back. Both played in the centre during the southern hemisphere tour last summer. though neither would wish to repeal the experience.

With Matt Dawson at scrum half for Kyran Bracken. Woodward lost no time in re-calling Austin Healey to England duty. The Leicester scrum half ends an eight-week suspension on Saturday, sustained after a stamping incident with Kevin Putt, of London Irish, and with Scott Benton carrying a leg injury, there are precious few alternatives to Healey, despite his lack of match practice. There is, too, a recall for Ben Clarke, who has spent the new year in the Eng-land A side and will be happy to make a return to the senior squad, which he did so much to boost on tour last year.

Healey: recalled to squad

No such uncertainty clouds Henry's mind. "We would like to have had Allan Bateman in the 22, but we have been able to restore David Young and Andrew Lewis, who have played a lot of Test matches," he said. Henry seeks experience as a prime requisite, but also stability, hence his pleasure at selecting the same XV that beat Italy 60-21 and 14 of those who succeeded in France a fortnight earlier.

diff props, displace Darren Morris and Geraint Lewis because Henry believes he may need to change his enore front row at some stage against the powerful England tight five. "We have to improve in most areas." Henry said. "We need stability at first phase, to retain the ball in the tackle area, which we haven't always done consistently, to play the game in a positive frame of mind, to concentrate on the Young and Lewis, the Car-

total package." In fact, Henry's shopping list of requirements for his players is as long as his arm, but he has been enthused by the quality he has seen at junior level in recent weeks, in his under-19 and under-21 squads, where success has made the future seem brighter, win or lose at Wembley. There can be no greater carrot for Wales, as Robert Howley, the captain, acknowledged, than to deny England a grand slam.

We will enjoy our last international at Wembley and we will try to give England a game," Howley said. "We can't afford to give them territory or possession, we will have to sort that out if we are to compete." So much humility has been coming out of Wales of late, it is distinctly worrying perhaps, threatening to deval-for England.

BY RAYMOND KEENE

CHESS CORRESPONDENT

Today I wrap up the Spassky - Korchnoi match in St Petersburg with the two decisive games which enabled Korch-noi to turn the match in his favour. At the half-way stage the contest was level pegging

but Korchnoi displayed superior powers of stamina over the finishing stretch.

exf5 gxf5 Rxd4

White Viktor Korchnoi

Black: Boris Spassky St Petersburg 1999 Benko Gambit

Black resigns

White: Viktor Korchnoi

St Petersburg 1999 Grunfeld Defence

Black: Boris Spassky

3 13

9 NB

19 Rd1 20 Nxd5 21 Kt2

25 f5 26 gd5 27 Qx/5 28 Rdg1

2 c4 3 d5 4 cd5 5 ba6 6 Nc3

Decisive wins

Power play: a jubilant Dott celebrates his 147 break against David Roe yesterday

Dott's perfect finish has the maximum effect

GRAEME DOTT underlined the unparalleled break-building standards being set by the top players when he made a maximum break to reach the second round of the British Open at Plymouth yesterday. Dott. the world No 30, compiled the 147 in the penultimate frame of his 5-4 victory over David Roe. It was the 29th perfect run in professional competition and the seventh this season, two more than the previous record, set in 1991-92.

It was also the second in this tournament - Jason Prince made one in the final qualifying round at Blackpool in January - the fifth this year and the seventeenth in world ranking events. The ue them as an achievement.

8g7

0-0

Nbd7

Ra6

h6 e6 fxe6

Nug4

fxg3 Qxb2 Ne3+

Qug2+

Rg7+

No6

Whit

Diagram of first game

章 2 全 1

Raymond Keene writes on

LEENE on CHESS

8 Kxf1

10 g3

14 Bg5 15 Bd2

16 dxe6

26 Re7

27 Qg6 28 Ra2 29 KN3

30 Pub2 31 Kh2

35 Qxd7 36 Qc8+

38 Kh3

Rg2

Kxg2 Qe6+

Ne5

0e6+

Nd7

hog4

BY PHIL YATES

Even so, Dott was delighted, despite having sur-rendered an ideal position on numerous occasions. He collected £5,000 and received the keys to a Vauxhall Vectra. Towards the end of the trame, Dott was forced to judge several difficult pots, most notably the brown. which he clipped thin to a baulk pocket while employing the rest. A long blue followed, and even the black off its spot was by no means a formality.

Every shot on the colours was missable so in some respects that took a lot of pressure off me," Dott said. There's no way I could've been too disappointed about disappeared."

Dott, a diminutive 21-yearold from Glasgow, advances to play Stephen Hendry in a repeat of the Scottish Open final in February when the six-times world champion, who has recorded five maximums in competition,

The confidence generated by that result, and Hendry's subsequent capture of the Benson and Hedges Irish Masters title, was evident during his 50 whitewash of Jon Birch. Hendry, who had breaks of 136 and 109, was detained for only 76 minutes. Jimmy White, desperate for all the ranking points be can muster in his fight to regain entry to the world's top 16 next season, rallied from 4-3 down to edge out Joe Swail 5-4 and will now meet John Parrott in | ment programme has," the second round.

THE STATE OF

2.20 Smart Ridge

GOING: GOOD

RUGBY LEAGUE

Easter schedule upsets coaches

By CHRISTOPHER IRVINE

WHILE Super League Europe (SLE) officials were congratu-lating themselves on increased crowds over Easter, several coaches were outraged by the physical price of playing two JJB Super League games in four or five days.

The aggregate attendance figure for the holiday fixtures is set to exceed 100,000 when Huddersfield Giants and Castleford Tigers meet at the McAlpine Stadium tonight. The 15,000 crowd at St Helens on Monday was the biggest at Knowsley Road since the team won the 1996 Super League title. In addition, there were 16,000 attendances at Wigan and Bradford, which are seen by SLE as justifying the reintroduction of two Easter fixtures in an expanded 30-match league programme. However, it was noticeable in most cases on Monday that matches lacked the intensity of those last Thursday and Friday because players were tired and more vulnerable to injury. A patched-up London Broncos must play their fourth match in less than a fortnight at home against St Helens, the league leaders, on Friday. Dan Stains, the London coach, gave warning after the defeat away at Leeds on Monday that playing standards would suffer. After an typical-ly limp and bloodless encoun-ter, Graham Murray, the Leeds coach, said: "Our match against Bradford on the Thursday was about quality, not the lacklustre follow-up, which you get because players can-not recover properly in time." In the latest issue of Rugby

League World, Malcolm the Huddersfield coach, takes another swipe at the self-congratulatory mood in the domestic game after his four years in charge of Newcastle Knights, who won the 1997 Australian Premiership in his charge.

Reilly is dismayed that warnings be made before he left for Australia about player development have not been heeded. "The infrastructure is very ordinary. We just haven't got anywhere near the depth that the Australian develop-

SPORT BILLER

Leicester Riders to look for new coach

RASKETBALL: Dave Harris, 38, has paid the price for presiding over Leicester Riders' lowest finish in the Budweiser League. The coach is not having his contract renewed for a second season although the club did end their campaign on a high note last Saturday by beating Derby Storm, coached by Harris's predecessor, Bob Donewald. Leicester still finished one off the bottom, in twelfth place.

"Dave had a tough baptism in the top flight and I know he was as disappointed as anyone with the way the results went," Kevin Routledge, the Leiceste chairman, said yesterday. BOWLS: The absence of Amy Gowshall, the national champion of champions title-holder, who is only 20 from the England women's iunior side announced yesterday suggests that she has been pencilled in for a place in the senior side. The junior side - those who have not yet celebrated their 26th birthday — will contest the under-25 home internations series in Ayr next August Gowshall, who reached ber first England final when she was 14, could become the youngest woman to play bowls for England.

TEAM: Rink 1: R When Aloop (Clock, K. Jones (Bucks), S Nowson (hunts), C Northall (Devon). Rink 2: S Poyes (Note), I Simmons (Derbys), M Moorney (Yorks), C Hersy (Cumbs), Rink 3: E Alexander (Combs), J Stadey (Bucks), N Poole (Devon), K-A Dyer (Glod), Rink 4: K Besty (Deutys), K Cousins (Wils), Reserve; E Poyer (Note), K Cousins (Wils), Reserve; E Poyer (Note). E SQUASH: Nick Matthew, Adrian Grant and Vicky Lankester, of England, defeated Spain 3-0 in the team final of the European junior championships in Vienna. Grant and Lankester had previously won the European under-19 boys' and girls' individual titles. SKENG: Amanda Piric and

Noel Baxter, both of Scotland, won the super-giant slalom titles in the final event of the British Land junior national championships in Tignes he France, in a repeat of the slalom results of Monday.

• HEEHAN on BRIDGE

BY ROBERT SHEEHAN, BRIDGE CORRESPONDENT

Cardinal Morton was one of Henry VII's prime revenue collectors. He would visit the homes of the wealthy, and if they made him at home with lavish expenditure, he would infer that they had plenty of money and could thus contribute to the king. Thrifty hospitality would, of course, imply that they had saved up their funds – and would thus also be able to make a generous donation to the royal exchequer. What has this to do with bridge? Well, consider the following hand.

Dealer Souti	Game	all	Teams
1 Q 4 V A 7 O Q 6 4 A	7 W	3 32 E 54 864	A J8 ♥ 2 ♦ J10973 A A10983
w	N	E	s
-	_	-	Pass
Pass	1 D	Pass	18
Pass	1 NT (12-14)	Pass	3 H
Pass	4 H	Alt Pa	88
Contract	Four Hoarts by Sou	th loo	di sen of bende

WORD-WATCHING

By Philip Howard

This hand from the qualifying round of the Dutch Forbo Tournament saw both rables reach Four Hearts. In one room the Dutch declarer as North pitched a club from dummy on the diamond lead, after which the contract could no longer be made. The loss of a spade, a club and two trumps was unavoidable.

At the other table Willem Gosschalk as South became declarer after the auction shown above, where the jump to Three Hearts as a passed hand showed 5-5 dis-tribution and invitational values. He showed the right way to play the hand. West kicked off with two top

b. Passing through the zenith

b. A new boy at Westminster

VERTICLE

a. A dog-cart

c. A vertebra

a. The midriff

c. A suppressed bark

YOUF

hearts, and a third round of trumps was taken by

At this point Gosschalk reasoned correctly that it was likely (because of West's initial pass) that East held the ace of clubs. He therefore played a low club away from the queen. East was caught in a genuine Morton's Fork Coup. If he rose with the ace, the spade loser in dummy would later disappear on the king of clubs. In fact, East ducked, but inslead saw declarer's remaining clubs discarded on dummy's high diamonds.

Robert Sheehan writes on bridge Monday to Friday in Sport and in the Weekend section on Saturday.

a. Bulgarian yoghurt

b. A mountain siedge

VARICELLA

a. An Alpine plant

c. A wild Catalan dance

Answers on page 41

b. Chicken-pox

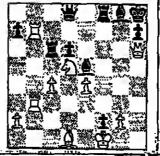

chess Monday to Friday in Sport and in the Weekend secoon on Saturday.

WINNING MOVE

By Raymond Keene

White to play. This position is from the game Anand -Topalov. Monaco 1999.

Viswanathan Anand is one of the quickest tactical visionaries in the world. It would not have taken him long to spot White's winning combination here. What did be play? Solution on page 41

ATHLETICS

Return to colours for Coe

BY DAVID POWELL ATHLETICS CORRESPONDENT

BRITISH athletics is run by former athletes but, for all the medals today's men in suits won when they were heroes in tracksuits, none has the display of badges to match the latest recruit. Sebastian Coe. double Olympic 1,500 metres champion and multiple world record-breaker, returned to the sport yesterday as chairman of events for the company that promotes track meetings in Britain.

Nine years after reoring from competitive running. Coe has taken on a lead role with Fast Track, whose head is Alan Pascoe, the 1974 European and Commonwealth 400 metres hurdles champion.

David Hemery, the 1968 Olympic 400 metres hurdles champion, is president of UK Athletics and its chief executive is David Moorcroft, a double Commonwealth Games middle-distance champion. Brendan Foster, the 1974 European 5.000 metres champion, s head of Nova International, which puts on most of Britain's televised road races.

One of the few Foster cannot claim is the London Marathon but David Bedford, the former 10,000 metres world recordholder, can. He is head of marketing. Coe, however, is the only one to have been personal trainer to the Leader of the Opposition.

Adding to his duties as William Hague's chief of staff, Coe became his lifestyle coach. Now the former Conservative MP for Falmouth and Camborne, who lost his seal at the last election, is ready to take up an advisory role with Fast Track. He will continue his work at Westminster.

Coe's name will lend weight to Britain's bid to host the 2003 world championships. British athleocs has been rocked by drugs scandals, bankruptey and poor attendances of late. but the scales have been balanced by the success of the ath-letes. 'There is a lot to shout about but also a lot to get right." Coe said.

(£2,957: 1m 4l 60yd) (20)

4.35 Admirals Secret 5.10 The Quare Fellow 5.45 Gallant Glory 6.15 Angels Venture Our Newmarket correspondent: 3.25 Canta Ke Brave. 5.10 THE QUARE FELLOW (nap). 5.15 Angels Venture. TOTE JACKPOT MEETING DRAW: 5F-6F, LOW NUMBERS BEST

2.20 EBF SPA WELTER MAIDEN STAKES

2-Y-0: S	3,146: 5f) (13 runners)
E (1)	DISPOL HARIC P Calver 9-0 N Day - N Day - S Drowns - S Drowns - S Drowns - N Day - S Drowns - N Day -
3888	JORSENTEDY Ron Thompson 9-0 T Williams LOVE LANE M Johnston 9-0 D Hotand POP SHOP J W Payre 9-0 B Carter	-
08 (9)	SLICK WILLE T Easterby 9-0 K Fellon SMART RIDGE M Channon 9-0 T Duhn TOPPU'S GEM K Ryan 9-0 Carroll	-
10 (8)	DENTON LADY W Kemp 8-9 R Cochyans HIGH CAPACITY 7 Easterby 8-9 J Foreign 6 HURTLE 9 M Wans 8-9 R Lappir	_
13 (1)	OURS FOR UPE Ron Thompson 8-9	-
-1 Long La	ne, 9-2 Welch's Bream, 6-1 High Capacity, 13-2 Smart Ridge, 7-1 lock Wilfie, 6-1 Clistingthy Facs, 16-1 Influes	1

2.50 MARKINGTON SELLING HANDICAP (£2,369: Im 4/ 60yd) (19)

201 (T) -000 TYPHOON EIGHT 7 (D,G) D Nicholis I -9-19 Alex Expenses	61
202 (13) 400- HAELLA 40J (D.F) 7 Essissby 4-9-8	63
203 (11) 400- KING'E HUSSAR 35J (V) B M Moore 4-9-5 F Lynch	00
204 (16) 8352 HILLZAH 22 (8F,DF,G) R Bastinus 11-9-1 Dean McKeoven	84
205 (19) 000- DISCRETION 175 5 Gollings 4-8-12 J Wiezest	63
206 (14) 5600 PORTITE SOPINE 61 (S) M Billion B-8-7 () Memori (5)	68
207 (3) -003 DR WOODSTOCK B W Storey 5-8-67 Williams	66
206 (17) 05-5 SAMPLE IDEALS 9 N TIME 5-8-6	00
309 (5) 600- PICCADILLY 161 Mcs K Miligan 4-8-2 G Certer (30
ZIV (1) 0-U3 HUEY BEAR 9 W BYSDOLFR 4-8-2 McAuley (7)	α
211 (9) 0440 AJDAR 19J (V.D) Mrs S Lamyman 8-8-2 6 Duffield	63
212 (2) 0-83 BROUGHTON SIREN 28 W Masson 4-8-1 J Oulon	52
213 (15) 600- SHOTLEY MARKE 245 N Bytook 4-8-0P Fessey	52
214 (12) 0042 SUPER-GEM 28 J Walmeigh 4-8-0 G Bardwell	53
215 (4) 604- GROVEFAIR LAD 218J (D) $ Bowing 5-7-12 Date Sibson	53
215 (8) DOG- GOLDENGIRLANCHELLE 14J F Murphy 4-7-17
Jenny Berson (7)	52
217 (18) 3520 MODEST HOPE 44 (O.F.S) Mrs S Lamyrigh 12-7-10
A POB (3)	70
218 (6) -060 THE COTTONWOOL NO 30 (V) ME A NELGHION 7-7-10
N Kennedy	-
219 (10) 000- PLORISMART 319 8 Baugh 7-7-10lona Wands (5)	-
11-2 Broughton Stran, 5-1 HSLIZZh, 7-1 Maletta, 8-1 Dr Woodstock, 10-1 other	2.

3.25 GALPHAY CLASSIFIED STAKES

KLUKK	DOLL	2343 112- 214- 121-	BAING S CANTA CE 181	MEETS 1: CE BRAVE (Y.G) M J	M Chapma 33 (S) B H 179 (F) S offision 6	18-12 185 8-12 . Woods 8- 12	12SR 12	oricon HDs Fallon ottavo	80 72 83
617	Jones Jones	215- 43-6	MENSA SERGEA	252 (S) M MT YORK 2 Bing See	70mptins 11 (S) C :	8-19 (m#) 9-19 (a Brave, 13	-1221 5 D K	tokiery towne Darley 12-1 of	79 88 90

4.00 FOUNTAINS HANDICAP (£6,770: 6f) (23)

	401	圐	5860 100-	KAYD 1	CLEO I 64 (D.F.	1 (D.F.G. 6.5) T E	S) P Eq	ors 4-10- on 4-9-1; State 4-1	O .C Ce	con (7)	106
		142	~~	LE TOLL	60 I O R	/F.U.SI		non 5-9 Alston 8-		Outro	106
	407	t 1)	006-	LAGO D	H VARAM	10 165	C.F.G.S	R With	nie War Ner 7-9	den (7)	83
	409	143	052	FILENC	140 10	5 #C	W 14	on 5-9-6 D.F.G.S	Jean Ne	Keowa	105 103
											96
	411	(9)						Musson S) 0 Mid
	413	(B)	0-32	HIGHT I	PEE 12	3 (0,6)	S) R Fat	key 5-9-2	A Mich	Fallors	103
	414	御	40-0	PIPS IV	ORC 13 (1 12 (CT CD F,6)	(G) 7 (C) (GOLGO	ing 0-4-7 ing 0-	91.J	Orluna Carrona	囊
	417	悶	0.00	SPLYIS	ACT OF	A 66	L Day	0-0-12	2011	M Has	105
	419		536	NAME OF THE PERSON OF THE PERS	156 (D.)	ESIA.	iceel 4	R-6	P 6	Carry Ode (5)	106 106
	421 422	SIN		YOUNG	STATE I	68 (D.G.)	S) P Febr	Phy 4-8-1	G	Norton Decked	103
	63	(Z3)	1123	MALITEA	MA 8 (B)	D.C.S1 .	S Brown	46-7-19		Fanning J Ondon	1 PE
=	Mar	an la	141	Lag. D	2.TO, 1	ETTO:	Bridge.	19-1 gr	8, 12-1 8.	Royal Re

4.35 STUDLEY ROYAL HANDICAP

5-1 Switt, 7-1 Christiansled, 8-1 Aldwych Anow, Clued Up, 10-1 Admirali. Se-cret, Sami Circle, Golden Ace, 12-1 others.

5.10 LEVY BOARD GRANTLEY MAIDEN STAKES (Div I: £3,014: 1m) (11)

5.45 SAWLEY HANDICAP

6.15 LEVY BOARD GRANTLEY MAIDEN STAKES (Div II: £2,998: 1m) (11)

COURSE SPECIALISTS JOLANYS, PRE Eddery, 3 winners hum 19 rides, 30.0%; K Darley, 24 km³ JOLANYS, PAE Eddery, 3 winners hum 19 rides, 30.0%; K Darley, 24 km³ 140, 24.3%, J McCadley, 3 from 13, 23.7%; K Fatton, 22 from 101, 21.7%; G Hand, 19 from 48, 20.5%; O Holland, 9 from 49, 19.5%; K Cockents, 11 km 58, 19.0%; G Carles, 10 from 54, 18.5%; J Wesner, 16 from 101, 16.0%; L Newton, 3 from 24, 12.5%.

مكذا من الاصل

RACING: JOCKEY STRIVES TO OVERCOME INJURY AND RIDE SUNY BAY IN NATIONAL

Bradley keeps dream alive

BY ALAN LEE, RACING CORRESPONDENT

National week supplies human drama exhausting in its quantity and emotion but the ;w. cogh hattle confronting Graham Bradley is compelling even by Aintree standards. Bradley is striving to preserve one final career dream as a jockey in the week when his other concern is the preservation of his liberty Last night, against heavy odds, he was refusing to accept the dream is dead.

SKETSALL Designation of the control of the control

A CLOST PAT

to be been and in the control of the annone

1 152 B

5

This was always going to be a poignant National for Bradley, not only because he has never won the race, nor that he was such a gallant runner-up a year ago, nor even because. at 38, time is so short. For this Yorkshireman of roguish hu-mour and undimmed enthusiasm, there was another matter to concentrate the mind.

Three days after the race, Bradley must report back to Charing Cross police station, from where he has been freed on bail since his arrest in early January by a force investigating alleged doping and race-bring. It promised to be a demanding week, even before his orized ride on Suny Bay was so abruptly jeopardised. to the agonised hours after his fall from Rightsaidfred in

BY ANNUAL ritual, Grand the Irish Grand National on Monday, Bradley was reconciled to the worst. "I thought I'd smashed my shoulder to smithereens." he reflected yesterday. "I was in so much pain I thought there was no chance of riding at Aintree."

> Today in Interface: How to bet on the Grand National via the Internet

Now. remarkably, optimism has returned.

After resting his wounds in Dublin overnight, Bradley flew home yesterday for an immediate appointment with 'Rabbit Slattery, the physiotherapist who spends much of her life tending to the ravages of a jockey's singular exist-ence. She gave him better news than he had dared to

"All I have done is sprung a joint between the collarbone and shoulder." Bradley explained with the blitheness of a man reporting a grazed knee. "I haven't done it badly. either, which is amazing as the first thoughts in Ireland were that I had broken the collarbone and dislocated the shoulder. I've done neither and I honestly think I'm going to make it.

"I've been told I must give it complete rest tomorrow, then I shall have some physic on Thursday and plan to ride out on Friday morning. If I'm on target. I will then ride one horse at Liverpool that afternoon — I must do that to prove my fitness to the owner and trainer, and most of all to

The Grand National remains the nagging omission in Bradley's career and Suny Bay, second in the last two runnings, is primed to provide the fairytale. "It is every jockey's dream and I won't get a better chance now. Time is running out for me and although I've got no wish to pack up yet, this ride means an awful lot."

Observing events with interest yesterday was Charlie Brooks, who trained Suny Bay until his retirement last summer and who must accompany Bradley to answer his own bail in the same inquiry next Tuesday. Brooks admits he will have mixed feelings on Saturday but he said: "I just feel it would be a major blow to the horse's chance if 'Brad' couldn't ride."

For Simon Sherwood, who succeeded Brooks at the Uplands yard in Lambourn, jockey uncertainty is an unwanted complication. Yesterday, though, he coolly put himself in Bradley's hands. "I thought he would be very unlikely to ride after a fall like that but while there is a possibility I will give him time," he said.

"I could do without all this but I'm prepared to sit on the fence until Friday. Naturally, I'm looking around at who else is available and I will have someone on standby. My phone has been ringing all morning with suggestions but

Dean Gallagher - who has

Bradley: hopeful

strong candidate, along with Jason Titley and Warren Marston. There may be others, if intended runners are pulled out." Yankie Lord, trained by Sherwood for the Manchester United manager, Alex Ferguson, was second at Uttoxeter yesterday with Tony McCoy deputising for Bradley. Mc-Coy. however, is committed to a fancied National runner in Eudipe, one of a battalion heading for Aintree to represent the champion owner. David Johnson, whose title is un-der heavy threat from J. P. Mc-Manus.

Istabraq, McManus's flag-ship, remains on target for the Aintree Hurdle on Saturday. while the highlight of tomor-row will be the Martell Cup, in which Tony Dobbin expects to be fit to ride Go Ballistic despite sustaining heavy bruis-ing to ribs and shoulder on Monday. Jump jockeys are a staggeringly stoical bunch. ☐ The going at Aintree is described as soft and good to soft in places on the Grand National course. Spokesman Ian Renton believes there will be some give, although only light rain is forecast between now and Saturday.

هَكُذَا مِنَ الدُصِل

Bradley and Suny Bay, far side, were denied by Earth Summit in the National last year

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

Wetherby

2.20 (2m 4 110yd hole) 1, Forever Noble (JAAcCarthy, 3-11, 2, Fullopep (6-11, 3, Roy-a/Castle (7-4 tay), 19 ran, NR Happy Davis 14, 11-3, O Stephenod, Total C 390, 21-30, 22-40, 21-20, DF: £11-90, CSF, £18-79, 5.00 (2m hole) 1, Orauno (A P McCoy, 5-4 km): 2, Kasar (20-1); 3, Wuritzer (9-2), 16 ren. 14, hd. M.Hammond, Tote: $2.40; $1.50, $23.90, $1.80 DF: $23.50, CSF; $23.48 2.50 (2m ch) 1, Skalinghurat Pyrer (P Niver, 10-1); 2, Queensway (9-1), 3, Minster Glory (11-4 lay, 11 van 12-5, et 80 DF; 79.90 CSF; 286 72, Tricasi 2289 88. 3.20 (2m 4) 110yd hdle) 1, Once More For Luck (M H Maughton, 100-30 lawl, 2, Bakker (5-1), 3, Tara-Brogen (13-2) 8 sen MR, No Girturecks 2-4, nk. Mrs. M Reveley 10s (24 00, 51 70, 51 70, 52 30 DF: 220 40 CSF ($19.35 Tricset, $34 30

250 (3m 5l ch) 1, Invest Wisely (B Harding, 5-1), 2 Spin of Steel (11-4 lay), 3, Shore Pisty (9-2), 7 ran NR, Master Nova, Rot Leader, Scotlon Green, Young Tormo, 21, 8l, M Harmmond, Tote 05,10, 22-40, 21,80 DF; C5-60 CSF A20 (am if ch) 1, Trade Dispute (Mr G fuer, 8-11 lan) 2, Joint Account (3-1): 3. Three Polato Four (33-1), 8 ran, 14, dist, E fuer Tote $1.70, £1.10, £1.10, £3.10 DF: £2.20, CSF £2.86

24.50 (2m hdle) 1. Lord Dorcet (B Storey, 20-1), 2. Fing of Velon (8-2), 3, Ferfelds Prince (3-1 fav) 9 fan, 3, 84 hd. J Chenton, 104e £12-20, £2-20, £2-30, £170. Df; £62-20 CSF £10) 65 Tricast, £325 10. Placepot: £6.80. | Chiscopot: £4.70.

Uttoxeter Going: good to soft

200 (2m hdle) 1, Big Atell (R Johnson, 6-1), 2, Damenis Choce (33-1), 3, Dunston Bill (16-1) Ron's Round (11-4 bay 14 ran, NR Bukshom, Little Kenny 2/3, 2/3 S Brotschew Toler C5 20, E2 10, E7 30, E3 40, BF 5316 10, CSF £174 37, Tracest 52.756 40,

2.30 (2n 71 ch) 1, Secret Bay (Mr S Swers, 5-2), 2, Casderoval (12-1); 3, Desperate (10-1) Tombola evers fav. 14 ran. NR Bande Dove, Michiover 4l, 101 C Dennia fote 64 30; C1:30, E2:80, E1:30 DF. 621 30 CSF 628,79. 27 30 CSF 22,75.
2,00 (3m ch) 1, Tom Pinch (A P McCoy, 74 tan), 2, Capo Castanom (33-11, 3, Mr Pedupp (12-11); 4, Satoolino (6-1) 17 ran. NR Fasting Gold, 12, 131 G Balding, Tote; 22 70; £1 10, £9 30, £2.40, £1.60, DF: CS8 10, CSF, CSE.21 Tricast, £55.53 3.30 (2m 4f ch) 1, Tremellit (T Jenks, 13-8 fey), 2, Yantee Lord (2-1), 3, Exact (25-1) 8 ran MR, Tight Fist, 13f, 51 T George Total, 240, E1 30, E1 20, C3 60, DF; E3 60 CSF; E5 38 Tricast, E47.29

4.00 (2m hdte) 1, Dervosid (S kelly, 6-4 lay), 2. Kingdom Emperor (6-11, 3, Get The Point (10-1) 9 nm ¾, nk. Mass Venetra Williams Toles C2 50, C1 a.0, C1 80, C2 70 DF; £9.60. CSF £10 58, Trocast, £61 55

ASCOT

2.00 Kings Boy

2.30 Bitofamixup

3.05 Paddy's Return

Jackpot £5,235.10.

Southwell Going: standard

2.10 (7) 1. Chambristo Blue (K Fellon, 20-1), 2, Tess (10-11 lav); 3, los Pack (7-1), 10 ran. 44, 8t. T. Essterby Tote 221,90; 22.00, £1.10, £2.20 DF: £17.80 CSF; 234.88.

2,16 (in) 1, The Stager (I. Delton, 3-1 (sv); 2, Kiltarney Jazz (4-1); 3, Chrisberry (16-1), 14 ran, Nr. 3, J Jenkins: Toer: 25 50; 22 10, 22.70, 29.70, DF- 210 60, CSF: 215.66, Tri-cast: 2173 48.

Capt: $173.48.

3.40 (7) 1, Garmock Valley (G Carter, 13-2); 2, Mawkab (9-4 fav), 3, Sharp Steel (20-1) 15 ran. NRT. Nully Stan. Sh.hd, sh.hd. J Berry, Tote: £730. £220, £1.70, £7.10 DF: £9.00, CSF: £20.48. 4.10 (1m 4f) 1, 1988 Farm Dancer (D Heyden, 11-4): 2, Artic Courier (5-2 lar), 3, Breteche (3-1) 8 ran. NP: Carol Again, 8t, 4t, W Brabourne Tote: £4 40: £2.00, £7 30. DF £4.80. CSF: £9 44.

G. C.S. CST 133 44.
4.40 (1m 3) 1, Chelcedony (J Fortune, 3-1), 2, The Last Word (8-1); 3, Netherhalf (33-1) Busting Bio (4th) 4-5 lav 9 ran. 2-4, 1-4 I Barron Tore: F4 70; £1 40, £2 00, £5 90, DF, £21 00 CSF; £28.19, Tricast: £643.25

Placepot: £77.30. Quadpot: £29.60. ☐ Jump jockey Jason Calla-ghan will be out of action for a few days after a fall at Carlisle on Easter Monday. Calla-ghan, whose mount Dynamic Lord was brought down in a novices' hurdle, said: "I thought 1 might have broken some ribs but luckily it's just bad bruising. I'll take it easy for a couple of days and hope-fully will be back at the end of this week or the beginning of

ROB WRIGHT

3.40 Premier Generation (nb) 4.20 Eagles Rest 5.00 Broad Steane 5.35 STONE'S THROW (nap)

Timekeeper's top rating: 3.40 CHAI-YO. Carl Evans: 5.00 Skip'N'Time.

GOING: GOOD TO FIRM (GOOD IN PLACES)

2.00 GROSVENOR CASINOS NOVICES HURDLE (£3,729: 2m 4f) (8 runners)

BETTANG: 5-4 Kings Boy, 5-2 Pasey Pariseper, 7-2 Molet, 14-1 Crack Regiment, Honey Dance, 20-1 others. 1998: BETTER OFFER 6-11-8 A P McCoy (6-4 lar) Mrs A Penell 9 ran

NINGS BOY can take his hurdes score to two from two. A half-brother to the useful steying hurder Pleasure Stared, the selection confirmed the promise of his debut bumper third when notting up from Farever Noble at Doncaster (2m 4) on his humping bow, Pestry Paskeeper alpeals as the main threat but, though more experienced than Kings Boy, he is yet to convince with his sumpling. He jumped with greater fluency than before when beging Stormworthy Miss 81 at Kempton (2m 5) in February but was again less than foot perfect when below that form, subsequently, Motel, a useful stayer on the First for Goot Wrang, and Cearanne, winner of the list Champion Stales of inversers but subsequently a failure at stud, are still learning the hade in this sphere. The former showed that he was going the right way when beating Tales DI Bounty ³²4 at Newbury (2m 5) last month.

2.30 ALLIED IRISH BANK HANDICAP CHASE (£9,885: 2m 3f 110yd) (9)

BETTING: 11-4 Montraie Forte, 7-2 Super Tacilics, 0-1 Berlane, 7-1 Northern Starlight, Wisse King, 8-f Philip's Woody, 10-1 Cited's Song, 12-1 others. . 1998: BERTONE 9-11-10 A Thornton (8-1) K Bailey 8 ran

1998: BERTONE 9-11-10 A Thorston (8-1) it Balley 8 aan

PHILIP'S WOODY can be lencied after returning an excellent effort in deteat in the Mitomay Of Fiele at Cheftenham (17) fifth of 18 to Majartou after being brought to a withal standstill at the ninith) and with the drying ground in his favour. Nicely Henderson's citrage races oil live same mark here as at the Festival, just 31b higher than when ready beatung Wayward Kong 91 at Doncassie (2m 39/3) to Docambos. Northern Startight, before his best when behind the election (10th) in the Midonay, senseits 7th higher in the weights than when winning the Tripleprint Chase at Cheftenham in December (Bertone well beaten and absant since), and Super Tactics is likely to have a bugger say here.
Best on a right-handed track and very effective frest, be returned to something like his best when beating Kadistriof a short-head at Kempton (2m) in February. Monnaise forth has a pleasing wars-brants ratio and has not well here in the past. However, he limitated distressed when disappointing on his reappearance at Cheftenham in January and may be best watched on this occasion.

READING THE RACECARD

13 0-0432 GOOD TIMES 74 (CD.BF.F.G.S) (Mrs O Roberson) B (tall 9-10-0 _______ Receignd number Sk-figure form (F—tell P—pulled up. U—unsessed nder. B—trought down 3—stepped up. R—rehused D—desqualitied), Horse's name. Days since lest outling: F if flat. (B—binisers. V—wsor. H—hood. E—Eyeshed. C—course winner. D—distance winner.

SE—Deaten favourier in laters race; cours on which incree has won (F—Birm, good to firm, hand, G—good S—soft, good to soft, heavy) Owner in brackets Trainer Age and weight. Rider plus, any ellowance Time-kaeper's opeed racing

3.05 GROSVENOR CASINOS LONG DISTANCE HURDLE BBG2 (Grade N: £18,750: 3m) (7)

◆ Teastral will run only if there is sufficient overnight rain to make the ground good or softer, BETTING: 9-4 Galent Moss, 5-2 Pandy's Return, 9-2 Teastral, 11-2 Just Nip, 10-1 Lord Jim, 12-1 others, 1998; MARELLO 7-11-5 P Niven (11-4) Mrs M Reveley 7 ran

1998; MARIELLO 7-11-5 P Niver (11-4) Mrs M Reveley 7 ran PADDY'S RETURN, wither of the Long Walk Hurdle here last season, can mark his telum to Berleshire with a return to winning ways. He is yet to rediscover that sort of form this season after a novice chase campaign was aborted after two starts, but has had to endure gound softer than ideal and is only now getting his optimum conditions. Though unable to take a hand in the firitsh, he ran web when 22 sight to Anzum in the Stayers' Hurdle at Chettenham (Lond Jim puthed up) last time out. Gataint Moss was one of the gambles of the Festival when finishing third, bealen 63-1 by Gamerosa, In the Stalis Casino Hamillard (3mr 2). However, his takes to score off a mark of 125 suggests he ask improvement to make to bouble the selection. Teachart must be a doubtful starter with connections werning that he will only run if rain eases the ground to good or softs. A progressive performer, he impressed when bealung Just Nip (2lb worse oit) 3×1 off a mark of 123 at Sandown (2m 61) in February.

3.40 BRUNSWICK HANDICAP HURDLE

[SHOWCASE RACE AND TOTE TRIFECTA RACE] (£5,948: 2m 110yd) (12) A P McCov 103

BETTING: 7-2 Warm Speil, 9-2 Steer Marz, 8-1 Premier Generation, 8-1 High Invader, Alabang, 10-1 offices, 1988; RUBHAHUNISH 7-10-7 L. Harvey (7-2) M Bosley 8 ran

1988: PUBBAHUNISH 7-10-7 L Harvey (7-2) M Bosley 8 ran HOH INVADER was unable to match strides with the leaders pack leatings in the Supreme Novices: Hurgle at the Cheltenham Festival but can be landled on his return to handleap ranks. A brother to the high-class Deto Sar, his claims rest on his previous? Hurgle at the Cheltenham Festival but can be landled on his return to handleap ranks. A brother to the information Permiting Generation was another to fatter at the Festival (always behind, 18th of 28 to Sir Tatbut in the County Hurgle), but had previously posted some useful effects in newice company, bealing Daveste in a grade two event at Kompton, and he cannot be ruled out. Silver Mitor, sold out of Mary Ricelety b yard for 25,000 types, has a langity absence to overcome, while Alabang can no sort of cace when less seen in the tropertal Cup at Sandown. Topweight Chai-Yo has brice disappointed sonce his reappearance victory at Sandown (2m) in Hovernher but would not surprise a bouncary back with the ground now coming right for hum. Warm Spell, second on both of his starts this season, most recently behind Pealings at Lingfield, is creaping up the weights without winning.

4.20 PARTNERSHIP PARADE NOVICES CHASE (£5,980; 2m 3t 110yd) (3;

1 P-1120 DARK STRANGER 21 (S) (T Neith) M Pipe 8-11-12 _____ A P McCoy [372]
2 62/120 FAGLES REST 46 (S) (Lady Lloyd Webber N Henderson 8-11-12 _ M A Pizzgerald 11/7
3 /b-P46 MASTER CH022LEWIT 12 (T) (S Griffolis) S 6 Shiffitz 9-11-4 _____ 8 Powell _ BETTING: 4-5 Eagles Rest, 11-10 Dail Stranges, 25-1 Maciei Cruzzlewii 1998: THE LAND AGENT 7-11-4 R Guest (8-1) J Mullins: 3 ran

Electricity a match with DARK STRANSER taken to get the befor of Engles Riest. He picked up a couple of minor race: before coming unstack in befor company, notably when 12th to Majardou at Cheltentram test time. There is not match to choose between thin and Engles Rest, who was well beaten when uncesting here test time but had previously finished 16th second to Cheltentram winner Fragship Ulberalles at Kempton (2m). However, but Stranger is proven up at up to three miles whereas Engles Rest has been acting at Ivan miles and could find his stamma stretched on a stift track. Martin Chuzzlewit is lor optimists only.

5.00 MERLIN NOVICES HUNTERS CHASE (£2,762. 3m 110yd) (9)

BETTING: 6-4 Stip ArTime, 11-4 Broad Steams, 6-1 Donalisch Mor, 7-1 Chistit, 10-1 Alex Thuscombe, 14-1 A Right Set Two, 16-1 Judan Olow, 25-1 others

1998: JOY FOR LIFE 7-11-9 Mr S Swange (5-2) Mrs 8 Shange 8 ran

Stronge (S-2) Ms 3 stronge (S-2) Ms 3 stronge (S-2) Ms 3 stronge 8 cm

StriP*NTIME added to his two point-to-point wins this season with an emphatic success in a hunter chase at Wincanton last month, always travelling well and bealing Cornerly Gayle by 13t. He will take plenty of catching here, Broad Searne is certainly consistent but facts at not of tra-listing pace and often finds one too good for him. He can, though, be expected to run his usual solid race and provide the main danger. Chism was 3's; bestind Sup Ni Time when the pair were third and loomt to King Toms at Wincanton last season, and is again likely to be held by the setection. Deviation to Mor represents a top stable and cannot be lightly dismissed.

5.35 BRUNSWICK NOVICES HANDICAP HURDLE

(£5,038: 2m 110yd) (10)

Alhosaam was desperately disappointing when, on his lavoured tast ground, his was tast of seven when taxourite for a would be a factor but that latest run undermines confidence. Peter Bermbo fass more to do than when winning at Folkestone tast turne and tackles faster ground than he has yet encountered. Sadier's Secret was well beattern in a more to de wincomen Peterserice is for KRABLOOMS, who deserves the chance to make amends for his mistean last lime. He seemed to have the race in sale-keeping when anseating his rider at the tast at Fonkwell.

EDEOW! ROB WRIGHT 2.10 Sharbadarid 3.50 Jack 4.25 Mim-Lou-And

2.40 The Campdonian 4.55 Cettic Abbey 5.25 Dream Of Nurmi 3.15 Builder Boy Carl Evans: 4.55 Grimley Gale.

GOING: GOOD (GOOD TO FIRM IN PLACES)

2.10 CAYNHAM SELLING HURDLE (£1,711: 2m) (14 runners)

11-4 Sharhadarid, 3-1 Lotte Mies Lucy, 9-2 Sierra, 11-2 Paciditr Parky, 7-1 Allegiance, 16-1 Toy Box, 20-1 Just A Strof, Micheles, 25-1 others.

2.40 JOHN EDWARDS MEMORIAL NOVICES CHASE (£3,241: 3m) (16)

5-4 Trestract's kreage, T-2 Chief Gale, 4-1 Blown Wind, 9-2 The Campdonian, 18-1 Bay Fair, 25-1 Boishe Baron, Called To The Bar, 33-1 others.

3.15 D.J. PROFILES CONDITIONAL JOCKEYS NOVICES HANDICAP HURDLE (£3,022- 2m 5i 110yd) (18)

5-1 Garrynists, 11-2 Pallsander, 7-1 1 vio Lords, Fally Kright, 8-1 Mershighter, Jahl, 10-1 Badder Boy, Streaming, 12-1 others.

3.50 WEATHERBYS PRINTING SERVICES HANDI-CAP CHASE (£4.143; 2m 4f) (8)

9-4 Gratomi, 11-4 Jernaro, 5-1 Pimberley Place, 7-1 Cookeen Haro, Colone Blazer, 10-1 Jack, 12-1 Inch Emperor, 20-1 Blazes.

4.25 HENLEY HALL GOLD CHALLENGE CUP HANDI-CAP HURBLE (£2,762: 2m) (8)

4.55 CHASE MEREDITH MEMORIAL TROPHY HUNT-ERS CHASE (£1,516: 3m) (5)

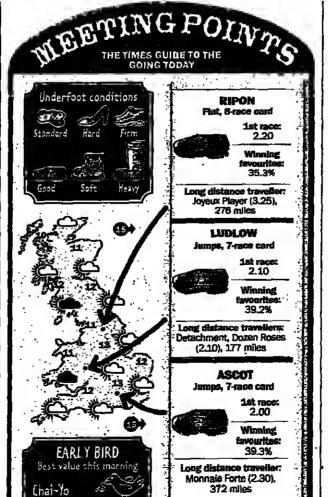

1. STO CELTIC ABBEY 20 (CD.F.G.S) Mrs C Herdinge 11-12-T Mr O S Jones (3)
2 2-11 GRIMLEY GALE 14 (CD.F.G.S) M. Jackson 10-12-Mr J S Jones (3)
3 3P-B LAKESIDE LAD 51 (D.S) 5 Richard Sulfishs 7-12-7 Mr M RODGE (7)
4 -PF3 MY NOMBME 17P (8.CD.F.G.S) D E Nicholis 11-12-2 Mr R Burton (5)
5 1P-3 OLLARDALE 11P (B.D.G.S) W Libeworth 11-12-2 Mr A Dallon (7) 1-3 Strinley Gala, 3-1 Cattic Abbey, 20-1 My Hominec, 25-1 Oliandale, 33-1 Lakeside Lad.

5.25 LEVY BOARD NOVICES HURDLE

(£2,640; 2m) (18) 6-4 Dream Of Numi, 11-4 Don Faynz, 8-1 Groom's Gordon, 18-1 Doigts D'or, 14-1 Glacial River, Chelworth VI, 15-1 Saint Ceella, 20-1 offura.

COURSE SPECIALISTS

TRANERS. N Handerson, 11 winners from 29 runners, 37.9%; Mills V Wil-liams, 8 from 23, 34.8%; C Mortock, 5 from 19, 26.3%, K Balley, 19 from 79, 24.1%, R Curtis, 5 from 23, 21.7%, Mrs J Plyman, 8 from 29, 20.7%. OCKEYS. J. Tizzard, 4 winners from 12 sides, 33.3%; C Ataute, 9 from 45, 20 pg, 0 / Burchell, 5 from 34, 14.7%, B Farrani, 4 from 31, 12.9%, 5 Wynne. 12 from 109, 11.0%; O Gallagher, 4 from 40, 10.0%.

See rececards for detailed going

TV: 2.30-3.40

13.40 Ascot)

6/ with Ladbackes

ASCOT COURSE SPECIALISTS JOCKEYS
A P McCoy
R Johnson
M Williamson
A Thornion
A Negure
R Dunwoody
P Hide
J McCartny
M A Fizzgerald
C Liewellyn Arts %
11 27 3
54 22 2
19 21 1
19 21 1
19 21 1
19 21 1
19 4
21 19 0
86 17,4 34 14,7
82 14,6 TRAINERS

BLINKERED FIRST TIME: Ludlow: 2 10 Little Miss Lucy 2 40 Luker Boy. 4.55 Ollardale. Ripon: 2.50 King's Hussar. 4.35 Golden Age. 5.45 Dayraven.

With a new grandstand under construction on the Rowley Mile course, fixtures have been transferred to the July course. Clerk of the course Nick Lees said: "We've had a desperate winter but the weather has come good now and the track is in wonderful condition with a good covering of grass. The going is absolutely perfect."

RACELINE 09066 168+ COMMENTARY 101 201 ASCOT RIPON LUDLOW 103 203 IRISH 120 220 FULL RESULTS SERVICE 168 Colon Stype mass at all large, MS teach (S) ED

Pick up a Free £25 bet

BRUNSWICK HURDLE 2 miles '/n furlong handicap, Ascot. 3,40pm, Live on BBC TV

4/1 Premier Generation

5/1 Hoh Invader 5/1 Warm Spell

7/1 Alabang 10/1 Dictamn 10/1 Real Estate

6/1 Chai-Yo

11/1 Out Ranking 14/1 Silver Minx 16/1 Alka International

16/1 Shoofk 50/1 Serious

Fach way One Quarter the odds a place 1, 2, 1 Prices subject to fluctuation brailable up to 3,25pm, Tetterpath Bulle 44;1 may apply Non rustics - no bo TONIGHT'S LIVE FOOTBALL 4/5 MAN UTD 2/1 DRAW JUVENTUS 10/3 Old Trafford, Kick off 7.45pm, Live on ITV.

TELEBETTING OFFICE OPEN UNTIL 10.30pm TONIGHT. FOR LATEST WILLIAM HILL ODDS SEE TELETEXT CH4 P601/602/603 RING NOW - BET NOW

0800 44 40 40 [Minimum total Investment per call E10. Diver 18's only.] Free bet is a £25 Straight Forecast on the Ascot 3.40pm today or £25 correct score bet on tonight's

Offending players face stiffer penalties

BY RUSSELL KEMPSON

PLAYERS could be fined heavily for disciplinary offences next season under a new scheme proposed by the Professional Footballers' Association (PFA). If the system is given the go-ahead during the sum-mer, persistent offenders might lose a week's wages should they fail to improve their behaviour. their behaviour.

The move follows a meeting of professional football's Negonation and Consultative Committee, which is made up of representatives from the PFA, the Football League, the Football Association and the FA Premier League. It has been concerned by the mounting lack of discipline throughout the divisions and the need to hit players where it hurts - in their pay packets.

Under the new rules, a proportion of their wages will be docked after they have collected eight bookings. More seri-ous penalties could be imposed for those who are sent off, with fines of 50 per cent of their weekly wages for a first red card, possibly rising 10 75 per cent and t00 per cent for subsequent dismissals.

Players sent off for violent conduct and similar offences that warrant a three-match suspension would lose a week's wages. The maximum penalty would be two weeks' wages - the same level at which players can be pun-ished at the moment.

Gordon Taylor, the PFA chief executive, said yesterday: "We have a responsibility to clean up the game. Players are reluctant to be fined, particularly when they are only doing their job, and my concern is for offences that are not intended fouls at all but simply misjudgment of tackles.

"Players know that suspension is part and parcel of the job and we sympathise with defenders. For them to go caution is practically imposs-

Dennis Wise, the Chelsea captain, would not have fared well had the new system been in operation this season. He has been sent off four times and missed 14 matches because of suspension. The bank balance of Mark Hughes, the Wales and Southampton mid-field player, would also have suffered. He has received 15 cautions and twice been fined £2.000, for reaching tt and 14

bookings. The FA Premier League and Football League have used different disciplinary measures in recent seasons. Two years ago, it was the traditional totting-up procedure, whereby players received one to four points per caution and were punished when they reached totals of 21. 33 and 45.

Last year, players were penalised when they had picked up five, eight and II bookings. If they managed to play five full matches without being cautioned, their last vellow card would be expunged. However, this was discarded last summer. This season, players face suspension when they reach five and eight cautions. Should they get to 11 and t4, they have to appear before an FA commission and can be suspended and/or fined. We have an agreement in principle, but no percentages have been agreed on," Chris Hull, a Football League spokesman, said yesterday.

The minutiae needs to ratified at another meeting in the next three months."

Taylor's main concern is making the fines fair for players in the FA Carling Premiership and those in the lower divisions, whose earnings differ vastly. "We are trying to be even-handed," he said. "Some club chairmen want to pay players nothing when they are through a season without a suspended, but that is wrong." | envisages Jozef playing a con-

High flyer: Fabio Bilica, of Brazil, blocks a shot during the Fifa Youth World Cup match against Spain in Calabar, Nigeria. Spain won 2-0

Venglos decides to remain at Celtic

BY OUR SPORTS STAFF

JOZEF VENGLOS yesterday ended speculation about his future at Celtic by saying that he planned to stay on as coach of the Scottish champions next season.

However, Venglos, who coached Czechoslovakia to the quarter-finals of the 1990 World Cup in Italy, is expected to take on a role as a technical advisor in the long term, once a successor has been found.

"Celtic has every confidence in Jozef Venglos and greatly appreciates his valuable con-tribution to the club," Allan MacDonald, the acting Celtic chief executive, said in a statement.

"This is reflected in his decision to remain as head coach for next season and to build upon his good efforts to date. He has also pledged him-self to work with the new management team to help identify and transfer responsibilities to his successor as seamlessly as possible. "In the longer term the club tinuing role for the club as European technical advisor." There had been speculation in the media that the Slovak trainer would leave at the end of the season, but Venglos said in the statement "I am

Ronaldo, the Brazil forward, will captain Internazionale until the end of the Serie A season. The announcement was made yesterday by Luciano Castellini, the Inter coach, after Ronaldo captained the side for the first pleased to clarify my position. Our plans for next season are Ronaldo only wore the arm-

Uefa responds to protests

THE controversial system of awarding European places to teams that do better in the FA Cup than in the league may soon be a thing of the past. Clubs in the FA Carling Premiership have greeted the new system with dismay and Uefa, European football's governing body, said yesterday that it will discuss the Issue at its executive committee meeting in Israel later this month.

The Premier League asked us if we could change the rules and while we understand their concern, we can't do it for this season," a Uefa spokesman said. "Next season, however, it may well be that only the winner of the FA Cup can have a European place."

Whether they win or lose against Tottenham Hotspur in the FA Cup semi-final on Sunday. Newcastle United will gain automatic entry into the expanded Uefa Cup next season. With Arsenal and Manchester United all but assured of places in the European Cup Champions' League and Tot- a place in Europe

FOUR FA Carling

forced to release their

by Uefa, the European that players cannot be

United, Chelsea, Leeds United and Sheffield

for Sunday, April 25.

alties from Ronaldo, has changed the balance of tenham having already earned a Uefa Cup place by winning the Worthington Cup, Newcastle are the only band against Fiorentina because Giuseppe Bergomi was on the bench, goalkeeper Gianluca Pagliuca was suspended and Javier Zanetti waived his right to wear it. But the 2-0 victory. Inter's first for two months, secured with two pen-ropean place linked to success in the FA Cup.

Because of the overhaul of European club football next season, with the Cup Winners' Cup being absorbed into the Uefa Cup, this means that only fourth place in the Premiership guarantees a team finishing outside the top three team left to profit from the Eu-power. Castellini, a stand-in coach for the last two months was absolutely delighted to accept the captaincy and that shows how attached he is to Inter, to the team shirt he wears and to the values it

We have now agreed with the rest of the team that he will be captain for the match-es ahead, even if Bergomi and Pagliuca are playing."

The victory on Saturday night was Castellini's first match in charge since replac-ing Mircea Lucescu last month. "I'm very pleased with how it went, but the merit isn't mine," he said.

"I can't have changed things in such a short period of time. It was the players, who realised they were in a tough situation. Inter's return to winning ways coincided with Ronaldo's recovery after months of injury problems and Castellini is counting on the Brazilian for the last seven games of the season

Gullit puts Ferguson to the test before

By GEORGE CAULKIN

AFTER more than three months of claim counterclaim, innuendo and rumour, Duncan Ferguson will make his comeback for Newcastle United tonight as Roud Gullit contemplates one of the biggest gambles of his managerial career.

Whitley Bay, of the Unibond League, will provide the oppo-sition at the Newcastle train-ing ground for a closed-doors match that should determine the Scottish striker's level of involvement in the FA Cupsemifinal against Tottenham Holspur on Sunday. Steve Howey, another recent absentee, will

Ferguson's inclusion is the more startling, however, given that Gullit's £8 million signing has played no competitive football since being substituted in Newcastle's 4-2 defeat at Liverpool last December. A groin injury has restricted Ferguson to just five first-team starts after his surprise transfer from Everton the previous month. His recuperation has not been helped by a series of nig-gling, though unrelated, set-backs. Due to play in a reserve game against York City last week, he broke down in training, raising the suggestion that his season could be over. Guilit has now to decide whether the aerial prowess that Ferguson can offer is worth the obvious risk posed by his suspect fitness. A place on the bench at Old Trafford is the likely outcome.

The prospect of Gullin fielding neither of his favoured forwards — as he was forced to do for the 1-1 draw with Totten-harn at St James' Park on Monday - has receded. Alan Shearer, the Newcastle and England captain, has recovered from an ankle injury, saying last night. "I'll be OK for Sunday." Dietmar Hamann, the Germany midfield player, is also nearing full fitness, while Howey, the defensive linchpin of his side, trained with his team-mates yesterday for the first time since damaging his calf against Nottingham Forest last month. Only Stephen Glass is definitely unavailable for selection; he will undergo a knee operation tomorrow.

mari - Cran Cr

Perfect for sightseeing: Trelissick Gardens, Falmouth harbour and town centre Today The Times, in association with the Virgin One account, offers readers the chance to win a lovely cottage in the typical Cornish village of Perranwell Station Smithy Cottage, with its two bedrooms and pretty garden, is the ideal holiday home. Close to Truro and an 18-hole golf course, our prize cottage will provide the lucky winner with the perfect place from which to watch the eclipse of the sun on August 11. HOW TO ENTER Collect 12 Times tokens and two tokens from The Sunday Times and attach them to an entry form which will appear again next Tuesday. Tokens will appear up to April 18 and a bonus token will be published on Friday. The winner will be chosen at random from all entries received by Friday, April 30, 1999. Normal Times Newspapers prize draw rules apply. The terms and conditions will appear

The One account offers a 94-hour, seven-day telephone banking service and, by bringing togethe all your banking and borrowing, gives you the opportunity to save thousands of pounds in interes charges on your mortgage. Even if you are not lucky enough to win our fabulous cottage, you can stiff gain by finding out how much a Virgin One account could save you by making the most of all your money.

the house were strop and the first open the क्ष्मितार सामा व्यवस्था कार्य प्रथम प्रथम है कि विकास के कि विकास करते हैं कि विकास करते हैं कि विकास करते हैं

> 08456 000 00 1 one account

CHANGING TIMES

FOOTBALL IN BRIEF

Premiership clubs could be Norway international players later this month. Norway have a European championship qualifying match against Georgia on April 28. Nils Johan Semb. the manager, said yesterday that he will invoke a ruling governing body, which states included in club matches in a five-day period leading up to internationals. Manchester Wednesday are all affected as they have fixtures scheduled Sepp Blatter, the president of Fifa, the world governing body, yesterday ordered referees at the world youth championship in Nigeria to take action to stop players who feign injury. Blatter made his comments at a press conference in Lagos after being asked what he thought of the behaviour of the Brazil players during their 2-0 group F defeat against Spain in Calabar.

Players should know that they play on grass and not on water," Blatter said. "Referees must give a yellow card for each incident of feigning injury, but at the moment they are not doing this. When players are taken off on a stretcher they appear to be dying, but when their feet touch African soil they suddenly become fit again." he added. Five people were detained in Nigeria yesterday on suspicion of interfering with a stadium generator on Sunday. causing a blackout in the second half of the match between Mexico and Ireland. The suspects were seen near the generator that failed. causing the floodlights to go out early in the second half of the match.

■ Mircea Lucescu, the Romanian who resigned as coach of Internazionale a little more than two weeks ago, has returned for a further spell as coach of Rapid Bucharest, the club announced yesterday. Lucescu, who left Inter immediately after the 4-0 defeat by Sampdoria on SKI SNOW REPORTS Austria Kitzbühel

Obergurgi
St. Anton
Cannada
Lake Louise
France
Alpe d'Huez
Argentiere
Avoriaz
Flaine
La Clusaz
La Plagne
La Tamia
Las Arcs
Megèwe
Méribel
Tiones Stustry Stustry Stustry 4/4 27/3 28/3 27/3 28/3 27/3 28/3 27/3 27/3 27/3 27/3 Tignes Val Thorens Val d'Isère Switzerland Craris Monta Davos Klosters Murran Saas Fee St Montz Verbier Wengen Zermatt United State 20 250 Good 115 285 Good 40 280 Good 70 240 Good 75 230 Good 50 100 Good 45 360 Good Slushy Slushy Slushy Some Slushy Slushy Slushy 28/3 22/3 22/3 27/3 28/3 27/3 28/3 27/3 27/3 Spring Veried Heavy Varied Vaned

Varied Heavy Varied

March 21, takes over from Dumitru Dumitriu, who recently resigned from Rapid, in second place in the Romanian first division.

Nine countries have expressed an interest in staging the first club world championship, Fifa announced yesterday.

Mexico, Turkey. Paraguay. Uruguay, Brazil, Saudi Arabia, Tahiti. China and the United States have all indicated a desire to stage the new competition, scheduled to take place from January 5 to 14 next year. The host country is expected to be selected before the end of

BECKHAM TO SCORE FIRST

MAN. UTD.	N OT	IIN 3-	1 £20	PAYS	£202
MAN.	n ITV. O	ld Traffo	UVE rd: Kick	NTU:	S. pm.
8/11 MAN. UT	ND. 1	(0/3 JU			DRAW
First player to score	1-0	Man. 2-0	. Litd. to 2-1	win by 3-0	3-1
Cole	20/1	22/1	25/1	35/1	35/1
Yorke	20/1	22/1	25/1	35/1	35/1
Beckham	50/1	60/1	66/1	100/1	100/1
Giggs	60/1	66/1	75/1	100/1	100/1
Keane	75/1	80/1	100/1	125/1	125/1
First player to score	1-0	Juves 2-8	ntus to ;	vin by 3-8	3-1
Inzaghi	35/1	80/1	66/1	250/1	200/1
Esnaider	50/1	125/1	100/1	325/1	275/1
Zidane	50/1	125/1	100/1	325/1	275/1
Davids	100/1	250/1	200/1	550/1	475/1
Deschamps	175/1	350/1	275/1	700/1	650/1
Above Match	ise the p ose the l	e Scorec layer with linal score	o'il score re. Good	locki	vi na
These prices we Fee the very latest pe	y kave che ices, page	oged stage Lathretes	er pinces o Más newsp Totelant se	ri request. Isper was p Ir isheriya	rioted,
FOR INST	ANT E	3ETTI	NG F	REPH	IONE

0800 389 2206

adbrokes For a bet, Ladbrokes are favourite.

مكذآ من الاصل

Italy Cervinia Contria

Livigno Switzer

Langer's century puts pressure on West Indies

FROM PAT GIBSON IN ANTIGUA

VIV RICHARDS - or Sir Vivian, as we must call him these days - has agreed to bring his considerable presence to bear on West Indies in the forthcoming seven one-day internacionals against Australia and the World Cup in England in May

His involvement, by the invitation of Pat Rousseau, the president of the West Indies Cricket Board, reflects the cononuing concern about their batting, which could not have been facing a more severe examinadon yesterday as Australia pushed for the victory in the final Test that would level the series and retain their hold on the Frank Worrell Trophy. It follows Richards's contribution to West Indies' famous victory in Barbados, when Brian Lara revealed that his frequent visits to the dressingroom had helped to motivate him and his team. They reached a victory target of 308 with one wicket to spare. They have even more to do this time. Australia, who were already 290 runs ahead when they began the fourth day on 209 for two, eventually challenged them to score 388 to win — or bat through 4½ sessions to draw and thereby regain the trophy - on the back of a century from Justin Langer, achieved in the face of a magnificent spell of bowling with the old ball by the indomitable Curtly Ambrose.

There have been times in this series when Ambrose has appeared to be coming to the end of the road after more SCOREBOARD

AUSTRALIA: First immings 303 i S.R. Waugh 72 not out J.L. Langer 51 G.E.L. Ambrose 5 for 941

Second Invarios
G S Blewest Ibw ib Ambrosa
M J Slater b Walsh
J L Larryer b Hooper
M E Waugh o Jacobs b Ambrose
"5 R Weugh o Jacobs b Ambrose
R T Ponting not out
11 A Healy o Adoms b Hooper
C R Miller c Lars b Walsh...
A C Dale o Hooper b Walsh
S C G MacGill o Perry b Hooper
G O McGrath b Weish
Errors Pot B hall 110

taking only 11 wickets in the first three Tests, he has come back into his own on his home eround. He took five for 94 in Australia's first innings and yesterday claimed the important wickets of the Waugh twins in an exemplary spell of two wickets for nine runs in ten overs, six of them maidens. Ambrose, 35, has been written off before, but he has always insisted that only he will know when to quit and he looked as though he could go on for some time yet as he confounded Mark Waugh, who had scored 65 in a third-wicket partnership of 147 with Langer, and then Steve in successive overs. Not even Ambrose could deny Langer his century, however. He shrugged off the Ambrose when he was in the 90s to complete his third Test century in exactly 54 hours, off 252 balls. He his a six and seven fours.

Langer is yet another of those overseas players who readily admit that they have benefited from playing county cricket. Indeed, the 1.448 runs that he scored for Middlesex last season, at an average of 62.95, had much to do with his recall to the Australia team for the tour of Pakistan last year.

He scored his first Test hundred in Peshawar, when Mark Taylor was making his monumental 334 not out, went on to make an unbeaten 179 against England in Adelaide and now produced his best innings of the series when his captain needed it most.

Steve Waugh was still haunted by what happened in Barbados and Australia's progress was painfully slow, particularly after Hooper had pitched one of his off breaks outside Langer's leg stump and turned it so much that it hit the off.

That was an encouraging sign for Australia, but still they fretted over whether they had enough, scoring only 65 runs in 33 overs before funch and then losing their last five wickets for 32. Three of them fell to Courtney Walsh, giving him 26 in the series and taking him to within II wickets of Kapil Dev's Test record of 434.

LINKS ...

Stewart seeks end to England losing sequence

EVEN with a new electronic score board and an elegantly-shaped roof capping one of the stands, it requires a vivid imagination to mistake the CBFS Stadium in Sharjah for Lord's. Yet it is here, in temperatures approaching 37C and on pitches without a tinge of green, that the countdown to the World Cup begins for England today.

Alec Stewart, the captain, was merely being honest when he said there was little that the selectors can learn from the Coca-Cola Cup over the next fortnight that might alter the thinking for the tournament proper. which begins against Sri Lanka in London NW8 on May 14.

After losing six of the past seven one-day internationals at the end of the Australia tour, however, the importance of linking a few victories together should not be underestimated. If they can repeat the performances of 17 months ago, when a different England side, led by Adam Hollicake, beat India, Pakistan and West Indies, then the World Cup can be undertaken with more optimism.

FROM RICHARD HORSON IN SHARIAH

The squad for the last visit here, in 1997, comprised of players equipped specifically for the conditions, but the stalwart county all-rounders have been replaced since by specialists -the likes of Angus Fraser and Ian Austin who should come into their own in seaming conditions in England. The group who won in Shariah struggled to match that success thereafter.

Stewart emphasised that the priori- With that in mind it must be ty is to win a tournament carrying prize-money of £32,000, to the point of picking the best side for each of the four group matches against Pakistan and India rather than experimenting with new ideas. "If there is a way of looking to tactics we can use back home we will do it, but all the conditions are different." Stewart said.

New cameras brings World Cup into line

AN INNOVATIVE £500,000 camera system, designed to assist the third umpire, is to be used at the World Cup, which starts oext mooth.

The Eogland and Wales Cricket Board hopes that the International Cricket Council will donate about £200,000 for the Panasonic Pana-Eye scheme, with the electronics company contributing the rest of the

The system has been used in South Africa and involves the he was recalled by the selectors.

placing of four fixed cameras level with the stumps at either end of the wicket, making line decisions easier to assess. Salim Malik, the former captain involved in allegations of match-fixing. was yesterday named in Pakistan's 15-man squad for the World Cup. Salim was oot included in the provisional squad, but after a dismal performance by the middle-order batsmen during the tri-nation series in India.

today is the side that is thought most likely to beat Sri Lanka next month. The only complication is a slight back miury to Fraser, although considering the flight from the training camp in Lahore was delayed by 12 hours, including a two-hour wait on the assumed that the XI chosen to face

Pakistan over 50 overs under lights

"I always had the feeling that I would play the World Cup," Salim said yesterday, before flying to the United Arab Emirates for the threenation Sharjah Cup, involving England and India. The selectors also recalled Waqar Younis, the fast bowler, and Mushtaq Ahmed, the leg spiritier.

PARISTAN BOLLAD: Wasm Akram (capton), Seed Anwor, Shahid Abrd, Waphellith Wash, Irzamemushiaq, Isiz Ahmed, Saim Mask, Yousul Youhana, Mon Khan, Saipan Mushtaq, Mushteq Ahmed, Sheath AhMar, Waqar Yourus, Azhar Mahmpod, Abdul Razzak.

of the 15-man squad have ailments. Eight of the team appears to be fixed: Knight and Stewart to open followed Hick. Thorpe, whose recovery from a back problem is crucial, and Fairbrother. Gough and Mullally will take the new ball and Croft is the only specialist spio bowler. Given that Austin or Fraser will be the third seamer, and that Ealham is the roost likely No 7, it leaves the pivotal position at six to be filled. While Hollicake's star has fallen over the winter, Andrew Flintoff has responded emphatically to the challenge. Pakistan provide stiff opposition, having completed a sequence of victo-ries against India over the winter by winning the Pepsi Cup in Bangalore three days ago. A large expatriate community will occupy most of the 12,000 capacity and the absence of Waqar Younis and Mushian Abmed. rested ahead of the World Cup, is unlikely to diminish their prospects. FIXTURIES: April 7: England y Palestan. April 8: India y Palestan April 9: India y England April 11: England y Palestan. April 18: England y Palestan. April 18: England y Palestan. April 18: India y Palestan. April 18: Fisat

Joke falls foul of moral indignation

write here will be deeply shocking I am about to surrender all my credibility as a person of weight, of moral serious ness, as a person equipped to write with judgment on the follies of humankind. But I cannot deny it. I thought it was furny. I still

I laughed at the picture laughed at the grossness, the conceptual wit, the apposite ness, the ludicrous exactness of the mime. The idea of turning a pitch marking into a monstrous line of cocaine had something almost Rabelaisian about it.

I could see that it was going to make a lot of trouble, too. I felt, if anyhing, rather sad about that Robbie Fowler could proba-bly hear a still, small, John e Mesurier voice deep inside him even as he dropped to his knees. You think that's quite wise, sir?" But there are some people who cannot resist a jest. When a jest occurs, there is a pressing almost incontinent need to give it voice.

Oscar Wilde's joke at his trial explaining why he didn't kiss a male acquaintance - "He wasn't even pretty" - became something of his famous last words. I fear that the world may have its revenge on Fowler. This could be his famous last sniff. But be serious, I hear you say. Be responsible. Be mature. What kind of example is this to set for children?

Quite a good one, I am tempted to say. To repay a gibe with a jest is a good thing, certainly better than repaying a gibe with a blow. If Graeme Le Saux had been able to do such a thing. Fowler would not be in the mess

Fowler's caperings before Le Saux — another of his mimes: Powler really is the Marcel Marceau of football - silently and deafeningly accusing Le Saux of homosexuality, were unamusing. They were intended to offend, they were aggressive, they were thoroughly unpleasant. But Le Saux — I am sure a very decent fellow - suffers the tragedy of being an unteasable footballer. He whacks people who. tease him. Being teased is part of being a footballer. Or a stable lad, for that matter. I met an unteasable stable lad the other day. Very good with horses, couldn't stand being teased. He had his initials - T. W. - appliqued oo to the silk of .. his belmet. His colleagues call him Tinky Winky. Fowler couldn't resist a jest against Le Saux, on the Tinky Winky principle, and will deserve a reasonably hefty slap on the wrist as a result. But, all the same, Fowler can show Le Saux

Sports Feature Writer of the Year

how even a malicious joke can be turned on the joker. supporters call him "smackbead" - with his inspired mime. But the sound of condemnation that followed has been extraordinary. I don't recall condemnation of Paul Merson's drinkingman goal celebration, and alcohol claims more lives and causes more misery every year than cocaine. Ask Mersoo if you don't believe me, or Tony Adams. But illegal drugs stir the uices of the serious minded. Fowler was encouraging the use of a lethal drug, how can he do so without hearing the screams of a million addicts. etc. etc. To make a light remark about any drug other than alcohol, the West's. drug of choice, is to turn upon yourself the full battery of moral indignation. It's open season. What about his responsibility to children? For a start, Fowler has no responsibility for children - that's something to do with parents, actually - and for seconds. any child that decides to soort cocaine because a footballer made a dodgy joke is in deep enough trouble without worrying about people such as Robbie Fowler.

It tell you what Fowler's trouble is. It is making jokes. It is falling foul of the global conspiracy of the humour-less. Jokes humanise, jokes civilise, jokes deficet wrath. Jokes give perspective, insight, clarity. Jokes give complexity. Jokes add life-giving layers of possibility. Jokes do not compromise the seriousness: jokes add to a serious intention and make deeper the meaning. Ask Shakespeare if you don't believe me, or Donne, or Joyce, But so much of daily life is organised by the conspira-cies of the jokeless: the dehumanisers, those who dread. perspective balance, thought Lord deliver us from the humourless — I fear Fowler has fallen into their clutches. Moral: don't make jokes Ever. The humouriess always win.

高いなる 大きな 大きな

23

FIXTURES

FOOTBALL Firsk-off 7:30 unless stated European Cup Semi-finals, first leg Dynamo Kiev v Bayert Munich (7 45). Manchester Utd v Juventus (7 45)...

Nationwide Conference

Forest Green v Woking (7.45) ... UNBOND LEAGUE Premier division:
Altricham v Leigh RM, Bishop Auckland v Salyondge, Guseley v Frickley Film divisions Great Harwood v Farsky Cellic Huchrell v Alben, Matock v Whitey Bay
DR MARTENS LEAGUE: Midblend divisleec: Paget v Wester-super-Mane, Softhuf Borough v Stourbodge, Sulton Colcheld v
Shepshed Shepshed RYMAN LEAGUE: First division: Rom-

Borough v Stoutondge, Sultan Coldheid v Shepcheid HYBIAN LEAGUE: First division: Romkerd v Wesidstone, Second division: Romkerd v Wesidstone, Second division: Romkerd v Wesidstone, Second division: Souther v Ford Utid League Cupt Beastfined, second legs Borham Wood v Madenhead. Vandamel Trophy: Semi-fined; Beastfined, Second legs Borham Wood v Madenhead. Vandamel Trophy: Berni-fined; Beastfined, Window and Even where Cupt
Semi-fined; Dulwich Hamfar v Hendon BNDSLEIGH TROPHY: Semi-fined, Brast legs Fernborough v Chellenham (7.45), Entitle Teaties Fa YOUTH CUP: Stadin rough Wirnbledon v Coverity AVON INSURANCE COMBINATION:
First division: Arsenal v Cyrtal Palace
(2.0): Barner v Cambridge (2.0): Bournemouth v Persmouth 2.0). Beardord v Mawas (2.0): Chellenon v Gaingham fat Welfing Itd. 2.0). Coldinates v Norwerh (2.0). Lucation v Deford (2.0). Southempton v Reading Was Harn v Ipsanth (7.45). Winbledon v Semidon. Wycombe v Northampton (2.0). Event
V Semidon. Wycombe v Northampton (2.0). Event
V Semidon. Wycombe v Northampton (2.0). Polymon
V Rosin County (2.0): That division: Bury V Notic County (2.0): That V Resident
V Resident
V Reside

will Te villesensming will the villesensmingerway spartan South Mediands League Premier division: Brazine Spartan Coddington Brook Housev Arcsey Istington St Many's villudorightem Highland League Tot Villeam villesena Rothes villese Thelle Jewson Wessex League Cupt Sent-Anat, second leg: Monerholds villentague Cupt Sent-Anat Court Court Sent-Anat Court Villentague Court Sports VA SPARTAN SOUTH MID-

Certy v Ford Sports FA WOMEN'S PREMIER LEAGUE National division: Croydon v Alfansi JJB Super League Huddersheld v Castleford (7.50) RUGBY UNION

BASEBALL

NATIONAL LEAGUE: Criterinali 8 San Francisco 11 Florida 6 New York Mets 2. Prantosco 11 Princa 6 New York Mess 8
Arsona 6 /1 Innesi, Pitsburgh 2 Montreal 9
St Caus 8 Mohausee 10.

ANERICAN LEAGUE: Kaneas Cry 3
Boston 5, Texas 5 Detroi 11, Baltmore 10
Tampa Bay 7, Seatle 2 Chcago What Sox 8, Oal

BASKETBALL NATIONAL ASSOCIATION (NBA): Charlotte 71 Atlanta 77, Orlando 106 Boston 99, Detrod 86 Indiana 86 Minnesota 100 Dalas 93 San Amono 93 Golden State 85, Los Angeles Lakars 117 Denver 104

CRICKET

ONE-DAY MATCH: The Parte: Glamor-gan 259-4 (50 overs. 5 P James 109, A W Evens 62) Oxford University 138-8 (43 overs) Match shandoned, bad light CURLING ST JOHN, Heer Branswick: World cham-plonehips: Men: Fourth round: Scotland 10 Switzstand? Fifth round: Scotland? Germany & Women: Fifth round: Norway

CYCLING

TOUR OF BASQUE COUNTRY: Second stage (Tolcas to Zales 20-lien) 1 G Figueras (ft) Srr 1 Srrin 21-sec. 2. W Beb (ft) 3 L Jephon (Fr) 4 M Partain (ft) 5 F Salvochell (ft) 6 O Recealin (ft) at at some time Leading overall postitiones: 1 Jackser 8 07 08; 2 Rebeff or some time; 3 B Francisco (Sp) 25-sec. 4 G Figueras (ft) 25:5 U Bohs (Cert. 6, N. Achersold (Switz) both same time.

FOOTBALL

SCOTTISH LEAGUE: Piret division: Post-poned: Chydebank - Greenock Morton SMIRNOFF IRISH LEAGUE: Premier divi-sion: Chromile () Portadizan 3 Cupaniers 0 Gentovan 3 Genavon 2 Linfold 2.

Monday's late results Monday's late results
PA CARLING PREMIERSHIP: Newcaste
Linced: Forenham Holapur 1
NATIONWIDE LEAGUE: Third division: Chailond Street 3 Worksor and Bion 2, Heriow
1 Barking 0, Heriow 1 Herner Homestead
4; Herstam 2 Barelead 3: Hungariard 2
Abrigston Town 0, Loghton 1 Bodford Town
4, Northwood 2 Enginers 1 Trams 0 March
2 Whitem 3 Weisstree 1 Workingham 0 Brachine 0 Third division: Epsom and Swet 0 Thomy 5

HOCKEY KUALA LUMPUR, Meleyele: Azlen Cup: Paintan 5 Welayee 7

ICE HOCKEY NATIONAL LEAGUE (NHLL: Bostor 3 Monited 0 Bullalo 3 Pitsburgh 1, Tamba Bay 4 Ottawa 4 Detrof 3 Anahem 2 Florida 0 Washington 3, Philarbeha 1 New York Rangers 5 Toronso 2 St. Caus 2 Chicago 2

RUGBY LEAGUE

RUGBY UNION ENGLAND A SQUAD (to play Water A at Witerhart on Friday) Backer C Cetting (Goucester), J Williams Harterpris, L Lloyd (Localter), F Waters (Water, P Mersiah (Harterpris), M Shaw (Newsat-Presport Adjuster Senders of the Presponding Prespondi osamean involventarion in white i ex-cacles S Walter (Normanicor) of Daw-son (Saracera) A Steridan (S chronot S Borthwick (Bah) A Sanderson (See A Balding (Leccion I, Moody (Lecci-ner) Replacements: R Tairling, B John-ston, M Powell, O Fertmen to Screecy J Heyler (Ompi), J Rule (Newcasie, A Hazzel (Goucester)

CLIPPER ROUND-THE-WORLD RACE Leg 4a Horg korg to Sneppore, with rices to trash 1, Arel (A Thomson) 700 2 Actiops (K Hamss 707, 3, Chrysotie (I Hedges) 712 4 Mantieus (6 Soties) 716 equal 5, Thermopytes (M Tod) and Taepons (R Hermog) 725; 7, Serius (R Cesn) 727

Taeping (II Ferning) 725; 7, Serical (II Cearl) 777
GRAFHAM WATER, Cambridgeshire for Control And State of Cambridgeshire for carried dayl 480 men rather four races!

1, NiBose and J Chiton 14-bits 2, Ri Watson and M Esis 29, 3 M Sid and M Hamon 32, 4 T Faz; and 5 Rhase 37, 5, 5 Gray and J Aren 39 6 A King and N Donics 41, 420 women faiter four races; 1, H Brown and J Scal 29, 2, N Barnes, and J Marshell 57, 3, 50 are and 13 Scal 29, 2, N Barnes, and J Marshell 57, 3, 50 are and 13 Scal 29, 2, N Barnes, and J Marshell 57, 3, 50 are and 13 Scal 29, 2, N Barnes, and R Geymon 20, 6 C Bastactone and H Marshell 87, Laser methics four haces; 1, A Watsh 15, 2, B Rodes 16, 3 C Brite 17, equal 4, 0 H-roy, A Commander and M Howard 19, Laser methics are in the street of the control of the street of the street

BISLEY CIURS EASTER MEETING: Cuseo's It 1. R Havey ISSUISES: 2. N Harter 1921 3. A Option 149 If 90 yeards: 1. D. A Prigner TS 10; 2. S Core 1410 15; 3. H Harter 74 10 IS; 1,000 yeards: 1. Jeen. 74. S. Strift man 474. C. C. Weeter 73. IS. Strift man aggregate: 1. Cohio 539 40; 2, J Care 2223; 3. Genders 27. 35. Long-range aggregate: 1. Prigner 2323; 2. C. Responsible: 1. Responsible: 1. Prigner 2323; 2. C. Responsible: 1. Responsible: 1. Dr. No. S. 16. 3. Z. S. Responsible: 1. Dr. No. S. 16. 3. Z. S. Responsible: 1. Dr. No. S. 16. 3. Z. S. Responsible: 1. Dr. No. S. 16. 3. Z. S. Responsible: 1. Dr. No. S. 16. 3. Z. S. Responsible: 1. Dr. No. S. 16. 3. Z. S. Responsible: 1. Dr. No. S. 16. 3. Z. S. Responsible: 1. Dr. No. S. 16. Z. S. Responsible: 1. Responsible: 1. Dr. No. S. 16. Z. S. Responsible: 1. Responsible: 1. Dr. No. S. 16. Z. S. Responsible: 1. Resp grand aggregate: 1, Opting 547 63 2, S Shalwood 544 68 3 T Green 544 6

WORD-WATCHING

Auswers from page 38

age of the world.

VERTICLE c) A veriebra. From the Latin diminuove of vertex, it means a ioint. YOUF

(c) To bank, especially in a suppressed manner. Echoic. Cf. waff. YUG (c) In Hindu cosmology, any of the four ages in the duration of the world, the four ages comprising 4.320,000 years and constituting a great yuga (Mahayuga). The Sanskrit word means an

VARICELLA (b) Chicken-pox. An irregular diminutive of variola. "Varicella has been largely confounded with small-pox, of which it has been regarded as a modified variety."

SOLUTION TO WINNING MOVE 1 Rxh7+! Bxh7 2 Rb7 is catastrophic for Black as even 2 ... Rf7 3 Rxf7 Qg8 doesn't help on account of 4 Rf8.

FOR THE RECORD

PLYMOUTH PARVILONES: British Open:
First resent: 5 Davs. (Eng.) to 0 Carles
(Eng.) 5-2 F O'Errer. If hey bit A Buscover
(Eng.) 5-4. M Judge (Broy) to 0 Cale (Wates)
5-4. J Micros (Eng.) to A Davgo (Matto) 5-3. P
Davies (Walson) to M Servines (Walson) 5-1. M
Campbell (Socia) bit M Clark (Eng.) 5-2. M
Campbell (Socia) bit M Clark (Eng.) 5-2. M
Campbell (Socia) bit M Clark (Eng.) 5-2. N
Campbell (Socia) bit M Clark (Eng.) 5-2. M
Campbell (Socia) bit M Clark (Eng.) 5-2. M
Campbell (Socia) bit M Clark (Eng.) 5-1. J White (Eng.) bit J Saed in Neil 5-4. P Hunter (Eng.) bit J British (Eng.) 5-0 G Dott (Sect) bit 0 Role (Eng.) 5-4
M Gray (Eng.) bit J Burnett (Social 5-3)

SPEEDWAY CRAVEN SHIELD: Walverhampton 47 Hgg 43 Coventry 49 King's Lynn 41

TRUSTEE ACTS

SOTTICE is leasely given parameter to e37 of the TRUSTEE Act, 1978 that pay person hering a CLAMM appears on DYTESTE The CLAMM appears on DYTESTE To the E37 TATE of any of the deceased person's whose nation, advises and descriptions are set out below in heavily required to send particulars in writing of the class or antenned because of persons conscioused before the dark specifical; after which done the extent of the deceased will be distributed by the personal residence the extent of the deceased will be distributed by the personal representatives stored the personal representatives moving to personal southern before the personal representatives the claims and fairness of which here here were the personal court to the claims and fairness of which here here.

EPSTEIN - LILLIAN, 2D Elegaton Closs, Salford 7, Manchester, died 21st October 1998, particulars to LIVERSTONE & CO, EATHORAS.

LEGAL NOTICES

CHIMINATINE of EDWARD VALENTINE of Kingswood Rankage Nussing Room, Purse IIII, Kingswood, Sexrey who died on 9th Incasey 1990 particulars to Rosenbergo Soliciours of 274 Kentish Town Road, Louden 14th Jane 1999.

notice.

PREMIER NATIONAL TROPHY: Reading 49 Exercise 41. SOLIASH VIENNA: European funior team championably: Courses-funits: England: 8t. France 3-0 (England names fact N leat-thew (Yorks) bt. G Gautier 8-10, 95, 9-0, 9-2, B Genner (Eurey) bt. R Terrant 9-2, 9-0, 9-0, O Lucyd-Wather (Midde) bt. S Marnt 9-1, 9-3, 9-2; Germany bt Scoland 3-0; Sean-Lit Wates 3-0; The Nestrement's 5t. Finland 2-1. Seas-finale: England bt. Germany 3-0 (England names, final, A Crart Rient's) bt. H. Scetchier 9-2, 9-7, 9-4; Gartes bt. R Schener 9-7, 9-2; V Lathester (SuffoN) bt. S Leides 9-2, 9-7, 9-5; Spain bt. The Nestrelands 3-0. Final: England bt. Spain 3-0 (England names first: Matthew bt. A Marso 9-2, 49-7, 9-6, 8-0. Germ bt. B. Goten 9-2, 8-5; Lathester bt. E. Sado 10-8, 9-0, 9-6.

LISBORE Entors tournment Merc First rounds K. Abarti (Adv) bt A. Lopes-Moron (Sp) 6-4, 6-0; A. Medvedev (Un) bt C. Costa (Sp) 1-8, 6-2, 7-8; A. Portus (Sp) bt P. Lean Port) 6-7; 6-1; F. Mandilla (Sp) bt T. Muster /Audited 6-3, 6-2; Nicovak (Ca) bt G. Bienco (Sp) 7-6; 6-3; A. Costa (Sp) bt F. Caset (Sp) 7-6; 6-3; A. Costa (Sp) bt F. Caset (Sp) 7-6; 7-7; Wesses: Part rounds 8; Schwarz Pastrial bt B. Noorlands (Nesh) O Beraberechilore (Belef 7-5, 3-6, 6-2)

AMPELIA ISLAND, Provide: WTA Beaseth and Lovab characteristics with Beaseth and Lovab characteristics (Arg. 6-3, 6-2; T. Pissik (Soveres) by B. Rippiner (US) 6-3, 1-4, 6-3; L. Caterioh (US) by M.A. Sánohez

Lorenzo (Sp.) 4-6-8-1, 8-4; K Brandt (LIS) bit Transsugam (That) 8-1, 6-2; K Hodictona (Ca) 4-8; 6-3, 7-5; E Transsugam (That) 8-1, 6-2; K Hodictona (Ca) 4-8; 6-3, 7-5; K Brandtova (Lie) bit M Dasies (Can) 6-4, 7-5; N Poetry (Fr) bit M Dasies (Can) 6-4, 7-5; N Poetry (Fr) bit M Dasies (Can) 6-2, 6-3; I Spoetra (Lis) bit S Pleatifies (Austria) 7-5; 6-3; T Styder (Lis) bit S Pleatifies (Austria) 7-5; 6-3; T Styder (Lis) bit S Pleatifies (Par) 6-2, 6-4; C Crisios (Forn) bit N Streetson (Lis) 6-3, 6-2; C Papadald (Gr) bit M A Viorito (Ven) 6-2, 7-6; A Dragorius (Foon) bit N Pestons (Pusis) 6-2, 6-2; S Joyessetian (Can) bit G L Genzie (Sp.) 3-6; 6-2; S Joyessetian (Can) bit G L Genzie (Sp.) 3-6; 6-2; C Pubin (Lis) bit N Past (Ven) 7-5; 6-3; A Fusis (Fr) bit C Macartil (LIS) 6-3; 6-4; J Stack (Sa) bit M Streetson (Swe) bit O Stanovichev (Bul) 6-4; 6-4; J Stack (Sa) bit M Stanovichev (Bul) 6-4; 6-4; J Stanovichev (Bul) 6-4; 6-5; 6-5; 6-6; 6-7; 6-2

LEGAL & PUBLIC NOTICES

0171-782 7344

SUSSE METERS OF THE STATE OF TH

LEGAL NOTICES THE BEOLVINCY ACT 1986 EFOADGUARD LIMITED (PORMSELT WEST ANGLA LIMITED) - IN LIGHTLANDAY CHESTAL PALACETO (1986) In accordance with Enic 4.106, x. Philip Michael Lyon, of Missaux Ne-eille Ausseutt, Again Bossa. Challegarts, Masonin, 1822 I Pl. gire accide that 1 una supolanted Liquidates of Broadgarts' Limber (formerly West Anglia Lindiad), by Setumbe to make a distribution to the creditors of the conjune of the conjune yether the creditors are required to young full details of their failure to the legislator at KPRC, FO few 730, 20 Pairington Street, London ECAA 4PP, United Kinglons on at between the first property which is the last day for proving claims. The fest describe of claims, referred to show, and the chart of the chart should be undivotible and address, the amount of the chairs and address, the amount of the chairs and particulates of how PUBLIC NOTICES poyraci is reprist Greek, that the coefficier of the above compa-ny, which is being volumently would up, are required, on or be-four 21 May 1999, to stand in their reports and addresses and particu-lates of the clusters and of any necu-Notice is also given that the in-tended distribution is a final dis-tribution and will be made without regard to may distinct not made by the last day for proving them. All finals making, in, its disputs-tory hands following the final dis-tribution no conditions which by the fixture at important golf events in the United States and at the major championships for several years. Indeed, one of the most moving sights of the 1997 Masters, when Tiger, his son, won the first major championship in which he competed as a professional, was the sight of them embracing emotionally by the side of the 18th green after Tiger had won by 12 strokes and set a new 72-hole total.

John Hopkins on the family anguish of golf's superstar

Shadow looms over Woods

However, the Masters this week will be the last major championship that Earl will be able to attend for some time. Next Monday, he will begin radiation treatment for prostate cancer. As a result, he will miss the Open Championship at Carnoustie in July and, probably, the US Open at Pinehurst in June.

Though David Duval has eclipsed his compatriot these past six months and recently replaced him at the top of the world rankings. Tiger Woods remains the biggest name in golf, the biggest earner, a young man with a huge following around the world. This has come about as a result of a strategy that Earl and Tida Woods developed for their only son before the prodigy was born. They decided that Tiger would always come first in their relationship and set about planning and executing their predetermined aims.

The lengths to which they went were extraordinary. For example, Earl Woods has revealed how he would stand over Tiger's cot and talk gently to his new-born son while stroking his cheek. Earl Woods, a lover of jazz, made sure that music from the local station was playing on the radio when Tiger was brought home from the hospital. "Jazz is so creative, so melodic," Woods said. "I wanted Tiger to hear it straightaway." Yet as vital a part of successful parenting as bringing up the child is saying goodbye to that child and Woods has been doing that some time now. "I am satisfied and pleased with what I have done for Tiger," Earl Woods said, "but 1 am moving into the background more and more. 1 attend fewer tournaments now and Tiger and I only talk on the telephone once every two or three weeks. I have told him 'live your life, it is yours not mine. He is growing up right in front of our faces. In 24 years, he has gone from being a young adolescent to a young

COMPETITION

Woods embraces his son after Tiger had completed his record-breaking victory at the Masters two years ago

⁶I am satisfied and pleased with what

I have done for Tiger?

man. He is in charge of his Woods admitted that Duvai was probably playing better golf than his son at the moment, but said that did not make Duval the best golfer in the world. "Is the best golfer in the world the one with the most talent or the one with the best results while at his peak? I say David Duval is better than anyone else at the moment, but his overall game needs to improve. It has been up and down. Tiger is in the top ten all the time, he makes cuts, he is in contention. It is only a matter of time before he regains his supremacy.

"Clearly, Tiger is emerging as a domi-nant golfer of his era, one of the young kids who reflect the

Win VIP tickets for

FA Cup semi-finals

Arsenal v Manchester United

or Newcastle v Tottenham oday The Times has teamed up with

FA Cup, to give two lucky readers the chance to win a pair of tickets to the Newcastle v

Tottenham clash at Old Trafford or the Arsenal v

Cup semi-finals on Sunday, April 11. The winners

HOW TO ENTER For your chance to win one pair of tickets for either of the semi-final games call our hotline, below, with the answer to this question:

The winners will be selected at random from all correct entries received

Manchester match at Villa Park in the AXA FA will be guests for lunch and refreshments throughout the afternoon at the stadium.

Who are the current FA Cup holders? The lines will be open until midnight tonight.

Arsenal

Man Utd

0640 678 889

Normal TNL competition rules apply.

WALLS OF STREET

insurance company AXA, sponsors of the

THE FA. CIP

Newcastle

Tottenham

0640 678 890

CHANGING TIMES

Nineties approach to playing golf, young kids who attack. who are very aggressive, long and mature. They have more talent than the guys in the past. They eat properly, take care of their body, do not punish it. This is one of the most talented groups ever and it includes Ernie Els, David Duval, Lee Westwood, Justin Leonard and, of course, Tiger.

Els, for example, is a multital-ented individual who has an inherent ability to shed pressure. Michael Jordan had it, Tiger has it. No other golfer

They are the forerunners of the next generation. Lurking in the woodwork and the weeds are some of the most fantastic golfers 1 have seen. They are going to be rivalling these guys in five years. They will be preponderantly non-white, will come from all over the world. Of those from the US, some will come from the inner cities. This is attributable to Tiger, Tiger made golf cool. Golf is an avenue to stardom for them. Golf is a game they can play for ever. Tiger has faced and worries than any athlete in the history of an individual sport Even Michael Jordan sat on the bench for the Chicago Bulls for two years and did nothing. At the age Jordan was sitting out the bentit. Tiger: was being presented with the problems of being the No I golfer in the world in a sport in which he is the only non-

Problems that he has negotiated with the help and preparation of his father. For his part, Woods can draw satisfaction from knowing that he has done a good job. "Tiger continues to be a better person than he is golfer," he said, "and for that I am grateful that I raised a good person."

www.masters.org -- official site Preview, 7pm (BBC2)

Duval inspires THE SEE TIMES young tigers expectations

FROM JOHN HOPKINS, GOLF CORRESPONDENT IN AUGUSTA

FOR Tiger Woods and Lee Westwood, two young men with the world at their feet, the 63rd Masters is the chance for them to take a big step forward. Woods is determined to demonstrate that the desire to win a second green jacket and second major championship is enough to draw from him a top-drawer performance.
The sub-text for Woods is that such a performance will enable him to regain his rank-ing as the world No I from David Duval. Woods denies being put out by Duval's rise, but he cannot be happy about being asked at every turn whether he acknowledges Duval to be the better player. What Woods said yesterday, when he was asked for the umpteenth time, was: "He is certainly playing better."

Woods said he has played well for some months without having the exceptional sparkle that has marked Duval's golf. He believes his game is much steadier than it used to be. "My bad rounds now are 69s and 70s: they used to be 78s and 79s." He particularly praised his putting, which is so important at Augusta. In the West Coast tournaments before Augusta, where Woods finished first, second and third in three of the five events, he did not three-putt once. Westwood expects to show on his third appearance at Augusta not only that he is comfortable on the course, but that he has judged his prepara-tions to perfection. Westwood has made a slow start to the year after his marriage in January. He has played only 14 competitive rounds, and al-though he finished fifth at the Players Championship, one place better than in 1998, he then went off for a week's holiday whereas last year he moved on to New Orleans and won his first tournament in

There is a fear. in other words, that Westwood may be undertrained here. It is not a charge with which he agrees. The last thing you want to do is to come into a major with a lot of hype surrounding you. so having the week off is the best thing to do," Westwood said. "I am playing as well as [did at this time last year."

THE LAW REPORTS

Subscription Service Published in monthly parts 1999 annual subscription - £130 (New subscribers £105)

Bound volumes available from 1990 at £90 each T&T Clark Ltd 59 George Street Edinburgh EH2 2LQ

Apocalypse soon

April 1999: A meteorite the size of Birmingham strikes Zambia, devastating the Earth. At the moment of impact, a train enters a tunnel just outside Sheffield and one carriage is left uncrushed by the ensuing collapse. The surviving passengers are, however, put into suspended animation. One of them knows how and why but when they awake and find themselves the only. humans alive in a tropical and toxic Yorkshire, they reject her explanation as incredible. Menaced by starving wild dogs (some scenes are truly horrific), they gradually come together and set off in search of a bunker where they believe the authorities have taken refuge. But how many days, months or years were they asleep . . . ?

Channel 4, 9pm

Twas the night before Chrismas (well, it is an American show) and the spirit of Symbolism was stalking the hospital. From the cooler perspective of Easter week, tonight's episode may seem sentimental and overblown, but you're unlikely to be bored. Carter battles to resuscitate an 18-yearbe bored. Carter battles to resuscitate an 18-yearold boy unconscious and not breathing for 20 minutes, only to find that the mother of the now brain-dead youth refuses to allow his organs to be donated, even when a 16-year-old girl dying of fiver failure is brought in. British Dr Corday falls for a classical musician and he for her, but he is on the brink of surgery for prostate cancer, so what to do?
The increasingly obnoxious Romano finally goes too far with Benton and Amanda Lee's obsession with Greene appears to be reaching melidown. with Greene appears to be reaching meltdown. Meanwhile, Ross and Hathaway continue to circle the subject of parenthood.

Channel 4, 10pm

The dilemma faced by Carrie (Sarah Jessica Parker) in tonight's episode presumably reflects the daring nature of the too-often anodyne series.

march? Mán Utd v Juvenius (TTV, 7.30pm)

In bed with Mr Big (Chris Noth), she breaks wind for cuts the cheese as the Americans might say) and immediately rushes out and away. This embarrassment of course cannot be the subject of her next column, but fortunately Miranda (Cynthia Nimm) has not had sex for three months: cue, how often is normal? So that's how women's magazines come up with ideas. Tony Patrick

The Big Match — Live: Manchester United v

Just what might the Old Lady make of the Red Devils? Juventus, alias the Old Lady of Turin, leave Italy for this European Cup semi-final first leg at Old Trafford with the return to come in the Stadio Delle Alpi a fortnight hence. Debilitated not only by a knie injury but also insidious off-the-field disputes. Zinedine Zidane, the Juventus captain and the 1998 world footballer of the year, should nevertheless be available to torment United but the Italians do boast formidable back-up in Edgar Davids, the Holland international, nicknamed Pitbull, so be might just out-tackle Roy Keane io central midfield — and Filippo inzaghi, the Italy international striker. Louise Godfrey

The bangs and whistles that were added to the Reith Lectures last year in the form of a debate involving an audience (wow, gosh) have more trimmings this year in the shape of a travelling lecturer. Anthony Giddens is Director of the London School of Economics and the series title for the lectures this year is Runaway World, the talks being an according to the debatic and the series to the series of the se being an exploration of globalisation. This is the excuse physically to site the lectures in different parts of the world, with the first one coming from London, the next three from Hong Kong, Delhi and Washington respectively. Professor Giddens will also be answering listeners' questions on the Internet from next Monday at this address:

BBC WORLD SERVICE

5.00am The World Today 7.00 World News 7.15 Outlook 7.55

5.00min The World Today 7.00 World News 7.15 Outlook 7.55
My Century 8.00 World News 8.05 World Dusiness Report 8.15
Insight 8.30. Sports International 9.00 World News 9.05
Westway 8.20 Off the Sheft News Of A Nichaspoing 9.35 One Planet 10.00 World News 10.05 Sounds, Right 10.20 Blues World 10.50 Sports Round-Up 11.00 Newsdesk 11.30 British Today 311.45 World Business Report 12.00 Newsdesk
12.30pm Sports International 1.00 World News 1.05 Outlook
1.45 Sports Round-Up 2.00 Newsdoor 3.00 World News 3.05
One Planet 3.30 Meridien-Live 4.00 World News 4.05 Sports
Round-Up 4.15 From Our Own Corresponden 4.30
Jazzinistzz, 5.00 Europe Today 5.30 Performance 6.45 Sports
Round-Up 7.00 World Newsdesk 6.30 Performance 6.45 Sports

Hound-Up 7:00 World News 7:15 Britain Today 7:30 Sports

Own Correspondent 8.45 Off the Shelt: News Of A Kidnapping 9.90 Newshour 10.00 World News 10.05. World Business Teport 10.20 Enterin Today 10.30 Ori Screen 11.00 World News 11.15 Sports Round-Up 11.30 Andy Kershaw's World of Music 12.08 World News 12.45 and Up 11.30 Andy Kershaw's World of Music 12.08 World News 12.65 am Outlook 12.45 (psight 1.00

The World Today 1.30 One Planet 1.55 My Century 2.00 The World Today 2.30 Meridian Live 3.00 The World Today 3.30

World Business Report 3.45 Insight 4.00 The World Today

CLASSIC FM

. fr.

.

insi 30

: :-::

Reith Lectures: Runaway World

RADIO CHOICE

Radio 4. Spm

Supermarket Kisses

Radio 4. 11.30am Anita Dobson stars in this short play by Mark Tuohy, a fringe theatre writer new to radio. The play is more uplifting by its finish than the early pay is more upming by its initial man the earry prospects would suggest and it eleverly overturns, some assumptions that may be made during its opening 15 minutes. Dobson plays a feisty women who is approaching 50 years old and finds most of the fun has gone from her life and her marriage. She celebrates her birthday with fellow supermarket workers Mel (Alison Petritt) and Tom (Paul-Bradley). The worse for drink, the three break into the supermarket Carol hurching, between name the supermarket. Carol lurching between panic. devilment and sexual curiosity. She is about to learn something unexpected about both Tom, and

RADIO 1 (BBC)

6.30am Zoe Ball 9.00 Kevin Greening 12.00 Jo Whiley 2.00pm Mark Raddilla 4.00 Chris Mayles 5.46 Newsbeet 6.00 Dave Pearlos 8.00 Steve Lamaco; The Evening Session 10.00 Movie Update with Mark Kermode 10.10 John Reel 12.00 Gilles Peterson 2.00em Clive Warren 4.00 Scott Mills

RADIO 2 (BBC)

6.00am Sereh Kennedy 7.30 Weke Up to Wogen 9.30 Ken Bruce 12.00 Jimmy Young 2.00pm Ed Stewart 5.05 Johnne 12.00 Mo Dutte 3.0

RADIO 5 LIVE (BBC)

5.00ma Morning Reports 6.00 Breakfast 0.00 Nicky Campbell 12.00 The Midday News with Alian Robb 1.00pm lan Payne 4.00 Drive 7.00 News Extra 7.30 John Invertible's Football Night Coverage of the night's big lootball matches, including the European Cup scraft finals, where Marchester United play Juventus and Dynamo Kiev clash with Beyern Munich, Plus, the Netional Lottery Draw 10.00 Littlefohn. No-nonsense football talk 11.00 Late Night Live 1.00em Up Ali Night

TALK RADIO

6.00mm Big Boys Brealdast 9.00 Scott Chisholm & Sally Jemes 12.00 Let's Talk Pets 1.00pm Anna Raebum 4.00 Citcket England v Pakistan 10.00 James Whale 1.00em Ian Collins

VIRGIN

6.30am. Breaklast Show Team 9.30 Russ Williams 1.00pm Nick Abbot 4.00 Harriet Scott 6.45 Pete and Geoff 10.00 Gary Davies 1.00am James Mentil 4.30 Phil Kennedy

RADIO 3

6.00am Michael Mapphr's Easier Breaklast. Soothing music and information updates 8.00 Henry Kelly 12.00 Lunchtime Requests. Jane Jones: spins listeners', tevourities 2.00pm Concerto, Saint-Seens (Cello Contraute-Cassics and Afternoon Romance 6.30 Newsnight. Headlines, arts news and guests 7.00 Smooth Classics at Seven. John Brunning Introduces easy-listening sounds 9.00 Evening Concert. Debusty (En. Baleau from Petite Suite); Heydri (Symptony No 103 in E flat major); Debus (Volth Concerto); Vaughen Willerms (Symptony No 6 in E minor); Grätinger (Moly on the Shore) 11.00 Mann at Night. Music through 68 the small hours 2.00am Concerto (f) 3.00 Meth Griffiths. The Early Breeklast Show

4.20 Sports Flound-Up

6.00em On Air Arts news and music, including Mozart (Pano Trio in B flat, K502); Schumann (Adagio and Alegro in A flat, Op 70)

9.00 Measterworts with Peter Hobday. Profediev (Violin Sonata No 2, Op 94a); Baritoz (La mort de Cleopatre); Bestiroven (Variations in F, Op 34)

10.30 Artist of the Weets John Tombinson

11.00 Sound Stories: Cathedratis Richard Bater investigates the musical importance of Christ Church Cathedral, Oxford

12.00 Prouse Composer of the Weets British. (f)

1.00pm The Radio 3 Lunchtime Concert Couli Custet, Alen Schiller, plano Quintet No 2 in C menor, Op 115) (f)

Quartet No 2), Faure (Plano Quintet No 2 in C meror, Op 115) (r)

2.00 The BBC Orchestors BBC Philharmonic. Weber (Overture: The Ruler of the Sprits): Elgar (Vlotin Concerto in B minor); Bax (in memorism); Brahms (Symphony No 2 in D)

4.00 Choral Eventong From St Paul's Perish Church, K Street, Washington DC, beatwing Washington Symphonic Brass. Director of music Jeffrey Smith. Organist Scott Destra

5.00 in Tune Sean Raffierty previews the new CD by Jan Garbarek and the Hilliard Ensemble

7.30 Performance on 3 The National Youth Orchestra of Great Britain, under Tadasko Otake, begin their Easter tour with an all-Russian programme at London's Barbican Hall, Lyadov (The Enchanted Lake): Rachmaninov (Symphony No 3 in A minor)

8.20 Book of the Month. An extended review of T.J. Clark's book Farewell to an Idea: Episodes from a Fistory of Modernism, which considers whether modernism and socialism died together 8.40 Concert, part two. Mussongsky, ordin Favel (Picares at an Edithillon)
9.35 Postscripts Clineans Apocatyptica (3/5)
10.00 The Plano Return of the weekly series in which Piers Lane investigates the world of the pieno pest and present

Piers Lane investigates the weary sense in which Piers Lane investigates the world of the pieno pest and present in Market Patrick Wright presents the arts and culture magazine with discussion and review, including Bill Butord of the New Yorker with this regular letter on cultural life across the Alfertic 17:30 Jazz Notes Alyn Shipton talks to tenorist Bobby Wellins, a true voice of British Jazz.

12:00 Through the Night 12:05 Machaut (Dix et eept) 12:15 Erik Tufindberg (Volin Concerto) 12:40 Hemichen (Se mel, Tins, mio bene, Clorie Tins) 1.00 The planist Folmer Jensen plays Kahlau and Weyes 2:15 Mozart (Flure Clustet No 3, K285b) 2:30 Mehler (Symphony No 1) 3:30 Praestorius (Meine Seel erhebt den Heim, German Magnificat) 3:45 Forsyth (Songs from the O'Appelle Velley) 4:00 Spotir (Double Volin Concerto in B minor) 4:39 Gluck (Ballet music: Paridered Bena) 4:40 Schichardt (Concerto in G mnor) 5:00 Chopin (Mezunta, Op 17 No 4) 5:10 Stravinsky (Suite: The Firebrd, 19:45) 5:40 Mozart (Flute Quartet No 2, K266) 5:50 Arnold (Little Skite)

RADIO 4

5.30cm World News 5.35 Shipping Forecast 5.40 inshore Forecast 5.45 Prayer for the Day 5.47 Farming Today Anna Hit presents 6.00 Today with Sue MacGregor and John Humphrys 9.00 Midnivest with the Times columnist Libby Purves 9.45 (LW) Delty Service Director of music Paul Leddington Wright 9.46 (FW) Serial: Just William — The 80th Anniversary Martin Jarvis reads The Bishoo's

Anniversary Martin Jarvis reads The Bishop's Handlerchief, by Richard Crompton

10.00 Women's Hour with Shells McClennon and quests, includes part three of Diary of a Provincial Lady, by EM. Detailed Lady, by E.M. Lessingu.
Africans Abroad Ceroline Swinburne meets Into Africans working as Christian missionaries in Britan who are finding their spiritual message

Africans working as Christian missionaries in Britain who are finding their spritual message lailing on deaf ears

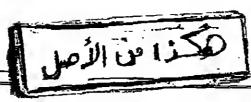

11.30 Supermarker Kisses by Mark Tuoty, See Choice
12.00 (LM) News Headlines; Stipping Forecast
12.00 (FM) News #2.04pm You and Yours With Mark Whitisfier and Tritle Rawkinson
1.00 The World at One with James Cox
1.30 Inespiration! Actain Fart-Davis, Lewis Wolpert.
Susan Greenfield and Sue Nelson join Chris Stuart to explore the world of Innovations, discoveries and inventions. Lest in series
2.00 The Archers Yesterday's edition (r)
2.15 Affarmoon Plans Etiqualite by Laura Bridgeman.
Former lower block residents take stock of their community as they gather to celebrate the demolition of their old home. Staring Rosemery Leach, Arme Certoll and More Hammond
3.00 Gardieners' Question: Time From University College, Dubtin. With Nigel Colborn, John Custnie, Bob Flowerdew and Eric Robson (r)
3.30 What's Yours is Milne. Couples talk to Rory Cellan-Jones about how money reatters effect personal relationships (2M) (r)

personal relationships (2/4) (r)

3.45 This Sceptred lists Anna Massey narrates part 68 of the history of Britain (f)
4.00 Four Walls Jonathan Glanesy explores the architectural and psychological problems of living and working underground. Lest in series (4/4)
4.30 Case Notes Special Godinan Easton reveals how to keep lungs healthy (f)
5.00 PM with Clare English and Cfiris Lowe
6.00 Str O'Clock News
6.00 and advertiser John Tradescent (f)
12.48 Shipping Forecast 1.00 As World Service

FREQUENCY GUIDE. RADIO 1. FM 97.649.8. RADIO 2: FM 88.0-90.2. RADIO 3: FM 912-923. RADIO 4. FM 92.4-94.6. LW 198; MW 720. RADIO 5 LIVE. MW 983, 909; WORLD SERVICE: MW 883; LW 198 (12.45-5.55em). CLASSIC FM, FM 100-102. VIRIGIN RADIO, FM 105.8; MW 1187, 1215. TALK BADIO, MW-1053, 1088. Television and radio listings compiled by Perry Cleveland Pack, lant Hughes, Giffant Massey, Jano Gaggory and Four legs good, two legs also pretty good vationists now seem to VI subscribe to the Orwellian dictum, "Four legs good, two Peter Stringfellow, too, even though his hairstyle indicates that he is trying desperately to metamorphose into an Afghan hound.

Millions of pounds are raised every year to safeguard endangered species and pillaged rainforests. But we have become so attuned to the idea that nature conservation is about saving forests and jungles and animals from man's predatory behaviour that it comes as a jolt when someone like Charles Lane comes along to shake some sense into us - not by preaching "Four legs good, two legs better," but just by reminding us that for nature conservation to have any hope of working we would do wen to app.
would do wen to app.
actually, "Four legs good, two legs would do well to appreciate that, also pretty good".

Conservation (BBC2) was a chilling story, unhysterically told. Lane, who has worked in less bad" - and that curse goes for . Tanzania for more than ten years as an agriculturalist and social scientist, understands why people want to protect endangered wildlife: he understands because he wants to protect it, too.

But Lane thinks that many of us who feel good because we have contributed to, say, saving the rhino, might not feel quite so good if we knew that many conservation programmes are executed at the expense of those indigenous people who once lived on the land now being senced off as wildlife preserves. These are local residents who have lived alongside these elephants and rhinos for centuries and who are often those responsible for preserving the African landscape in a state fit for safari tourists. Lane led us to the Ngorongoro-Conservation Area, Tanzania's is full of wildlife. It is also home to 50,000 indigenous, mostly Masai, residents. But "today," said Lane, "the Masai are told to leave lands they regard as their own. They signed an agreement with the British colonial Governor in 1958 to vacate what is now the nearby Serengen National Park for rights of habitation in perpetuity in what is now called Ngorongoro Conservation Area. However this promise has been broken."

aitetoe Monjor, an elderly Masai, can recall the day. 25 years ago, when his village was evicted from the vast former crater floor in Ngorongoro where they reared cattle and grew crops. "The army arrived in the morning with torches and woke everybody up. They beat the children and forced everybody out of their homes and drove them up the crater wall. Any man that resisted

REVIEW

Joe Joseph

was put in jail. Some cattle got lost and went back, and they were eaten by lions, hyenas, etc. Some of the women who were near term aborted. The people were just shoved up here and left with no shelter, no protection or anything from the elements." Doesn't sound all that dissimilar to what Milosevic gets up to, does it? Lane believes that population pressures and poverty will eventuelsewhere - not instead of David Attenborough's wonderful wildlife films, but alongside them. In Chasing The Tiger (BBCI), Julian Pettifer also showed that if tigers are now threatened with extinction, it is not because of the indigenous people who have shared the tiger's habitat for centuries. Blame, instead, the poachers and traders servicing the Chinese medicine market for tiger products, which supposedly make you ally overthrow this approach to conservation: "We have to look at a particularly disheartening consomething more just, much more tempt for environmental legislacomplex to ensure that Nature's tion. In one Tokyo shop, our man bounty here is preserved for posterwith a hidden camera is offered ity and local people have a future." more than just tiger bones: "This is Similar suffering is being tiger's penis. It's a bit off-colour. inflicted on dispossessed indigethough", which was forgivable nous peoples in other countries under the circumstances - the and on other continents. Passioncircumstances being that it had ate but not pushy. Lane would been detached from its owner and placed in a cellophane bag. "You make a good presenter for a series steep it in white liquor for about investigating similar tensions three to six months and then you drink the liquid." If you're willing to drink that, then frankly you're probably as brave as you'll ever > Typical of Japan's pitiful unconcern for wildlife was a scene from a Japanese TV game show in which three Japanese celebrities were taken 10 a Shanghai restaurant and asked to identify exotic dishes. Could this one be turtle? Or badger? No, it's need to be on this earth.

tiger, actually. A Bengal tiger was then led into the restaurant. Instead of throwing up in disgust. the three female celebrities faked panic in a cutesy, girly, game-show way. The only thing in this scene which looked the least bit dignified was the tiger.

When Siephen Tompkinson reached Bangkok in Great Railway Journeys (BBC2), he made a traditional gesture at a market stall of paying to release a caged bird - a popular Zen form of earning celestial credits. "It's a nice idea," said Tompkinson, who makes a jolly travelling companion providing you can stop him breaking into song, "even if the birds are caught and caged specially to be sold to the likes of me."

This is a near form of recycling. but I'm not sure it's quite what Charles Lane had in mind when he advocated getting the local people personally and financially involved in caring for wildlife.

6.00am Business Breakfast (11649) 7.00 BBC Breakfast News (T) (64668) 9.00 Kilroy (T) (9236858)

9.45 Style Challenge (r) (8807378) .0.10 The Vanessa Show (1) (1641741) 0.55 News; Weather (T) (9108755) (-1.00 Change That (9185804) * 1,25 Can't Cook, Won't Cook (T) (9188991) 15-1.55 News: Weather (T) (6742674)

4/2.00 Going for a Song (8530561) 2.25pm Wipeout (5580246) 2.250 The Weather Show (T) (76085823) 1.00 One O'Clock News (T) (67755) 1.30 Regional News; Weather (58162668) 1.40 Neighbours (T) (16313465)

2.05 Ironside (r) (1201623) 2.55 Through the Keyhole (r) (T) (2277378) 3.25 Children's BBC: Help! It's the Hair Bear Bunch (8607262) 3.45 Starhall Ponies (4313674) 3.50 Hububb (7201674) 4.10 The Adventures of Shirley Holmes (7463484) 4.35 The Demon Headmaster (7602007) 5.00 Newsround (5634804) 5.10 Blue Peter (2568303)

5.35 Neighbours (r) (T) (266378) 6.00 Six O'Clock News: Weather (T) (910) 6.30 Regional News Magazine (262)

Craig Doyle travels to the Island of Phuket in Thailand (7pm)

7.00 Holiday on a Shoestring Craig Doyle explores the Thai island of Phuket and Fenella George finds a golfer's paradise in Marbella. Plus, Tunisia and London's theatres (T) (1787) 7.30 DIY SOS Lowri Turner and Nick Knowles rescue DIY bodgers (T) (674) 8.00 Tomorrow's World Peter Snow and Philippa Fortester launch the Babies of the Millennium series, which will track children born at the start of the next century (T) (662216) 8.50 The National Lottery: Greatest Hits with Angela Griffin (T) (856378)

9.00 Nine O'Clock News; Regional News; Weather (T) (4638) 9.29 National Lottery Update (907755) 9.30 Only Fools and Horses Rodney and

Albert begin to worry that the flat will get a bit overcrowded once Raquel and Del's baby arrives (r) (T) (968484) 0.20 Designer Babies Investigation into the possible consequences of developments in genetic engineering (T) (198303) 1.10 Film 99 with Jonathan Ross Preview of the Baftas (T) (722674) 1.40 School Ties (1992) A Jewish student enrols at an elife high school where he is met by anti-Semitic opposition from a group of bigots. With Chris O'Donnell. Directed by Robert Mandel (T) (801216) 1.20am Weather (5815392) 1.25 BBC News 24 (72734243)

0.20-11,10 The State (198303) 1.20am-1.25 lews Headlines and Weather (58) 5392)

BBC2

7.00am Children's BBC Breeklast Show: Polka Dot Shorts (5562620) · 7.10 The Silver Brumby (9191674) 7.35 Top Cat (8450910) 7.55 Bots Master (8461026) 8.20 Buned Treasure (8176397) 8.40 Trading Places (9416303) 9.08 Rewind (3394649) 9.10 Goober and the Ghost Chasers (7144804) 9.35 Student Bodies (8609736) 10.00 Teletubides (17216) 10.30 FILM: Call of the Wild (20401858) 12.05pm The Roadshow Collection (1780084) 12.30 Working Lunch (77571)

1.00 Brum (38460945) 1.10 The Laisure Hour (I) (1906649) 2.10 Racing from Ascot Coverage of the 2.30 Altied Bank Handicap Steeple-chase, 3.05 Grosvanor Casinos Long Distance Hurdle, and the 3.40 Grosveno

Casinos Partnership Parade Handicap Hurdla (326303) 3.55 News; Weather (T) (7277465) 4.00 Kaye Advice show (7287842)

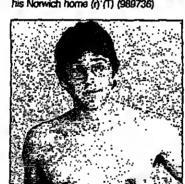

4.25 Ready, Steady, Cook (T) (7360129) 4.55 Esther (r) (T) (9489939)

5.30 Whose House? (939) 6.00 Star Trek; The Next Generation Part one. An explosion blasts Data back to the 1880s (r) (T) (195668)

6.45 Radical Highs Extreme sports magazine (r) (T) (157804) 7.00 Golf 1999 US Mesters preview (8939) 7.30 Sophie Grigson's Herbs A cheese-filled savoury tart with chives, onions and garlic (T) (216)

8.00 House Detectives The tranbridge (5/6) (T) (2277) 8.30 Looking Good The team look into the new technology behind virtual shopping. Last in series (T) (6194)

9.00 Knowing Me, Knowing Yule Chat show host Alan Partridge (Steve Coogan) throws a house party, set in a replica of his Norwich home (r) (1) (989736)

Louis Theroux investigates the American porn industry (9.40pm)

9.40 Louis Therotor's Weird Weekends The intrepid reporter delves into America's pom industry (r) (T) (223823) 10.30 Newsnight (T) (352194)

11.18 Video Nation Shorts (T) (424200) 11.20 The Battle for Congress First in a two-part documentary following two candidates as they compete for a seat in Congress during 1998 (1/2) (394151) 12.00 The Phil Silvers Show Dick Van Dyke

12.25am Weather (2399682) 12.30 BBC Learning Zone: Open University: Food: Whose Choice is it Anyway? 1.00 Healing the Whole 1.30 Healthy Futures: Whose Views Count? 2.00 GCSE Bitesize Revision - German 4.00 Languages: Espana Viva! 5.00 Business and Training: So You Want to Work in Social

sonal Affective Disorder

Care? 5.30 Creating an Effective Team 5.45 Open University: Easing the Pain 6.10 Pathfinding in the Brain 6.35

HTV 5.30am ITV Morning News (57939)

6.00 GMTV (2006688) 9.25 CITV: Tiny Toon Adventures (7169113) 9.50 The Fantastic Voyages of Sinbad the Sailor (7185194) 10.15 Bugs Burny (7447007)

10.25 ITV News Headlines (T); HTV News (2275910)10.30 Slam Dunk Ernest (1995) The haple Ernest is back, this time taking to the basketbell court with a pair of magic shoes. Comedy, starring Jim Varney, Directed by John Cherry (49366007) 12.15pm HTV News (T) (7212991) 12.30 ITV Lunchtime News (1) (2916945)

12.55 Shortland Street Guy stands up to Carmen (1902823) 1.30 Lie Detector Dominic Green invites viewers whose triends or family suspect them of lying to undergo tests to find out (T) (16319649)

1.55 The Jerry Springer Show Outrageous talk show (T) (5277007) 2.40 Wheel of Fortune (T) (2266262) 3.10 ITV News Headlines (T) (5047858)

3.15 HTV News (T) (5046129) 3.20 CTTV: Mopatop's Shop (5954194) 3.30 Teddybears (5711200) 3.40 Jurranii (2697397) 4.05 Hey Amoldi (7261804) 4.35 Wildtrack (7793303)

5.00 Lie Detector (r) (T) (8129) 5.30 WEST: Live and Local Reports from 5.30 WALES: Up Best Pop culture (1) (465)

5.58 HTV Weather (101945) 6.00 HTV News (T) (378) 6.26 HTV Crimestoppers (546129) 6.30 ITV Evening News; Weather (T) (858) 7.00 Coronation Street Curty takes pity on

Tyrone (T) (5465) 7.30 THEICE The Big Match — Live! Manchester United v Juventus (kick-off 7.45pm) (T) (14144007)

The survivors of the catastrophe set about rebuilding their lives (9.45pm)

9.45 The Last Train New six-part drama series set in the aftermath of a huge asteroid collision that destroys human civilisation (1/6) (T) (779281)

10.45 The Big Match Update News of the European Cup semi-finals (279552) 11.00 ITV Nightly News; Weather (T) (919668) 11.20 HTV News and Weather (T) (804397) 11.30 The Big Match Highlights of tonight's European Cup semi-finals (84674)

12.30am Manhunt: The Search for the Night Stalker (TVM 1989) Fact-based chiller recounting the police investigation that led to the arrest of a serial killer terrorising California. Richard Jordan stars. Directed by Bruce Seth Green (115392) 2.15 The Big Match Dynamo Kiev v Bayern

Munich (247392) 4.05 Footbell Extra Football League highlights (r) (2934514) 5.00 Coronation Street (r) (T) (91514)

CENTRAL

As HTV West except: 12.20-12.30pm Central News; Weather (9430620)

12.55 Lie Detector (2828736) 1.25 The Jerry Springer Show (4092552) strong and brave.

2.10-2.40 Echo Point (89065823) 3.15-3.20 Central News; Weather (5046129) 5.30 Shortland Street (485) 6.00-6.30 Central News at Sbc Weather

11.20-11.30 Central News; Weather (804397) 4.05am Central Jobfinder '99 (8524750) 5.20-5.30 Asian Eye (9767934)

WEST COMPINY

As HTV West except: 12.15pm Westcountry News (7212991) 12.27-12.30 Huminations (9455939) 12.55-1.25 Westcountry Lunchtime Live; Weather (2828736)

1.25 The Jerry Springer Show (4092552) 2,10-2.40 Lie Detector (89065823) 3.15-3.20 Westcountry News; Weather (5046129)

4.59-5.00 Birthday People (8043264) 5.30 Peter Gorton for Starters (465) 6.00-6.30 Westcountry Live; Westher (378) 11.20-11.30 Westcountry News; Weather

As HTV West except: 12.15pm-12.30 Meridlen News; Westher (7212991) 5.30 Blg Day Out (2/5) (f) (465) 6.00-6.30 Meridlen Tonight (T) (378) 7.29-7.30 Meridlen Westher (942194) 11.20-11.20 Meridlen News; Weather (T) (804397) 5.00am-5.30 Freescreen (T) (91514)

TO THE RESERVE OF LAND

As HTV West except: 12.19pm Anglia Air Watch (9459755) 12.20-12.30 Anglia News and Weather (9430620) 5.29 Anglia Air (9375084) 5.30-6.00 Wh (11/13) (T) (465) 6.00-6.30 Anglia News (T) (378) 11.19 Anglia Air Watch (428026) 11.20-11.30 Anglia News and Weather (T)

THE REAL PROPERTY.

Starts: 5.55am Sesame Street (r) (28132939) 7.00 The Big Breakfast (69165303) 9.00 The Bigger Breakfast (92306194) 9.05 Saved by the Bell (T) (82152910) 9.30 Sam and Max (93526945) 10.00 Eerie, Indiana: The Other Dimension (T) (83214113) 10.30 CatDog (T) (3900413) 10.45 Boy Meets World (T) (75422295) 11.15 Moesha (T) (78672718) 11.45 The Bigger Breakfast (99369533) 12.00 Dawson's Creek (T) (93443688) 1.00pm Planed Plant (1) (69052262) 1.30 FILM: The Student Prince (T) (78430741) 9.30 Collectors' Lot (1) (99558216) 4.00 Fifteen-to-One (1) (98464823) 4.30 Rickl Lake (1) (99460007) 5.00 Planed Plant (1) (41835620) 5.30 Countdown (1) (99557587) 6.00 Newyddion 6 (T) (49918007) 6.10 Heno (T) (39799552) 7.00 Pobol y Cwm (T) (41855484) 7.30 Newyddion (T) (99461736) 8.00 Flermio (f) (41831804) 8.30 Hawlio (f) (41850939) 9.00 ER (f) (27582007) 10.00 Brookside (f) (51209552) 10.35 Sex end the City (1) (61291755) 11.05 The 11 O'Clock Show (85919858) 11.35 Michael Moore: The Awful Truth (1) (98887842) 12.10am F3 (1) (14268175) 12.45 Football Italia: Mezzanotte (85072507) 3.05 Trans World Sport (24878251) 4.05 Dfwedd

CHANNEL 4 5.50am The Magic Roundabout (2439945)

5.55 Sesame Street (f) (5102007) 7.00 The Big Breakfast (57378) 9.09 The Bigger Breakfast (1) (3486674) 9.05 Saved by the Bell (1) (7147991)

9.30 Sam and Max (68823) 10.00 Eerie, Indiana: The Other Dimension

(T) (39484) 10.30 CatDog (T) (3180620) 10.45 Boy Meets World (T) (369533)

11.15 Moesha (T) (462674) 11.45 The Bigger Breakfast (2446668) 12.00 Sesame Street (T) (44755)

12.30pm Bewitched (r) (T) (79939) 1.00 Pet Rescue Highlights (r) (T) (50465) 1.30 Little Gems (13216216) 1.35 The Three Stooges (r) (95378736)

1.55 It Always Rains on Sunday (1947) A convict is forced to shack up with his married mistress while on the run from the police. With Google Withers. Directed by Robert Harner (T) (21838858)

3.30 Collectors' Lot (1) (736) 4.00 Fifteen-to-One (T) (571) 4.30 Countdown (T) (7792674) 4.55 Ricki Lake (T) (9474007) 5.30 Pet Rescue (1) (197)

James Van Der Beek stars as the 6.00 Dawson's Creek Jen and Vincent have their first date and Andy reveals a terrible family secret to Pacey, while Dawson's parents' marriage seems to heve reached the end of the line (T) (827755) 6.55 T4orce A choice selection of the best bits from last week's T4 (884571) 7.00 Channel 4 News; Weather (T) (563945) 7.55 Dovetales Insight into how the Good Friday peace agreement has affected tourism in Northern Ireland (1) (459874)

8.00 Broaksida (T) (2755) 8.30 Doors to Manual Three view for a weekend in Berlin (6/6) (T) (1262) 9.00 CROICE ER Carter tries in vain to save a teenager's life, then persuade his grieving mother to sanction organ donation (T) (7552) 10.00 CEDICE Sex and the City Mranda rejects celibacy (1) (45484) 10,30 Michael Moore: The Awful Truth Reports from the US (T) (21804) 11,00 The 11 O'Clock Show (8533)

11.30 So Graham Norton With Hollywood star Billy Zane (r) (T) (374736) 12.10am F3 The British Formula Three Championship (r) (7566040)

12.45 Football Italia — Mezzanotte Serie A action (12595798) 3.05 Trans World Sport (2346359) 4.05 Electric Avenue (1/4) (r) (T) (42399507)

4.30 Buildog Drummond Strikes Back (1934) The ex-British Army officer's honeymoon is interrupted by a murder mystery. Adventure, starting Ronald Colman and Loretta Young. Directed by

A ELANNE S

6.00am 5 News and Sport With Becky Anderson (5030129) 7.00 WideWorld Part four. Maggie Philbin explores the island of Madeira (1) (T) (2980945)

7.30 Milkshake! (2778303) 7.35 Dappledown Farm (r): 5 News Update (4109216)

8.00 Alvin and the Chipmunks (r) (8816649) 8.30 Witchworld; 5 News Update (8808620) 9.00 Hot Property (r) (T) (4843945) 9.25 Russell Grant's Postcards (3247113)

9.30 The Oprah Wintrey Show (6836397) 10.20 Sunset Beach Antonio fears that Gabi is dead (T) (4212571) 11.10 Leeza (3984736) 12.00 5 News at Noon (1) (8819736)

12.30pm Family Affairs Sadie shows off her-cookery skills (r) (T): 5 News Update (9932115) 1.00 The Bold and the Beautiful Dylan rescues Jessica and Jasmine (T)

1.30 The Roseanne Show Award-winning entertainment show boasting provocative interviews and hot musical acts, presented by comedian Roseanna; 5 News Update (3953976)

2.00 100 Per Cent Gold (2110533) 2.30 Good Afternoon Daily entertainment; 5 News Update (8876303) 3.30 Johnnie Mee Gibson FBI (TVM 1986)

True story of the FBI's first black female agent, who battles prejudice to prove she can make the grade, Drama, starring Lynn Whitfield, Directed by Bill Duke

5.20 5 News (T) (59228397) 5.30 100 Per Cent (r) (6107200)

6.00 5 News; Weather Round-up of the day's stories, including First on Five (6104113) 6.30 Family Affairs Gabby has a surprise visitor (1): 5 News Update (6195465)

7.00 Knight Rider Michael and KITT race to the rescue of an ex-glittriend wrongly accused of murder. David Hasselhoff stars (r) (2019113)

7.25 Russell Grant's star-gazer visits the Canton of Bern in Switzerland (1612129) of spiders' webs (T); 5 News Update (2671649) 6.05 Another Woman (TVM 1994) A woman is left for dead in an alley after a brutal attack but miraculously survives - unwittingly sperking off a series of events which put her estranged husband in grave danger. Drama, with Justine Bateman, Peter Outerbridge and Kenneth Walsh. Directed by Alan Smythe (T): 5 News Update (10303804) 10.00 Blind Fury (1989) Adventure about a blind ninja wamor out to bring down the ruthless mo: stars who kidnapped his friend's son. Rutger Hauer stars. Directed by Phillip Noyce (8478587)

11.35 Not the Jack Docherty Show With Jack Dee (7742465) 12.15am UK Raw (7/10) (9481682)

12.45 Live and Dangerous Jonathan Gould and Todd Macklin present live coverage of. a top US baseball game, plus Australian Rules (cotball (60648779) 5.30 100 Per Cent (r) (6901779)

VIDEO Plus+ and VIDEO Plus+ codes
The numbers after each programme are for VIDEO Plus+ programming. Just enter the VIDEO Plus+ number(s) for the relevant programme(s) into your video recorder for easy taping.

For more details call VIDEO Plus+ on 0640 750710. Calls charged at 25p per minute at all times.

VIDEO Plus+8, 14 Blacklands Trc, London, SW3 2SP VIDEO Plus+8 is a registered trademark of Genistar Development Corporation. © 1998

CARLTON FOOD

HISTORY

LIVING

Wave 11.00 Dinosaur Hurtors 12.00 Poles

4.00pm Socrets of War: The Gulf War — Secrets in the Sand 5.00 Classic Cere: Austin Heeley 3000 6.00 Om Shifwangdi: The Riddie of Chine's First Empetor 7.00 Playback Tom Robinson 7.30 Bomb to the Beerles: I, Witness — Nice Little Earners

9.00am Food Network Daily 9.30 Coxon's Kirchen College 16.00 From the Ground Up 10.30 Nancy Lam's Wok Wiz 11.00 Worrall

Thorison Cooks 11.30 Ideal Horison Thorison Cooks 11.30 Ideal Horis Cooks 12.00 Food Network Daily 12.30pm A Year al Ballymalce 1.00 Coxon's Kachan College 1.30 Tumer's Tour of Hong Kong 2.00 Mindule's Indian Kitchen 2.30 Food Network

Daily 3.00 Loyo's Louisiana 3.30 Idea Home Cooks 4.00 Thoroughly Modern

8.00am Can'i Cook Won'i Cook 8.30 Animal Rescue 7.00 Professor Bubble 7.25 Callou 7.30 Polks Dot Shorts 7.40 Johnson and Friends 7.50 Babaloo6 7.55 Practica and Frence 7.35 Badealook 7.35 Practical Parenting 9.00 Barney and Frence 8.25 My Zoo 8.30 7my and Crew 8.50 Practical Parenting 9.00 Special Babres 8.30 Home and Away 10.00 The Jeny Springer Show 10.50 Maury Powith 11.40 Brookside 12.10pm Through the Keyhole 12.40 Rescue 911 1.10 Beyond Befer Fact or District 14.0 Market Packet 2.35 Secret

British 4,30 Simply Baking 5.00 Close

SATELLITE, CABLE AND DIGITAL

For further listings see iaturday's Vision KY ONE

.00am Count Duckula (93194) 7.30 mmmy (95129) 8.00 Earthworm Jrn 7620) 8.30 Godzila (86991) 9.00 kenton (80571) 9.30 Satipsons (97309) u.00 Shadow Raders. J'Accuse (71484)
0.30 Xens: Warrior Princess (53281) 11.30
9gend of the Hidden Cdy (48718) 12.00
97281 Epic Adventures (14026) 1.00pm
9rd About You (92465) 1.30 Jeopardy 44262) 2.00 Sally Jessy Rephael (72113)
0.0 Jenny Jones (48754) 4.00 Pokemon 1113) 4.30 Shadow Raders: J'Accuse 397) 5.00 Ster Trek: Voyager (1858) 0.00
menca's Dumbest Christials (2652) 6.30
19015 (8827) 7.09 Seminorus (1857) 7.99 "ends (6842) 7.00 Simpsons (2567) 7.30 impsons (2026) 8.00 Mortal Kombat onquest (39303) 9.00 X Files (53938) 0.00 Miami Uncovered (56026) 11.00 nends (16910) 11.30 Star Trek, Voyage 11945) 12.30mm Law and Order (49224 .30 Long Play (4767137) KY BOX OFFICE

Ly's pay-per-view movie chamists View any firm telephone 0990 80088 KY BOX, OFFICE 1 (Transponder 51) No Devil's Advocate (1997) KY BOX OFFICE 2 (Transponder 60) KY BOX OFFICE 3 (Transponder 59)

phere (1997) Or BOX OFFICE 4 (Transponder 58)

KY PREMIER 90am Charlie's Ghost Story (1994) 82629 8.00 Casper: A Spirited 90inning (1997) (51007) 10.00 A Pig's 49 (1995) (23179) 12.00 Charlie's host Story (1990) (1990) Tissay (1994) (57858) 2.00pm Helio Pein (1987) (38820) 4.00 Caspar: A bitted Seginding (1987) (1804) 8.00 A 8'8 Tale (1985) (9737) 7.30 Bany Jman's Film Night (5736) 0.00 The hamber (1996) (33129) 10.00 Air Fonce re (1997) (33178587) 12.05am re (1997) (33178587) 12.05am labelique (1996) (982:192) 1.55 Journey of Fear (1996) (141243) 3.30 Joe Hunter (1990) (475717)

KY MOVIEMAX to Snowboard Academy (1997) 74) 9-00 Playing to Win (1997) (56129) 11.00 Cosmic Shock (1997) (50113) 1.00 Snowboard Academy (1997) (50945) 3.00 Playing to Win (1997) (59533) 5.00 Cosmic Shock (1997) (83666) 7.00 Recitord Filast if the Frame Fits (1996) (29658) 8.30 E) Noves Week in Review (2910) 6.00 Space Truckers (1997) (34558) 11.00 Shadow Cosmologue (1997) (34558) 11.00 Shadow Conspiracy (1997) (390587) 12.43am Defenders: The Payback (1997) (489668) 2.25 The Truth About Cats and Dogs (1995) (785137) 4.05 Her Deadly Rival (1995) (396953)

SKY CINEMA 4.00pm Sons of the Desert (1933) (7423937) 8.00 Yarasin and the Green Goddoss (1938) (80821820) 7.15 My Fair Lady (1964) (48786533) 10.00 Zardoz (1974) (7724910) 11.50 The Bewedy Adventures of Tom Jones (1976) (1873796) 1.25sm Tires Hours to KB (1954) (13949137) 2.45 The Rainbow (1983) (2451224) 4.40 Anne of Green Gables (1934) (23150514)

FILMFOUR 6.00pm Kes (1970) (8552262) 9.00 French Kiss (1995) (8564007) 10.00 The Oriver (1976) (3058378) 11.40 La Cercia Rouge (1970) (22788688) 2.00am Maurice (1987) (28377595) 4.15 Another Country (1984) (1553974) 6.00 Close

8.00pm Cabin in the Cotion (1932) 93450465) 11.00 Sweet Bird of Youth (1962) (99567735) 1.15em Alfred the Great (1969) (2993934) 3.30 Cabin in the Cotton (1932) (30016408) 6.00 Close SKY SPORTS 1

SKY SPORTS 1

7.00am Sports Centre 7.15 World Wrestling Federation: Live Wire 8.15 You're On Sky Sports 8.00 Racing Netws 9.30 Aerobics 10.00 Golf 11.00 Inside Scottish Football 12.00 Aerobics 12.30pm Super League 2.00 Golf 3.00 Inside Scottish Football 4.00 Boxing Superbouts 5.00 World Wrestling Federation. Shoiguri 6.00 Sports Centre 6.30 Big Fight Countdown 7.00 Rugby League World 8.30 Big Fight Countdown 9.00 Trans World Sport 10.00 Sports Centre 10.15 You're On Sky Sportal 11.00 Big Fight Countdown 11.30 Australian Relly Championship 12.00 Sports Centre 12.15am You're On Sky Sports! 1.00 Rugby League World 2.30 E uropean Tour Weetity 3.00 Sports Centre 3.15 Close Weekly 3.00 Sports Centre 3.15 Close

SKY SPORTS 2 7.00mm Aerobics 7.30 Sports Centre 7.45 Racing News 8.15 Fastrex 8.45 Sports Centre 9.00 Fish TV 10.00 Sports Unimited 11.00 Powerboat and Jetsport World 11.30 V-Max 12.00 Live Cincke 8.00pm Live Cincket 16.00 Golf Edita 12.00 Unbe-serable Sports 12.30am Trans World Sport 1.30 Watersports World 2.30 Unbelleveble Sports 3.00 Australian Raily Championathip 3.30 Sports Centre 3.45 Close

SKY SPORTS 3 12.00am Whesting 1.00pm Fish TV 2.00 Live Snooker 6.00 Australian Rafly 5.30 Golf Weekly 0.00 Watersports World 7.00 Live Snooker 16.00 Unbelievable Sports 10.30 Watersports World 11.30 Close EUROSPORT

7.30em Footbell 12.00 US Gott 1.00pm Equestrantem 2.00 Uve Cycling 4.00 Uve Footbell 6.00 Cycling 8.30 Live Curling 8.30 Start Your Engines 8.30 Footbell 11.30 Start Your Engines 12.30am Close

7.00am Crossroads 7.30 Neighbours 7.55
EasiEnders 8.30 The Bit 9.30 House of Elioti 10.30 Rinoda 11.00 Dallas 11.95
Neighbours 12.255pm EasiEnders 1.00
Bugs 2.00 Dellas 2.55 The Bit 3.55
EasiEnders 4.30 Rinoda 5.00 All Creatures
Great and Small 6.00 Dynasty 7.00 Ever Decressing Cardes 7.40 Last of the Symmer Wine 8.20 Dad's Army 9.00 Men
Behaving Badity 10.20 Hamish Macbeth
11.25 The Bit 12.25am Between the Lines
1.25 Dad's Army 2.00 Man from Aurite
1.25 Dad's Army 2.00 Man from Aurite 25 Dad's Army 2.00 Man from Auntie

GRANADA PLUS 6.00am Within These Wals 7.00 How's Your Father? 7.30 The Odd Couple 8.00 Families 8.30 Mind Your Language 9.00 Classic Coronation Street 9.30 Emm Classic Coronation Street 9.30 Emmerciale Farm 16.00 Upstains, Downstars 11,00 Charle's Angels 12.00 Classic Coronation Street 12.30pm Emmarcials 1.00 Mind Your Language 1.30 Me and My Girl 2.00 Upstains, Downstains 3.00 The Love Boar 4.00 The Professionals 5.00 Charle's Angels 6.00 Emmardale Farm 6.30 Classic Computation Street 2.00 The Professionals Coronation Street 7.00 The Professionals 0.00 The Benny Hill Show 9.00 The Sweeney 10.00 Hale and Pace 10.30 The Cornections 11.00 Men and Motors

5.00pta What's Cooking? 5.30 Gridlock 0.00 My Two Whes 8.30 Cur House 7.00 Shine On, Havey Moor 8.00 Bives and Twos 8.30 Superchels 9.00 Head Over Heels 10.00 Pe in the Sty 11.00 His Street Blues 12.00 My Two Wives 12.30em Gridlock 1.00 Close DISNEY CHANNEL

6.00em Gumm Bears 8.25 Classic Toors 6.35 Tale Spin 7.00 Classic Toors 7.10 Aladrin 7.35 101 Delmanes 8.90 God Troop 8.25 Classic Toons 8.30 Tirron and Pumber 9.00 Ari Attack 9.35 Doug 10.00 Recess 19.15 Peoper Arm 10.30 Ned's Newt 11.00 Smart Guy 11.30 Teen Argel 12.00 Boy Meets World 12.30pm Brotherly Love 1.00 Dinosaurs 1.30 Amazing Amines 1.55 New Adventures of Winnie the Pooh 2.10 Bite Saze 2.20 Bear in the Brg Blue House 2.45 New Adventures of Winnie the Pooh 3.00 The Line Membed 3.30 An Attack 4.00 101 Dalmahans 4.30 Hercules. The TV Show 5.00 Recess 5.15 Papper Ann 5.30 Smert Guy 8.00 Teen Angel 6.30 Boy

Meets World 7.00 FILM: Winnie the Pooh's Most Grand Adventure (1997) 8.15 Honey I Shrunk the Kids: The TV Show 0.00 Dinesaurs 10.00 Home Improvement 10.30 The Wonder Years 11.00 Touched by an Angel 11.50 Classic Toons 12.00 Class FOX KIDS NETWORK

6.00m Masked Fider 6.30 Beetleborgs Metalfs 6.35 Power Rangers Tusto 7.45 Siver Surier 6.10 Montal Kombal 8.35 Moviga 9.00 Goosetumps 9.25 Earle, Indiana 8.50 Oggy and the Cookroaches 10.00 Goosebumps 10.25 Mad Jack the Pirate 10.40 The Scoret Files of the Spy Protes 10.40 the Socret Hies of the Styl Dogs 16.50 Oggy and the Cockroaches 11.00 Goosebumps 11.25 Darms and Gnesher 11.50 Oggy and the Cockroaches 12.00 Goosebumps 12.25pm. The Incredible Hulk 12.50 Oggy and the Cockroaches 1.00 Goosebumps 1.25 Fathasia: Four 1.50 Dogy and the Cockroaches 2.00 Goosebumps 2.25 Value 250 Occurs of the Contract X-Men 2.50 Oggy and the Cockrose hes 3.00 Goosebumps 3.30 X-Press 3.35 Spidemen 4.00 Goosebumps 4.25 Hero Turtles 5.00 Denns and Grasher 5.30 Ace

Ventura 6.00 Donkey Kong Country 6.30 Eek/Straveganza 6.55 Oggy and the (Straverganza 6.50 Idmaches 7.00 Close NICKELODEON 6.00mm Brothers Fub 7.00 Asehir Real Monsters 8.00 Catcleg 9.00 Rugrats 12.00 The Wild Thomberrys 11.00 Sabrina the Feerage Wilch 12.00 Messha 1.00pm Pentord Rejects 2.00 Hey Amold! 2.30 Hey

Amoid 3.00 Rugrats 3.30 Rugrats 4.00 Rugrats 4.00 Rugrass 4.30 Sister Sister 5.00 Salorina the Yeenage Witch 7.00 Close TROUBLE 7.00em USA High 7.30 USA High 9.00 Saved By The Belt: The New Class 8.30 Saved By The Bell The New Class 9.00 Hang Time 9.30 Hang Time 10.00 Sweet Valey High 10.30 Sweet Valey High 11.00 Saved by the Bell The College Years 11.30 Saved by the Bell The College Years 12.00

Class 8.30 Saved by the Belt: The New Class 7.00 Biasi 7.30 USA High BRAVO 8.00om Martial Law 9.00 Cnos 9.30 The Late Lounge 10.00 Extrême Chempionship Wresting 10.30 Erotic Confessions 11.00 FILM: Vitran (1968) 1.00am Brotic Confessors 1.90 The Late Lounge 2.00 Martial Law 3.00 FILM: To Live and Die in

PARAMOUNT COMEDY 7.00pm Cueless 7.30 Carotine in the City 8.00 Mad About You 8.30 Spin City 9.00 Drop the Apout Donkey 9.30 Whose Line is Il Anywey? 10.00 Fraser 10.30 Cheers 11.00 Sentleid 11.30 The Larry Sanders Show 12,30am Garry Shanding's Show 1,30 Nurses 2,00 Almost Perfect 2,30 Tibs and Fibs 3,00 Mork and Mindy 3,30 Abbott

THE SCI-FI CHANNEL SATELLITE: Spin-MIDNIGHT ONLY 7.30am Bloomberg Information Television 8.00 Signings 8.00 Battlestar Galactica 10.00 The Six Million Doker Man 11.00 Dark Shadows 11.90 The Ray Bradbury Theetre 12.90 The Twilight Zone 12.30pm The

and Costello 4.00 Close

Twilight Zone 1.00 Tales of the Unexpected 1.30 Tales of the Unexpected 2.00 Amang Stones 2.30 Mysteries, Mago and Myacles 3.00 Battlester Gelactica 4.00 This Miracles 3.00 Bettlester Gelecika 4.00 The incredible Hulk 5.00 Sightings 6.00 Time Trax 7.00 Quantum Leap 9.00 VR5 9.00 Lext 16.00 FILM: Red Sonja (1985) 11.40 Sel-Focus Special 12.00 PSI Fector Chronicles of the Paranormal 1,00mm FILM: Night of the Creeps (1965) 3.00 Dark Shadows 3.30 Dark Shadows 4.00 C

HOME & LEISURE

6.00am Simply Painting 6.30 Instant Gardens 7.00 Gerden Calendar 7.30 The Restoration Game 8.00 Australia's Strangest Home Improvements 8.30 The Close Guide 6.00 The Joy of Palming 9.30 Grassroots 10.06 Instant Gasdens 10.30 Annoues Trail 11.00 Hooked on Fishing with Paul Young 11.25 The Home and Leisure House 11.30 Total Fighing with Meth Hayes 12.00 These Four Walls 12.30 pm The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air 1,00pm Smash Hiss Poll Winners Parry 3,00 City Guys 3,30 City Guys 4,00 Weird Science 4,30 Weird Science 5,00 in the House 5,30 in the House 8,00 Saved by the Belt The New Our House Down Under 1.00 The Furniture Guys 1.30 Home Savvy 2.00 New Yankee Workshop 2.30 Home Again with Bob Vita 3.00 The Old House with Steve and Norm 3.30 Two's Country DISCOVERY

4.00pm Rex Hunt Fishing Adventures 4.30
The Doarner 5.00 Best of British 0.00
Wiloffe SOS 6.30 Unlamed Amazona 7.30
Flightfine 8.00 Lost Treasures of the Amaent World 9.00 Superirains 10.00 Three Gorges The Biggiest Dam in the World
11.00 Machines that Won the War 12.00 Könkordski 1.00am Flightine 1.30 The Diseman 2.00 Cose LA (1996) 5.15 Short 5.30 Cops 6.00

ANIMAL PLANET

12.00am Hollywood Satan 1.00pm The Blue Beyond 2.00 The Blue Beyond 3.00 The Mystery of the Blue Whale 4.00 Champions of the Wild 4.30 The Blue Wilderness 5.00 Wildfe Rescue 5.30 Wildfe Rescue 0.00 Pet Rescue 7.00 Wildfe SOS 7.30 Wildfe SOS 6.00 Apmet Doctor 9.00 Emergency Vets 8.30 Emergency Vets 10.00 Emergency Vets 10.30 Emergency Vets 11.00 Emergency Vets 11.30 Emergency Vets 12.00 Close

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC 7.00pm Tsaatan, The Reindeer Riders 7.30 Monkeys of Hanuman 8.30 Looters! 9.00

Extreme Earth. The Gift of the Monsoon

10.00 Extreme Earth: Tsunami - Kulle

reside 911 in Seyond Sesen Fact of Fiction 1.40 Mainy Providt 2.30 Special Bables 3.00 The Jerry Springer Show 3.50 Michael Cole 4.40 Home and Away 8.10 Through the Keyhole 5.40 Can'i Cook. Won'i Cook 8.15 The Jerry S pringer Show 7.05 Rescue 9117.35 Animal Rescue 3.00 LA Law 9.00 FILM: Burled Secrets (1996) ZEE TV

5.00am Lolly Pop 5.38 Hey Ha Ho 6.00 Cur and About 6.30 Yoodle-Ae-Co 7.00 Faith 7.30 News 6.00 India Business Report 8.30 Tara 9.00 Ristriey: The Love Stories 10.00 Sofa 11.00 Khoobburst 11.30 Shapah Cup 1999: India v England 3.00pm Hum Paanch 3.30 Sharjah Cup 1999: India v England 7.30 Iris My Choice 9.00 News 8.30 Armenst 9.00 Urdu Drama 16.00 like Pa like 16.30 With 11.00 Punkshera 12.00 News 12.30am Tandoori Masala 1.00 Bangta TV 1.50 Parmartan 2.00 FILM: Novie: Challann En Knyll 4.30 Narsayo

RACING 39

Bradley in race against time to figure in National

SPORT

CRICKET 41 Australia collapse after Langer's defiant century

WEDNESDAY APRIL 7 1999

Juventus earn Ferguson's respect before European Cup semi-final

United prepare to settle score

FOOTBALL CORRESPONDENT

THOMAS HEARNS and the players of Juventus arrived in Manchester yesterday from the different worlds of Detroit and Turin. They had one thing in common. Both found themselves in the unfamiliar position of being consigned to the undercard.

One has come to support a Prince, the others to try to break the hearts of the men who would sacrifice everything else to be kings of Europe. They may be in decline, but that is why they are so dangerous. In their own fields, they are still hit-men, still deadly if underestimated.

As their powers fade, Juventus have made a speciality of striking just when their oppo-nents thought that they had breathed their last. Tune and again, they seem to survive against the odds, qualifying by squeezing through the narrowest of mathemadical loopholes. edging through with implausibly late equalisers

They managed to finish top of group B in the league stages of this season's European Fines threat to players... Ferguson returns...

Cup, even though they only won one match — and that was their last. In the quarter-finals, they were on the brink of elimination to Olympiakos in Greece when Antonio Conte scored minutes from the end to send them through by the narrowest of margins.

No wonder Alex Ferguson. the Manchester United manager, looked grave and earnest yesterday. He knows Juventus well, respects them above all other European sides for their pedigree, their consistency and for the fact that they are on the verge of appearing in their fourth successive European Cup final.

Behind their tales of vulnerability and the fact that they are adrift in mid-table in Serie A. there lurks something grizzly and hard-bitten at the heart of Juventus, an instinct for knowing how to avoid defeat that cannot be beaten out of them.

Thus, while Ferguson was, quite rightly, optimisoc about his team's chances of making a good start by beating them in the first leg of their Europe-an Cup semi-final at Old

Ferguson allows himself a rare smile yesterday as he contemplates the size of United's task against Juventus in the European Cup semi-final first leg at Old Trafford tonight

Trafford tonight, his words exuded caution and respect.

There were no jokes about Italian duplicity this time, no no mind games about diving and scheming, as there had been in the run-up to the matches against Internazionale last month. This time, it's

This time, too, United are ready; sure that they have no reason to feel overawed against the side that has become their measuring stick. If they beat Juventus, the team that has exposed their

When they met in this competition two years ago. United

It appears that they have a full squad to choose from, that Ryan Giggs will take his place on the left wing and Jaap Stam The only real doubt surrounds the choice of Henning Berg or Dutchman.

deficiencies so brutally in the past, they will feel that neither Bayern Munich nor Dynamo Kiev will hold any terrors for played the timid first formers to the Juventus version of Gripper, the school bully. Now, fitter, meaner, stronger and more experienced, United have got the wherewithal to strike back.

his in the centre of defence. Ronny Johnsen to partner the "If we have a good start to TV: Live coverage, ITV, from 7.30.

RADIO: live coverage from both semi-finals Radio 5 Live the game, if we settle into it well, I think we have a fabulous chance." Ferguson said. 'It is never easy in semi-finals. You can make them easy or hard. We hope that the experience we have gathered .) D Beckham, R Keane, P Scholes, R Gloss A Cole, D Yorke JUVENTUS (4-1-1-1) Z Mirkovic, P Montero, M Iuliano, G Pessotto A Conte, D Deschamps, E Davids, A Di Livio Z Zidane. F Inzaghi Referee: M Diaz Vega (Spain) Kick off: 7.45 because we will need that experience against Juventus. The spirit of the team is fantastic. We have proved our quali-We have just to take that final step where we don't want to disappoint in a game like this. We have played them four times now and I think that will help.

"The important thing is to meet the challenge - and we have got a real challenge tomorrow. It is going to be a great game. The priority is to score goals and we won't change our style that way. I don't think Juventus are expecting us to change, either. so we won't be disappointing anyone.

They will be thinking about what I am going to do with my team and I have given my selection a lot of thought. Hopefully, I have got not had the reputation of being defensively technical and I don't think we are particularly good at that, but you can make sure that you have the right type of players in the right areas of the field that can match their best players. "I don't think you can underestimate the value of their experience. They know how not to lose games. They have got the experience not to lose their heads. They have scored two or three late goals in this competition this season, but it is not necessarily a good situation to be in. Sometimes, it runs out for you. Sometimes, even experience can't get you

Ferguson spoke for the rest of his team when he admitted his relief at the absence of Alessandro Del Piero, victim to a long-term knee injury. United will have to face Zinedine

Fowler over his latest prank By Stephen Wood ROBBIE FOWLER was yesterday charged with misconduct by the Football Association for the second time in less than three months. Already facing an FA hearing on Friday concerning his contretemps with Graeme Le Saux, the Chelsea defender, Fowler now has to answer to the authorities over the controversial goal celebration that he indulged in last weekend.

FA charges

Only now can the implica-tions of his "heat of the moment" prank, when he appeared to mimic the actions of a cocaine user in the FA Carling Premiership match with Everton at Anfield, be sinking in. To fall foul of the FA once may be a mistake, but twice in such a short space of time is foolhardy in the extreme Added to the fact that Fowler's penchant for humour is potentially offensive to certain groups, the FA is unlikely to treat him lightly. Fowler has 14 days to respond to this second charge and, if he requests another personal hearing. then his exit from Lancaster Gate on Friday, after the Le Saux case is closed, may not be so much a "goodbye", as "au revoir".

Liverpool last night said that they had fined Fowler "a very substantial amount" and warned him about his future conduct. The FA could also dock another two weeks' wages from Fowler's pay, which is believed to be around £30,000 a week. Moreover, the powers of punishment in this second case are limitless, such is the unprecedented nature of Fowler's celebrations.

He has been fined £900 by Uefa before, for wearing a Tshirt in support of the sacked Liverpool dockers, but this is more serious. The FA could ban Fowler for five or six league matches. Although the two charges will be treated sepaccount the player's previous record if they find him guilty man's fitness, wary of becoming embroiled in another spat about gamesmanship, deterof the second charge. Thus, if he has been punished for the mined to offer nothing but respect even when an Italian Le Saux affair, the repercusjournalist invited him to resions for his acts last weekend peal his opinions about their Machiavellian tendencies. could intensify. If Fowler is banned, he "You get so serious about these things," Ferguson said. "It was just a bit of fun, but it could miss the end of the season and, possibly, the beginning of the next campaign. obviously upset someone. You want to know what I think, Just as he has forced his way back into the England picture. but do you want to pay my his foolishness could not have come at a worse time.

15 VO

TIMESTWO CROSSWORD

No 1685

ACROSS t Vicious critical attack (7.3) 9 Sporting engagement (7)

10 Inca knot system (5) t! Norse thunder god (4) 12 Apparent solar path (8) 14 Bring about restrict (inherit ance) (6) 15 Battle site. 1066 (6) 18 Scrooge's first name (8) 20 Make a to-do (4) 22 Of vision (5) 23 Endanger (7) 2 24 Drudgery (6-4)

DOWN 2 Fit of fever (4) 3 Close fist round (6) 4 Asked (8) 5 Structural beam (5) 6 Inflatable children jump (6,6] 7 Unofficially (3,3.6]

8 Urge strongly (6) 13 Irritating know-all (8) 16 Slat in door (6) 17 Notice, a 1, possibly (6 19 Taken as food (5) 21 Desultory fight; various min-

SOLUTION TO NO 1684 ACROSS: 1 Dust bowl 5 Apse 8 Fragrant 9 Long 11 Curia 12 October 13 Disown 15 Bother 18 Amphora 19 Grail 21 Boom 22 Coquetry 23 Tito 24 Captured DOWN: | Defaced 2 Stair 3 Birmam Wood 4 Wanton 6 Pooh-Bah 7 Edgar 10 Strong suit 14 Support 16 Relayed 17 Pagoda 18 Ambit 20 After

THE BOOKSHOP

NEW TIMES CROSSWORD BOOK AVAILABLE! The Times Two Crosswords Book 8 is now available, at £3.50 inc. p&p. Call 0990 134 459 for credit card orders, or send a cheque payable to News Books, to The Times Bookshop, PO Box 345. Falmouth TRII ZYX barrier in pursuit of dream THERE was no doubting the By STEPHEN WOOD news, even though the pictures confirming it looked last European Cup outing, against Olympiakos, threatattention, positioned sheepishened to sideline him once between Ronaldo and more. Zidane, the France inter-Davor Suker, holding a me-mento of the occasion in his national, has not played since that second leg in Greece and, although Carlos Ancelotti, the With a beige sports jacket, a Juventus coach, was confident

V-neck sweater and his hair combed over a receding hairline, he appeared more like a schoolteacher. In fact, Zinedine Zidane had been named world footballer of the year. It was tempting to check whether his jacket had leather elbow patches to complete the effect. but that would have been too insulting.

His choice of outfit for the Fifa gala was probably handpicked from one of Armani's finest collections for, although he does not act like one, Zidane is truly a star of the world game. He is also feted as one. Alex Ferguson, the Manchester United manager, acknowledges the midfield player's quality and he will be wary of the contribution that Zidane is likely to make for Juventus at Old Trafford tonight, when the old adversaries meet again, this ome in the first leg of their European Cup semi-final. There had been some doubt over Zidane's presence in Manchester, for the knee injury that he sustained in Juventus' the match, the fifth time in three seasons that United have about his fitness, Zidane himself was more circumspect.

"I still have pain in the knee

Zidane ready to cross the pain when I kick the ball," he said. "It means I will have to play through gritted teeth and there is no guarantee that I will last the whole match. But to play against United is so important, so I must make the sacrifices."

Zidane, therefore, will start met Juventus in the competition. In the previous two years. Juventus have held the upper hand, so much so that they have advanced to the final. There, however, they have been beaten twice in succession, something that still rankles with Zidane. "It is the biggest regret of my career so far that f have not won a European Cup with Juventus," he said. "Last season [when they lost to Real Madrid in Amsterdam] was worse, because I wondered if I would ever be recognised as a great player on such a stage. It

Zidane's greatest wish is to win the cup with Juventus

المكنان الاصل

is lucky for me that the World

Cup came along when it did."
Zidane scored two headed goals in the final against Brazil to help to secure the World Cup for France last July. Since then, however, his form for his club has been indifferent. prompting suggestions that his global success had affected his attitude. "It is true that I did not feel quite right after the World Cup, but I know that my head is back together again now," he said.

That is what United are worried about. Zidane has every incentive to perform to his own high standards and so, too, do his team-mates. It is 55 games since their club was knocked out of European com-

Although their defeat to Empoli, the bottom dub in Serie A. last weekend would not suggest it, the Juventus team that walks out at Old Trafford tonight will be a happy collection of players. The internal bickering and disputes that characterised the end of the reign of Marcello Lippi, the former coach, have Ancelotti has reclaimed the faith of the players for the moment and, with rumours abounding that Zidane might leave Turin at the end of the season, Anceloni means to waste no time in capitalising on their relative serenity.

Zidane, but the man who is officially the world's best play-

Ferguson brushed aside

er is not fully lit.

Genuinely low-cost calls to Europe and beyond, all day, every day. Round-the-clock rates, ANYWHERE, ANY TIME.

And many other destinations!

0800 358 2223

